RICHARDSON'S
LITTLE WASHER!
PRICE $5.00.
The Simplest, Cheapest, and most Successful WASHING MACHINE ever invented. Took the FIRST PREMIUM over all other Washing Machines at the Mechanics' Fair at Springfield, Mass., March, 1868; and was Awarded a Silver Medal!
The qualities that place the LITTLE WASHER beyond competition are; its cheapness; its simplicity, (it cannot get out of order, and can be operated by a child;) its lightness, which renders it easily removed; and the perfect manner in which it does its work, adjusting itself to any sized article, from a handkerchief to a bed-quilt, without alteration, and washing clothes perfectly clean without wearing the garments in the least. You can expend all your labor on the soiled parts, without washing the whole garments at the same time.
More than twenty thousand families in New England alone, have already been supplied with this new and useful invention. Persons desiring such a machine as here described, and yet doubtful about its merits, can have a washing done in their own families, by the Agent. The following testimonials need no comment:
Portsmouth, N. H., June 9, 1870.
MR. J. J. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—The test of "Richardson's Little Washer" that I witnessed this week convinced me that we need look no farther for Washing Machines. It does its work perfectly, and is all you say of it. Yours truly, L. W. BREWSTER.
MR. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—I have tested the "Little Washer" and think it a perfect success. MRS. L. E. MARTIN.
MR. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—Having tested the "Little Washer", I fully concur with the above testimonials, and think it superior to any other Washing Machine. It will do all you say of it. R. W. WEBSTER.

Morning Chronicle.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

TO MAKE CAPITAL, to acquire wealth, is one of the most prominent of our natural proclivities. Persons may differ as to what is true capital and the best wealth, but acquisitiveness in every honorable form encouraged. To the farmer, lands and its improvements, live stock, buildings, crops, &c., are real wealth; but the dwellers in town care, only for what represents all, i. e., money. Valuable as both these kinds of property are, there is that which is still more so, and which constitutes what may be called a high class, i. e., knowledge, enlarged sympathies, and all the various possessions of mind, heart, and soul.

Some thinkers set forth the idea, that God's method in the creation of noble beings is by a series of evolutions from very insignificant forms of animal life upwards through the various stages to the highest. It surely is not difficult to discover that this method is very apparent in the various processes by which wealth is obtained. If I place a hen where she can get worms, grain, &c., eggs are obtained. I can take the eggs and produce an increase of live stock, which I can sell for money—or, I can eat them to the nourishment of my physical frame, which is the tool by which my mind works and grows. I do not hesitate to say then when I see a hen gobbling up a worm, or a cow eating grass, that these are only some of the lower processes, like links in a great chain—the higher of which are the noblest aspirations and acquirements of which our natures are capable.

We then greatly err if we ever suppose that the ultimatum of wealth is reached by the successful agriculturemen or the banker:—stopping at either of these points and folding the arms, a man soon finds that the glorious eminence which he has reached is only an extended bog of thick clay—loose and thin enough to swamp him; and there is no retracing of steps. At such a point as this, all the deep researches of the Political Economist are shown to be but dreamy vagaries, and perhaps a shameful folding up of noble faculties.

But make one vigorous effort of self denial; use the portion so far gained, a wide spread beneficence in every conceivable form; lay hold of the hand of the Guide in those regions, whose keen gaze will direct your vision beyond all the illusions of the lower path-way; and whose expert steps will prevent the least clog or soil from adhering to the feet.

They are the noble men who diligently keep the wheels of industry in motion; and this should be the prevailing American idea, viz: don't let property, money, talents, or advantages rust.

Yours truly, "4th of JULY."

THE ONEIDA.—A private letter from Yokohama furnishes a few items of interest concerning the lost Oneida and her officers. The day before his departure Commander Williams passed with the family of the United States Minister DeLong, and during this social intercourse spoke cheerfully of the approaching voyage and of the pleasure he anticipated in meeting the loved ones at home. Mr. DeLong expressed a wish that the Oneida should delay sailing a day or two on account of some troubles in the interior which might require his interference, and the commander replied that he would gladly comply providing the minister would give the necessary order; this, however, the latter declined doing.

On the morning of January 21st, Mr. DeLong called upon his friend at the hotel, and subsequently lunched with him on board the Oneida. While at the table in the mess room Lieutenant Commander Stewart came in, and after the customary salutes were interchanged, remarked, "I wish to God I had a plank and permission to go ashore!" Both DeLong and Williams insisted that he should explain himself, but he evaded their questions and seemed disinclined to renew the subject. In the light of the terrible event which followed, this reluctance to go to sea on the part of so brave an officer as Stewart must be construed into a premonition of coming doom.

The letter states that the commander had almost concluded to postpone sailing till next morning, disliking to go out of port at night, but that his officers were anxious to get away, and he yielded to their importunities and ordered the ship underway at four P. M. According to the account of his servant, Commander Williams was sitting in his private cabin reading when the collision occurred and a sailor who watched the Oneida sink, says that at the moment the bridge touched the water and the final plunge began, he saw him lean his face upon his hands in attitude of prayer.—Missouri Republican.

☞ West Point has a colored cadet who has passed a successful examination. His name is James William Smith and he came from the formerly troublesome State of South Carolina.

—A dog in Ripley County, Indiana, has taken a fancy to a venerable gander, and the strangely assorted pair abide together by day and night.

From the Georgia Republican.

THE NEW ATTORNEY-GENERAL.—In our last issue we alluded to the fact that President Grant had appointed Hon. Amos T. Akerman, of Elbert county, Attorney-General. Mr. Akerman is a native of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, and a graduate of Dartmouth College. He removed to Georgia before he was 21 years of age, and was for a short time a tutor in the family of J. McPherson Berrien, with whom he read law. Soon after he was admitted to the Bar, he removed to Elberton, Elbert county, where he has since resided.

He is about 46 years of age. He has gained a high reputation at the bar, and now stands second to no lawyer in the State. He has met Toombs and Ben. Hill at the bar for several years, and is acknowledged to be their peer. We predict that he will gain a high position as a lawyer before the Supreme Court of the United States.

He is a man of unblemished character, and is a member of the Presbyterian church. He is a Republican from principle and we believe occupies very much the same position as Senator Edmunds of Vermont. Before the war he was a Whig and bitterly opposed the rebellion. He remained true to the Union until he was in danger of being conscripted, when Gov. Brown gave him a "bomb proof" position on the staff of Gen. Toombs. He did not see "service," but remained at home most of the time. At the close of the war he advised his friends to accept the situation, and publicly advocated the Congressional plan of reconstruction, claiming that Congress had the Constitutional right to reconstruct the Southern States.

He was a member of the Constitutional Convention, and Chairman of the Judiciary Committee. His report to the Convention was admitted to be one of great ability.

He was one of the eleven men who voted against striking out the clause which explicitly gave the right of office to all voters—a clause which if it had remained would have saved us from many of our subsequent troubles. After the colored members were expelled from the General Assembly, he made an argument before the Supreme Court of the State, in favor of the right of colored men to hold office, which gave great satisfaction to the Republicans. He was appointed United States District Attorney for Georgia but a few months since and immediately took a high position.

Mr. Akerman's advancement has been rapid, but he has honored every position he has held. President Grant will find him an able and honest man, and a wise and safe counsellor.

—A promising young shaver of five or six years was reading his lesson at school, one day, in the deliberate manner for which urchins of that age are somewhat remarkable. As he proceeded with the task he came upon the passage, "Keep thy tongue from evil and thy lips from guile," Master Hopeful drawled out, "Keep—thy—tongue—from—evil—and—thy—lips—from—girls."

SEASONABLE PRUNING.—A good gardener must have foresight. He should be able to see in imagination the tree a year ahead of its real growth, and prune in advance of the necessity of the tree. This will prevent much of the temporary injury which undoubtedly flows from severe pruning all at once, and which, if annually continued, is a great evil. A dozen branches well developed, and having the ability to display all their leafy charms to the admiring sunlight, will be worth much more to the plant than double the number closely interfering with one another.

THE LORRAINE VEGETABLE
CATHARTIC PILL.
DR. LORRAINE'S VEGETABLE PILL,
—OR—
LA MEDICINE CURATIVE.
Mild, Certain, Safe, Efficient. It is far the best Cathartic remedy yet discovered, and at once relieves and invigorates all the vital functions, without causing injury to any of them. The most complete success has long attended its use in many localities; and it is now offered to the general public with the conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it. It produces little or no pain; leaves the organs free from irritation, and never over taxes or excites the nervous system. In all diseases of the skin blood, stomach, liver, kidneys,—of children, and in many difficulties peculiar to women, it brings prompt relief and certain cure. The best physicians recommend and prescribe it; and no person who once uses it will voluntarily return to the use of any other cathartic.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MEDICAL MADNESS.
LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself is the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the divine hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jy4w

The mail route between Exeter and Chester has been discontinued.

The Exeter News Letter says that within a few weeks, four pairs of twin children have been born in South Kingston, and more may be expected soon. The last 'brace of twin boys' was born on the 16th ult., under these circumstances: the father was out of the State; the mother was alone in a lonely house, situated quite a distance from any inhabitant; and there, far from highway and without human assistance, she gave birth to a nice pair of twin boys, clothed them as well as circumstances would allow, built a fire, made for herself a cup of tea, and retired to rest. The husband returned home in a short time, and was jubilant by reason of the increased number of his family and their happy condition. The name of the happy father is Albert S. Gowen.

A Post of the Grand Army of the Republic has been organized in Exeter. In the 26th in the State, and is known as Encampment Moses N. Collins, in memory and in honor of Col. Collins, of the 11th N. H. Volunteers, who was killed at the battle of the Wilderness, May 6, 1864. The same evening Post No. 27 was established at Mason Village.

From Concord we learn that Hon. Nathaniel Gordon of Exeter is a candidate for the Republican Gubernatorial nomination.

A Concord Letter of Tuesday, to the Boston Journal says:—"Gen. Marston of Exeter is in Concord this evening, and is warmly greeted by his old friends and soldier boys. The General has not yet made up his decision in relation to his appointment as Governor of Idaho. The indications are that he will accept it."

Hon. John P. Hale is slowly recovering from the effects of his severe illness, and his friends hope to see him soon look Hale once more.

The farmers of Hampton and adjoining towns were invited to witness the operation of several different mowing machines at Hampton last week. Notwithstanding the excessive heat of the day, some two hundred "sons of toil" assembled to witness the trial. Mr. E. B. Philbrick of Rye was on hand with his Buckeye, Kelly & Gardner of Exeter, showed up their Wood Machine, Getchell of Exeter run the Kniffin, and also a new machine The Advance, J. M. Weare of Seabrook exhibited his one and two horse Clipper Machines, and J. T. Brown of Hampton and I. S. Cram of Hampton Falls, were on hand with a Granite Machine. The Agents agreed on a committee of three, composed of Messrs. C. N. Healey of Stratham, Stephen Brown of Kensington and Jewett Page of North Hampton, to judge of the comparative merits of the different machines. The field selected for the trial was on the farm of R. F. Williams, Esq., and was a piece of very heavy, badly lodged clover, on which the stones were poorly picked. In their report, publicly made on the ground, the Committee gave decided preference to the Granite Machine, as doing the work better than any other machine present. The Clipper was pronounced the second best, and the Buckeye the third.

Hiram Jones, the Newmarket murderer, is not an Irishman, but was born in Maine, of American parents. He was formerly a great drinker, and as a correspondent of the Newburyport Herald well says, "if we would not have our young men grow up to be murderers, we must remove from them the intoxicating cup and other temptations to vice and crime."

—John Quill says: — "Why can't people cultivate sociability and good nature? Here was a fellow the other night got tearing mad and organized a riot, just because a fellow who sat behind him at the theatre, put his feet upon his shoulder and spit on his high hat. Some men have such cold and unsympathetic natures that they can't bear a little genial humor in their fellow beings."

—All efforts to make hay by gaslight have failed; but it is discovered that wild oats can be sown under its benign and cheerful rays.

—A journal printed in the interior, calls the delegations of Indians in Washington an assemblage of "eminent American scalpists."

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is even restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a sticky sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make other preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, nor injure the hair, but, on the contrary, gives it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

The great steamboat race on the Mississippi was won by the R. E. Lee, she making the run from New Orleans to St. Louis in 3 days, 18 hours and 14 minutes, and beating the time of the Natchez on her last trip 3 hours and 44 minutes, and the time of the once champion, James M. White, 4 hours and 45 minutes. The Natchez in this contest lost 36 minutes by the breaking of a pump, and was laid up 6 hours by a fog. The captain claims that the running time of the Natchez was 20 minutes less than that of the R. E. Lee.

The annexation of the city of Mobile to the State of Mississippi is talked of.

GETTING DOWN.—There is a steep hill in Greene, Maine not far from the river, traversed by a road now unused, concerning which a very amusing story is told. A Dutch pedler, travelling through the town with a one-horse team, selling laces, ribbons, toys, and knicknacks generally, arrived at its summit one day, and, overlooking the valley below, thought his horse hardly strong enough to hold back the load down so steep a hill. But his ingenious Dutch intellect soon conceived how to do it. Unharnessing the animal, he led him gently down the declivity, and returned to draw the cart down himself! Getting between the shafts, and with one grasped in each hand, he started on the descent—slowly and cautiously at first, but the heavy load soon gaining impetus, and impelling him forward, he furnished no more restraint to its progress than a feather before the wind. Down it came—faster and faster, and faster and faster flew the Dutchman's feet, keeping time with one of the liveliest quicksteps ever composed, till, finally, out of breath, and wholly exhausted, he fell, the cart passing harmlessly over him in its unchecked career, and plunging with fearful velocity into the valley below, where it brought up in a demoralized condition, its contents scattered about in the utmost confusion.

EXTRAORDINARY RELIGIOUS REVIVAL.—A very remarkable religious revival is in progress in the Baptist Church at Rondout, New York, of which Rev. Wm. H. Evans is pastor. It began about the middle of November and has increased in extent and interest ever since. So remarkable and numerous are the conversions, says the Poughkeepsie Eagle, that the influence of the meetings are felt for many miles, both in and out of Ulster county. Five hundred and fifty persons have already been forward for prayers, and over four hundred have united with the church on probation. Among the converts are those of all ages, from 79 to 9. Hotel keepers, wholesale and retail liquor dealers and confirmed inebriates have ceased their traffic in and use of liquor. Whole families have been brought out together, and in some cases as many as nine in a family. A large number of Roman Catholics are also among those who have been converted. People flock to Rondout from adjoining towns and villages, and the excitement increases daily.

THE GEM CHURN.—We were present at an exhibition of this new Churn at the Franklin House on Wednesday evening. Fresh, sweet cream, from the farm of Wm. P. Jones, Esq., was taken from an ice-chest and put into the churn. Aaron Young, Esq., who knows what cream is,—and butter, too,—took the time. Butter appeared in about a minute, and was gathered, hard and firm, ready for salting, in 2 3-4 minutes. It should be remembered that the cream was fresh and sweet. The butter was not touched by the hand, and came from the churn perfectly free from buttermilk, and with a rich, coarse grain. The churn was cleansed in a few moments, without a hand being put into it at all; it is easy to work and there is nothing about it to get out of order; and it does the work of butter making better than any churn we have ever seen. Speaking of the Gem, the Taunton (Mass.) Gazette says:—

The Patent Churn.—We understand that the proprietorship of the patent right for Massachusetts of the "Gem Churn," which we have heretofore noticed, has been disposed of to a competent company consisting of Messrs. Gaius Dean, Chas. T. Robinson, A. L. Bliss, and Benj. D. Albro, who will commence the manufacture of the butter makers as soon as mechanical arrangements can be effected for the purpose. This will add another branch to the mechanical industry of the city, of which we have already so many diversified interests, and our farmers and mechanics who have cows will have the opportunity of procuring what we may call an almost indispensable labor saving household utensil, a churn that will produce better ready for the table in five minutes, untouched by hand. This, our lady friends and housekeepers know to be a desideratum in preparing nice butter, which is far superior to that from the home dairies, made in the old-fashioned way, and much of it from the best of cream spoiled in making. This is no poetry or imagination, but plain matter of fact, as any one interested can ascertain by obtaining a churn; or witnessing its operation.

The patent rights for Rhode Island and Maine were also disposed of at Taunton; and rights for several of the Middle States had previously been sold. Those who may feel interested in this invention will have an opportunity to see it work this evening at the Franklin House, at half past 7 o'clock, when another dish of cream will be churned.

BASE BALL.—The Granite States won another victory on Wednesday over the Whipple club of Kittery. Score, Granites 38, Waipples 14. There was heavy striking on both sides. Hackett of the Granite States made two fine double plays at first base, getting one liner hot from the bat. The Whipples have a good nine and know how to keep quiet, which we are sorry to say is not the case with some of the Granite State nine. Grant of the Whipples made a pretty double play at first base, and the fielders took nearly all the balls within their reach. Dow made the only home run of the game.

ACCIDENTS IN DOVER ON THE FOURTH. As the First Light Battery, Capt. Frank F. Davis, was firing the evening salute, about 7 o'clock, with two pieces, Charles E. Follet and A. H. Hadley, being spongers to the first piece, and Frank Whitehouse, vent holder, a premature discharge occurred by reason of the vent not being properly held.

At the instant of the discharge, Hadley, who stood on the left of the gun, was just beyond the reach of serious injury, though he was hit in the breast by the end of the ramrod, which Follet, who stood on the right, held in his hand. The latter had his right arm blown clean off above the elbow, and he was blown some distance from the gun, and was otherwise severely injured.

About 8 o'clock in the evening the arm was amputated, but during the night he died of his injuries. He was a young man about twenty-two years old and unmarried.

Hadley was badly injured and may not recover.

Moses F. Young was in the barroom of the Franklin House, when Roscoe G. Rose, who had evidently been drinking, entered and at once proposed to improvise a fight between himself and Young. Young refused to agree to the encounter, and Rose threatened to kill him unless he would fight; Young warned him to keep off, telling him he would defend himself if assaulted, but Rose still pressed upon him when Young fired one charge of his revolver which took effect in the neck of his assailant. Fortunately it did not prove fatal.

At a melee in an Irish drinking house it is said that a knife somehow got awkwardly in a man's eye, and by some unfortunate turn or twist, turned out the eye upon the owner's cheek.—Bee.

☞ There is to be an excursion down river, Sunday evening next. Sacred music by Harlow's Band.

A telegram, dated Tien-tsin, June 25th, gives the particulars of a terrible massacre of Christians, by the natives, at Pekin, on June 24th.

AN INTERESTING RESORT.—Lovers of natural history will find much to gratify them at No. 486 Washington Street, near Boylston Street, Boston, where Mr. C. G. Brewster's Natural History Store is now located, removed from Tremont Street. The largest stock of choice kinds of cage birds in Boston is to be found here—the sweetest singers and of most beautiful plumage—and a variety of curious birds that must delight those interested in ornithology. There are numbers of rare birds stuffed, Mr. Brewster doing much in preserving birds and animals, a museum of which he exhibits. There are besides strange reptiles, as like life as possible, preserved, and aquariums full of fishes of many kinds. Besides all these, are cabinets of minerals and shells of rare and beautiful sorts, that afford pleasure to the visitor, the whole forming an interesting point to visit for the citizen and the stranger within our gates, to whom Mr. Brewster is always politely attentive.—Boston Am. Union.

STABBING AFFRAY IN SEABROOK.—An altercation occurred in Seabrook, on Friday evening last, between an intoxicated man named William Wiley, and two young men named Smith and Ricker, in course of which Wiley was knocked down by Smith and then assaulted by Ricker. When Ricker was taken from Wiley the latter was found to be stabbed in several places in the side. A physician dressed Wiley's wounds, which are not considered dangerous. Smith and Ricker were committed to jail in default of $500 bail, which Smith procured on the morning of the 4th. Their examination will be held on the 23d inst.—Newburyport Herald.

While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. As a cure for Pimples on the Face, Eruptions, Blotches, Scrofulous diseases, and "Liver Complaint" or Biliousness, it has never been equaled. Sold by druggists. The Genuine has Dr. Pierce's private Government Revenue Stamp, on the outside wrapper.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Living Machine.

Injure the main spring of a watch, and every portion of the works become disordered. The human stomach is to the human system what that elastic piece of metal is to a chronometer. It influences the action of the other organs, and contrib ts to a certain degree, the whole living machine. The comparison may be carried fu rther, for as the weakness of other imperfections of the man spring is indicated on the face of the timepiece, so also is the weakness or other disorder of the stomach betrayed by the face of the invalid. The complexion is sallow or faded, the eyes are deficient in lustre and intelligence, and there is a worn, anxious expression in the whole countenance which tell as plainly as a written words could do, that the great nourishing organ whose office it is to minister to the wants of the body, and to sustain and renew all its parts, is not performing its duty.

It requires renovating and regulating, and to accomplish this end HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS may be truly said to be the one thing needful. The broken main spring of a watch may be replaced by a new one, but the stomach can only be repaired and strengthened, and this is one of the objects of the famous vegetable restorative which for eighteen years has been waging a successful contest with dyspepsia in all climates.

As a specific for indigestion it stands alone. When the resources of the pharmacopœia have been exhausted, without, at best, doing more than mitigating the complaint, a course of these wholesome and palatable, yet powerful, stomachic effects a perfect and permanent cure. In all cases of dyspepsia the liver is more or less disordered, and upon this important gland, as well as upon the stomach and bowels, the Bitters act with singular distinctness, regulating and reinvigorating every secretive and assimilating organ on which bodily and mental health depend.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung diseases in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a test. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia of Fifteen Years, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Fever, that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended a PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the color it imparts natural.

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye,

Proposals For Wood—Marcellus Bufford, Clerk

☞ Stephen H. Simes Esq. announces his retirement from the dry goods business in October next, in which he will then have been engaged 50 years. A half century is a very long term; and no man has a clearer record than Mr. Simes, who has our best wishes for long life and happiness.

STEAMER APPLEDORE is to make a trip by moonlight this evening, starting from Pier Wharf at 8 o'clock. Harlow's Marine Band will furnish music for the occasion; and with the smooth sea which results from the long continuance of light weather lately, the excursionists ought to have a good time.

BAILEY'S MENAGERIE AND CIRCUS is said to be the largest in the country. It has five accomplished lady performers, twenty-five male performers, and trick horses and ponies, claimed to be the finest and most intelligent ever under canvas. The wild animals are numerous, and many of them very rare. The double show makes a procession a mile long.

☞ We have never known Green Peas so scarce here on the 4th of July, as this year. The first native marrowfats we hear of in our market, sold July 6th at 60 cts. per peck. New Potatoes are in good supply, and of good quality and size,—early rose and other varieties, at 60 cts. per peck. It is surprising that our farmers do not pay more attention to raising early vegetables for their own table and the market.

☞ A light trotting wagon, for the road, weighing 183 lbs., from the manufactory of Came Brothers in this city, was exhibited in front of the Post Office on Wednesday, and the design and workmanship received general approval. It is furnished with a patent sheet iron seat, and steel axles, tires, &c. The colors are lake and carmine, set off with gilt, and the trimming black enamelled leather,—the customer ordering the wagon not liking the prevailing entire black. Another idea of his is, that the shaft-bolts are screwed up with thumb-nuts, so as to shift for pole easily. This is probably one of the lightest carriages ever built in the State, and is one of Cames' best.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.—At a meeting of the Society, Tuesday evening, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That the very efficient and valuable aid rendered the Society by the excellent and correct performances of Mr. Cushing and his associates of the Orchestra, during the season just closed, merits special notice and recognition—therefore, in token of our high appreciation of said performances, the cordial thanks of the members of this Society, individually and collectively, are hereby presented to Mr. Cushing and each of his associates, with the hope that we shall long be favored with their assistance.

Resolved, That we hereby express to Mr. Pearson our grateful acknowledgements for the able and instructive manner in which he has, during the past season, conducted the performances of the Society:—and we also tender our thanks to Mr. Tilton and Miss Plumer for their very valuable services at the piano, during the season just closed.

The Society had previously expressed their thanks to the church officers of the Middle Street Baptist Society, for the use of their fine church and organ. Mr. Pearson, by his ability as a conductor and his efforts to improve the Society, Mr. Tilton, as pianist during most of season, and Miss Plumer, who presided with skill and taste after Mr. Tilton's withdrawal, all earned the thanks they received.

During the evening Mr. Cushing appeared in the hall, by request, and was presented by Mr. T. S. Nowell, on behalf of the Society, with a purse of $30, as a slight token of their appreciation of his earnest labors in the cause of music, as well as of his ability as a musician and orchestral leader. Mr. Cushing was somewhat taken aback, but responded appropriately and with feeling, assuring the Society that their gift had a value for him, as a token of their approbation and good will, far higher than its intrinsic worth.—The orchestra has been a potent auxiliary in the Society, and helped largely to arouse the interest in music of a high order, which has been apparently waning here for a long time past.

The music to be practised the coming season was spoken of, the Oratorio of The Creation seeming to have the preference. Taking up an Oratorio is a bold step, but if the Society keeps up and increases its interest in the work, it will be a successful one. Adjourned to September 1st.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

RYE, July 5th.

The 4th passed off without anything unusual transpiring, excepting the muster of the Antiques and Horribles, which was, if anything, more of the horrible than last year; while as to the Antique part, it appeared as if some of the establishments propelled by horse power never could have had any claim to antiquity, for the reason that the like was never seen or heard of before,—and it is doubtful if ingenuity can construct the like again. About twenty-five nondescript vehicles were in the procession, and it would puzzle a first-class city reporter to describe what they looked like, or what it was intended they should represent. Visitors at the beach said they never saw the like before, and appeared to enjoy the display as much as the natives. It did not cost the town anything to get it up, and no premiums were offered for the worst or best looking turn out, but it seemed as if each individual youngster tried his best to get up a very ludicrous show—and they succeeded.

The season at the Beach has opened auspiciously, and already a large number are settled for the heated term at the various hotels and private houses. There were seventy-five guests at the Farragut and Atlantic Houses on Sunday, and doubtless many more will arrive this week at all the houses. The Ocean House did not open until the 4th, but a large number of rooms are already engaged, and it will soon look lively at that popular resort. Considerable company arrived at the Sea View House, Saturday.

The farmers are ready to cut their grass as soon as the weather will permit. The crop is heavy. The weather has been cool for some days past, and fires have been almost a necessity at times. R.

☞ The Concord & Portsmouth Railroad Stockholders will be paid to-day, (Thursday) at the office of William H. Hackett, the July dividend of three and a half dollars per share.

RICHARDSON'S
LITTLE WASHER!
PRICE $5.00.
The Simplest, Cheapest, and most Successful WASHING MACHINE ever invented. Took the FIRST FREMIUM over all other Washing Machines at the Mechanics' Fair at Springfield, Mass., March, 1868; and was Awarded a Silver Medal!
☞ The qualities that place the LITTLE WASHER beyond competition are; its cheapness (its simplicity, (it cannot get out of order, and can be operated by a child); its lightness, which renders it easily removed; and the perfect manner in which it does its work, adjusting itself to any sized article, from a handkerchief to a bed-quilt, without alteration, and washing clothes perfectly clean without wearing the garments in the least. You can expend all your labor on the soiled parts, without washing the whole garments at the same time.
More than twenty thousand families in New England alone, have already been supplied with this new and useful invention. Persons desiring such a machine as here described, and yet doubtful about its merits, can have a washing done in their own families, by the Agent. The following testimonials need no comment:

Portsmouth, N. H., June 9, 1870.

MR. J. J. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—The test of "Richardson's Little Washer" that I witnessed this week convinced me that we need look no farther for Washing Machines. It does its work perfectly, and is all you say of it. Yours truly, L. W. BREWSTER.

MR. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—I have tested the "Little Washer" and think it a perfect success. MRS. L. E. MARTIN.

MR. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—Having tested the "Little Washer", I fully concur with the above testimonials, and think it superior to any other Washing Machine. It will do all you say of it. R. W. WEBSTER.

J. J. HATLINGER, Sole Agent for Portsmouth.

HEADQUARTERS AT PORTSMOUTH:—SWEETSER & CLARK'S, 46 Market Street; OXFORD & JOHNSTON'S, Grocers, 78 State St. and 52 1-2 Middle Street; and D. H. MONTGOMERY'S Music Store, Daniel St., where machines can be seen, and orders left for the Agent to call at houses to demonstrate its qualities. je16tf

Morning Chronicle.

ONLY A BOY.

Only a boy with his noise and fun,
The veriest mystery under the sun;
As brimful of mischief, and wit, and glee,
As ever a human frame can be,
And as hard to manage as—what? ah, me!
Tis hard to tell,
Yet we love him well.

Only a boy, with his fearful tread,
Who cannot be driven, but must be led,
Who troubles the neighbors' dogs and cats,
And tears more clothes,and spoils more hats,
Loses more kites, and tops, and bats,
Than would stack a store
For a year or more.

Only a boy, with his wild, strange ways,
With his idle hours, or his busy days;
With his queer remarks, and his odd replies,
Sometimes foolish, and sometimes wise,
Often brilliant for one of his size,
As a meteor hurled
From the planet world.

Only a boy, who will be a man,
If nature goes on with her first great plan—
If intemperance, or some fatal snare,
Conspire not to rob us of this,our heir,
Our blessing, our trouble, our rest, our care,
Our torment, our joy!
Only a boy.

SLUGS ON ROSE BUSHES. — For two or three years past insects have turned the beauty of the queen of flowers into deformity, and have changed the ornaments of the door yard and lawn into unsightly bushes, sparsely covered with the faded rags of their former verdure. So general and so great have been their ravages, that many have given up their rose bushes in despair. But the rose is too beautiful in itself, too dear in its association to be given up without a struggle.

When the bushes have been invested with the slug, they should be closely watched and the pests killed as soon as discovered. If the worms have become so numerous as to make the task of picking burdensome,with sprinkler and syringe shower the bushes with a strong solution of whale-oil soap and water, two pounds of the soap to fifteen gallons of water. Be careful to reach all the leaves, both on the upper and under sides. For this purpose a syringe is the best.

Other preparations sometimes used are white hellebore, lime and ashes, and flour of sulphur, mixed or separate. Where these are used, sprinkle with water or soap suds, and then dust them thoroughly with the preparation.

There are two crops of the slug each season. The first comes in May or June, and when the larvæ is fully developed, they drop to the ground, into which they burrow, and lie in a chrysalis state, until August, when they appear as a fly, and a crop of eggs is laid, from which new slugs or worms are developed.

When the first crop is not fully destroyed, it will be necessary to repeat the application in the fall, in order to cut off as many as possible of the pests, to save them the trouble of wintering over, and to diminish the crop for the following season.

CULTIVATE THE BEAUTIFUL. — We plead for the beautiful, in farm life. That sentiment of Goethe: "We should do our utmost to encourage the beautiful, for the useful encourages itself"—should to a certain extent be the watchword of every farmer. A well kept farm, with neat buildings, and a yard in which flowers and trees are more conspicuous than broken crockery and cast off hoop skirts, is worth more to keep or to sell than one where no attempt at beautifying the premises has been made.

Some years ago, a gentleman of our acquaintance purchased a farm in the front yard of which, put out by a former owner, were several ornamental trees that had attained quite a growth. Some flower beeds, shrubbery, &c. Almost one of the first acts of the new occupant was to tear away the fence, cut down the trees, and turn the pretty yard into the common highway. We never pass that place but we are pained by the thought of the vandalism that has given a barren and cheerless aspect to a home that might have rejoiced in refreshing shade and a wealth of floral beauty.

We counsel more attention to the beautiful. Plant trees and shrubs and vines, make your home surroundings attractive by the help of rustic structures—arbors, seats, gateways—by the artistic forming of land, and the judicious disposition of the various objects employed. Don't hope to do it all at once; and don't get discouraged. Do a little this summer and fall, and more each year. A tree grows slow, but before you are aware of it, it has outgrown your expectations. Set out trees therefore — for they will not grow where you want them if you do not put them there. How the odd hours of one summer even can be made to improve and adorn one's home with a beauty that will never fade, but be more and more delightful with each returning spring time.—Maine Farmer.

CANKER WORMS. — The canker worms have been doing incalculable damage to the fruit trees in this section; but it is reported that their depredations are on the wane, which prophecy, it is hoped, may prove true. Mr. J. Allard of Exeter, informs us, so far as his experience goes, owners and guardians of trees do not continue to tar the trees long enough. The tar hardens, when it is not daily renewed, and if the practice is not continued, even till the worms are seen on the trees, some of the "slugs" will elude the vigilance of him with the tar brush, being hatched on the trunk of the tree below the tarring, and the worms crawling up over the tar to the branches above.—News Letter.

Printer's Ink is proved to be far better than tar, one application lasting several days.

VALUE OF HOEING TO PLANTED CROPS.—The Maine Farmer has the following important suggestions on this subject:—Frequent hoeings, even during the dryest seasons, contribute to the benefit of the crop. By the loosening of the soil, the air, and especially night air, charged with moisture even in times of severe drought, obtains ready access to the roots of plants, and becomes condensed in the soil. Very often during a hard summer drought we have seen corn leaves and other vegetation roll up during the day time, but come out again at night in consequence of the falling of the dew, or the prevalence of the moist air. Where the ground is not stirred it becomes crusted over or "baked," as it is called, and hence the moisture from below does not find its way up through to meet the condensed moist air of night.

But where ground is frequently hoed the reverse is the case, hence the benefit of repeated hoeings during the summer months. Upon this point one of our late English journals mentioned the fact that during the extremely dry season of 1826, a gentleman was in the habit of hoeing, with his own hand, three drills of turnips, daily. The result was that three drills thus hoed was a good crop, while the yield upon the remainder of the field, hoed less frequently, came almost to nothing.

Finally, keep the hoe going as much as possible during the earlier stages of the hoed crops. Upon this depends, in a great degree, their yield.

CORN GROWN FOR FODDER.—A correspondent of the Country Gentleman, at Prospect Hill, Va., writes as follows: "On June 26th I planted just one-third of an acre, in drills three feet apart. I took my Weathersfield drill, put in the largest seed, went over each row twice, and then covered with a cultivator. It grew finely. I cultivated it twice with an A harrow, set so as to take only to the middle between the rows, and ran it up and down each row. By so doing I could run very close to the young corn, and kill the weeds and not injure or cover the young plants. I cut it with a briar scythe, and one man could cut as fast as four could bind. This was Sept. 28. Put it in small stacks, or rather shocks, and let it stand. Commenced feeding it to my horses and mules (five) Nov. 1, and it lasted them till 3d of December, and is by far the best fodder I have.

I shall put in several acres next year, for it not only yields a very profitable crop for the farm (as the ground was poor) but it kills the weeds most effectually, which is a great point here. I believe that I shall make it a paying crop in money. Fodder is always saleable at $10 per stack (ton). Now I can get four tons on land that will not produce more than ten bushels of corn per acre—giving me $40 per acre at a much less cost than corn at $10. I shall therefore have $40 for each acre, and allowing $10 for seed, cultivating, &c., I shall have $30 per acre to buy the best fertilizers that I can get; for that is the only proper mode of using that money, and so I can manure my farm without cost, kill the weeds and improve the land at the same time.

CABBAGE PLANTS.—We don't know of anything more provoking to the gardener, than to find, upon going to his cabbage-yard in the morning, his best plants destroyed by the cut-worms. During the night the pests find the young plants and eat them off just above the ground. In land where these worms exist, and we don't know but they do everywhere — liable to at any rate—the wrapping of paper or some other substance about the stem of the plants at the time of transplanting has been found to be a complete protection. Dock and other leaves are recommended for the same purpose. The paper or whatever else is used should reach the whole length of the stem, from the roots to the leaves. A strip of birch bark makes a first-rate protection. After setting the plants, take a strip of bark two or three inches wide, and long enough to form a circle of three inches in diameter. Bend it around the plant and press about half its width into the ground. This forms a sure protection against the worms, and in case the plants need watering, will hold the water until it soaks down to the roots.

LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature hand, is the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, the kinds of wide, midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jy4w

The Chronicle.

AN ELEPHANT ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.—Early one morning, last month, as Bailey's caravan and circus was wending its way from Danbury towards Norwalk, Conn., it became necessary for the company to cross the track of the Danbury and Norwalk Railroad. When the two performing elephants belonging to the establishment came to the crossing, one of them, who had only arrived in this country about ten days previous to the event we are describing, instead of following on after his companion, as was his usual custom, abruptly turned, and proceeded along the railroad, walking between the rails, and in the direction of Danbury. The driver, or "mahout," as he is called, immediately dismounted from his horse, and endeavored to drive the wayward animal back to the highway. The powerful brute paid no attention to the driver's words, or blows, but proceeded straight ahead for about half a mile, and then, to the utter amazement of the proprietor, driver and all who were present, stopped, turned, so as to stand directly across the iron rails, and deliberately laid himself upon them. Neither the vigorous "prodding" of the keeper nor the gentle adjurations of the proprietor could induce the erratic monster to change his position. While Col. Bailey was engaged in a consultation with the keeper, as to what could be done to rouse the obstinate brute from his dangerous situation, the shrill whistle of a locomotive was heard, not more than a mile distant.

All present immediately realized the danger now threatening the on-coming train,—not a second must be wasted, and further attempts to remove from the track this mountain of flesh which lay before them, were abandoned, and all ran toward the train, now not half a mile distant, but thundering along unaware of the danger ahead. By dint of shouting, and waving of hats and handkerchiefs, the engineer's attention was attracted, and when within not more than forty feet of the still obdurate, and reclining elephant, the engine was stopped. Most fortunately it was the first up-freight train from Norwalk—had it been the regular passenger train, going at its usual rate of speed, far different would have been the result.

The engineer and fireman, leaping from the engine, soon became aware of the nature of the "obstruction" to their train, and the former, in reply to a question as to what was to be done, remarked that "he would try the effects of steam on the critter," and if his engine couldn't start the animal, he'd "bust its biler." The locomotive was then brought so close to the elephant, that the cow-catcher fairly touched him; the whistle was sounded, the bell rang, and steam let off, so rapidly that the monster was completely enveloped with it.

This had the desired effect, and slowly rising upon his feet, he stood gazing at the locomotive and throwing his trunk in the air, apparently in doubt as to what sort of an animal the monster before him was, and whether it would pay to engage in a little "mill" with it. Meanwhile the engineer made morning hideous with the blowings, puffings, ringings, and escaping steam, and his elephantine majesty slowly and with Websterian dignity stepped from the track, the train moved on, and the elephat to the great joy of his owner rejoined the caravan, and proceeded with it toward Norwalk.

The question suggests itself, after a perusal of this statement, did the elephant contemplate suicide? Was he tired of life? And looking forward to the season, then just commencing, may he not have dreaded the weary midnight marches, the scorching summer heat and the weary tramp, tramp, tramp of six long months he had to undergo,—and thinking, perhaps, of his home beyond the seas, of the swift-flowing Ganges, of the sweet repose 'neath the umbrageous forests of his Asiatic home, or the secluded groves of Ceylon's distant isle, where the perfumed breezes lull to slumbers sweet both brute and human kind—may not the majestic old animal have concluded to "fly to ills he knew not of," rather than bear the pains and discomforts of a six-months' tour over the rugged hills of New England with Bailey's Menagerie?

MINORITY REPRESENTATION is provided for in the new Illinois constitution. If there are three representatives to be elected, the voter may repeat upon his ballot the name of the same person, so as to give him three votes, or he may divide, casting two votes for one person and one for another, or he may divide the three among as many different candidates. This system will always put it in the power of a respectable minority to be represented if it will concentrate its forces.

Samuel C. Lamos, an old State Prison bird, arrested as the supposed author of the many burglaries that have occurred in Concord, was ordered to give $500 bonds to appear for trial at the Supreme Court, which he could not do, and was therefore committed to jail. The evidence against Lamos is very strong.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
FOR ALL PURPOSES of a LAXATIVE MEDICINE,
Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these PILLS rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. dawjd1ecdim

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1870.

Gleaned and Ground.

The Spanish Cortes has been convened to meet on the 20th instant.

Ex-Collector Bailey's defalcation is now officially reported to be $131,000.

Rumors that Secretary Fish will soon resign are again rife.

Mutuals 13, White Stockings 4.

Marylands 21, Unions 5.

Horace Greeley is still ill.

The Treasury receipts during the fiscal year ending June 30, were four hundred and nine million dollars. The reduction of the debt was one hundred and nineteen millions.

The King of Prussia refuses any explanation in reply to the note from the French government.

It is asserted in well informed circles that the alliance between France and Austria has been concluded.

Gold Hill, Nevada, has had a $500,000 fire.

The report of the Howard investigating committee exculpates Gen. Howard, personally. A minority report condemns him.

NAPOLEON'S BACK UP. — General Prim's offer of the Spanish crown to Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern, and its acceptance by the Prince, has made an alarming commotion in France. The ministry announced in the Corps Legislatif that France would on no pretext permit the consummation of the scheme. The Imperialist papers are loud and violent in their expression of opposition, and some of them go so far as to demand an immediate declaration of war with Prussia to revenge past military and diplomatic defeats. A dispatch was sent to Berlin recalling the French ambassador.

A cable dispatch from Madrid, dated midnight, says that the Cabinet unanimously confirmed Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern for the future King of Spain. The Cortes will give a majority of 200 in favor of his re-election to the throne. The Prince will enter Spain about the end of October next, and will be escorted from Germany by a Spanish squadron.

France and Prussia exchanged notes on Thursday, and war is considered certain if Prussia persists in placing Leopold upon the Spanish throne.

☞ The Printers' Convention is to be held at the Ocean House, Rye Beach, July 27 and 28. Speaker Blaine of Congress, who was formerly a printer and editor, has accepted the invitation to deliver the address; and Mr. Shillaber, also a typo, will be the poet of the occasion. Hon. A. A. Sargent, member of Congress from California, and a former printer; with Messrs. Cragin and Ela of this State, (both graduates from the printing office, we believe,) and all our delegation in Congress; Governors and ex-Governors of Maine and New Hampshire, and many other prominent men, will be among the guests invited. Vice President Colfax, an ex-printer, is unable to attend.

WHAT'S UP?—An order was received at the Navy Yard on Thursday from Washington to concentrate all the available force for the purpose of fitting U. S. Steamers California and Narragansett for sea by the 1st of August. To carry out this order a much larger force than is employed there must be put at work at once.

SPANISH VENGEANCE.—Havana advices say that among the Cubans recently shot are Don Salustiano Esterez and Nicholas Mendora. When captured they were asleep. They still sleep.

WOMAN WANTED.—A man in Decatur, Ala., advertises for an intelligent and respectable woman to become a candidate for Congress in the Sixth District of Alabama.

☞ On Thursday, Schooner F. J. Lockwood ran her jib-boom into the grain elevator of Chas. G. Pickering & Co., doing considerable damage to it and the machinery.

FENIAN FORECLOSURE. — General O'Neil is in Burlington jail, under the bail-ful influence of $15,000.

ON TIME.—New York papers of Saturday now reach Cincinnati an hour after midnight on Sunday.

HOW IT WORKS.—Mississippi repudiation has done away with its debt and its credit.

SOUTHERN SENSE. — A "darning school" is to be opened in Montgomery, Ala.

☞ Steamer Tallapoosa sailed for Boston from the Navy Yard on Thursday.

OUR LEGISLATURE.—The session being over, we propose to mention in brief review, the measures acted upon which are of special interest to our readers, locally; and we give some account of the Portsmouth delegation. Of these Messrs. Walker and Marcy especially have occupied prominent positions, and their action on important measures has been alluded to at various times before.

Of the legislation asked for by our citizens, a charter has been granted for the Indemnity Life Insurance Company in which a portion of the corporation named are Portsmouth residents. The old Savings Bank asked for special amendments to its charter, so that they could hold more real estate, and pay their President a salary; but this was refused—though doubtless some general act will ere long be passed relieving all these institutions in these respects.

The Board of Aldermen also requested the Representatives from this city to apply for an amendment to the charter of the Portsmouth Aqueduct Co., to secure a greater and surer supply of water for use at fires; but after bringing the matter before the House, and the delegation appearing before the Committee on Incorporations, and the Company being heard through Supt. Ayers and an Attorney, and the Company evincing every disposition to accommodate the Fire Dept., it was deemed best by the delegation to withdraw the petitions for this session at least.

A bill to amend the Coroner law, presented by Mr. Langdon, on the last day of the session, was refused admission.

On the new temperance or liquor law, which passed, Messrs. Marcy, Langdon and Wilson voted no, Flagg, not at all, and the rest of the delegation yes.

On the Milk question, no call of the yeas and nays was made, but it was understood that Messrs. Walker and Miller were in favor of retaining the wine quart, adopted last year as the measure, and the other members of the delegation opposed—though what they would substitute is not so clear—since there is now no such measure as beer, the U. S. Government having sometime since discontinued its use, and now furnishing no standard for it, so that the sealers of weights and measures would not be able to approve any quart but wine, even if attempted to be authorized by the State. Of course this has no reference, legal or otherwise, to the price of milk. All weights and measures must be sealed, to be legal; and the standards are furnished to the States by the U. S. As a matter of fact, Mr. Locke spoke and voted for the old law, but was erroneously reported as in favor of the wine quart. Mr. Wilson voted for the old measure, but only because his constituents desired it, and not because he approved it.

The members of the House generally, including all those from this city, have throughout the session shown a commendable disregard of party ties, and evidently voted as in their opinion the interest of the public demanded. On the great Concord Railroad question, all Portsmouth members opposed the Northern Road contract, except Wilson and Locke,—and Walker, Marcy and Miller spoke in favor of it. The contract, as is well known was opposed in the House by the large majority of 209 to 80, but was unexpectedly postponed by the Senate to the next Session, by a vote of 8 to 4. This does not settle the matter, by any means, nor even ensure that the next Senate may not pass it, as they probably will do should the Courts decide the contract legal, and the parties fail to make a settlement. We shall have more to say respecting several of these subjects.

Capt. Marcy of this city introduced a bill to repeal the act passed last year, prohibiting the digging of clams in Hampton, &c. Mr. Marcy made a brief speech in favor of free clamming, free seaweed, and fishermen, and Mr. Durgin of Hampton opposed; but the House was evidently strongly in favor of the repeal, and it was carried—both the local and visiting fishers desiring it, except the people of Hampton.

GONE TO GRASS.—It is stated that the shipyard at Kennebunk Landing, which has been used about 100 years for building vessels, has this summer been fenced up, and is now a pasture. The last vessel built there was in 1867.

DESCRIPTIVE. — A Nevada editor says that Olive Logan is "the most right-up-and-snappy ebullition of womanly git-up-and-git that we ever had the pleasure of meeting."

SUCH A MATCH!—Evansville has a negro 108 years old, who has a wife 29 years old, who weighs over 200 pounds, and has a two-year old baby.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

ARITHMETICAL.—Messrs. Editors:—I received a roll of Carpeting wound about a cylinder 4 inches in diameter. The Carpet was 1-2 inch thick, and diameter of cylinders and carpeting was 24 inches. Required the number yards? In answering the problem, the one using the least number of figures, will be entitled to the first premium. TYRO.

Prices Beef Cattle—Extra $13 50 @ $14 00; first quality $12 75 @ $13 25; second quality $11 25 @ $12 50; third quality $10 00 @$11 00; poorest grade of coarse Oxen, Bulls, &c., $8 00 @ $10 00 ℔ cwt, (the total weight of hides, tallow and dressed beef.)

Brighton Hides 7c ℔ lb; Country Hides 6¼ @ 7c ℔ lb.

Brighton Tallow 6¼ @ 7c per lb; Country Tallow 6 @ 6½ ℔ lb.

Sheep and Lamb Skins 25 @ 50c each; Calf Skins 16 @ 17c ℔ lb.

The supply of Cattle from the West was larger this week than has been brought from that section on any one week before for several months. Most of the Cattle were of an ordinary grade, there being more poor ones in proportion to the number than has been brought from that section for sometime. There were several hundred Texas Cattle among them. Prices upon the best grades of Beef were full as good and in some instances higher prices were obtained for them than those of last week, but upon the poorer grades the decline has been equal to ¼ @ ½c ℔ lb. The Cattle from Maine were mostly sold for Beef. There were but a few from the East or North this week that were very extra. Most of the Maine Cattle did not get here until Thursday morning.

Store Cattle—With the exception of Working Oxen and Milch Cows there are but a few Cattle in market. Most of the small Cattle that are in a fair condition are bought up to slaughter.

Working Oxen—The trade for Workers has been quiet for a few weeks past, and a few pairs each week is all that the market requires. We quote sales at $125, $172, $185, $205, $220 @ $245 ℔ pair.

Milch Cows—Extra $85 @ $115; ordinary $50 @ $80; Store Cows $35 @ $55 ℔ head. Most of the Cows in market are of a common grade. Prices depend much upon the fancy of the purchaser.

Sheep and Lambs—Nearly all the Western and also the Eastern Sheep and Lambs were taken at a commission or to slaughter and market for droves. We did not hear of but one lot of Lambs being sold, 65 at $4 75 ℔ head. We quote prices of extra and select lots at $6 50 @ $8; ordinary $3 @ $6 ℔ head, or from 4 @ 9c ℔ lb.

Swine—Fat Hogs, 3300 at market; prices 10 @ 10½c ℔ lb. There were but few Store Pigs in market, all of which were sold to one man at 11c ℔ lb. There has not been much call for Store Pigs for the last few weeks.

IT IS NO WONDER that invalids lose faith in all specifics, when so many worthless medicines are advertised for the cure of various diseases; for which, when tried, are "found wanting." We have yet to find, however, of the first failure of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, to cure coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease.

PANIC-STRUCK BEAUTY.—It is a terrible shock to a charming woman—indeed, to ANY woman, to find that her teeth are "beginning to go." Never will any human being who uses the fragrant SOZODONT, make THAT discovery.

"SPALDING'S GLUE," no well-regulated family will be without it.

THE PRETTIEST WOMAN IN NEW YORK. Miss K——, well known in our fashionable society for her distinguee appearance and beautiful complexion, was once a sallow, rough-skinned girl, chagrined at her red, freckled face. She pitched into HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and is now as pretty in complexion as she is charming in manners. This article overcomes freckles, tan, sallowness, moth-patches, ring-marks, etc., and makes one look ten years younger than they are. Magnolia Balm for a transparent complexion, and LYON'S KATHAIRON to make the hair plentiful, luxurient, soft and delicate, have no rivals. The Kathairon prevents the hair from turning gray, eradicates dandruff, and is the best and cheapest dressing in the world. jy9e4w

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Broadside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious knownothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters" is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the venders have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicated stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concections referred to being composed of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (?) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Koscinsko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says; "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a tact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by their persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those miasmatic poisons which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

Sunday Excursion on the River.
Six Per Cent—Charles A. Shannon.
House To Let—J. S. Harvey.
Lost—Canary Bird.

☞ Harlow's Marine Band serenaded Rear Admiral Thacher at the Rockingham House, Thursday afternoon.

☞ Another nut for the Sawyer base ball club of Dover to crack, if they can, in their practice for the championship—the Whipple club of Kittery.

☞ Mr. Chas. H. Joy has been reappointed Deputy Sheriff and Jailer. Mr. Joy is an efficient and capable officer, and we are glad that he is to continue.

☞ On Wednesday, Mr. Benj. M. Parker fell from a cherry tree at his residence on Cabot Street. He was stunned and dislocated his right shoulder, but was not dangerously injured.

☞ The Nashua Telegraph says of Bailey's Menagerie and Circus, which exhibited there July 5th—It is a first-class entertainment and deserves and receives a good word wherever it goes.

☞ While the Steamer Emerald was making a trip to Portsmouth, from the Navy Yard, on Wednesday, her steam valve gave out and she drifted near Pumpkin Island, where she came to anchor. The passengers were taken off and landed by boats from the Vandalia.

☞ While government officials at Washington are thinking of discharging soldiers from this Navy Yard, it may be interesting to note the fact that the Marine Band at this Station costs government $8316 per annum, not counting rations. Everybody likes music, but this is no valid excuse for forgetting the claims of the soldiers, to afford luxuries for a few naval officers whose duties are not especially arduous.

CHILDREN'S BALL. — Mr. Samuel Lamprey gave an exhibition with his Juvenile Dancing Class, to the parents and friends of the pupils, on Wednesday evening in Congress Hall. The young folks were nicely dressed, and the scene presented was one of beauty and innocent delight. The pupils (as Mr. Lamprey's pupils always do,) displayed marked proficiency in dancing graceful and intricate figures, and exercised towards each other all the courteous formalities of an adult assembly. Parents whose children need to have their rough corners smoothed off (all boys need it—the bears,) to fit them for mingling in society, can secure no more able, experienced and pains-taking instructor than Mr. Lamprey, who manages to influence his scholars so that their bearing is generally as far removed from boldness and impertinence on the one hand as from awkwardness and bashful embarrassment on the other.

JOTTINGS.—The dwelling house and land on Islington street, east of Mr. Geo. Taylor's saloon and opposite the Academy, have been purchased by Jos. M. Edmonds, Esq., and the building removed to the rear, to be remodeled for a residence with a frontage on Bridge street, while on its site three commodious stores are to be erected.

The Court street Engine House has been properly shored up and refitted to accommodate the two steamers, in a manner satisfactory to the Board of Engineers—and convenient with the exception of the water privileges. The water used in this house is from a well under the building, and being somewhat salt and brackish is wholly unfit to stand in the Steamers' boilers for any length of time. No wonder the Dearborn needed new tubes so soon. Aqueduct water should be introduced, and immediately, ere the new Steamer Kearsarge shall need the same repairs.

The necessary drain—preparatory to filling in—to connect Jarvis' Hosiery Factory at the Creek, with the main culvert running under the railroad tracks, was completed on Wednesday. So much towards the abatement of the Creek cess-pool nuisance; and it is hoped the "powers that be" will further the matter till that desired end is accomplished.

It is rumored that Hon. Frank Jones has purchased the Melcher estate, on the corner of Congress and Chesnut streets, with a view of erecting a City Hall, stores, &c.

For want of better accommodations, many people at the West End bathe in the fresh water dam just above Eldredge's brewery. The place has been enlarged, and crowds may be seen there after sundown of a warm day, enjoying this Free Bath hugely.

A temperance institution in this city, called "Eastern Star Division, No. 5" has "busted," and a new one is being formed under favorable circumstances.

REPORTER.

☞ We are pleased to learn that Admiral Farragut is much better.

☞ A party of Canadian gipseys are encamped on Middle Street near South Road. Several of the feminines attract ed attention about town on Thursday, being loosely clad. One wore her dress open in front and another was noticeable from showing stockingless pedestals.

☞ An elderly gentleman who has always done a good deal for our local music, desires us to say that our citizens should do all they can for the Portsmouth Cornet Band, which of course needs and richly deserves all encouragement and patronage. He authorizes us to put him down for $5 to aid them in any way, either by raising $100 or $200 for a series of out-door concerts, or otherwise; and if the right man will take hold of it, the larger sum could be raised easily enough. The Cornet Band is our most important public institution,—let us see to it that it is sustained, and certainly that no other is preferred before it.

A GRAND PICNIC will come off at the Shoals on Tuesday next, July 12th. The Portsmouth Philharmonic Society, and others, will leave Pier Wharf at 8 o'clock in the morning, in steamer Appledore, and proceed to the Shoals, where kettles will be hung, fires built and dinners prepared on the rocks. Cushing's Band will furnish music—of the best quality, of course—and a dance in the cool Hall of the Appledore House will afford an opportunity for exercise to those who don't get enough of the article in tumbling over the rocks. The steamer will take the party on board for the return trip at 7 o'clock in the evening, so as to "make a full day" and come up the harbor by moonlight.

THE CHILDREN'S BALL.—On Wednesday evening Mr. Lamprey added a new triumph to his many successful seasons, on the occasion of the exhibition Ball at Congress Hall, in which his class of about seventy masters and misses presented a lively scene of gay mirth. An excellent band of four pieces was in attendance, and those who were fortunate enough to be among the throng of invited guests which lined the hall on all sides, were treated with a series of quadrilles, galops, waltzes, and graces of the German, all performed by his glorious company of young folks, with such grace of movement and precision of time as to quite astonish those who were unacquainted with the thoroughness of Mr. Lamprey's teachings. His infantile specimens were esteemed miracles of success.

A lady present who had recently witnessed an exhibition in New York given by one of the most fashionable masters of the art in that city, expressed her pleased surprise at the marked superiority of Mr. Lamprey's pupils, in grace and ease of manner and in their excellent deportment. The occasion was one of great pleasure and satisfaction to the parents and other invited guests, and will leave a pleasant picture in the memory of all.

"Menagerie Levees"
are held one hour before the Circus commences, and ample time is allowed all leisurely to inspect the Wild Animals and Beautiful Birds before the Circus entertainment commences. Wither's Regimental Band will be present to enliven the occasion with their choicest music.

The Simplest, Cheapest, and most Successful WASHING MACHINE ever invented. Took the FIRST PREMIUM over all other Washing Machines at the Mechanics' Fair at Springfield, Mass., March, 1868; and was Awarded a Silver Medal!
☞ The qualities that place the LITTLE WASHER beyond competition are; its cheapness; its simplicity, (it cannot get out of order, and can be operated by a child;) its lightness, which renders it easily removed; and the perfect manner in which it does its work, adjusting itself to any sized article, from a handkerchief to a bed-quilt, without alteration, and washing clothes perfectly clean without wearing the garments in the least. You can expend all your labor on the soiled parts, without washing the whole garments at the same time.
More than twenty thousand families in New England alone, have already been supplied with this new and useful invention. Persons desiring such a machine as here described, and yet doubtful about its merits, can have a washing done in their own families, by the Agent. The following testimonials need no comment:
Portsmouth, N. H., June 9, 1870.
MR. J. J. HATLINGER,

MR. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—I have tested the "Little Washer" and think it a perfect success,
MRS. L. E. MARTIN.
MR. HATLINGER,

—A cannon ball weighing four pounds was found a few days since near the Eastern Railroad station in Newburyport, buried two feet beneath the surface. It was covered with rust more than an eighth of an inch in thickness, indicating that it had lain there a long while; very possibly since the Revolutionary war.

—Word was sent to the City Marshal of Augusta, Me., that a fellow was selling tickets from a wagon in Market Square. He went to arrest him and confiscate his stock and found himself the victim of an atrocious pun. The man was selling horsewhips.

—An Irish magistrate censuring some boys for loitering in the street, argued: "If everybody were to stand in the streets how would anybody get by?"

—To any one who can say "Shoes and socks shock Susan," with rapidity and faultless pronunciation, four times running, a large reward will be paid.

—If sixteen drams make one ounce, how many will destroy all scruples?

—Generally speaking—Women.

MEDICAL MADNESS.

LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. What the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseeding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. 1y4w

OLD TIMES CHRONICLES, No 7.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

The pyrotechnist, after throwing up single rockets for a time, for a change throws up a number together. We now, for variety, give sketches of two or three matters.

In Raymond, a mile southeast of the village, on the road to Fremont, is the oldest house in town. Benj. Bean, an early settler, came there about 1752. It is said some one built and occupied the house before he came. It is therefore more than 113 years old. It has been in the possession of the Bean family ever since the first Bean came.

It is a large double house, two stories high. What is most remarkable about it is its chimney. It is a pile of brick almost sufficient for a castle. At the base it is eight feet square, at the chamber floor about seven feet, at the garret floor over four feet, and the same size at the top. The fire-places are not large, if they were at first.

Where the brick were obtained is not known. Probably at Exeter, 13 miles away. It is doubtful if any were made at Epping so early.

Now to Stratham. Travel by steam is almost flying. It is said in the description of invading armies in old times, the chariots shall run like lightning. Nahum 2:4. By cars we go swifter than those war chariots.

An active citizen of Stratham 75 years ago was Phinehas Merrill, Esq. He taught school, was a surveyor of land, Representative in the Legislature, assisted in preparing Carigan's map of the State, had an important part in getting up the first Gazetteer of New Hampshire, and published an Arithmetic.

A copy of the second edition of the Arithmetic is before us. Its date is 1794, printed by Henry Ranlet of Exeter, and at the bottom of the title page it says "Sold at his office."

It is a work of but 106 pages. It was valuable at the time, for being in the currency established by a home of the State to go into effect Jan., 1795, expressing money in dollars, cents and mills, and not in pounds, &c., before.

Mr. Merrill died Dec. 31, 1814, aged 47. He was the only author of books that Stratham has had so far as we know.

"The sea is the Lord's and He made it," so the best of books informs us. Continue the trip and see it. Hampton is an old town; the people are enterprising, but one visiting there sees in the farms, many of the buildings and many of the people what seems to declare "this is old Hampton."

Not great numbers at the public houses at the Beach in June. At private boarding houses next to none.

We cannot give an account of many things at the sea now, farther back than 50 or 75 years ago. There was visiting there by some, but to stay, only a day or at most over one night. Greenleaf kept a public house a little south of Boar's Head. After him a Lamprey, if we recollect right. The fish houses, a mile or more north, looked about as now, 50 years ago. The Leavitt house was there. It was large but unpainted. Moses Leavitt, a plain, honest farmer-like appearing man, entertained visitors with good fare.

Some more than 40 years ago the building of new public houses commenced, particularly at Boar's Head. In the warmest weather many will be there.

Somewhere in the vicinity of Hampton Beach, Dr. Daniel Rogers, (of the family in a direct line of descent from which sprang Rev. Nathaniel Rogers, an early minister of Portsmouth, and Rev. Daniel Rogers, also early at Exeter,) met death by perishing in a snow storm. It took place Dec. 1, 1722, almost a century and a half ago. He was of Ipswich, Mass.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his itemedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders, viz: a man in our county, named J. S. Ezzell, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
BOGLES & HINKLE, Druggists.

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,

DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have not been by spells very much for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered so much of. I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GRAHD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised Remedies, in the vain hope of finding relief from urgent secretal kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unmistakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a humble suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. M. LAREN.

DR. KEYSER
is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that I have been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Incensed please find our rates of advertising. Yours, T. B. H. STENHOUSE,

TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. Have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about, I could not rest night or day.

It would soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had too much faith in it. Why should I, when I had been trying so many things that cost me so much? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt that I had obtained and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently.) When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney would falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I felt so, before I had finished the second, that I had made up my mind it was of no use trying, but I persevered—and all this time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after this I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and dropping it off again. I kept at it so for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the largest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks the color of a mink's back, and weighs 8 grains. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, although I was feeling so badly. I procured another bottle, thinking there could be some more behind; but since that has passed, which is eight weeks ago last Sunday, I have been as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone securely wrapped, and those who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are welcome to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire; also in Connecticut. The advertisement saved me. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see him we can, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time, so I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

Corner of 5th av. and 76th st., Central Park.
(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu will be a blessing to under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of sunoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from the Wanes than from habit, may be spared punishment, that is (not knowing it as a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG, General Sup't and Director.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, blackwater, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and had found them useless, and some quite injurious in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies hereafter unless I know of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your Remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of Buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician to prescribe it in combination; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the Druggist, I commenced to use it.

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, JULY 9, 1870.

Gleaned and Ground.

The Fourth of July was generally celebrated by Americans in German cities.

Red Cloud is collecting the tribes for the purpose of waging war on the whites. The Cheyennes killed three white men at Sweetwater River recently, and the Arapahoes stole forty head of stock near the South Pass. One of the Arapahoes was killed during the fight. All of the Northern Cheyennes and Arapahoes, who have hitherto been peaceable, announce their intention to go on the war path soon.

Additional cavalry have been stationed along the Kansas Pacific Railroad.

John M. Smith, a Baltimore claim agent, was sentenced to pay $1000 fine and to twenty months' imprisonment, for defrauding the government.

Sheridan, the New York wife murderer, has been sentenced to be hanged on the 19th of August. The jury recommended him to mercy.

Track laying on the Kansas Pacific Railroad, eastward from Denver, was begun Tuesday and is progressing rapidly.

A child 6 years of age, nearly starved, has been discovered naked and chained in a hole beneath the floor, in the house of his parents, who are Germans, at Newport, Ky.

The income tax is to be continued at 2 1-2 per cent., $2000 being exempted.

Subscription papers are circulating in London and Liverpool for a fund in aid of the families of the officers and sailors of the steamer Oneida, run down by the British steamer Bombay.

Bostonians have assassinated a mad dog.

Attorney-General Akerman was sworn in on Friday.

The report of the massacre in Pekin is confirmed.

It is possible that an extra executive session of the Senate may be necessary after the adjournment of Congress.

Secretary Fish has asked to be relieved on account of his health, but the President has urgently requested him to continue in office if possible.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate on Thursday, Mr. Trumbull of Illinois, in response to the various petitions for an amendment to the Constitution, allowing women to vote, reported the same back, and asked to be discharged from their consideration. It was so ordered.

The amendment to the naval appropriation bill, providing that no money appropriated for the present fiscal year be expended on account of naval engines contracted for during the war, was agreed to; and that to prohibit any retired officer being assigned to duty with any increase of the pay and allowances provided by law for retired officers of his grade, was defeated.

The bill then passed.

The fortification appropriation bill was passed without debate.

The bill fixing Tuesday after the first Monday in November as the day for the election of representatives to Congress from all the States, beginning in 1872, was passed, with the House of Representative's apportionment bill attached as an amendment. The latter, however, was amended by a provision that any State having a fraction of population exceeding one-half the amount required for a representative, shall be entitled to an additional representative, which will return the measure to the House for concurrence.

The first elections under the bill are to be held in 1872. The section relating to apportionments provides that after March 3, 1871, the House of Representatives shall consist of 300 members, and if any State has its number of members increased or diminished, those added, and all those remaining in any State where representation is diminished, shall be elected at large. The superintendent of the census is to make a preliminary report of the population on the 30th of September next, and the Secretary of the Interior is to determine the basis of representation from such report.

The House voted to remand Patrick Woods, who assaulted Congressman Porter, to jail for three months.

The currency bill from the conference committee was passed.

The Missouri contested election case of Switzler against Dyer was decided—108 to 65—in favor of the latter, the sitting republican member, in accordance with the resolution of the minority of the election committee.

PERSONAL.—Lieut. Loyal Farragut, U. S. A., son of Admiral Farragut, was in town on Friday.

THE CONCORD RAILROAD CASE.—The battle between the new speculative Ring and the old management, has now been in progress for several months, first in the stock-market, then in private meetings of the parties, afterwards at the Annual Meeting; then in the Courts, including the great and General Court; and is still unsettled, and apparently likely to be contested for some time yet.

Our sympathies and wishes, no less than our opinions and convictions, have been decidedly in favor of the Northern Railroad contract, from the first; and we should regard the success of the Ring, as the inauguration of a new and dangerous policy in this State, and one which does not work for the interest of the people anywhere, or is certainly liable to work against it.

As between men,—which is the lowest and least important of the considerations involved—Senator Peavey stated in his remarks in the Senate, that Gov. Stearns on one side, and Ex-Gov. Smyth on the other, seem to be the representatives of the two parties. He says, as we believe, these are two high-minded and eminently capable gentlemen, and two of the best Governors New Hampshire ever had; but when we look at the associates of each, we must say we think Gov. Stearns is found in decidedly the best company, and on the side of justice and equity as well as lawfulness, if not law.

Politically, too—we must oppose the Ring. The People newspaper, of Concord, which is owned by and printed in the personal and political interests of Mr. John H. Pearson; and the Monitor, which notwithstanding all its denunciations of Railroad rings, is in favor of this one, think the Stearns-Minot combination would prove a heavy load for the Republican party to carry. But many of the best men in the party think rather, that John H. Pearson and Geo. Clough would be still harder to shoulder; and that Fred Smyth (when the People and the Monitor shall coalesce, and go in for the Labor Reform party, as is prognosticated,) will be obliged, if he remains in his present ring, to go in with Pearson & Co. and their Democracy.

For ourselves, we hate rings, and never respected or admired what are called shrewd men,—who live by their wits, and try to be smarter than their neighbors. And the more we observe and learn of them, the more we don't like them. And especially do we object to speculators buying up a Railroad, of all corporations, to manipulate the same for their own interest, whether it be for the public benefit or not. As Mr. Lang, of the investigating Committee, well remarked in the debate in the House—a Railroad, the right of way, cannot belong to speculators, for it is the sacred possession of the public, and all that money can buy is the stock. There was formerly a law in this State, that no person should throw more than 20 votes at any corporation meeting; and we should like to see this restored, at least in regard to Railroads. All the legislation of New Hampshire, and the whole genius of our institutions, have been adverse to speculations in the people's railroads; and we hope the day is far distant when any such policy shall obtain here.

We propose to remark further on this subject.

FRANCE VS. PRUSSIA. — Prussia, in reply to the interrogation of France as to what connection she had in the negotiations for the elevation of Prince Leopold to the throne of Spain, has replied that she had nothing to do with his acceptance.

France responded that she cannot accept such an answer, and that Prussia must prohibit Loepold's candidature, or fight.

Furloughs to French troops have been stopped and those issued been recalled.

The French army on the frontier and the fortresses are undergoing rapid inspection.

Several regiments of the Paris division are under orders.

The Prussian Minister of War has ordered all the general officers of the Prussian army to rejoin their corps without delay.

TEA TIME.—A cargo of tea was received at Cincinnati, Wednesday, forty-five days from Japan via Yokohama on the 22d May, and San Francisco 16th June.

NAVAL.—The United States man-of-war Mohican which started in pursuit of Placido Vega's steamer "Forward" overtook and destroyed the vessel on the 17th of June. Six of the Forward's crew were taken prisoners by the Mexicans.

☞ Mr. Roswell W. Webster fell from a cherry tree at his farm in this city on Friday and was seriously injured.

INDEPENDENCE DAY IN BOSTON.—Boston opened her hospitable doors as usual on the great anniversary. The sellers of ice-cream complained of the weather as too cool for them; but the thousands of visitors from the country thought otherwise. There was almost no drunkenness or disorder, and the policemen had an easy time.

Free entertainments were provided for the "school-children." That is, some exhibitions of the magic lantern and one of ventriloquism were given at Tremont Temple, and a plenty of dancing at Faneuil and Horticultural Halls; while a curious dodge was practiced at Music Hall. Our City Fathers know a thing or too. Once before, when they gave a "reception" to a learned body at an expense of $2500, they had one room into which their guests were not admitted. What they did there, or in what condition they came out, your correspondent saith not.

On this occasion they engaged for Music Hall a troupe of good performers with a programme adapted to "school-children of a larger growth," but not to those under fifteen. Performances at three; doors open ten (10) minutes before! When the doors were opened the school-children found every available seat occupied by persons who had been admitted to the "free" entertainment by ticket.

Every thing else was better. The complacent air wafted the balloon two hours over Boston and vicinity; it descended within seven miles of the Common. The fire-works were admired by the occupants of densely-packed acres. The new feature was a sort of enormous fire-cracker carried up in a rocket and exploding like a cannon in the sky.

The vast interchange of population between city and country was all effected without accident and with little sacrifice of personal comfort; and all went tired to bed.

Our legislature, as you are aware, has adjourned. This they have done from sheer weariness, shame, or pressure of home duties. The opportunities of doing harm were not all exhausted, and the good things they did, if any, were so few and so long ago that I have forgotten them. I do not forget that they refused to let Charlestown and Boston unite if they wished it, or to let Lexington build a short link between their railroad and the Lowell, which had bought this with the consent of a previous legislature. The Governors veto prevented their entrusting some millions to a set of rascals, who, as they all agreed, had already plundered us of other millions. If a Republican legislature is elected this fall, it will be because Wilson is to be re-elected to the U. S. Senate.

Yours, EVERETT.

AN AGREEMENT ON THE CURRENCY BILL.—The conference committee on the currency bill has agreed to recommend as a basis of settlement the issue of $54,000,000 of new notes, the withdrawal of $45,000,000 of three per cents., the redistribution of $25,000,000 taken from States having an excess, and free banking on a gold basis. The redistribution, however, is not to begin until after the absorption of the $54,000,000 of new notes. These latter are to be distributed on the basis of the old bank law until the census is completed, and from that time on the basis of population.

JOHN JOURNEYING.—Five hundred and sixty more Chinamen have left San Francisco for the East.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Broadside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious knownothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters," is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the venders have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicated stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concections referred to being composed of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (?) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

Having popularity and an vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedy-fragrant for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended a PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the color is perfectly natural.

Crisadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye,

CRISADORO'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE, as a Dressing, acts like a charm on the Hair after Dyeing. TRY IT. je13tjy12

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy, and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Dry Goods Notice—Stephen H. Simes.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday Evening—full Board — the supply of water for the Fire Dept. was discussed —and Ald. Miller made report of the action on the matter in the Legislature. The whole matter, including that of the new main proposed for Islington St., was referred to the special Committee appointed on the subject some time since, consisting of the Mayor and Ald. Pendexter and Nowell. The request of the Chief Engineer, for water fixtures to be laid in No. 3 Engine House, ref. to same Committee.

Petition of Hill & Carr and fifty or sixty others, that Market St., between the Square and Hanover St., be graded and repaired, was referred to the Com. on Sts., to report the probable cost of block stone paving.

City Marshal Johnson reported 2 more dogs licensed; and returned the usual quarterly report of Police business.

The Ordinance prohibiting Job Wagons from standing on Market St., was reported back from the Com. on Bills on 2d Reading, without amendment.

The charges made several weeks ago, against Police officers Shannon and Maloon, of receiving money (when off duty) from a young man arrested the night previous, and discharged by them, and of entering a liquor saloon to drink with him—also of leaving their beat to search for a deserter from the U. S. service, and entering a house of ill-fame for the purpose—were brought up and discussed. The complaints had previously been heard by the Mayor and Com. on Police, and by the whole Board at the last meeting: and after full deliberation, on motion to suspend these officers, Ald. Pendexter and Miller voted no, 2, and the rest of the Board yes, 6; so they are suspended. It was stated that although all these acts charged are improper and against the Police regulations, yet it is customary for the whole force to commit such—both to receive hush money, and to leave their posts to search for deserters and gain the rewards offered.

Ald. Cotton inquired why Marshal Johnson caused Officer Entwistle to be suspended, recently; and it was voted that the Marshal be requested to appear before the Board at next meeting and state the reasons.

Officer C. W. Shannon adpeared before the Board, and inquired why Marshal Johnson had not been examined by the Board, on the charge preferred against him by officer S., of receiving hush money from a woman keeping a house of ill-fame. The Mayor replied that he did not deem her evidence sufficient, although she was permitted to testify in the Courts.

Mr. T. H. Odion, of the School Committee, asked for repairs of the Haven School, and that the cupola be removed. Ref. to Com. on Sch. Houses, with power.

The widening of Congress St., at Middle, was discussed, but no progress made, as the petition for same appears to have been lost, or mislaid last year.

THE GRAND CARAVAN of G. F. Bailey & Co. will arrive here on Monday, July 11th, and exhibit on Middle Street, afternoon and evening; and if human promises may be believed, there is fun and wholesome entertainment in store for all, big and little. The collection of wild animals includes performing elephants, lions, bears, (black, white and grizzly,) wolves, leopards, zebras, sacred oxen, Maskin swine, emus, guanacos, and many others, strange and rare. We are promised two forms of savagery which represent the extremes of age in the caravan—a venerable rhinoceros, and four nursing lions, only a month old, and playful and harmless as kittens. Ladies and children will be permitted to hold these baby monarchs in their laps, if they wish. Circus entertainments will be given at 2:30 and 8 P. M., and for one hour previous to each of these the wild animals will hold a levee—one price of admission entitling the visitor to enter both the menagerie and the circus, which are distinct exhibitions. Both caravan and circus are very favorably criticised by the press, in places where they have exhibited.

☞ In our Legislative notes yesterday, "opposed" the Concord and Northern Railroad contract, should have been approved, by the Portsmouth delegation and two-thirds of the House.

We also wrote that Wilson, like Flagg, did not vote on the liquor bill,—neither being acquainted with the provisions of the act.

☞ Our citizens have an opportunity to sail down the river Sunday evening, in Steamer Appledore, to the tune of Harlow. See advertisement.

☞ The right man in the right place —Alderman Nowell in the Committee on Fire Department, and that on Schools; for he can almost rig out a school of his own, and his fire extinguisher is always on hand when most needed.

A FIRE was discovered in the shed in the rear of the residence of Miss Abby Pickering, corner of State and Chestnut Streets, about 4 o'clock, Friday afternoon. Alderman Thos. S. Nowell rallied to the rescue with his convenient fire extinguisher and others with buckets of water. Mr. Nowell kept the fire down inside the shed while the water carriers worked on the outside.

The fire caught from an ash barrel and although there was a large quantity of pine wood in the building it was not burned.

The machine used by Mr. Nowell was a $55 one, a No. 2 American Consolidated Fire Extinguisher, of which he has lately been appointed selling Agent. Every household should have one.

GREAT FIRE IN MANCHESTER.—About 3 o'clock, Friday morning, as we learn from Mr. Chas. Hiram Hayes, fire was discovered in the vicinity of the Mirror office at Manchester. Before it was checked, an area of five acres was burned over, 100 hundred houses were destroyed and 200 families rendered homeless. The space burned over included nearly all the property between the rear of Elm and Chestnut and Manchester and Hanover Streets. Among the principal buildings destroyed were the Masonic Temple and the Baptist church. The Merchants' Exchange was damaged to the amount of $20,000 by fire and water.

There were plenty of steam fire engines on hand, but the hose was rotten and soon bursted. Water was scarce and the whole city might have been destroyed had it not commenced raining heavily at 4 o'clock.

The fire swept over that part of the town occupied by French Canadians and other foreigners. Their furniture was taken out to be repeatedly moved about in the mud and rain. Nearly every dry goods store in the city was burned or wet down. The total loss is estimated as high as $250,000; insurance about $120,000. Hon. Edw. W. Harrington estimates his loss at $35,000; Wm. B. Johnson $35,000; Dr. Jones $25,000; Drake & Carpenter $15,000; John B. Clarke $10,000.

The following further particulars we are enabled to furnish our readers through the politeness of Mr. E. O. Cole of the Western Union Telegraph Co.

At three o'clock this morning a fire broke out in one of the buildings in the rear of Merchants Exchange, which swept wildly through the wooden buildings in that direction and soon enveloped nearly all the territory between Elm and Chestnut sts., and between Hanover street on the north and the back streets on the south. The fire originated in the room occupied by (carpenter & Drake's spice and coffee manufactory, and took from the roasier, which ignited the dry wood work. Close to this building and connected with it, was the brick building in which was located the steam printing works of the Mirror and the press on which the Daily Union was printed. This was soon on fire and in a condition to prevent saving the presses From this point the fire spread in all directions, the wind blowing strong all the time. North was the wooden building occupied by paint shops and carpenters' shops. The fire then moved east, taking the wooden buildings in course until it reached the Masonic Temple, a large, elegant three-story block; further east Johnson's block, Brown & Coley's block and all the tenements east to Chestnut street. On Manchester street was James' stable, Bartlett's block, a brick tenement block, Barrington & Johnson's block and the the brick church at corner of Manchester and Chestnut streets. On the south side of this street was the Mechanics' Hotel and many shops and tenements. Between Elm back street and Chestnut a clean sweep was made of the above buildings. Merchants Exchange, the largest block in the city, four stories high, 200 feet long by 100 feet wide, was frequently on fire and damaged to the extent of $15,000 or $20,000. Goods from shops, &c., were to a great extent removed. The whole area burned over is from five to six acres. The amount of property destroyed not far from $250,000, about one half insured. The number of families burned out is not less than two hundred and some put the number much higher.

There has been no loss of life so far as we can learn, and no one seriously injured. After the fire had raged for an hour or more the wind lulled and it rained freely, which had a great influence in arresting the flames.—From Manchester Mirror Extra.

MOST FAULTLESS CIRCUS TROUPE IN EUROPE,

accompanied by many of the best artists obtainable in this country. We do not travel by railroad, as many small concerns are obliged to, but with a working force of 240 Men and Horses we move over the country as an "army with banners"—with golden chariots, with elephants from distant India, with droves of camels from Egypt's ancient plains, and a long line of massive animal cages filled with denizens from the forests of Ceylon, the dreary wastes of Nova Zembla, and from the banks of the sacred Ganges and the classical Nile, truly presenting a royal jubilee of Oriental splendor and magnificence, as they pass over the land.

"Menagerie Levees!"

are held one hour before the Circus commences, and ample time is allowed all leisurely to inspect the Wild Animals and Beautiful Birds before the Circus entertainment commences. Wither's Regimental Band will be present to enliven the occasion with their choicest music.

RICHARDSON'S

LITTLE WASHER!

PRICE $5.00.

The Simplest, Cheapest, and most Successful WASHING MACHINE ever invented. Took the FIRST PREMIUM over all other Washing Machines at the Mechanics' Fair at Springfield, Mass., March, 1868; and was Awarded a Silver Medal!

☞ The qualities that place the LITTLE WASHER beyond competition are; its cheapness; its simplicity, it cannot get out of order and can be operated by a child; its lightness, which renders it easily removed; and the perfect manner in which it does its work, adapting itself to any sized article, from a handkerchief to a bed-quilt, without alteration, and washing clothes perfectly clean without wearing the garments in the least. You can expend all your labor on the soiled parts, without washing the whole garments at the same time.

More than twenty thousand families in New England alone, have already been supplied with this new and useful invention. Persons desiring such a machine as here described, and yet doubtful about its merits, can have a washing done in their own families, by the Agent. The following testimonials need no comment:

Portsmouth, N. H., June 9, 1870.

MR. J. J. HATLINGER,

Dear Sir:—The test of "Richardson's Little Washer" that I witnessed this week convinced me that we need look no farther for Washing Machines. It does its work perfectly, and is all you say of it. Yours truly, L. W. BREWSTER.

MR. HATLINGER,

Dear Sir:—I have tested the "Little Washer" and think it a perfect success. MRS. L. E. MARTIN.

MR. HATLINGER,

Dear Sir:—Having tested the "Little Washer", I fully concur with the above testimonials, and think it superior to any other Washing Machine. It will do all you say of it. R. W. WEBSTER.

TO THE SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

ROCKINGHAM, ss. SARAH A. R. TOWNSEND of Portsmouth in said County, brings to her libel against JOHN E. TOWNSEND of said Portsmouth, and says that she was lawfully married to said John at Newburyport, in the State of Massachusetts, by a then settled Clergyman of that city, on the twenty-eighth day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-two, and has ever since conducted herself as a chaste and faithful wife.

That she and her husband came to said Portsmouth to reside the year eighteen hundred and fifty-four, and have since resided there, and where she now resides.

That her said husband, said JOHN E. TOWNSEND, has willing absented himself from this libellant for three years together, without making suitable provisions for her support and maintenance, which said abandonment has continued down to the filing of this libel, and commencing in March, A. D. 1867.

Wherefore she prays a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony existing between said John and herself may be decreed—and that the custody of Arthur Everett Townsend, her child, an infant of tender years, who has been supported solely by her, during said period referred to above, may be decreed to her. SARAH A. R. TOWNSEND.

In the Supreme Judicial Court.

Rockingham, ss. June Law Term, 1870. This libel having been filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court and entered at this term, it is ordered that said SARAH A. TOWNSEND notify the said JOHN E. TOWNSEND to appear at an adjourned Law Term of said Court, to be held at Manchester on the eleventh day of August next, then and there show cause, if any he has, why the prayer thereof should not be granted, by causing a copy of said petition and said libel to be forthwith published once a week for three weeks successively in the Portsmouth Daily Chronicle, a newspaper printed in Portsmouth, in said County of Rockingham, the last publication to be one to be at least thirty days before said term.

Attest, C. G. CONNER, Clerk.

A true copy of the original libel, and of the original order thereon.

BY ROSSITER JOHNSON.

Oh, for a lodge in a garden of cucumbers!
Oh, for an iceberg or two at control!
Oh, for a vale which at midday the dew cumbers!

Oh, for a little one-story thermometer,
With nothing but zeros all ranged in a row!
Oh, for a big, double-barrelled hygrometer, [brow!

Oh, that this cold world were twenty times colder!
(That's irony red hot it seemeth to me,)
Oh, for a turn of its dreaded cold shoulder!
Oh, what a comfort an ague would be!

Oh, for a grotto to typify heaven,
Scooped in the rock under cataract vast!
Oh, for a winter of discontent even!
Oh, for wet blankets judiciously cast!

From every hot lamp-post against the sky!

CHINESE IDOLATORS.—It is a serious question what measures Congress ought to adopt to prevent the importation of Chinese or Japanese laborers into our Republic. We have already a sufficient supply of Roman Catholic Idolators, who worship the Virgin Mary, a pious woman in her life time, and the Roman Pontiff as the vicegerent of God, who is, instead of being "infallible," a mere fallible mortal man.

The population of Asia now probably exceeds three hundred millions, who are, comparatively, with few exceptions, pagans and idolators, governed by the superstitious Bramins or Priests. The Chinese, degraded and ignorant, heard of our fine country where there is liberty, high wages, and plenty of cheap land.

They are begining to flock to our western shore, and without some speedy check, the native Americans in California may soon be outrooted at the polls, and soon acquire the political control of that and other regions this side of the Rocky Mountains. Indeed the tide of immigration may go on so rapid, that not at a very distant period, there may be some thirty or forty millions of such pagan idolators, who may be landed on our shores, unless Congress shall adopt some prohibitory law. To convert them to our moral political and religious principles, were it possible, might require more than one century, or never, in a state where they could gain the political ascendency. They treat their females as slaves, or brutes, and when they die do not feel it a duty to bury their bodies!

When settled in our Union, they would be entitled to equal rights. Their importers enter into a contract with them for cheap labor, to the injury of our laboring classes. We are glad to learn that this is producing some excitement in Massachusetts, and elsewhere. There are dangers enough now, which threaten to disturb our political elements, without inviting a foreign ignorant population, to cast a deeper gloom over our national affairs.

Yours, X.

DECEASED REDS.—Lieutenant Young, of the Second Cavalry, with 35 men, attacked 200 hostile indians on the 26th of June, 38 miles from Rawlins, on the Union Pacific Railroad and killed 15 of them, besides wounding a number of others. None of the soldiers were killed, and but one wounded.

A WOMAN WINS A MEDICAL PRIZE. It is recorded as a significant fact, that while some of the Doctors are disputing whether women have intellect enough to master the principles of medical practice, one of the fair sex has carried off the prizes offered by the New York Medical Gazette, for the best clinical reports. These articles were sent in signed by the initials M. M. W., and turn out to have been written by Mrs. M. M. Webster, a graduate of the Woman's Medical College of Philadelphia.

—The following is an extract from the Sarotogian:—

"It is one of the most amusing sights in the world to watch a young and inexperienced fly attempt to peregrinate slantindicularly across the head of one of our short-haired young men. We mean one of those heads that has been scissored down, rasped, filed and finished off with sand paper and emery, so that the minutest phrenological bump stands out in as bold relief as a hill of potatoes. He (the fly) travels so loosely, and mixes his feet up very much like a bashful bachelor learning to skate. No use trying to enjoy a sermon with one of those heads on an exact line between you and the preacher, and an unfortunate fly on it essaying desperately to get across from the northeast to the southwest corner to see a friend.

WEDDING IN HIGH LIFE.—At a balloon ascension at Chicago on the 4th, a couple were married while nearly 200 feet from the ground.

Prof. Wm. W. Niles, of Hartford, Conn., recently elected Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the N. H. Diocese, has signified his acceptance of the office. The Bishop elect leaves the matter of his residence to the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The date of consecration is not yet fixed.

Col. Paran Stevens gives a new evidence that he does not forget his old home. He has authorized the High School Committee of Claremont to draw on him semi-annually for the interest of $10,000, until it shall be convenient to pay the principal. This makes the gift to the school $20,000.

Mr. Joseph H. Abbot, of Concord, in driving down Main street, found himself in the midst of a swarm of bees, from which he emerged safely amid the plaudits of his friends. Baffled in the attempt to swarm upon the rotund form of Mr. A., the bees accepted a large limb as a substitute, whence they were safely hived in a barrel. The swarm was a large one, and the amiable Italians were in such good humor that not one of the large crowd that witnessed the capture was stung.

It is said that the first lecture advocating total abstinence ever delivered in this state, was given in Concord in 1826. The first Good Templar Lodge was formed in Lake Village.

A boy named James Hews was accidentally shot on the Fourth at Rochester, and bled to death internally.

The boarders at the Whitton Hotel, in Wilton, went out on a ride on Monday last, and the carriage was thrown over one of the steep banks of the Souhegan River on account of the horses becoming unmanageable, and a large number of them were severely injured.

Mr. James M. March, a machinist in Lowell, Mass., was drowned at Hudson on Saturday evening last while in search of pond lilies.

Professor William W. Niles, bishop elect of the diocese of the State, has signified his acceptance of the office. His residence is left to the standing committee.

SHOO FLY IN THE SENATE. — The Washington Star says that "Shoo Fly" has got into the Senate. Recently, Mr. Hamlin, in the course of his speech on the income tax question, paused to interrogate Mr. Morrill in regard to what he construed to be a vigorous expression of dissent by that gentleman to his proposition to replace the income tax by a tax on sugar. Mr. Morrill intimated that it was a mistake; he had not dissented. "But," said Mr. Hamlin, "you shook your head." Whereupon Mr. Morrill explained that he had shaken his head to get a fly off, and the matter ended with a ripple of laughter among the grave and reverend seigniors.

—At the reservoir on Sockonosset Hill, Providence water works, there has recently arrived a stone crusher, which can be forced with a powerful engine to crush one hundred and twenty tons of stone per diem.

MEDICAL MADNESS.

LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous nostrums in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed unmeasurable madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the sanitary skill of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jy1w

THE YACHTMAN'S JODEL.

I love the sea—the boundless sea, [free!
Where the waves run high and the winds blow
Where the sea-gulls cry, and the breakers roll,
And a briny beauty encrusts the soul.
I love—I love the sea.

I love the sea—the boundless sea!
The thunder may growl in a deep bass key,
The lightning may flash, and the breeze may howl,
And the storm in its fury may shriek and growl.
I love—I love the sea.

I love the sea—the boundless sea!
But I'm sorry to say that it doesn't love me.
When the wind pipes loud, and the billows roar,
I always consider I'm best on shore.
I love—I love the sea.

I love the sea—the boundless sea!
(If it didn't bound, we should better agree,)
And I spoke in the abstract, of course, just now
When I mentioned the tempest might make a row.
I love—I love the sea.

I love the sea—the boundless sea!
But—let this remark in strict confidence be—
When the ocean is smooth as a duck-pond's breast,
And the wind is hushed—oh, 'tis then that best
I love—I love the sea.

KINGSTON CEMETERY.—Kingston is an old town. Nearly 150 years have passed since it was settled. On a recent visit, we were deeply interested to find its Cemetery so large. But few in country towns contain as much land, laid out so long ago as this. There does not appear to have been any addition, save on the south side, and within a few years. It contains, we should judge, three or four acres in all. It is remarkable, too, that it was located back from the highway and retire from the dwellings. The custom formerly was to have the cemeteries near the churches and close to the largest thoroughfares of travel.

The old meeting-house stood on the West side of the Plain, which is now a large and fine common, lacking only shady trees. The cemetery is on the east side, nearly opposite the place where the church was, but some way from it. The old and the new appear here. A few of the stones that mark the resting spots are unlike those of more modern times; they are of great thickness, of a somewhat reddish color; the names and dates on them are not legible; they may have been there nearly a century, and are made from slate, and, in later years, from fine marble.

We found the names of five, who have been pastors of the Congregational church. Four of these are on one monument, erected by a unanimous vote of the town, in 1850. Rev. Ward Clark, the first settled minister, died in 1737, after a pastorate of 12 years. Rev. J. Secombe, the next, died in 1760, having been pastor 22 years. Rev. Amos Tappan died in 1771, after 8 years, and Rev. Elihu Thayer in 1812, in office 35 years. A little way from this monument is the grave of Rev. Josiah L. Case. We were present at his ordination, Oct. 17, 1839. Prof. Woods of Andover, preached the sermon. We took no notes, but the discourse was so clear and impressive, that the outlines of it are in mind now. Mr. Case preached but one Sabbath after his ordination, dying at the age of 31.

A former Governor of New Hampshire lies here. Towards the northeast corner is a huge tablet resting on granite. We give the inscription:

"This monument is erected over the sacred relicts of His Excellency Josiah Bartlett, Esq., late Governor of New Hampshire, who died Nov. 19, 1795, in the 65th year of his age. And his virtuous and amiable Consort Mrs. Mary Bartlett, who died July 14, 1789, in the 59 year of her age. Fragrant is the recollection of friends. The most delightful flowers shall be scattered upon their valuable remains. When we recall the sacred spot to mind, the congenial tear shall sparkle in the eye of sympathy and their virtues shall be embalmed in the warm bosom of affection."

There are few ornamental trees in this cemetery. Some shrubbery might be cleared away. But the poplar springs up as a natural growth. Its leaves tremble at the slightest impulse of the air, showing how frail is the hold of mortals on life.—I. F., in the Exeter News Letter.

POTATOES have an avenger in the shape of a new species of bug, armed with a tremendous bill, big enough to scoop up the potato bug easily. The new bug is said to do his work neatly and nicely. We hope it is not a humbug.

KENTUCKY-LIKE.—A sort of guerilla war is waging in Breathitt County, Kentucky, growing out of a quarrel between three men. There are about 30 on each side, well armed, and on the lookout for each other.

—In Hebron, on the grave stone of a Mrs. Buel, is this peculiar verse:—

Dear as thou art and justly dear,
We will not weep for thee,
One thought shall check the falling tear,
It is, that I am free.

—The Boston Advertiser says our language is becoming slanguage.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
OR
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper names is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU:—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in the evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

TESTIMONY.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: I introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named J. B. Estell, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
ECGLES & HINKLE, Druggists.

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,

DEAR SIR:—I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have suffered by water in the bladder for a few days past, but yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as my self, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised Remedies, to the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I cannot be publicly recreant to my trust, as an acknowledgment to him, and a valuable suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. M. AREN.

DR. KEYSER

is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any preparation of it I have not used, or been known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are so very well as urinalic, that I have been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. R. KEYSER, M. D.,
140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Penn.
August 11, 1865.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 29, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting my terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Incosed please find our rates o advertising. Yours, T. B. H. STENHOUSE,
Ed'r and Prop'r of Telegraph.

TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know that I can do better to express my self. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. The complaints were the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. I have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about, I could not rest night or day.

It would soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had no much faith in it. Why should I, when I had been trying so many things that cost me so much? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt bad; but I finished it and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently.) When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I felt so, before I had finished the second, that I had madeup my mind it was of no use trying any more—and all the time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after, I tried it again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and stopping it off again. This was the three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I turned it out, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks the color of an hickory nut and as hard as flint. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, although I was feeling so badly. I procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind; but nothing had to pass, and I feel to-night as right as a trivet. I have been as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone securely wrapped, and those who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story, of my case, and you are welcome to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire and Litchfield in Connecticut. The advertisement saved me. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time, so I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu procured to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and for three times the daily morning anathemas of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may have many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from Weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment for what, not knowing it to be a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I concluded to try family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I concluded to try family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

It was this that prompted me to use your Remedy. As you advertise that it was composed of Buchu, cubebs, and Juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and a thorough search with the Druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and knowing it to be a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

FOR ALL PURPOSES of a LAXATIVE MEDICINE,

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PILL. The obvious reason is that it is more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these PILLS rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, according to the nature of the disease and action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it usually causes the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

As a cathartic, they cleanse the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous even in cases where they cause no action. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and restorative effect on the digestive apparatus. dawje21eod4m

A Winsted, Connecticut, lady was some time ago struck by lightning, and lay for hours unconscious,—dead to all human appearances. She distinctly heard her friends declare she was "unquestionably dead;" and she would have been buried alive had not her brother insisted (while the bystanders laughed him to scorn) upon hoping and working and waiting for her restoration, which he at length accomplished.

It would be creditable to the Republican party of New Hampshire if by common consent it would take up John P. Hale as its next candidate for Governor. He is outside of all rings and not mixed up with any of the questions that now divide the party. He has served the party and the country faithfully and well, probably he will not much longer be in public life, and his election would reflect honor upon the State, while it would reassure him of the confidence of its people. It would be worth nothing to him however, unless it came as the free gift of the party and people.—Lebanon Free Press.

The Dover Bee says Mr. Farrar, of that city, was firing a small cannon at the side of the river on the Fourth, and by some freak took a notion to put his watch into the muzzle of the gun, holding on to the chain. Bang went the gun, and off went the watch, the owner knew not for a time whither, but it was picked up during the day on the other side of the Cocheco, with no other damage, it is said, than being minus a crystal, and is now doing good business as a time-keeper.

THE EUROPEAN TROUBLES. — The Constitutionnel, a French imperial organ, says that when France becomes convinced of the persistence of Spain in the matter of Prince Leopold's ascending the Spanish throne, she will terminate diplomatic relations with Spain. No definite intelligence has been received from Prussia, but France will not be content with the evasive declarations of Bismark.

Two French corps d'armee are to be made ready for an immediate movement, Marshal Bazaine will command one and General Lebaun the other. Marshal MacMahon will have an army and General Leboeuf will be entrusted with an important command, while Count Pilakao will take command of the troops which are to operate against Spain. Active preparations are going on at the seaports.

It is reported that Prince Leopold refused General Prim's offer of the crown, but his sister, the Duchess of Flanders, has induced him finally to accept it. It is feared, if this should prove true, that Belgium will be drawn into the conflict.

The Austrian official journals contradict all the reports of the interference of Austria in the pending difficulty between France, Prussia and Spain, and they declare that Austria will not, under any circumstances, participate in the controversy.

As but little cotton comes from No. Carolina, it may be practicable to trace the villain who perpetrated this outrage.

☞ The Biddeford Journal is "red hot" in opposition to the re-election of Congressman Lynch and says—

If the Democrats nominate, as they certainly will, a man like Wm. P. Haines, John M. Goodwin, or Jos. Dane, who differs with the republican party very slightly, and one rich of the Republicans vote for him, Lynch is defeated. The same result follows if he runs behind 42 votes in each town in the District, or if 21 Republicans in those towns vote for either gentleman we have named.

CONGRESS is to adjourn on Friday next; may the nation rejoice. AN ESTABLISHED FACT.—The investigation in regard to the Railroad contract established the fact, in the minds of unprejudiced men, that the Concord Railroad "ring" contemplated a huge swindle upon the public. This fundamental fact should be borne in mind when considering the question now pending between them and the Northern Railroad in relation to the contract. And if that "ring" should get control of the Concord Railroad, the management of Gilmore will be made to appear honest and high-minded by contrast with the exhibition they will give—judging from the character of the men and their late conduct.—N. H. Patriot.

We can't exactly endorse all this, though in the main we have agreed with what the Patriot has said on the subject. The testimony of the two representative men, as we regard Gov. Stearns and Ex-Gov. Smyth, was very conflicting; but we cannot doubt that each intended to state the truth. As to the facts, the Manchester Savings Banks developments did not exactly suit our ideas of propriety; and if, as some think appears clearly, Mr. John H Pearson is the ruling spirit of the ring, we should perhaps more nearly agree with the Patriot. Our verdict is, after carefully weighing all the evidence, that Gov. Stearns stands better before the high court of public opinion, than the opposing parties, however all concerned may emerge from the legal tribunals.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Brondside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious knownothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters," is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the vendors have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicated stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concections referred to being composed of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (!) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.
What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all Diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskilful hands.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Sashes and Blinds—J. G. Barnard & Co.
Elwood's Female Minstrels.
Steamboat Excursion—Clara Bateman.
New Books—J. H. Foster.

☞ Steamer Clara Bateman is announced for an Excursion down river, on Tuesday evening.

☞ Very heavy trains are now being run over the Railroads. The tide of summer travel is setting in fast.

☞ In our report of the base ball match between the Granite States and Whipples, we neglected to state that Philbrick of the Kittery club made a home run.

☞ Among the invited guests at the Printers' Convention, will be Hon. H. B. Anthony, President pro tem of the U. S. Senate; Maj. Ben. Perley Poore, and Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Esq., all printers and editors.

☞ A beautiful and rare plant, the Brumonia, from South America, has been in bloom the past week, at the residence of J. M. Tredick, Esq. on State Street, and is much admired. It is a sort of white quilled lily, the flower very long, conical and pendant, with the odor of the lily of the valley.

☞ Thanks to our old personal, political and business friend John S. Harvey, Esq., for a sample basket of excellent black and white Cherries, from his garden—on which little patch of land he raises more fruit, &c., than many farmers ever see. Long may he wave, and his cherry crop never waver.

—Rev. George W. Bicknell of Portsmoth, N. H, has accepted a call from the Universalist church in Kittery.—Boston Advertiser.

Not at all. Mr. Bicknell preaches in Kittery at stated times but still remains, and we hope will long remain, pastor of the Universalist church in this city.

☞ There is a movement on foot among the young men of this city to organize a military company to be called the Goodwin Zouaves, in honor of our distinguished fellow citizen, Ex-Gov. Goodwin.

We also hear of a proposed organization of veterans, one of the principal movers being a well known officer of the 10th N. H. Regiment, who has for 30 or 40 years been engaged in military affairs. Success to both.

BASE BALL.—The Granite State club of this city have accepted the challenge of the Sawyer club of Dover to play for the championship of the State, and sent the Sawyers a telegram on Saturday, assigning this city for the place, and to-morrow, Tuesday, for the time. The Granite State first-nine have not been beaten this year and don't intend to be. Their playing is very fine and the contest will bring out a large attendence of interested spectators. We hope there will be a sufficient police force on hand to keep the small boys who get in the way of the players and "chaff" visiting clubs, in order.

BAILEY'S BIG SHOW will arrive this morning, and exhibit afternoon and evening, on Middle Street. The procession will be a mile in length, and is claimed to be the finest street display made by any canvas exhibition. It will move about half past 9 o'clock. Two elephants will be harnessed to a great chariot, which will contain the Army Band of Prof. Withers; all the massive animal dens—horses plumed and drivers uniformed—will follow, and the entire Circus cortege will also appear. The whole show, outside and under the canvas, caravan and circus, is well spoken of wherever it has been. Advertisement in another column.

THE BIG PICNIC at the Shoals to-morrow (Tuesday) promises to be a grand time for the participants. It was at first intended to start at 8 o'clock in the morning, but the ladies think that too early; and as they have their own way about it, of course, the party will not embark until the Appledore's usual hour for starting, on the arrival of the train which leaves Boston at half past 7 A. M., returning in the evening, when they get ready. A gorgeous chowder will be made, by a master of the art, and furnished to all who desire it at a reasonable rate. The excursionists will fancy they are "roughing it," which innocent delusion will lend an additional relish to such coarse and simple fare as boiled tongue, cold ham, jelly, chowder, sardines, olives, tea, coffee, pies, bread and cheese, cake and pickled onions, which is about the usual bill of fare of those who "rough it" at picnics. Tickets, at 75 cts. for the round trip, may be obtained of the members of the Philharmonic Society.

—Back-gammon—The Grecian Bend.

RAILROAD BONDS.—The St. Joseph and Denver City Railroad, is, as we are informed, entirely completed 70 miles west from St. Joseph, leaving but forty-one miles to be finished. This the Company expect to do within the next three months. When this road is completed it will supply a want long felt for a direct and short communication from St. Joseph to Denver, Colorado, via the Union Pacific from Fort Kearney. The bonds now offered by the Company are at the low rate o $13,503.70 per mile. These bonds are only issued for the purpose of fully supplying the road with rolling stock of every description and are an only lein upon such equipment.—Congress has donated the Company 1,500,000 acres of land. The Company's advertisement appears in another column. We should think the security ample.

——We are pleased to learn that Mr. Wm. E. Hoyt, son of Alfred M. Hoyt Esq. of this city, has just been appointed Assistant teacher of Civil Engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and enters on his duties Oct. 1st. This being at the institute from which he graduated only two years since, it is a matter of considerable honor. Of the several branches of human pursuit none more directly originates in the calculating energy of the mind than that of Engineering, and Mr. Hoyt, through hard study and practical thinking is justly reaping a large share of permanent honor which we take peculiar pride in mentioning. Mr. H. has for many months occupied the position of Division Engineer on the Dixon, Peoria and Hannible Railroad to great acceptance.

THE ONEIDA.—The Washington Chronicle of 29th ult. gives a letter from Consul Shepherd of Japan, to Hon. Thomas L Tullock, in which he gives fresh testimonials of the worth of the late paymaster Tullock, of the Oneida. Another correspondent writes from Yokohama, May 20, to Mr. Tullock;

Only four bodies from the unfortunate ship have been recovered, Commander Williams and Ensign Brown being the only officers. It is a mystery to all that no more were found.

We are pleased to learn that Ex-Sheriff Joseph P. Morse has consented, at the request of many members of the Bench and Bar, to serve as Deputy Sheriff for the present.

Mr. Morse's long experience and thorough knowledge of the duties of the position render him one of the best of the officers holding that position in the State. His promptness in action, his faithfulness and his immediate settlements on collections makes him popular with all who entrust their business to him. —Journal.

☞ Rev. Geo. W. Bicknell of this city delivered the oration at Skowhegan, Me., on the 14th.

☞ Parepa-Rosa and Mrs. Wendell Phillipps are both said to have offered themselves to their husbands.

CARD.—A former member of the 15th N. H. Regiment, who was in this city on Saturday, recognized in Maj. David G. Fuller, landlord of the Franklin House, the liberal host who gave the 15th Regiment a dinner at Utica, N. Y., on their return from war. He wishes to return his thanks thus publicly to the noble host, in behalf of his own Regiment and other New Hampshire organizations which enjoyed like courtesies at his hands.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

—The Evening Commercial calls for the hanging of a druggist or druggist's clerk, to put a stop to wrong prescriptions. Nearly a dozen deaths from this cause within a year.

Can the Evening Commercial tell how many lives are saved in a year, by careful druggists, who refuse to put up prescriptions that they know would endanger life, and in many cases destroy it? The mistakes are not all on the side of the apothecary or his assistants; why not hang the man who writes a wrong prescription, as well as the druggist or druggist's clerk who puts one up wrong? NOT A DRUGGIST.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

KITTERY, ME., July 9.

The recently organized Universalist Society is flourishing beyond the hopes of those who were most ardent and active in establishing it. The Society held a Levee Thursday evening, which was fully attended and a decided success, over $50 being cleared without any charge being made for admittance. The tables were very tastefully arranged, and the company broke up at midnight, well pleased.

The Society propose soon to have an excursion to the Pool, near Biddeford, and will make liberal arrangements for the occasion. It is hoped that a delegation from the Portsmouth Universalist Society will go at the same time. K. M.

"Let us Have a Menagerie."

WILL EXHIBIT IN PORTSMOUTH

On Middle Street,

MONDAY, July 11th,

At 2½ and 8 o'clock, Afternoon and Evening,

BAILEY'S & CO.

FAMOUS

MENAGERIE.

THE LARGEST, OLDEST, MOST ATTRACTIVE, AND UNOBJECTIONABLE PAVILION ENTERTAINMENT IN THE WORLD!

240 MEN AND HORSES!

Now on its 22nd annual tour; after an absence of four years will revisit and exhibit in this place as above stated.
Among its manifold attractions is a Monster

RHINOCEROS.

"He, fearless, walks the plains, or seeks the hills;
Where, as he crops his varied fare, the herds
In widening circle round, forget their food,
And as the awful monster wondering gaze."

African hunters assert they had rather face

FIFTY LIVING LIONS!

Than this enraged monster.

Herds of Dromedaries!

—AND A—

MAN-EATING TIGRESS!

The Proprietor is pleased to announce that he can present to his patrons the rarest, the most amusing and instructive sight ever beheld in a Menagerie.

FOUR

LITTLE BABY LIONS!

They were born last month, are as playful and harmless as kittens, and at the afternoon exhibitions will be taken from the lioness' cage and carried among the audience, and the ladies and children will be permitted to hold them. More than have visited these nursing lions during the past three weeks. Included in the collection of wild animals are the following:—

A Polar Bear, direct from the North Ocean; A Brown Guanaco—new variety of Llama; The Sacred Cattle, Bengal Tigers, Black Maned Lions, White Bears, Laughing Hyenas, Brazilian Jaguars, Senegal Leopards, South American Gauncos, Gazelles, Panthers, Emus, Camels, Grizzly Bears, Zebras or Sacred Ox, Buffaloes, Black Wolves, Black Bears, Alpine Goat, Llamas, Dromedaries, Bisons, Axis, Bears, Baskin Swine, Striped Hyenas, Tapirs, Quagga, Zebras, Eagles, Peccaries, Vultures, Monkeys, Apes, Baboons, etc., and beautiful birds from all parts of the world.
There will also be Introduced

2 Performing Elephants!

"—wisest of brutes!"
Oh, truly wise; with gentle might endowed;
Tho' powerful, not destructive.

Our aim being to "please the people" and suit ALL TASTES, we have engaged

Sig. SEBASTIAN'S

ELEGANT

which has long been accounted the

MOST FAULTLESS CIRCUS TROUPE IN EUROPE,

accompanied by many of the best artists obtainable in this country. We do not travel by railroad, as many small concerns are obliged to, but with a working force of 240 Men and Horses we move over the country as an "army with banners"—with golden chariots, with elephants from distant India, with droves of camels from Egypt's ancient plains, and a long line of massive animal cages filled with denizens from the forests of Ceylon, the dreary wastes of New Zembla, and from the banks of the sacred Ganges and the classical Nile, truly presenting a ROYAL RETINUE of Oriental splendor and magnificence, as they pass over the land.

"Menagerie Levees"

are held one hour before the Circus commences, and ample time is allowed all leisurely to inspect the Wild Animals and Beautiful Birds before the Circus entertainment commences. Wither's Regimental Band will be present to enliven the occasion with their choicest music.

OBSERVE, READ AND REMEMBER!

The Circus and Menagerie constitute distinct exhibitions, one ticket and one price admits to BOTH Circus and Menagerie.

GRAND and MAGNIFICENT PROCESSION,

Ever seen in this place. A pair of Mighty Elephants!

Decked in gorgeous trappings and HARNESSED to the Roman Chariot!

Exceeding in cost, surpassing in magnificence, superior in design, and greater in weight than any chariot of ancient or modern times, and which will contain

WITHER'S ARMY BAND!

In military uniform, discoursing the popular airs and melodies of AMERICA, IRELAND and ENGLAND.

LOOK AT THE Egyptian Camels!

The beautifully formed Horses, and the Ladies and Gentlemen all mounted upon them, and elegantly costumed.

BEHOLD THE

RICHARDSON'S

LITTLE WASHER! PRICE $5.00.

The Simplest, Cheapest, and most Successful WASHING MACHINE ever invented. Took the FIRST PREMIUM over all other Washing Machines at the Mechanics' Fair at Springfield, Mass., March, 1868; and was Awarded a Silver Medal!

☞ The qualities that place the LITTLE WASHER beyond competition are; its cheapness; its simplicity, (it cannot get out of order, and can be operated by a child;) its lightness, which renders it easily removed; and the perfect manner in which it does its work, adjusting itself to any sized article, from a handkerchief to a bedquilt, without alteration, and washing clothes perfectly clean without wearing the garments in the least. You can expend all your labor on the soiled parts, without washing the whole garments at the same time.

More than twenty thousand families in New England alone, have already been supplied with this new and useful invention. Persons desiring such a machine as here described, and yet doubtful about its merits, can have a washing done in their own families, by the agent. The following testimonials need no comment:

Portsmouth, N. H., June 9, 1870.

MR. J. J. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—The set of "Richardson's Little Washer" that I witnessed this week convinced me that we need look no farther for Washing Machines. It does its work perfectly, and is all you say of it. Yours truly, L. W. BREWSTER.

MR. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—I have tested the "Little Washer" and think it a perfect success. MRS. L. E. MARTIN.

MR. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—Having tested the "Little Washer", I fully concur with the above testimonials, and think it superior to any other Washing Machine. It will do all you say of it. R. W. WEBSTER.

J. J. HATLINGER, Sole Agent for Portsmouth.

HEADQUARTERS AT PORTSMOUTH:—SWEETSER & CLARK'S, 48 Market Street; OXFORD & JOHNSTON'S, Grocers, 78 State St. and 521-2 Middle Street; and D. H. MONTGOMERY'S Music Store, Daniel St., where machines can be seen, and orders left for the Agent to call at houses to demonstrate its qualities. je16tf

LONG BEARDS.—A writer in the Chronicle of July 2d attempts to cast ridicule upon our chignons and wire hoops. I am glad that they are going out of fashion. It is said that those who live in glass houses ought not to throw stones. There is another tyrant-fashion. Sometime previous to the late war, when Americans were seen in Constantinople and some other parts of Asia, they were called "Christian dogs," because they were shaved. From the first settlement of this country until a recent period, shaving the face was not only the fashion, but the evidence of neatness. During the late war it could not be expected that the soldiers, liable to be called out to action at short notice, would shave, and their long beards were some protection to their necks. Since the war, most of them neglect to shave, and therefore beards have become fashionable with a majority of men. Are they not as odious, filthy, disgusting and hateful as chignons? At the dining table care must be taken to prevent the hair from being mixed in the mouth with the food. But oh! 'tis said the beard ought not to be cut, because it is nature's growth. The same reason may be urged against cutting the hair on the head, or finger nails. Ladies like to see a man's face, that they may know him, but now it is difficult to recognize him, except upon view of his eyes and nose.

Can a refined lady wish to have her face come in contact with a bunch of hair as coarse as a pig's bristles? Why is not the beard, hanging from a man's chin, like that of a wolf's, as distasteful as the "dog's tail" to which the writer referred? If a gentleman twenty years ago were seen in the streets with a long beard, he would have been the subject of ridicule. As chignons are going out of fashion, may long beards go also. In conclusion — how much better a man looks when we can see his clean face! ELIZA.

[Remarks.—This is what we call choplogic. The difference between natural beards and false hair, seems to us as wide as between natural charms of person and patent palpitators. The beard is a true mark of manhood; and even the moustache, why is not it as clean naturally as the lips or teeth, to touch the food? If the beard be not cut—as it should not be, especially not with a razor—it will never be stiff as bristles.

The fact of a change in the fashion of beards, is a great improvement. Why not with as much reason, plead for the return of the absurd custom of clipping horses' tails? The fact respecting men's habits which most humiliates us, is that such men as Washington and Franklin should ever have been weak enough to wear wigs they did not need, no matter what common humanity might do. In view of this, we try to look with some toleration on the ladies' jutes—for the dear creatures have long ago proved that they will wear anything or nothing, as fashion dictates. F.]

N. H. BIBLE SOCIETY.—The fifty-ninth annual meeting was held in Concord July 5th, Dr. Edward Spaulding of Nashua, President, in the chair. The report of the Treasurer, Rev. B. P. Stone of Concord, shows that $7,464.23 had been received for the year, and the same amount less $23.20 disbursed. $5,919 has been paid over to the American Bible Society during the year, five thousand nine hundred and eighty volumes sold and given away, and $5,810.-14 worth of books are now on hand. The donations of the year have been $6,756.64. $2,978.57 have been received for books, and legacies to amount of $701 have left the Society.

During the session, remarks were made by Rev. J. Lanman of Windham, relative to the progress of Protestantism in Mexico; by Rev. S. H. Willey of California, on the religious prospects of that State affected by the Chinese; and Hon. H. A. Bellows of Concord on the work and importance of Bible Societies in general. The same officers as have served the past year were re-elected, save that Rev. Silas Curtis of Concord was substituted as a Director in place of Rev. Dr. W. C. Durgin of Hampton, and Joshua B. Merrill of Concord as Auditor in place of John P. Johnson. The prospects of the Society for usefulness continue as encouraging as ever.

☞ At the next full of our satellite, on Tuesday next, July 12th, the Moon will be totally eclipsed. This eclipse will be wholly visible in the greater part of Europe, and the latter of it in Nova Scotia and in the eastern part of Maine, &c., but not elsewhere in the United States.

ANTI-TEMPERANCE CLERGYMEN.—Some time since the Congregationalist informed us that an "observant and thoughtful clergyman" had unburdened his mind to the editor. In his opinion, "the Bible was not quite up with the sentiments entertained in certain quarters." Is this thoughtful clergyman willing to give his name? Is he willing to make the same statement in a sermon to his people?

We once smelt the alcoholic breath of a "thoughtful and observant" clergyman, one eminent for the good he had done, and who was then, in his later years, occupying a prominent post in a theological seminary; he afterwards reeled through the streets, and died a drunkard. And we know his pupil, too, now professor in a theological seminary, whose memory will probably bear the same stain, unless a "mysterious Providence" takes him off at an earlier age. But the fall of such men is damage enough to human nature, without any anonymous circulation of speeches of theirs calculated to diminish any man's hatred of the cause of their future ruin.

And we submit to our brother of the Congregationalist, that we do not see how his utterance of such a man's sentiments can be made without a virtual endorsement of them. There is a cowardly way of putting one's own sentiments into other's mouths. If, in the opinion of the Congregationalist, there is an ultra-temperance sentiment in certain quarters, will it please give us its confession of faith on this point? Ours is, that it is wrong and unsafe to use any article of beverage or diet in which alcohol is an active or essential ingredient; and that any sort of encouragement or apology, spoken, written or published, in favor of such articles, is wrong.—P.

LO AT WORK.—A general massacre of white miners at North Park, California, by the Utes, in revenge for a refusal to aid them in a fight with the Cheyennes, is reported. The Utes, after a battle of five hours with the Cheyennes, routed them; and then attacked the miners, killing all they could find. They were all much mangled, and their heads were chopped to pieces.

☞ The Portland Advertiser favors the election of Gov. Chamberlain as U. S. Senator, to succeed Senator Morrill.

RENOMINATED—Congressmen Garfield and Voorhees.

—What next? The irrepressible Fisk, thirsting for more worlds to conquer, now threatens to invade the press with a paper of his own.

—There are said to be clerical intelligence offices in London where clergymen advertise themselves for vacant places. Why not?

—"A young lady of experience would assist in household cares"—is the style in which housemaids now advertise for a place.

—A country girl speaking of a dance she had attended, said: "The dancing was nothin', but the huggin' was heavenly."

THE LORRAINE VEGETABLE
CATHARTIC PILL.
DR. LORRAINE'S VEGETABLE PILL,
—OR—
LA MEDICINE CURATIVE.
Mild, Certain, Safe, Efficient. It is far the best Cathartic remedy yet discovered, and at once relieves and invigorates all the vital functions, without causing injury to any of them. The most complete success has long attended its use in many localities; and it is now offered to the general public with the conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it. It produces little or no pain, does not gripe, nor from irritation, and never over taxes or excites the nervous system. In all diseases of the skin or blood, liver, kidneys, or of children, or in many difficulties peculiar to women, it brings prompt relief and certain cure. The best physicians recommend it to their friends to use; and no person who once uses this, will voluntarily return to the use of any other cathartic.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MEDICAL MADNESS.
LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice, too common, of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. 1yiw

Joseph Nutter, of Rochester, was arraigned before the Police Court in that town, charged with assaulting Mr. John O. Hanson on the night of June 15th, on the highway between Great Falls village and Rochester. Nutter was bound over in the sum of $500.

Capt. Nathaniel Webster of Manchester, died last week from a sudden attack of diarrhœa. He was formerly a shipmaster and resided in Amesbury, was the father of Mr. William A. Webster, and father-in-law of Hon. E. A. Straw, and was seventy-eight years of age.

At a town meeting in Nottingham it was voted to subscribe for 190 shares in the Nashua & Rochester Railroad. The shares being $100 each, the sum voted amounts to $19,000, equal to 5 per cent. on the valuation of the town. The unanimity of feeling in the meeting is well expressed by the vote, which stood 77 to 2. The route proposed is the most feasible of any from Portland to the West, whether it pass through Nottingham or a contiguous town; but with the inducement of a liberal subscription in view, it is not likely that Nottingham will be ignored in making out the list of towns through which the iron rails shall be laid.

Henry J. Banks, Esq., met with a severe accident, at work on the bridge at West Ossipee. While crossing the same to give an order to one of his workmen, a plank tipped up, precipitating him eighteen or twenty feet on the rocks below, badly bruising and injuring him.

The birth place of the late Ex-President, and the homestead of his father, in Hillsboro', was sold at auction last week, for $3125. Messrs. Whittemore and Stewart, the purchasers, will retain the modern and antique furniture of the house, with its curious and valuable relics, for a summer boarding establishment.

We congratulate our friends in Newmarket and Durham upon their late success in the attempt to annex, by Legislative action, a portion of Durham to their territory, notwithstanding that they were opposed by the county of Strafford, solid. Representative Jones of Stratham made the most amusing speech we ever heard, in support of the division.

Mr. Charles W. Treadwell, of Exeter, has, within two years, raised three calves, one heifer and two bulls, that weighed respectfully at one year of age 670, 825, and 875 lbs; one of the bull calves at twenty weeks of age weighed 470 lbs. These animals have drawn County, State and New England premiums, and are well worth an examination by all lovers of good stock. Mr. T. has also two heifer calves of the present season that now weigh 660 lbs; one 320 the other 340 lbs., which for Spring calves is good, to say the least. Mr. T.'s efforts to introduce Dutch cattle to the State are beginning to be appreciated, and the cattle are receiving that attention to which their great merits justly entitle them.

DANGEROUS TORPEDOES.—On Friday, at Boston, Michael Connolly, an employe of the Boston and Albany Railroad, went up on the track near the Albany street bridge, when a sudden explosion occurred near him by which he received a severe injury to his face and was thrown violently to the ground. Some workmen near heard the explosion and saw him fall, and he was conveyed to the Massachusetts General Hospital, where his wounds were dressed. The only explanation of the affair which seems reasonable, is that some one must have thrown one of the dangerous explosives known as nitro-glycerine torpedoes near him. The condition of one of his hands, part of the thumb-nail being blown off and some of the fingers blistered, would indicate that the missile struck these first and then exploded and did its mischief. His eyes are very badly injured and his face considerably pitted as though by very fine shot, but it is thought he will recover.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the United States Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,
NO. 78 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of Patents or inventions, and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided IN HIS FAVOR by the Commissioner of Patents.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.'
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGHART."

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1870.

Cleared and Cleared.

The Fifth Maine Regiment will celebrate its anniversary at Biddeford on the 27th inst.

Boston is credited with 220,750 inhabitants.

In compliance with the resolutions of the Senate, the President has transmitted a large lot of documents to that body concerning the seizure of American vessels and the imprisonment and execution of citizens of the United States during the hostilities in Cuba. The correspondence earnestly protests against Spanish outrages.

The official canvass of the Oregon election gives the democrats a majority on the congressional ticket of 343, and a majority of 631 for Graves (democrat) for governor.

Gen. Hancock denies that he ever insulted the President.

General Thomas Jordan publishes a card urging an official declaration at once by the United States government that war exists in Cuba between Spain and Cuban patriots. He thinks that the first act of France in waging war against Spain would be the seizure of Havana, and that the Cubans in view of the present attitude of the United States, would welcome and co-operate with the French against the Spaniards.

Ex-Alderman Florence Scannel of New York died Sunday evening, from the effects of a wound received in the election quarrel of December 3d.

On Saturday, in Cincinnati, a game of base ball, between the Red Stockings, and the Amateurs of Chicago, at Ogden Park, resulted in the success of the former 56 to 19. During the progress of the game, the raised seats on the park gave way, precipitating some five hundred persons to the ground, in terrible confusion. Three men and two ladies were considerably injured.

The Senate has ratified the protocol in relation to the African slave trade and the naturalization treaty with Great Britain.

The famous "Living Skeleton" is dead. He was 30 years old and was born in Oldtown, Me.

Enlistments in the marine corps are to be for five years hereafter, instead of four.

The United States Treasury in Philadelphia was defrauded of $12,000, Saturday afternoon, by persons who changed the small gold checks to larger ones, and immediately got them cashed. One man was arrested.

The U. S. Senate has amended the army bill, so that the pay of Gen. Sherman and Lieut. Gen. Sheridan will not be reduced. The bill reduces the army to 30,000, making a saving of four million dollars per annum.

White Stockings 9, Stars 6.

Gold went up to 115 1-8, Monday, and closed at 113 1-2.

Gen. Schenck declines a re-election to Congress.

☞ Both Houses of Congress have agreed to abolish the whole system of special or license taxes, except the tax on brewers and distillers, fixing the income tax at 2 1-2 per cent. with $2000 exemption and no limitation as to house rent, abolishing the tax on watches, carriages, billiard tables, boats and barges, gold and silver plate, passports, legacies and successions, gross receipts and all taxes on sales except those now paid by stamps, and those on sales of leaf or manufactured tobacco, snuff and cigars, wines and liquors, and doing away with the stamp tax on all receipts or notes for less than $100; on canned and preserved fish, and on transfers of mortgages.

☞ They have a queer way of amusing themselves in Auburn, N. Y. A party catch a toad, then a couple of dozen fire-flies or "lightning-bugs." They make the toad swallow the bugs, and afterwards put him under a glass dish. The little flies keep up a flashing inside for some minutes, and illuminate the toad all over. The toad likes it, too.

NAVAL.—The following promotions were confirmed by the Senate, Saturday:—Commodore C. Selfridge to be rear-admiral on the retired list, Commodores Melancthon Smith and Charles S. Boggs to be rear-admirals; Captain Fabens Stanley to be commodore; Commander William T. Hopkins to be captain; Lieutenant Commander A. F. Crosman to be commander.

PERSEVERANCE.—An erring Indiana hen was recently found in the back part of a hardware store, where the misguided fowl had struggled for three weeks, trying to hatch out half a dozen white porcelain door-knobs. She was very much reduced.

EUROPEAN NEWS.—The tone of the Paris press is very belligerent. The Journal des Debats says if the silence of Prussia is prolonged until Monday there will be a movement of French troops to the Rhine, Tuesday.

The Moniteur (ministerial journal) says the abandonment of the Hohenzollern project on the part of Prussia is not enough now. France must prevent the recommencement of similar projects, and on the part of Prussia demand the entire fulfilment of the treaty of Prague, namely—the liberty of South Germany, the evacuation of the fortress of Mayence, the renunciation of military influence beyond the Main, and the settlement of the Schleswig-Holstein question with Denmark.

Large quantities of powder and war stores of all kinds are being conveyed to the strongholds on the eastern frontier.

The French government has taken measures to put the Garde Nationale and the Garde Mobile on a war footing. Agents of the government are now in Hungary purchasing horses and hay for cavalry service. Two divisions of the army of Paris have been ordered to Chalons. General Paleka, commander-in-chief of the Fourth Army Corps, on arriving in Paris to witness the marriage ceremony of his son, was instantly ordered to return to his post at Lyons and not to leave it.

There is great activity at French ports on the Mediterranean. A large number of transports are being fitted up, enough to bring the entire French army now in Algeria. A war fleet is concentrating at Brest, and transports are leaving for the Mediterranean Sea for the purpose of bringing to France a picked contingent from the army of occupation in Algiers.

At a meeting of the Diplomatic Corps in Paris, the Duc de Gramont said that while remaining within the limits of moderation France was decided not to depart from the line of conduct traced out at first. Marshal McMahon has been ordered to be ready to move at the first signal, and orders have been sent to the commandant at Cherbourg to prepare transports for 30,000 troops.

The press of Italy, (official and national,) back France in the question with Prussia. The Prussians do not anticipate war.

A London dispatch of Monday says a crisis is imminent on the continent

The Minister of War, informs the Government that in twelve days 250,000 French soldiers will be ready to take the field.

Napoleon prefers to meet the issue now rather than after Prince Leopold is elected by the Spanish people.

The Oldest and the Newest Empire: China and the United States;—embracing a Geographical and Historical Description of the Empire of China and its Inhabitants—a View of Chinese Immigration to the United States, and its Influence upon our National Interests and Public and Domestic Institutions, by William Speer, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Education: formerly Missionary in China, and to the Chinese in California. The recent remarkable events growing out of change in the international policy of the government of China, and the constant emigration from that country to the United States, have created a universal demand for clear and authentic information regarding that remarkable people, and their relations to us. To meet this demand, no writer in America or abroad is better qualified than the author of the present volume, which is an octavo of nearly 700 pages, and illustrated with forty full page engravings, reproduced from photographs and original sketches, illustrating admirably the various subjects of the work, and delivered at prices from $3.50 to $5.25, in different bindings. This work can be obtained through Distributing Agents, and will be sold only by subscription. Early application for agencies will secure choice of territory. Address S. S. PORTS from which commerce was driven during the hot months by their terrible fevers are visited all the year with impunity now. Many localities in the South and West kept tenantless by their deleterious miasms are now filling up with populations under the protection of AYER'S AGUE CURE. Their afflicting Chills and Fever are so effectually cured by this remedy that the disease no longer turns emigration aside or destroys the settler if he ventures upon its infected districts. "Gazette," Independence, Mo. jy12

HAIR VIGOR.—In common with many others we have felt a lively interest in the investigations which DR. AYER has been making to discover the causes of failure of the hair, and to provide a remedy. His researches are said to have been much more thorough and exhaustive than any ever made before. The result is now before us under the name of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. We have given it a trial, and with full satisfaction. It equals our most favorable anticipations. Our gray hairs have disappeared, or resumed their original color; and a visible crop of soft, silken hair has started on a part of the scalp which was entirely bald.—Daily Voice, Boston.

DON'T BE HUMBUGGED with the foolish idea that Catarrh cannot be cured! The world moves, and medical science is progressive. The proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay $500 reward for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by druggists. Can get it by mail for sixty cents from Dr. R. V. Pierce, of 133 Seneca Street Buffalo, N. Y., who is the sole proprietor and the only man now living that can make the Genuine. Don't forget that the Genuine has Dr. Pierce's private Government Revenue Stamp on each package. TuThS

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Broadside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious knownothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters," is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the venders have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicated stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concoctions referred to being composed of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (!) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. m12

A RADICAL REVOLUTION

Has been accomplished in hair dyes. The horrible compounds containing LEAD, SALT and SULPHUR are discarded. The leading chemists implore the public not to use them, and Professor Chilton, whose reputation is second to that of no analytic chemist in America, has recommended a PERFECTLY INNOCUOUS ARTICLE, which may be used without fear. Remember, it is the only one that has been analyzed and found wholesome. Its effects are instantaneous, and the color it imparts natural.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

THE CENSUS.—Thus far it is said that the population of Portsmouth shows an increase over the number in 1860.

THE ORIENTAL COFFEE ROOMS on Ladd Street are being well patronized, and Mr. Smith has been compelled to increase his cooking facilities. He has a nicely fitted room for the especial use of the ladies; it is cool, quiet and comfortable.

EXCURSION.—Steamer Clara Bateman, Capt. Randall, will leave Pier Wharf at 8 o'clock this evening for a trip down the river and harbor. Music by Harlow's Marine Band. Tickets may be had at Wm. R. Preston's store, for 50 cents.

THOSE DIGNIFIED QUADRUPEDS, the elephants, as they walked with measured tread our shady streets, and flapped with measured flaps their cary ears, reminded us of the old couplet:—
A helephant heasily heats at his hease
Hunder humbragious humbrella trees.

☞ An individual who commenced celebrating the Fourth, in this city, on the 2nd, undertook to ascend the closet shelves at his boarding house on arriving there, thinking he was going up stairs to his sleeping room. The shelves wouldn't stand it, and they, he and the dishes, came to grief. Loss $15. No insurance.

THE HEAVY RAINS wash away the loose gravel on our streets, undoing hundreds of dollars worth of work each time. Our city fathers have appropriated $2000 to buy a stone crusher, and have learned that a crusher and engine, complete, can be purchased for $2400. Why don't they buy? Is it necessary to wait until next summer to raise the extra $400?

☞ We print this morning, a communication from an old-fashioned fireman, in accordance with our role of open columns,—without endorsing all the sentiments thereof. So far as we know, the Fire Department of Portsmouth compares well with that of other similar cities; and the Chief Engineer we believe has the full approval of all concerned. If anything can be done, however, to increase the efficiency of our Firemen, the serious lesson just taught at Manchester, may well be heeded by us.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

Messrs. Editors:—The writer was at the fire in Miss Pickering's wood-shed Friday, and was surprised at the apparent want of any system of management amongst the firemen. I was within thirty feet of the fire till it was subdued; it was half an hour after the alarm was given before any water was applied by the firemen, and at that time the fire had been virtually subdued by some policemen and others who brought water in tin slop-buckets, washing-tubs and sugar-firkins; but no sign of an old-fashioned fire bucket.

During all this time there was no person who seemed authorized to give orders; and if there was any such officer, there was nothing to designate his office. The time appeared to be consumed in putting the hose into position —after it was arranged, the company on the engine in Warren street worked very efficiently.

Now, Messrs. Editors, when we think of the $5000 appropriation of the present year for fire-works, and compare it with the one or two hundred dollars expended by the old Firewards, we do not seem to get the value of our expenditures. The old Firewards carried staves to show their authority. Every citizen carried his two buckets to the fire. The several Companies were ordered to fill their engines before they came to the fire, and there used to be a good deal of emulation to get the bounties, which were always awarded to the Company that first threw water on the fire.

Common sense teaches that this is the proper mode, for while as now conducted, the new engines are putting up their steam and displaying a long string of hose, the hand engine will very often, by its early attendance, extinguish a fire like that of Friday, before the great engines can be brought to bear.

There is no political or personal feeling in making these remarks, but it is a subject of vital interest to every person, and we should all act and do every thing to avoid such a calamity as has just befallen the city of Manchester. One word more, we ought, without favor or affection, or any political bias or prejudice, to select the best man in the city for Engineer, and one who can be found in the city by day or by night.

A LOOKER ON.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

The graduates at Harvard College at the late Commencement, belonging to New Hampshire, were E. S. Brown and B. M. Fernald of Exeter, W. G. Hale of Peterborough, F. G. Worcester of Hollis.—At Andover Academy, C. H. Cook of Salisbury finished his preparatory course.—Ulysses S. Grant, Jr., son of the President, has finished his preparatory course at Exeter Academy, and will enter College. But 6 of the 140 students at Exeter Academy the past year belong in that town. The Robinson Female Seminary had 304 lady students the past year; of these, 237 were of Exeter, where the institution is located.

The last town in Rockingham County that had a Centennial Celebration, was Raymond, in 1864. Londonderry had a half Centennial Celebration in 1869. The last Centennial of Portsmouth was in 1823. It can have a half Centennial in 1873. The same year Northwood should have a Centennial Celebration, as the town will then have existed 100 years from its incorporation.

Mr. Folsom Dow, of Epping, takes the census of Raymond, Chester, Candia and Auburn. When nearly through Raymond, his judgment was that the population is less than it was ten years ago. It is proving so in several towns. There used to be large families of children all around. But the early command of the Creator, "Be fruitful and multiply," is much disregarded. J.

NEARLY AN ACCIDENT.—On Monday morning, Hon. F. Jones and family were driving to town to take the cars, when a singular accident befel them. Mr. Jones and Miss Jones, a young lady of fourteen or fifteen, were riding in an open buggy, with one of his high-spirited grey mares; and Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Hilton in her pony phaeton, after,—a boy driving "Brown George," a well known animal, but fast. He was determined to pass the other team and Mr. Jones, thinking he was running away, put out his hand to catch him; and in this movement the two carriages collded, and Mr. Jones was thrown out beneath the other team, which was overturned, and Mrs. Jones quite severely bruised and cut in the face.

Singularly enough, the young lady riding with Mr. Jones, remained in the wagon, picked up the reins he dropped, stopped this horse; and then actually jumped out and stopped the other—so we are told; and fortunately none of the party were seriously injured, and all save Mrs. J. proceeded on their journey in the next train.

☞ It is said that Messrs. Beach and others, of Boston, have bought the freight steamer Enterprise of this route; and will immediately put on a large, first-class passenger boat, to run between Portsmouth, Gloucester and Boston, with a smaller steamer to connect with Dover. She will make three trips a week, each way, we understand.

☞ The Philharmonic Picnic takes place to-day at the Shoals. Steamer Appledore will leave Pier Wharf at 15 minutes of 11.

RICHARDSON'S

LITTLE WASHER:

PRICE $5.00.

The Simplest, Cheapest, and most Successful WASHING MACHINE ever invented. Took the FIRST PREMIUM over all other Washing Machines at the Mechanics' Fair at Springfield, Mass., March, 1868; and was Awarded a Silver Medal!

☞ The qualities that place the LITTLE WASHER beyond competition are; its cheapness; its simplicity, (it cannot get out of order, and can be operated by a child;) its lightness, which renders it easily removed; and the perfect manner in which it does its work, adjusting itself to any sized article, from a handkerchief to a bed-quilt, without alteration, and washing clothes perfectly clean without wearing the garments in the least. You can expend all your labor on the soiled parts, without washing the whole garments at the same time.

More than twenty thousand families in New England alone, have already been supplied with this new and useful invention. Persons desiring such a machine as here described, and yet doubtful about its merits, can have a washing done in their own families, by the Agent. The following testimonials need no comment:

Portsmouth, N. H., June 9, 1870.

MR. J. J. HATLINGER,

Dear Sir:—The test of "Richardson's Little Washer" that I witnessed this week convinced me that we need look no farther for Washing Machines. It does its work perfectly, and is all you say of it. Yours truly, L. W. BREWSTER.

MR. HATLINGER,

Dear Sir:—I have tested the "Little Washer" and think it a perfect success. MRS. L. E. MARTIN.

MR. HATLINGER,

Dear Sir:—Having tested the "Little Washer", I fully concur with the above testimonials, and think it superior to any other Washing Machine. It will do all you say of it. R. W. WEBSTER.

Morning Chronicle.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

KITTERY, July 11.

Messrs. Editors:—Your Berwick correspondent "B. E. N." in his communication of the 4th inst., arrays himself boldly in opposition to the re-election of Mr. Lynch, and says, "every honorable man will acknowledge that there should be honor in political affairs as well as in all other matters, that purity and justice should be more regarded than even successful organization."

I wonder if this bold correspondent would have deemed it advisable to have offered such advice to the very large temperance element of the republican party one year ago? Had he done so, York County might have been denied the eminent services of our distinguished Senator Hon. John B. Nealy of So. Berwick, during the late session of the legislature of this State; to the contrary the temperance men of the republican party though actuated by the purest of motives were stigmatized as a class of blind fanatics — even in their bare contemplation of a "bolt," from the "regular ticket," by many of those who are now so clamorous about their sacred rights.

Again "B. E. N." says "it is time for laboring men and men who stood by the Country in its hour of danger and indeed all good and true men, to claim a voice and to act in the matter of self protection." Just so, and this is just what this class of men purpose to do in the election of Mr. Lynch. To reflect upon the merits and abilities of the several candidates brought forward by York County is as discourteous as unnecessary, either of whom if he had been nominated and elected might have served with credit to himself and his constituency; but unfortunately for York County, it did not discover until after Mr. Lynch was fairly, honorably, and overwhelmingly nominated how easily it would have been for them to have united on some one of the various candidates from York; from the fact that either of the York candidates, with but one exception, preferred Mr. Lynch to either of his County opponents,—however ignorant their certain friends might have been of the fact.

Notwithstanding the violent opposition to Mr. Lynch's re-election on the part of certain republicans in York County who have heretofore been recognized as prominent leaders in the republican party, it is safe to predict that ere this election takes place every voter in the 1st District will have become thoroughly acquainted with the "situation," and will act wisely and sagaciously in rolling up a handsome majority for Mr. Lynch, in September. Being entirely untrammelled by the contaminating influences of petty promises of office he will in the discharge of his legislative duties exercise the same wisdom, and zeal in the best interest of the nation, State and district as has characterized his services during the past six years, which none save those who may be extremely prejudiced—attempt to deny.

WARNING TO HUSBANDS.—The great want of women at present is money—money for their personal wants, and money to carry out their plans. I propose that they shall earn, that they shall consider it honorable to work for money as for board, and I demand for them equal pay for equal work. I demand that the bearing and rearing of children, the most exacting of employments, and involving the most terrible risks, shall be the best paid work in the world, and husbands shall treat their wives with at least as much consideration, and acknowledge them entitled to as much money as wet nurses.

The meaning of this is, that wives are about to strike for greenbacks; so much for every baby born. No greenbacks, no more sons and daughters. No greenbacks, no more population, no more boys to carry on the great enterprises of the age. The scale of prices for maternal duties are as follows:

Girl babies,	$100
Boy babies,	200
Twin babies,	300
Twins (both boys)	400
Triplets	600
Triplets (all boys)	1,000

Terms.—C. O. D. No credit beyond first child. Husbands who desire to transmit their names to posterity will please notice and take a new start.—Susan B. Anthony.

☞ People are not generally aware that clothes wringers are excellent pea shellers. Try it, ladies! Run the stem end of the pea pod through the rollers until it cracks and lets out every pea in the pod. It is quick work.

—"Come, Bob, get up," said an indulgent father to his son the other morning. "Remember that it is the early bird that catches the worm." "What do I care for worms?" replied the young hopeful, "mother won't let me go a fishing."

—An old bachelor is a traveller on life's railroad who has entirely failed to make the proper connections.

New Hampshire Items.

During a recent thunder shower at Drewsville, a curious freak of lightning occurred. Between two trees stood two chicken coops, five feet apart. In one coop were eleven large chickens which had been weaned from the hen, and in the other was a brood of small chickens with their mother. The lightning first struck the coop containing the large chickens, killing nine of them, and then passed along the surface of the ground to the other, killing the hen but not in the least injuring her chickens, which were then under her wings. The fluid passed thence to the ground, making two holes about the size of a man's wrist and fifteen inches deep.

The Prescott Memorial shows that all the Prescotts in America descended from James Prescott of Lancashire, England, who was born sometime about the year 1500,—through John Prescott, who came to this country and settled in Watertown, Mass., in 1640; and James Prescott who settled in Hampton, about 1665. From these two branches, the whole tribe is traced, with great particularity, embracing over 9000 names.

At the Rockingham County Farm at Brentwood are two musical brothers by the name of Kenniston, aged 18 and 22 years; blind and idiotic though they are, their musical powers are truly wonderful. A tune sung or played in their hearing is immediately caught up and sung by them with perfect correctness. Everything that is in any degree musical attracts them. They begged a spike of a visitor awhile ago; and this they have converted into a musical instrument, by striking it with a nail or something else. They both constantly shake and roll their heads, rubbing their foreheads and hair continually, as if striving to rub away pain or confusion of thought. Their unsatisfied musical longings are manifested by their anxiety to have their spike broken, that they may get more music out of it.

The officers of the New England and the State agricultural societies met on Thursday evening at Manchester for the purpose of perfecting the arrangements for the great fair to be held there during the first week in September next. Committees were appointed to conduct the several departments, to make arrangements with all the railroads in New England for carrying passengers at half fare, and for the accommodation of strangers attending the fair. Among other important matters decided upon was the establishment of a stock exchange, to be held every day during the fair, where owners and purchasers of cattle and horses will be afforded an opportunity of selling and buying stock. The fair promises to be the most successful ever held in the Eastern States, the united strength of both the New England and New Hampshire societies being devoted to the enterprise.

LA MEDICINE CURATIVE.

Mild, Certain, Safe, Efficient. It is far the best family medicine yet discovered, and as once relieves and invigorates all the vital functions, without causing injury to any of them. The most complete success has long attended its use in many localities; and it is now offered to the general public with the conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it. It produces little or no pain; it purges the organs free from irritation, and never over taxes or excites the nervous system. In all diseases of the skin liver, stomach, bowels, kidneys,—of children, and in many difficulties peculiar to women, it brings prompt relief and certain cure. The best physicians recommend it; and to any person who once uses this, will voluntarily return to the use of any other cathartic.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MEDICAL MADNESS.

LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, rebat and torture the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the native hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jy1w

IN SCHOOL DAYS.

Still sits the schoolhouse by the road,
A ragged beggar sunning;
Around it still the sumachs grow,
And blackberry vines are running.

Within, the master's desk is seen,
Deep scarred by raps official;
The warping floor, the battered seats,
The jackknife's carved initial.

The charcoal frescoes on its walls,
Its door's worn sill, betraying
The feet that, creeping slow to school,
Went storming out to playing!

Long years ago a winter's sun
Shone over it at setting;
Lit up its western window panes
And low eaves' icy fretting.

It touches the tangled golden curls,
And brown eyes full of grieving,
Of one who still her steps delayed
When all the school were leaving.

For near her stood the little boy
Her childish favor singled,
His cap pulled low upon a face
Where pride and shame were mingled.

Pushing with restless feet the snow
To right and left, he lingered,
As restlessly her tiny hands
The blue-checked apron fingered.

He saw her lift her eyes; he felt
The soft hand's light caressing,
And heard the trembling of her voice,
As if a fault confessing.

"I'm sorry that I spelt the word;
I hate to go above you,
Because"—the brown eyes lower fell—
"Because, you see, I love you!"

Still memory to a gray-haired man
That sweet child-face is showing,
Dear girl! the grasses on her grave
Have forty years been growing!

He lives to learn in life's hard school,
How few who pass above him
Lament their triumph and his loss,
Like her—because they love him.

—[JOHN G. WHITTIER.

TROTTING HORSES SOLD.—On Saturday a sale of trotting horses, the average of them about 8 years old, took place at the Depository of Isburg & Rowland, in East Street, Boston. The bay mare Lottie, 5 years old, a full breed Abdallah, can trot in 2.50, was sold for $925; a chestnut horse 8 years old, good size, a good driver in single or double harness, sold for $960; Maggie Mitchell, a bay mare, $470; a chestnut running horse, "Jim Underwood," sired by Memnon, who has run a mile in 1.47, broke to harness, $360; a black horse, 8 years old, who can trot in 2.45, $525; and a bay of 8 years, $390, the two having trotted together in 2.50; a chestnut mare 8 years old, 2.40 gait, $435; chestnut horse, $400; bay horse, Hambletonian, $750; a pair of grey horses, Grey Eagle, $280; the other, $250; white mare, 3 minutes, $310.

MAKING NEWSPAPERS.—Every column of a newspaper contains from five to twenty thousand distinct pieces of metal, according to the size of the paper and type. The displacement of a single one makes an error. Is it any wonder that errors occur? In large offices professional proof-readers are kept, whose practiced eyes, passing twice over every line of proof, detect most of the errors; a boy, kept for that purpose, at the same time reading the copy aloud. Still mistakes are frequently found after coming through such hands, and probably no newspaper or book was ever published without errors that might be detected by the merest novice. In book printing it is estimated that proof-reading costs one quarter as much as the composition. In country offices the editor has to be his own foreman, job printer, bookkeeper and almost everything else, and, if the same care had to be exercised that is deemed indispensable on books, the country newspaper could not be published at all because of the expense. Adv. Gazette.

PLEASANT FOR SMOKERS.—A correspondent in New York writes us of a young man who has been for three years the victim of constitutional syphilis of an aggravated character. His lips and tongue are covered with mucous patches; a most offensive odor emanates from his whole body, especially from his breath; and a caries seems about attacking the bones of his nose. He is a cigar-maker by trade, and has daily been making cigars since he was first attacked.

No cigar is made without moistening the leaf with saliva, as every one knows who has seen a cigar made. Is it not more than probable that many who have smoked cigars of his make, and others similarly situated, have imbibed syphilitic poison, and then wondered how they got the disease?—Medical and Surgical Reporter.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
FOR ALL PURPOSES of a LAXATIVE MEDICINE,
Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PILL. The obvious reason is that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and, we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.
Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these PILLS rapidly cure:—
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. dawje21eod4m

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1870.

Gleaned and Ground.

Rhode Island, by an act of the last General Assembly, is to vote for members of Congresss next November, instead of in April, as heretofore.

Thirty-seven democrats voted, in the House of Representatives, Monday, against the validity of the ratification of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments.

Mr. Whittemore is still of opinion that he is a fit man for a seat in Congress, and proposes to try again.

A severe storm in Lancashire, England, Sunday, did great damage to property along the banks of streams, and caused the loss of some lives.

The English debt is now less than it has ever been since 1813.

There were 83,000 violent deaths in England last year.

Perhaps it is not worth mentioning, but a man had his nose spread-eagle over his face by a brass ball at Philadelphia last week.

The Harvards, Monday, defeated the Eckfords of Syracuse, 30 to 7.

Ex-President Pierce's home at Hillsborough is to be made into a summer hotel.

There are rumors of Asiatic cholera in Philadelphia.

It is stated that Walter Brown has been engaged to train the Yale freshmen for a race at Worcester.

Admiral Dahlgren died Tuesday morning at the Washington navy yard.

The war cloud in Europe has caused increased activity in every department of the Brooklyn Navy Yard. The number of workmen has been largely increased, and work commenced on several war vessels.

Riots are threatened in the North part of Ireland, and police and troops are concentrated in that quarter.

Secretary Fish authorizes the statement to be published that he has not tendered his resignation to the President, to take effect next September or at any other time.

Mr. Motley's successor at the Court of St. James will be ex-Senator Frederick T. Frelinghuysen of New Jersey.

MR. GILMORE'S NEW SCHEME.—Mr. Gilmore is fully confident that the co-operation of England, France, Prussia, Austria, and Russia can be secured in the monster musical festival of the world, which it is proposed to hold in Boston in June of next year. His plans are for a building twice as large as the Coliseum of last year, a chorus of twenty thousand voices from this country, and bands of 100 trained instrumentalists from each of the countries above named. He also hopes to secure the presence of many leading vocalists from Europe. His conferences with the diplomatic representatives of England, France, and Prussia have been very satisfactory, and he has no fear of failure in the undertaking.

New Hampshire Items.

James Welch, a native of Roxbury, Mass., committed from Hillsborough County, in March, 1866, for highway robbery, for seven years, and Wm. Robinson, a native of Springfield, Mass., committed from the same county, March, March, 1867, for theft, for six years, were pardoned out of State Prison, at Concord, on Saturday.

Hon. John Wentworth of Chicago has presented the Social Fraternity of New Hampton Academy, with two hundred and odd valuable books. Mr. W. was one of the founders of the Society.

The new Warden Pillsbury, of the N. H. State Prison, is a son of Moses Pillsbury, one of the First Wardens of the Prison, and brother of Supt. Pillsbury of the Albany Penitentiary.

They have blueberries in Concord 1 7-8 inches round.

The Concord Choral Society have studied Haydn's Creation last season; and will commence ringing Schiller's Song of the Bell, without their usual summer vacation.

A son of Willard G. Smith, two years old, was drowned in Salem, on Saturday, July 2.

☞ The Macon, Ga., Union tells a story of Mr. Akerman, the new Atty. General. When he was making a speech at Washington, Wilkes County, some of the ex-rebels shaved the tail from his horse and then a crowd gathered around the door of the hotel to see him mount. His only remark was "I am not surprised that asses are jealous of horses."

☞ The Boston Police Report shows that but one "noble Grecian," and only one native of Holland, have been arrested during the last quarter, while 3439 of Milesian extraction have been chind iron bars during that time.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.—France will not consent to a congress of the Powers, until Prussia yields on the question of Prince Leopold's candidacy. There is no undue activity on the part of the Prussian navy, and no popular excitement in Berlin.

The Spanish government has issued a circular denying that it acted with any hostile spirit to France in accepting Prince Leopold as a candidate for the succession to the throne of Spain. They say they wished peace and had no desire to interrupt the tranquility of Europe by irritating overtures in the election of a permanent ruler. The Constituent Cortes has been convoked and will assemble on July 20th, when the question of a new king will be disposed of.

The Danes are enthusiastically in favor of war against Prussia.

Correspondence of Chronicle and Gazette.

RYE, July 11th.

The first hop of the season came off at the Farragut and Atlantic Houses, on Saturday evening. It was given in the new hall lately constructed for the purpose in the Atlantic, which is most admirably adapted for it, and presented on the occasion a very beautiful appearance. The music was by Harlow's Naval Quadrille Band, five pieces, and evidently gave the utmost satisfaction, and the whole affair was in every respect very enjoyable to all who participated and a fine commencement of the amusements of the season.

Many families owning cottages are now here, and among them Capt. Wm. Walker of Concord, who arrived a week ago, and has given people several opportunities of seeing his splendid "four in hand" of fine black horses, on the road."

There are several other fine tarnouts already here, and more are expected daily. Among them Col. Cyrus Eastman of Littleton, Mass., who purchased the Gov. Pierce estate on Little Boar's Head, intends bringing down about as fine a pair of horses as it is customary to see about here. The Col. has added a kitchen to his cottage, and workmen are now engaged in building a stable for him.

The Ocean House opened on the Fourth, and Jenness & Son have introduced a new idea in the business in this section, but which is quite common South and West. They employ a runner on the trains, to solicit patronage for their house—and it may be that the experiment will be a success. R.

THE TRUE DOCTRINE.—In the U. S. Senate, the income tax being under consideration, Mr. Cragin of New Hampshire said:—

I have no apologies to offer to the Senate, to the country, or to any of the newspapers for the action which I have taken upon this subject. Except when the vote was first taken, when I was absent on account of sickness, I have voted uniformly to retain this income tax, because I believed it to be just, because I believed it to be good party policy, and that the most suicidal policy that could be adopted would be to repeal or abandon it. The newspapers of the great commercial centers of this country are all in favor of repealing this tax, and mainly because they have to pay an income tax. The men of wealth are in favor of abolishing this tax, because they have money to pay. But I say to the Senate here to-night, that if this tax is repealed and abandoned, the people of this country, the millions of people of this country, will be heard against the one hundred or one hundred and fifty thousand whom this tax affects. The tax is burdensome. So are all taxes. The question is, whether taxes are more burdensome upon men of wealth or upon men in indigent circumstances. If you choose to tax people in this country for the tea and coffee that they drink and the sugar that they use, and abolish this income tax upon wealth, upon net receipts, then I wash my hands of that business.

—Mr. Shellabarger of Ohio, recently returned from Europe, says that to remove Mr. Motley from the English mission now would be a great mistake. He believes Mr. Motley has laid the foundation for successful negotiations on the Alabama claims hereafter.—Exchange.

Isn't it very singular that Mr. Motley should realize that he has been a snob, just at the time when his removal is contemplated? Why did he not do the work assigned him, long ago?

NEW BOSTON DIRECTORY.—Messrs. Sampson, Davenport & Co., 47 Congress Street, Boston, have just issued the Boston Directory for 1870, a volume containing nearly 94,000 names of resident citizens, besides the customary miscellaneous information, and also a map of the city.

☞ Goldsmith Maid beat George Palmer and American Girl at Fleetwood Park, Saturday, in 2:21 3-4, 2:22 3-4, 2:21; all by only a length over Palmer, who lapped her all through the race. The last heat was the fastest trotted this year.

AN AGREEMENT ON THE FUNDING BILL REACHED.—The measure as it will be reported by the Senate Committee, provides for $1,000,000,000 of 4 per cent. bonds, $300,000,000 of 4 1-2 per cent. bonds, and $200,000,000 of 5 per per cent. bonds, all exempt from every form of taxation, and principal and interest payable in gold in our own country. There is no foreign agency clause, and the provision as to the negotiation is that of the House bill. The national bank circulation authorized by the currency bill of last week, as well as any circulation hereafter authorized, must be secured by a deposit of these new bonds. The House provision as to gold deposits in the Treasury is retained, except that the rate of interest on such deposits is fixed at 2 1-2 per cent.

THIRTY-ONE YEARS under one management, the AMERICAN HOUSE has grown from a small hotel to the largest in New England. It is furnished with all the conveniences for the convenience and comfort of its guests, and is deservedly popular with the travelling public. Hanover Street, Boston. jy13

VAST QUANTITIES OF IVORY DESTROYED. Thousands of teeth that might last a lifetime are lost every year, simply because the parties concerned either forget or do not appreciate the fact that SOZODONT, duly applied, renders the dental substance proof against decay.

Accidents will occur even in the best regulated families, and "SPALDING'S GLUE" should be kept handy. jy13eod3t

PORTS from which commerce was driven during the hot months by their terrible fevers are visited all the year with impunity now. Many localities in the South and West kept tenantless by their deleterious miasms are now filling up with populations under the protection of AYER'S AGUE CURE. Their afflicting Chills and Fever are so effectually cured by this remedy that the disease no longer turns emigration aside or destroys the settler if he ventures upon its infected districts. "Gazette," Independence, Mo. jy12

HAIR VIGOR.—In common with many others we have felt a lively interest in the investigations which DR. AYER has been making to discover the causes of failure of the hair, and to provide a remedy. His researches are said to have been much more thorough and exhaustive than any ever made before. The result is now before us under the name of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. We have given it a trial, and with full satisfaction. It equals our most favorable anticipations. Our gray hairs have disappeared, or resumed their original color; and a visible crop of soft, silken hair has started on a part of the scalp which was entirely bald.—Daily Voice, Boston.

SUFFERERS from coughs, colds, bronchitis croup, influenza or whooping cough, will find relief in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has now been in use for nearly half a century, and still maintains its long established reputation as the great remedy for all diseases of the throat, lungs, and chest.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Broadside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious knownothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to trifle with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters," is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the venders have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicated stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concoctions referred to being composed of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (!) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a tact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which effect the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. ☞ FOR THIRTY YEARS! ☜

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

As an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has well and deservedly been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

☞ Directions accompany each bottle.

☞ Four steamers were plying about our river on Tuesday—a rare sight for these parts.

☞ The Marines at this Station were inspected by the Adj't Inspector, Major A. S. Nicholson, Tuesday morning, and also received their quarterly pay.

☞ Mr. B. M. Parker and Mr. R. W. Webster, who were both severely injured by falling from cherry trees last week, have recovered sufficiently to walk out.

☞ Messrs. Randall & Caswell, at the Spring Market, dispose of great quantities of fresh fish and lobsters, at wholesale and retail. Cod have been scarce of late, halibut plenty and good, mackerel in abundance, but rather poor quality.

☞ We understand that Alderman Albert A. Fernald, has purchased a house-lot on Union Street, next Mr. Barlow's residence. Mr. Benjamin Winn has started a house west of this, and Mr. C. E. Simpson will build on his lot adjoining, next season.

☞ Elwood's Female Minstrels, with ballet and burlesque Troupe, exhibits at the Temple this (Wednesday) evening. They announce a varied and attractive entertainment; and the large company contains many names known to fame in their respective lines. We have no doubt but they will have a large audience, and afford them much amusement.

ALMOST A SUICIDE.—A man named Geo. Randall, aged 71 years, employed by Mr. Harrison Seavey at Rye, made two attempts to destroy himself on Tuesday forenoon, first by cutting into the arteries of his right arm with a penknife, and afterwards trying to drown himself in the ditches of water near the premises. He is said to be partially deranged at times, and will probably recover.

☞ The new steamer Camilla, Capt. Doane, arrived at Messrs. Harding & Doane's, wharf, here, Monday, and took a pleasure party to the Shoals. Maj. Hackett was master of ceremonies, and caused a happy feeling to prevade the whole party. His being so well booked up in nautical phrases, added much to the merriment. The party expressed great obligations to Messrs. Harding & Doane, for invitations, and the many agreeable civilities and kind attentions which rendered the trip so pleasant. The boat is to be used in Boston harbor as a tug; and if her power is equal to her speed, she will prove a successful rival to the many powerful boats now in that business. S.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—July 12. The Court opened in this city Tuesday morning—Judges Clifford and Clark presiding.

The well-known case of Waters and others vs. Northern Railroad was continued, by previous arrangement of Counsel. This was a petition by these Plffs., (stockholders in the Northern Railroad) to the U. S. Court, to restrain the officers of the Northern Railroad from executing the Contract made with the Concord Railroad, and brought here as provided in the Constitution, giving this Court jurisdiction over suits brought by citizens of one State vs. citizens of another. The Plffs. are citizens of Massachusetts, while the Defts. are of New Hampshire.

The case of Geo. W. Gordon vs. Clement March and Wm. B. Small, Trustee, was heard on arguments of counsel.

Gordon of Boston brought suit vs. March and summoned Small as trustee. Small declined to answer interrogatories, on the ground that he was an officer holding the March property by direction of the State Court. The Court, however, held that Mr. Small had not answered far enough to show the Court by what title he held this property, and he was required to answer further.

Woodbury and Dean of Boston for Gordon, Frink & Butler for March, Gen. Marston for Small.

Wm. B. Small vs. Geo. W. Gordon. This is a bill in equity originally filed in State Court of N. H. and transferred to this Court upon petition of deft. This petition was to restrain deft. from interfering with Plff. as Receiver of March property. Continued for argument. Woodbury and Dean for defts. Marston for Plff.

Court adjourned to the 23d of August.

THE APPORTIONMENT BILL LIKELY TO FAIL.—The chances seem to be against the passage of the apportionment bill at this session of Congress. The original bill, as passed by the House, was amended in the Senate and then sent to the House judiciary committee by a small majority. The Senate then added it as an amendment to the House bill fixing the usual day in November as the time for all Congressional elections, and the two bills thus united in one are now lying on the Speaker's table. The active and prominent friends of the new apportionment were very anxious to go to the business on the table Monday afternoon, with a view of reaching this measure, and strongly urged the election committee to let them take the sense of the House on the question, as they believed they had votes enough to carry the bill thro'. This committee did not see fit to yield the floor, and therefore nothing was done. There is still a bare chance of getting favorable action, but the prospect is dubious.

IN LINE.—The Steam Fire Engines Dearborn and Kearsarge were placed in line on Monday evening, and so worked, the former drawing water from the next reservoir near the Universalist Church, and playing through 800 feet of hose into the Kearsarge, stationed on Market Square, the object being to test the "line" experiment as suggested by Chief Engineer Marston, and the newly purchased Manchester hose, both of which proved entirely satisfactory.

☞ At the annual meetings of the Eastern, and Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway Railroad Directors, held in the passenger depot of the Eastern R. R. in this city, Tuesday forenoon, the present officers of these corporations were all re-elected.

☞ We have received no Boston Transcript for a week. What is the matter with the mails? Our appetite for supper is not good, without the Transcript. Somebody hooks our Turf, Field and Farm, too—and we miss that sadly.

—While passing a house in Virginia, two drummers observed a very peculiar chimney, unfinished, and it attracted their attention; they asked a flaxen-haired urchin standing near the house if it "drawed well," whereupon the aforesaid urchin replied: "Yes, it draws the attention of all the fools that pass this road."

RICHARDSON'S

LITTLE WASHER!

PRICE $5.00.

The Simplest, Cheapest, and most Successful WASHING MACHINE ever invented. Took the FIRST PREMIUM over all other Washing Machines at the Mechanics' Fair at Springfield, Mass., March, 1869; and was Awarded a Silver Medal!

☞ The qualities that place the LITTLE WASHER beyond competition are; its cheapness; its simplicity, (it cannot get out of order, and can be operated by a child;) its lightness, which renders it easily removed; and the perfect manner in which it does its work, adjusting itself to any sized article, from a handkerchief to a bed-quilt, without alteration, and washing clothes perfectly clean without wearing the garments in the least. You can expend all your labor on the soiled parts, without washing the whole garments at the same time.

More than twenty thousand families in New England alone, have already been supplied with this new and useful invention. Persons desiring such a machine as here described, and yet doubtful about its merits, can have a washing done in their own families, by the Agent. The following testimonials need no comment:

Portsmouth, N. H., June 9, 1870.

MR. J. J. HATLINGER,

Dear Sir:—The test of "Richardson's Little Washer" that I witnessed this week convinced me that we need look no farther for Washing Machines. It does its work perfectly, and is all you say of it. Yours truly, L. W. BREWSTER.

MR. HATLINGER,

Dear Sir:—I have tested the "Little Washer" and think it a perfect success.

MRS. L. E. MARTIN.

MR. HATLINGER,

Dear Sir:—Having tested the "Little Washer", I fully concur with the above testimonials, and think it superior to any other Washing Machine. It will do all you say of it. R. W. WEBSTER.

Morning Chronicle.

Correspondence of Chronicle and Gazette.

SLATES.—By Prof. Holton, Everett, Mass.—Dear Chronicle:—I think the most decided mistake that I have made in my letters to the Chronicle for the past fifteen years, was in recommending a paper slate that stood boiling and muriatic acid, better than it did use. Those who sold it have come to the same conclusions, and have withdrawn it from the market. Perhaps it was this failure that set Mr. Wilde of No. 1 Cornhill Street, Boston, to studying about the best slate possible. He devised a series of figures such as we see printed on paper and pasted on broad-framed slates, and contrived dies to sink the figures into the wood. Then he sent to Germany for better stone than there is in our market or quarries, and had them framed there with extra care. Next he contrived an india-rubber rivet for corners, which should absolutely enclose the whole corner in a solid mass of rubber, so that the wood of the slate could not, in any possible way, be made to touch the floor.

But to make this, required so great heat as to injure the frame. So he issues three slates; two with drawings printed into the wood, and another with the noiseless infrangible corners. Still another printed one is in his head for more advanced pupils. It is to have some of the marks of Gunter's scale on it. Now a slate is a little affair, but as a tough, good one—the best that could be—occupies a large place in a child's life, it can hardly be called a trifle.

MADWIG'S LATIN GRAMMAR.—For twenty years American scholars who would have the best Latin grammar possible, have been obliged to take one written in German by a Dane, translated and printed in England. It is some satisfaction to us, at last, to find a man in America that dares to reprint it. All honor, them, to Ginn brothers & Co., of 13 Beacon St., Boston, who risk their money in a work which lies entirely beyond the necessities of college students, who will find enough for their wants in the little Allen of which the Gazette once spoke. As an American production ought always to be a little better than an English one, it is well that Prof. Thacher, of Yale, has carefully gone over the whole and retranslated such parts as the author had improved since the last English edition was issued. So we have here a 12 mo. of more than 500 pages, which contains, we trust, nearly all that man ever can say about Latin grammar. One more thing finished, let us hope.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

THE NOVELTY PRINTING PRESS promises to work out vast changes in society. Whether owing to its real undeniable merits or to the push of Mr. B. O. Woods, of Boston, it is probable that by the time of the next presidential election there will scarce be a town in New England without one or more of these cheap, fast, durable, light, well-working presses.

Two men can carry an entire printing office into the town hall, and a boy can print split tickets faster than they can be voted, besides taking fifteen minutes to strike off three hundred handbills. A mule can carry a printing office that will do as good work as Messrs. Hurd & Houghton's can, thro' the passes of Kurdistan; or a Micronesian mission could buy one for a hundred dollars, on which quarto bibles could be printed, on native cloth, with native ink, by a self-taught native.

Self-taught boys in all the towns about Boston are printing for fun, emulation or money, when they would otherwise be in the streets. The little daughter of a wealthy physician took her press to a church fair, and printed there handsome books, which were sold on the spot. Before us lies a child's card, printed by a youthful neighbor.

Lastly, they are used in schools to encourage diligence, furnish proof sheets to be corrected, school blanks, etc., and that newspaper so much the rage among the scholars and so wisely encouraged by the teachers. Of it the single manuscript copy could hardly be said to be published, but now that they are printed the pupils and friends can each keep a copy, and the best compositions of the school are put into it. Say we not truly that this is a revolution in education?

There have been as cheap presses as the Novelty, but they battered the type and of course did poor work; they were much slower and more difficult of register, while this is capable of even printing polychromes, and with rapidity. It seems almost unimprovable.

—Punchinello tells of Greely, at Long Branch, "sitting sadly, observing the swindling waves, which come all the way from Europe, and didn't pay a cent of tax when they landed."

GRANDMOTHER'S SPECTACLES.—They had done good work in their day. They were large and round, so that when she saw a thing she saw it. There was a crack across the upper part of the glass, for many a baby had made them a plaything, and all the grandchildren had at some time tried them on. They had sometimes been so dimmed with tears that she had to take them off and wipe them on her apron before she could see through them at all. Her "second sight" had now come, and she would often let her glasses slip down and then look over the top of them while she read. Grandmother was pleased at the return of her vision. Getting along so well without them, she often lost her spectacles. Sometimes they would be for weeks untouched on the shelf in the red morocco case, the flap uplifted. She could now look off upon the hills, which for thirty years she had not been able to see from the piazza. Those were mistaken who thought she had no poetry in her soul. You could see it in the way she put her hand under the chin of a primrose or cultured the geranium. Sitting on the piazza one evening, in her rocking-chair, she saw a ladder of cloud set up against the sky, and thought how easy it would be for a spirit to climb it. She saw in the deep glow of the sunset a chariot of fire, drawn by horses of fire, and wondered who rode it. She saw a vapor floating thinly away as though it were a wing ascending, and grandmother muttered in a low tone:—"A vapor that appeareth for a little season, and then vanisheth away." She saw a hill higher than any she had ever before seen on the horizon, and on the top of it a king's castle. The motion of the rocking-chair became slighter and slighter, until it stopped. The spectacles fell out of her lap. A child hearing it, ran to pick them up, and cried: "Grandmother, what is the matter?" She answered not. She never spoke again. Second sight had come. What she could not see now was not worth seeing. Not now through a glass darkly! Grandmother had no more need of spectacles.

THE BOSTON DAILY NEWS.—Rev. Dr. Marvin, formerly of the Boston Recorder, is running a great risk in trying to plant a cheap temperance paper in the sterile soil of Boston. The atmosphere proves rather frosty to it, but the Doctor has pluck, earnestness, faith, and we hope cash. But he has strong influences at work against him, and but for country subscribers at $5 a year (ministers and clubs $4) we should fear the result. The paper is "Evangelical," but not in the interest of any one denomination. Success to it—but one idea papers are apt to go hard.

—A countryman having purchased a gallon of mountain dew, for want of a more business-like label, wrote his name on a common playing card, which happened to be the seven of clubs, and tied it to the handle of the bottle. A wag, coming along and observing the manœuvre, remarked:—"That's an awful careless way to leave that liquor." "Why so," said Tom. "Because some one might come with the eight of clubs and take it." Tom seized the handle and bolted.

—An Indiana village boasts that the man who rings its depot-bell was the valedictorian at Harvard College a few years ago. And yet it is very doubtful if he rings it any better than would thousands of other men who did not graduate with the highest honors.

THE LORRAINE VEGETABLE
CATHARTIC PILL.
OR
DR. LORRAINE'S VEGETABLE PILL,
OR
LA MEDICINE CURATIVE.
Mild, Certain, Safe, Efficient. It is far the best Cathartic ever offered to the public, and it relieves and invigorates all the vital functions, without causing injury to any of them. The most complete success has long attended its use in many localities; and it is now offered to the general public with the conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it. It produces little or no pain; leaves the organs free from irritation, and never over taxes or excites the nervous system. In all diseases of the skin blood, stomach, liver, kidneys,—of children and in many difficulties peculiar to women, it brings prompt relief and certain cure. The best physicians recommend and prescribe it; and no person who once uses this, will voluntarily return to the use of any other cathartic.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MEDICAL MADNESS.
LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanative Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Turrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is every where superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jy4w

The Chronicle.

THE ARMY AND NAVY OF FRANCE AND OF PRUSSIA.—In the present critical state of affairs between France and Prussia, the comparative military and naval strength of the two kingdoms becomes a matter of great interest. So far as soldiers are concerned, there is not much difference as to the number which either power can bring into action on an emergency. But the naval force of Prussia is quite insignificant—not a quarter part as large as that of France. Men, however, and not ships, are to decide the fate of a continental struggle.

The French army consists of about 400,000 men of all arms, in active service; with a reserve of about the same number, and a garde Nationale Mobile of some 500,000, to co-operate with the regular army in the defence of the country. Of the army in active active service, 252,652 are infantry, and 62,978 cavalry; while the artillery number nearly 40,000. If these figures are multiplied by three, we shall probably approximate the number of each of these principal armies, which can be brought into service in a war with Prussia; which with the engineers, gendarmes, staff officers, &c., will make up a total of at least 1,200,000 soldiers. The French navy numbers 439 vessels and 4680 guns, including 55 iron-clad steamers and 233 wooden steamers.

Prussian military authorities claim that a single telegram from Berlin, at any moment, could place a million (1,000,000) of Prussian soldiers under arms. The standing army of Prussia is set down at 463,000 men of all arms, with a reserve of 143,000 men, and a militia, to occupy garrisons, &c., always ready, amounting to 200,000 men. And back of this army stands the whole active male population of the kingdom, all of whom have been trained as soldiers; for every Prussian subject is enrolled as a soldier as soon as he has completed his twentieth year. He serves, unless exempted, three years in the regular army, four in the reserve, and at the end of this term enters the Landwehir or militia for nine years. Leaving the Landwehir, he is finally enrolled in the Lanstrum until he is fifty years of age.

The Prussian navy now consists of 4 iron-clads, 8 frigates, 28 gunboats, and sailing vessels, &c., enough to make up about 100 vessels, with 657 guns. But this force just now is being increased with all possible rapidity.

Thus stands the account of these two great military powers, which, like two great bullies, think they must have a fight to see which is the better of the two.—Traveller.

FRUIT THE YEAR ROUND.—Everything in its season. But the summer fruit is in season in winter: thus cranberries—perfect. Nothing can be finer than the best of these properly served, especially the cranberry, which, when you once get the use of it, will stick by you for life, like the apple itself. These are simple dishes, and they do very well alone. But you have tomatoes if you like—and you like, and you doubtless have them, and they are healthful. And who does not put up a few cans, (and some a few more) of plums, ripe, rich, sub-acid, for spring use, if there are plums, which, alas! is not always the case. And then the cherry; these are so rare, so rich, so aromatic and toothsome, that it is difficult to keep them. And peaches put up to look at (and so many put up this year,) and then to eat—two pleasures, with health, the third, to follow.

Here, then, is summer in winter, as truly as though the trees were growing the fruit for us, all fresh in our dwellings. And the cost is so much. The cans will do for other years, and throughout the year, changing in spring from berries to apples, &c., &c. Fruit is cheap. It is no excuse if we do not raise it, and we can get it for what, or almost what, we can raise it, and we ought to have it; it is healthful; it is toothsome; it makes us better natured; it gives relish, gives happiness—and all for the little trouble of canning and the slight expense.—Utica Herald.

—A new mercantile pursuit for the oppressed female sex has been opened by a lady in California, who procured a divorce, had the children assigned to her by the court, and then transferred them to their father for $575 apiece. The plan is recommended for Massachusetts, as not only securing an honorable independence for married women, but offering an argument hitherto lacking in favor of large families.

—"There are moments in our life when we feel like embracing all nature." When, for instance, making love to a little duck of a girl, with blue eyes, gaiter boots and a low-neck dress.

—The lion and the lamb may possibly sumtime lay down in this world together for a fu minits, but when the lion kums to git up, the lamb will be missing.—Josh Billings.

—"The stoutest armor of defence is that which is worn in the bosom." Does the funny author of the above, intend to make any allusion here to cotton?

—Sweet are the uses of adver-tisements.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the glossy and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
It wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?
IF SO, SELECT THE BEST, which is the
AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.
It has proved itself, West, North and South, to be the best Paint known. It will not peel, crack, nor chalk off, and will last twice as long as the best Lead Paints.
It is cheaper, handsomer and more elastic, than the best of other Paints. It is the most convenient Paint made, being mixed, ready for application; it dries rapidly, and retains its shade perfectly, with a beautiful surface and glossy finish, and for years retains its gloss and beauty. It is excellent for walls inside, in the place of paper, which a smooth glossy finish, which can be cleaned with hot suds without injury.
One Gallon of Mixed Lead Paint weighs 20 lbs. and costs $2.72, and will only cover 16 square yds, 2 coats; while one gallon of the Chemical Paint only weighs 10 lbs., and costs but $2.50, and will cover 20 square yds., 2 coats,—thus making a saving of 22 cts., per gallon, besides covering 4 yards more than Lead Paint, and will last twice as long and look far better.
The Chemical Paint is sold by the gallon in quantities to suit purchasers, in 40 different shades and pure white, and will be applied by experienced workmen and satisfaction given in every case; or in case of dissatisfaction in one year after put on, the whole cost of Paint will be refunded.
The sale of these unequalled Paints are daily increasing. Call and examine these really mixed Paints, both in kegs, and applied to Buildings one year ago, before buying elsewhere, and save your money and money, and beautify your dwelling by using the

Gleaned and Ground.

Wheat harvesters are scarce in California.

At Conneaut, Pa., Ralph Wright, a farmer, sixty years of age, murdered his wife by splitting her head open with an axe, set fire to his dwelling-house and then hung himself in a stable. He was insane.

The "Red Stockings" played a tie game with the Rockford "Forest Citys," Monday—the score at the end of 9 innings standing 16 to 16. Darkness prevented another inning.

The White Stockings defeated the Keystones 28, 18.

There are six vessels at New York quarantine with yellow fever on board.

General Jordan is still writing letters about Cuban and European affairs. His latest revelation is that England is engaged in an intrigue to transfer Cuba from Spain to Prussia.

The small-pox is spreading at Valparaiso, Chili, to an alarming extent.

The Pacific steamship Ecuador, employed along the South American coast, has been destroyed at sea by the explosion of her boiler. She had twenty-six passengers and seven men lost.

Heavy rains and water-spouts, in Lokechpo's Valley, Cal., have caused great damage, and driven many families to the mountains.

A Mexican piratical craft was lately attacked and destroyed by the United States steamer Mohican. Ensign Wainwright and a coxswain were killed and five or six seamen wounded.

THE WAR CLOUD.—Another republican conspiracy has been discovered in Spain.

King William of Prussia has sent a circular to the North German Confederation, in which he says that it is his determination not to interfere with Spain in her selection of a King, which certainly will not pacify France.

Preparations for war on a grand scale are going forward vigorously both in France and Prussia.

It is reported that King William has asked for more time to answer Napoleon's demand.

The Parissin journals report extensive movements of troops in Germany on the roads to the frontier, which are encumbered with men and horses. In the Grand Duchy of Baden the military activity was remarkable. The railway transportation has been so arranged that 35,000 infantry and 5000 cavalry can reach the frontier in one day. Secret exercises of the artillery of Rastadt have been going on in the fortress and on the common roads in western Prussia. Sergeants of the regular Prussian army are drilling young soldiers in the manual of arms.

The army at Paris received orders to march to Moselle.

Marshal McMahon has been ordered from Algeria to take command of the army to operate on the Rhine. Count de Palikao will act on the Spanish frontier. Orders have been sent to Cherbourg to prepare the fleet to transport 30,000 troops to Hamburg and the North Sea.

There is no doubt that Prussian troops are concentrating near Baden and Mayence.

A Paris correspondent writes that the regimental bands were busily practising the Marseillaise, and reproduces the report of the Gaulois that the Emperor's horses, after special training to accustom them to artillery fire, had been sent to the frontier.

Military activity is unabated. Gen. Douay is ready to march on Luxemburg, with 60,000 men.

It is reported that Leopold declines to be King of Spain.

Among the diplomats at Washington, the general belief is that hostilities will speedily follow the threatening attitude of France and Prussia.

THE CAUSE OF DEMOCRATIC ASCENDENCY IN NEW YORK.—Sixteen election districts in New York city, by the recent census, have a population of about 27,000, but they cast nearly 70,000 votes at the last spring election!

DON'T BE HUMBUGGED with the foolish idea that Catarrh cannot be cured! The world moves, and medical science is progressive. THE PRESS ON THE CONCORD RAILROAD.—The newspapers of the State generally, with a very few exceptions, and without regard to party, have taken the same course as the Chronicle, in denouncing the ring, and approving the Contract made with the Northern Road to defeat them. While there are a few journals that do not fully sustain the contract, we know of but one of any prominence which sustains the Ring outright and entirely, and that is the Concord "People," so called, owned and run by the leader of the ring. We call Mr. J. H. Pearson the leader, because we regard him as the most persistent, grasping and ambitious member of it, and because the testimony of the examination went to show that he and Clough prevented a settlement of the whole question by the ring selling out to the Northern contract for a handsome bonus.

The Concord Monitor denounces the contract and the contractors, to be sure; but we have never seen that it exactly approves the ring; and the Nashua Telegraph ditto,—although we believe the Nashua people are strongly in favor of the contract, as the large majority of the citizens of Concord are also, so far as we can judge.

As is well known, after thorough examination and debate of the matter in the House of Representatives, and the passage of a bill ratifying the contract by a very heavy majority—it was defeated in the absurd little Senate by a vote of 8 to 4. No, not exactly defeated, either, for the best (or worst) they could do, was to vote to postpone it to the next Legislature. And looking at the full and thorough endorsement of Gov. Stearns' course by the House, and the simple delay of the matter by the Senate, it would seem a man could hardly ask to stand better before the people, than His Excellency does now.

The Concord Monitor publishes the speeches of Senators Peavey and Small, which of course are lawyer-like documents, but after all, but little more than special pleas against the contract, if not in favor of the ring — and the distinction between the two horns of the dilemma is rather a nice one, in view of the inevitable success of the one, in case of the other's defeat. However, although we think these gentlemen named were on the wrong side, still it is but just to say that they were understood to be there from the first, and nobody accused them of changing.

But it is with the Press that we have to do at this time, mainly; and we give extracts from the most prominent papers of the State, of both parties. The Republican Statesman says: The investigation has been one of the most thorough and satisfactory of the kind we have ever had to record. The testimony of Gov. Stearns is the most valuable part of the evidence, and will be looked to with great interest by the people of the State. It is so clear and explicit as to form probably the best brief history of the affair that can be written. It appears that the gentlemen of the "ring"—as they are called, and as they call themselves—had for their object the making of money out of the road, by processes prejudicial to the interests of New Hampshire and not in good faith with the people who granted the charter.

The shrewdness, the far-sightedness and the integrity of our Chief Magistrate, for the interests of the State, are brought out by this investigation in a way that is very gratifying to those whose votes placed him in the gubernatorial chair, and has gained for him increased respect, admiration and confidence among those who opposed him.

Seven of the committee reported a bill to sanction the contract, and three reported a resolution that it is inexpedient to legislate on the subject. The matter was very fully debated by a large number of members, and after voting down two amendments, the House passed the bill sanctioning the contract. The passage of this bill by so large a majority practically ends the contest, and ought to end it entirely. But we shall not be surprised if it is prolonged in sheer desperation. We have maintained that this contract was the only protection against schemes and conspiracies aimed directly at the vital interests of New Hampshire. The representatives of the people, by an overwhelming majority, have just pronounced the same opinion; and if the people themselves could vote on it today, there is no question that they would ratify the action of their Legislature.

It may be noted as a matter of some little interest, that all those members who call themselves Labor Reformers, voted in fa or of the ring. The counsel for the ring were conspicuous on the floor of the House, directing the action of the Representatives who were in their interest. Thirty-three speeches were made.

The N. H. Patriot, Democratic, says:

The action of the House on the bill to approve the contract between the Concord and Northern Railroads, was a most emphatic and unqualified endorsement of the course of Gov. Stearns and his associates in making that contract, and at the same time a verdict of "guilty" against the "ring" who sought to get control of the Concord Railroad * * to sanction the contract. Upon that the whole matter was discussed.

In view of the facts, we doubt whether any contested measure, not of a party character, was ever more emphatically endorsed by the popular branch of our Legislature. And we doubt whether any body of men, assuming so much virtue and such high-toned intentions, and sustained with such arrogance and confidence, was ever more emphatically condemned than were the "ring" by that vote. The question presented in the allegations, evidence and argument was, whether these men designed a monstrous swindle upon the people and whether Gov. Stearns was justified in stepping in to protect the people; and this question the people's representatives, by a two-thirds vote, answered in the affirmative.

After this verdict, the action of the Senate in evading the merits of the question and postponing it to the next session, is as unaccountable as it is unjustifiable; and it can have little effect to impair the very decided expression of the popular branch of the Legislature, which so handsomely vindicates and sustains the course of Gov. Stearns, and administers such a withering rebuke to the corrupt "ring."

The Keene Sentinel says:

The vote in the House of Representatives was an endorsement of the contract in question. The vote in the Senate was against the contract and in favor of the "Ring." Notwithstanding the Senate were constrained, through the instrumentality of reason or other means, to refuse a concurrence with the House, it must be gratifying to Gov. Stearns to know that the verdict of the people's branch of the Legislature is in his favor. The moral effect of an affirmative vote in the House has treble the effect upon the minds of the great body of the people, that the same vote would have in the Senate. Besides, the question is not indefinitely postponed, but only to the next session of the Legislature.

The Manchester Mirror talks in the same strain, and we agree with the editor in saying while perhaps Governor Stearns "will demonstrate that some system of consolidated management may be extended to other roads, with public advantage; not to be misunderstood, we may say that we favor no consolidation which involves inter-State legislative complications, or releases one rod of railroad from the control of the Legislature."

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

YORK, ME., July 13.

Dear Chronicle:—I wish to correct your Kittery correspondent in a few of his matters of fact—which, unfortunately, are not matters of fact at all.

In the first place, Hon. John Lynch was not nominated before a delegate from York county told the Convention that if they desired it done, the York county delegation would bring them in a candidate in five minutes. And I am told on good authority that each and al of the candidates of York county were earnest for the rights of the county, would any of them have withdrawn in favor of any other, and have done all they could for his election. And it was told Cumberland county that "the reason we bring them all in is, that you may not have it to say that we offered Hobson's choice—that or none. Choose you from them." But it was Cumberland's intention to ignore York county entirely, and when the latters' delegation presented a resolution which they had almost unanimously adopted, that the usage in this District has been to alternate the nomination between the two counties, and that if usage is to obtain in the District, it is right and politic to make the nomination from York county—the resolution was received with derision.

I don't think any York county candidate has authorized your Kittery correspondent to say that he (the candidate) preferred that Mr. Lynch should be nominated rather than any man in York county other than himself. The statement is sweeping, but not true. I agree with the Kittery correspondent, that when men become better acquainted with the situation, and remember that all arguments have been disregarded and all usages thrust aside, and that Cumberland county has the effrontery to claim the nomination for any number of years, but forgets when it comes to a choice of Senator, and says that belongs to Portland, and when men consider the threats in regard to our county, they will show that they know how to deal with men who employ such methods to gain and keep authority.

I doubt if this correspondent is a temperance man. I am one, myself, and am satisfied (with a majority of temperance men) that the Republican organization has done and is doing all that can be done for the cause, in the present state of public opinion. But this is not the fight; and Kittery lowers himself when he advocates allowing Cumberland (as Berwick says, under the dictation of the Portland Press, Custom House and Post Office,) to entirely ignore his own county. — Personally, I care for no candidate; but I do care a good deal for justice, and with many others am resolved to do what I can to secure from Cumberland county, a little bit of FAIR PLAY.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Broadside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious knownothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters," is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the venders have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicated stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concections referred to being composed of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (!) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung diseases in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

For Summer Complaints, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy. It is the best skill ful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

☞ An ocean excursion party from Boston in steamer Cambridge will visit the Isles of Shoals to-day.

☞ Thirteen vessels arrived at the Concord Railroad wharves on Sunday, with cargoes of coal, etc., for the interior. The C. & P. Railroad is running extra freight trains daily between Portsmouth and Manchester to move the cargoes of these vessels.

☞ Steamer Clara Bateman took out a nice party of ladies and gentlemen on an excursion down the harbor, Tuesday evening, with Harlow's Naval Band; but the fog outside was very dense, and the compass failing to work, they were obliged to anchor, and did not arrive in till Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock. There was a slight shower, with thunder and lightning, and many of the party, including several members of the Band, were a lee-tle seasick.

THE CREEK CESS POOL still emits its infernal odor, but no longer on account of the negligence of the city authorities. The Eastern Railroad company agreed to fill it up on condition that the city continue a drain of 180 feet and pay $125, the other abuttors agreeing to pay their share. The drain was finished ten days ago at a cost of $100 and Mayor Adams immediately notified the Agent of the Railroad. Nothing has been done since and the neighbors within a half mile square are suffering for pure air.

HOW TO BRING RAIN. — Some persons have advised that in a time of draught, the Agamenticus basket-makers should be sent for, as their appearance on Market Square is a certain precursor of rain. But as a rain producing institution, the Portsmouth Philharmonic Society beats the basket-makers, or even the barometer, all hollow; and if it should ever be found necessary to make use of any unusual agency to break up a spell of dry weather, the city should employ the Society in preference to sending to Agamenticus for a shower. Home talent should be encouraged; and if the Philharmonics appoint a rehearsal or a jollification, rain will come, and no mistake about it.

The Society's rehearsals, during the entire winter, were held on stormy evenings; and their picnic, appointed for Tuesday last, of course brought dull weather and fog, with a little rain, tho' they were not so successful as usual with the latter, as regards quantity. However, there was enough to keep more than half the members who intended going, at home; but those who went to the Shoals, had a capital day and a good time after getting there, and a glorious trip back by moonlight, over a smooth sea, in the evening. As many who intended going remained away from supposing the excursion would be postponed, there is talk of trying it one time more, to see if the weather clerk won't make a mistake, just for once.

The Appledore House is about filled with guests, and the Laighton brothers are the same as ever—hearty, attentive laudlords, doing credit to the Shoals air and good living every time they show their faces, and leaving undone nothing in their power to do for the comfort and convenience of their guests. We were pleased to see the house so full, even though we did have to go right up to the roof for a room, in consequence. Long may they flourish.

AMERICAN VIEWS OF A WAR IN EUROPE.—In the threatened clash of arms in Europe Cuba's fate is considered to be involved. Secretaries Boutwell and Robeson and General Sherman have had consultations with the President as to the prospect of war in Europe, and the President was of the opinion that it was inevitable. Gen. Sherman is of the same opinion, and thinks it may lead to a general European war, but sees no reason why this government should be affected in any way. Secretary Robeson says if they fight we must keep them off our coast, and perhaps out of this continent entirely. Vice-Admiral Porter thinks war certain, and that France has been preparing for it for a year past. He thinks that government has the best navy in the world, with 48,000 seamen, well drilled and disciplined, and as many and as good vessels as the English, Prussian and Spanish navies combined. He says she can blockade all the Prussian and Spanish ports, take Havana and other Cuban ports, free the Cubans, and in three months have them fighting on her side.

PASSAGE OF THE NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILL.—Both Houses of Congress passed the Naval Appropriation Bill on Wednesday; it appropriates $21,000,000—$5,000,000 more than Dawes' committee recommended.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

PRECEPT AND PRACTICE.—Those of our readers who had the good fortune to listen to Mr. Albee's admirable lecture on "Farming," given in this city last winter, will be glad to learn that he has begun to reap the fruits of good husbandry. Mr. A. has been quite successful, in raising early fruits and vegetables for market; the following, among others grown on his place at Newcastle, have been upon his table during the last four weeks; strawberries, magnificent for size and flavor; green peas, cucumbers, potatoes, currants and gooseberries—most of these obtained as early, at least, as the Fourth of July. Mr. A. has also a large number of raspberry bushes, part of which are in bearing.

The clean and well-kept beds of onions, beets, carrots, etc., and fields garnished with the more substantial corn and potatoes, afford delight to the visitor and profit to the owner. These recommend farming by example, as the author does so handsomely by precept; growing things (and one can almost see them grow,) feast the eye and the palate, at the same time; the cheapest luxury is a garden; and if any one is skeptical, let him walk over Mr. A.'s grounds, and look at his beautiful and model farm by the seaside. VIATOR.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—Clerical Parsonage, by Mrs. A. E. Porter, published by D. Lothrop & Co., Cornhill, Boston.

The parsonage was in a country town in New England. The minister, his wife and son, were the family proper. The minister was fatally hurt by a railroad accident, living but a few days after. He was evidently a pure-minded, worthy man, in all his work laboring for the good of his fellow beings.

His wife was a true helper, and after the death of her husband, had unceasing anxiety with proper effort, that the son might be trained for usefulness. Such efforts were crowned with success.

The book is made up largely of what purports to be the Mother's Journal. Mothers especially can read it with profit. It shows the benefit of persevering in well doing amidst great seeming disarrangements, in training children. It is a warning to the young to avoid temptation, and contains important instructions for all.

The Prescott Memorial, or a Genealogical Memoir of the Prescott Families in America, by Wm. Prescott, M. D. A volume of 653 pages, just from the press. The author was a native of Sanbornton, taught school in Nottingham and Epping about 60 years ago, then studied medicine with Dr. George Kittredge, of Epping, practiced in Gilmanton, in Lynn, Mass., and finally in Concord, where he now resides.

This book is the most full on the subjects of genealogy and memorials we have ever seen. It contains several portraits very well executed. It indicates patient, careful and extensive research. We think that every person in the country bearing the name of Prescott, or connected with the name by marriage, will find an account of his or her family here. To such we commend the book, and to all others fond of genealogical accounts. It can be had of the author, Dr. Prescott, Concord, N. H. J.

☞ The force at the Brooklyn Navy Yard has lately been increased to 1400 men, and it is expected that 1000 more will be added during the month.

RICHARDSON'S
LITTLE WASHER!
PRICE $5.00.
The Simplest, Cheapest, and most Successful WASHING MACHINE ever invented. Took the FIRST PREMIUM over all other Washing Machines at the Mechanics' Fair at Springfield, Mass., March, 1869; and was Awarded a Silver Medal!
☞ The qualities that place the LITTLE WASHER beyond competition are; its cheapness; its simplicity, (it cannot get out of order, and can be operated by a child;) its lightness, which renders it easily removed; and the perfect manner in which it does its work, adjusting itself to any article, from a handkerchief to a bed-quilt, without alteration, and washing clothes perfectly clean without wearing the garments in the least. You can expend all your labor on the soiled parts, without washing the whole garments at the same time.
More than twenty thousand families in New England alone, have already been supplied with this new and useful invention. Persons desiring such a machine as here described, and yet doubtful about its merits, can have a washing done in their own families, by the Agent. The following testimonials need no comment:
Portsmouth, N. H., June 9, 1870.
MR. J. J. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—The test of "Richardson's Little Washer" that I witnessed this week convinced me that we need go no further for Washing Machines. It does its work perfectly, and is all you say of it. Yours truly, L. W. BREWSTER.
MR. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—I have tested the "Little Washer" and think it a perfect success.
MRS. L. E. MARTIN.
MR. HATLINGER,
Dear Sir:—Having tested the "Little Washer", I fully concur with the above testimonials, and think it superior to any other Washing Machine. It will do all you say of it. R. W. WEBSTER.

FISK OUTDONE.—The New York Sun says that Dr. H. T. Helmbold will be out in gorgeous array this season at Long Branch in his new six-in-hand drag phaeton. The drag is capable of seating six persons besides the outriders, for whom there is a handsome rumble seat attached to the rear of the vehicle. The inside is superbly finished, the cushions and lining being of costly drab serge, trimmed with silk broad lace. The body, though massive, is strictly after the very latest English modes, but is not as cumbersome. It is painted a rich wine color. The mouldings, which give the graceful outlines of the exquisite design, are finished in gold, relieved with beautiful edgings of carmine. The wheels and running gear are colored in the same shade of carmine, striped in black and gold, and bordered with delicate lines of drab. The tappings, lead bars, pole hooks, sockets and fastenings for the leaders display the finest workmanship. They are all forged, and burnished, and heavily plated with gold. Suspended to the outrider's seat is a neat and novel arrangement for carrying the extra lead bars.

The side lamps for this luxurious turn-out are of an entirely new pattern, of the finest workmanship, and add wonderfully to the gorgeousness of the equipage. On the panels of the carriage, in gold, shaded with a delicate tinge of crimson, is the monogram H. T. H., very artistically designed. A very important feature in the construction of the drag, is a brake, used by the driver with ease by the slightest pressure of the foot, so that the high-spirited team, in case of accident, can at once be checked. The works of this novel brake are neatly concealed from view.

The whip is considered the finest knotted thorn in America. The liveries of the coachmen and the outriders, who are as black as ebony, will be in proper accordance with the magnificence of the phaeton, and comprising black silk hats, green coats, drab pants and top boots. They will cost over $2000. With its appurtenances, the carriage will involve an expenditure of not less than $50,000. The harness is very richly got up. It is made of black leather with enamelled fastenings, and is in gold decorated with bullion, fringed rosettes, and gold monograms. The chain bracelet fronts, chain martingales, gag runners, frogs, and crests, are of Prince's metal, very highly polished. The carriage was made by Messrs. James B. Cone & Co.

The horses are picked thoroughbreds from Dr. Helmbold's celebrated stud. They are all blood bays, and will be driven by Thomas, who is said to be one of the best handlers of a six-in-hand in the country.

It has become too much the fashion in this country to imitate the English nobility and gentry, especially in the matter of equipages; but we have in New York some notable exceptions. Among these is Dr. H. T. Helmbold. His horses are thorough-bred, and his carriage, which is capable of seating ten persons, and is light and graceful, having all the strength and nothing of the clumsiness of the heavy English drag, has no armorial decorations, but only a simple monogram. There is nothing of English snobbery in the livery of his coachman, but everything about it is in the most perfect taste. Dr. Helmbold, in this matter, sets an example that is worthy of imitation by men of large means who can afford an expensive and elegant equipage.

HOW TO SAVE GIRDLED TREES.—A correspondent of the Nashua, N. H., Telegraph says his method of saving girdled trees is to graft five or six scions as large as a goose quill and large enough to reach over the girdled place, into the tree. The live bark is first above and below the girdle, notched, the sprouts sprung into place and the ends fastened with wax. These scions grow rapidly and in time spread over the whole girdled surface. Two thrifty apple trees standing upon the premises of Mr. Samuel B. Weston on Temple Street, in Nashua, were completely girdled by mice eighteen years ago, one of them having the bark taken off over a foot in width on one side, and were saved in the above manner, and they are still in good bearing condition.

PIE SEED AND PIE PLANT.—To a horticulturist who advertised all kinds of seeds and plants, a wag sent an order for one package of custard-pie seed and a dozen of mince-pie plants. The horticulturist returned twelve hen's eggs and a small dog.

PIGGY CELEBRATES.—A pig in the West brought trouble upon himself on the Fourth by picking up a lighted firecracker, which exploded and "busted" piggy's mouth.

TEA THIRST.—By sucking the spout of a boiling tea-kettle, a child in Illinois put itself beyond succor.

—Santa Cruz County, California, jubilates over the birth of a child to a couple aged respectively fifty and seventy-eight years. The "climate" is held responsible. Emigration to Santa Cruz will increase.

—Milwaukee is getting up a grand beer festival. The best brewer is to have a gold medal, and the biggest drinker a silver handled coffin.

—Napoleon is said to be again suffering from rheumatism in the hips. It's about the only thing that seems able to get his majesty "on the hip."

—Unredeemable Bonds—Vagabonds.

REVIVAL OF PEACH TREES.—A discovery of no small moment in the interests of agriculture has been made by Dr. George B. Wood, and communicated by him to the American Philosophical Society, of which he is President. Peach trees in this vicinity, after producing a few crops, not only cease bearing, but perish themselves in a short time; whereas, their natural life is 50 or 60 years, or more. The cause of this defective power of growth is believed by Dr. Wood to be owing to a deficiency of potash in the soil, and he states that if alkali be applied to the tree so that it shall meet the small roots and be absorbed, the fruit-bearing power is restored, and the tree itself, if prematurely perishing, is revived.

Believing with most persons that the cause of the decay lay in worms at the root of the peach tree, he put in operation a plan which he had seen his father perform more than fifty years before, viz.: digging around the base of the stem a hole four or five inches deep, scraping away all the worms that could be found burrowing at the junction of the stem and root, and filling the hollow thus made with fresh wood-ashes from the fire, which, of course, retained all their potash.

This was done in the autumn of 1868, and with a result, in the following spring, at which he was himself astonished. The trees appeared to have been restored to all their early freshness and vigor; they put forth bright green leaves, blossomed copiously, and bore a crop of fruit such as they had never borne before, many of the branches breaking down under the load of peaches. Dr. Wood, in reflecting on these results, and noticing that several of the peach trees treated had no worms, came to the conclusion that we must look for an explanation to some other cause than the destruction of a few worms, and this cause he believes to be the ashes, the potash of which being dissolved by the rains, had descended along the roots to the rootlets, and presented to them the very food for the want of which they were dying. Decaying apple trees bearing stinted and inedible fruit have been revived by a similar process, and with like results. All of Dr. Wood's orchards give promise of an abundant supply of fruit this season.

THAT IS SO.—General Howard has written a letter severely commenting on the conduct of the white cadets at West Point towards the colored cadet. He says significantly:

"If West Point has not power enough to protect such a young man as cadet Smith—quick, able, honest, noble-spirited as he is—then West Point will have a hard struggle against the returning tide of feeling that will break in from the people."

CONGRESS.—The Senate, on Wednesday, passed the omnibus bill.

In the House the Senate amendments to the army bill were rejected and another conference committee appointed. The conference report on the funding bill was rejected and the same conference committee re-appointed.

TOO HOT.—We learn that Mr. Isaac Spaulding has resigned the Presidency of the Concord Railroad, assigning as a reason that "the position was too much of a hornet's nest." Fred Smyth will undoubtedly succeed him.—Patriot.

—A Boston paper declares Boston to be the paradise of the organ-grinders. O, that all our organ-grinders might speedily enter paradise!

THE LORRAINE VEGETABLE
CATHARTIC PILL.
DR. LORRAINE'S VEGETABLE PILL,
—OR—
LA MEDICINE CURATIVE.
Mild, Certain, Safe, Efficient. It is far the best Cathartic now in use. It invigorates and once relives and invigorates all the vital functions, without causing injury to any of them. The most complete success has long attended its use in many localities; and it is now offered to the general public with the conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it. It produces little or no pain; leaves the organs free from irritation, and never over taxes or excites the nervous system. In all diseases of the skin blood, stomach, liver, kidneys, or children, and in many difficulties peculiar to women, it brings prompt relief and certain cure. The best physicians recommend it, and prescribe it; and no person who once uses this, will voluntarily return to the use of any other cathartic.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MEDICAL MADNESS.
LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous medicines in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a beauty prepared by the cup bearer to the omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. 1ysw

PRUNING AND RENOVATING APPLE TREES.—It may be asked, "Who cares anything about apple trees at this time of the year?" Truly, who does care anything about them except to gather the fruit, and if there is no fruit to gather—as there seldom is under their present management—they are considered an incumbrance on the ground.

Now, it is this very indifference to the subject that requires to be stirred up, and when it is stirred up, a little reflection will show that the present time of the year is the very time to discuss the subject; for who ever thinks of pruning apple trees in the fall of the year? I will venture to say no one here in New England. In the course of reading the article "Apple" in an English work, I was struck with this passage:

"Winter pruning. This is best performed in mild weather, immediately after the fall of the leaves."

This was a new idea to me, for I had never before seen apple tree pruning advised to be done in the fall of the year, immediately after the fall of the leaves. Winter pruning, according to the English acceptation of the term is for the purpose of regulating the form and growth of the tree; and this has always been performed, or should be, late in winter or very early in the spring here in New England. The pruning of the grape-vine has always been recommended to be done rather late in the fall or early in the spring. The early fall pruning of it, or immediately after the falling of the leaves, is now beginning to be advised by some of the best writers on the subject, and with good reason. I cap see no serious objection to pruning apple trees as soon as their leaves fall, but many in favor of the practice.

The principal objection against fall pruning has been that the wounds made do not get healed, and so the tree is more exposed to the cold of winter and thus more liable to injury. But if the pruning is done as soon as the leaves fall, or very nearly so, the wounds have time to become dried on the surface, and that is all that is necessary to keep the cold out. This objection can only be brought against the cutting off of large limbs; but an apple tree should be always kept in so good order as not to require to have large limbs removed; and if the work is done in the fall, when the farmer has leisure to attend to it and always has mild, pleasant weather to do it in, it will be his own fault if his trees are not kept in good order.

There are a great many old apple trees to be found in every town that sadly need pruning. They bear no fruit, or but little, and that of poor quality. The owners should take them in hand immediately, no matter if the leaves have not fallen—it is better to be beforehand than too late. Cut out all the dead limbs close to the body of the tree or to the limb they start from, and all of the suckers—which English orchardists call "robbers"—growing from the side of the tree and near its roots, and all limbs that cross one another so near as to chafe each other. Shorten in such as are growing ahead of all others. In short, give the tree a good cleaning out and dressing up, and do it with a saw, not an axe, which never should be used for pruning any tree.

Then collect the limbs that have been cut off, and burn them to ashes. Take the ashes and as much more as can be obtained, spread them under the tree and dig them in; then cover the ground, as far as the limbs extend, with manure, no matter how coarse and strawy a character, or a compost of manure and muck. If any one will do this to an old apple tree, he will find that next year it will "reconstruct" itself, and in two years pay well for the labor bestowed upon it. There is hardly an apple tree so old and decrepit but it can be renovated in this way; and there can be no question but that fall is the very best time to do it in. There is no doubt in my mind that any other fruit tree may be renovated in this same way.—"Cultivator" in N. H. Statesman.

☞ The following item has been going the rounds of the press for several years, and is on its travels again:

There was an old lady who lived next door to the Navy Yard at Portsmouth, in New Hampshire, and who had the misfortune to be hard of hearing. Last Fourth of July she sat in her parlor while the boys of the Navy Yard fired a salute of thirty-six heavy guns. As the last sixty-eight pounder went off the old lady started up in her chair and called out "Come in."

—The Industrial Interests of the country are far more endangered to all concerned in them, working man and employer alike, by the Introductions into our communities of the tyranny of coercive organizations, at war with free and fair trade in labor, than they are by any coming, for these present, of the Chinese to the Pacific shores.—Boston Transcript.

—Correction does much, but encouragement will do more. Encouragement after censure is like the sun after a shower.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
FOR ALL PURPOSES of a LAXATIVE MEDICINE,
Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PILL. The obvious reason is that it is a more reliable and far more effective purgative than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these PILLS rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. dawje16eod3m

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1870.

Glanced and Ground.

In New York, Wednesday, while the Orangemen were having a picnic, they by some means got into trouble with the Catholics, and the result was a terrible riot, in which working implements and fire-arms were used with fatal effect. Several were killed and 200 wounded.

Gen. Smith, who had charge of Red Cloud's party, has returned to Washington and says that Red Cloud is exercising his influence with the Indians for peace.

Dahlgren died of heart disease.

A San Francisco dispatch says the Harpending prospecting expedition, which left May 6th for Arizona, was surrounded by the Indians when forty miles east from Tueson. They cut their way through and retreated towards Florence, having several wounded. Thirty of the Indians were killed. The savages were armed with heavy Spencer rifles and clothed in Federal uniforms.

The drought in France continues, and the reports of its ending are totally untrue. No rain fell for ten weeks prior to July 4th, and since then there have been only a few slight showers.

There were 267 deaths in Paris last week from varioloid.

Mr. Gilmore expects for his great jubilee next year that he will have present the French Imperial Band, and also a Russian Imperial Band, Swiss, Turkish, Greek and Spanish Bands, the favorite band of Victor Emmanuel, the Prussian band from the palace of Frederick William and the favorite band from the Queen's palace at Windsor.

Four and a half miles of track were laid on the eastward end of the Kansas Pacific Railroad Tuesday, and one mile on the Denver end. The road will be completed early in September.

The Asiatic cholera is reported to have appeared south of the Ohio River.

The Fenian General Starr was convicted on two of the three counts of the indictment against him.

Another destructive fire occurred in Constantinople on Monday. It raged over nine hours. Fifteen hundred houses, mainly of the poorer class, were consumed.

Hon. Daniel S. Norton, Democratic Senator from Minnesota, died of consumption at Washington on Thursday, aged 41 years.

The price of tea has advanced 20 per cent. in Japan.

The Ecumenical Council passed the dogma of infallibility by a vote of 450 to 88.

CONGRESS.—On Wednesday, the Senate confirmed Hugh L. Bond for circuit judge of the fourth judicial circuit; Lorenzo M. Johnson, of Texas, as consul-general at Beirut; and Benjamin F. Potts, governor of Montana, vice Jas. Ashley.

The reports of the conference committees on the funding and the taxation and tariff bills were adopted.

In the House, Mr. Schenck of Ohio, from the conference committee on the tax and tariff bill, calculated that the bill would reduce the internal taxes $50,000,000, and the customs receipts $27,000,000, and he would not hesitate to say that the reduction to be effected by the bill, compared with the receipts of last year, would be over $80,000,000, the report was agreed to—143 to 49.

The conference committee report on the funding bill was agreed to—137 to 35.

The Senate passed the House bill giving Mrs. Abraham Lincoln a yearly pension of $3000, on Thursday.

New Hampshire Items.

On the 11th, in Loudon, Mr. John O. Merrill, while mowing with a machine, fell before the cutter and was fearfully injured, his right arm being nearly cut off below the elbow, and other cuts inflicted.

Gen. Samuel A. Duncan of this State has been appointed Assistant Commissioner of Patents.

A valuable barn belonging to C. M. Noyes, in Hudson, was fired by an incendiary Tuesday evening, and destroyed. Mr. Noyes had just secured his hay. Loss $1500; partially insured.

Mr. Spaulding has not resigned the presidency of the Concord Railroad.

NAVAL.—Commodore Henry Walker is promoted to Rear Admiral, and Capt. Roger N. Stembel to Commodore. The Senate has confirmed Commodore Wm. Reynolds as chief of the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting, vice Rear Admiral Melancton Smith, who will probably command the Washington Navy Yard, vice Dahlgren, deceased.

WAR AT LAST.—The withdrawal from the candidature for the Spanish throne of Prince Leopold is confirmed, but the war talk and war preparations are going forward with renewed vigor. France and Prussia are massing their forces, and Spain and Belgium have now begun preparations for the fight. There seems to be no valid excuse for war now, but Napoleon is eager for it and may plunge all Europe into a fight. A Berlin dispatch says France wants a sharp and decisive war in order to escape internal troubles and efface the Mexican fiasco.

Troops are moving through Paris for the frontier, and there seems to be no abatement in military activity in other quarters of France.

Europe is uneasy. The tone of the official journals of France is pacific, but other papers are hostile and warlike.

Important intelligence has been received of warlike movements on the part of Prussia of a very formidable character.

The advices indicate that a complete change has taken place in the aspect of affairs, which entirely dissipates the prospects of a friendly termination to the present quarrel and almost renders war not alone a certainty but a necessity.

The Belgian government, in view of a hostile invasion, has issued orders to place the army on an immediate war footing, and the utmost activity is being displayed at military headquarters.

The King of Prussia, in answer to the request of the French government for guarantees that Prince Leopold should not accept the crown of Spain, has refused to again receive Gen. Benedetti, the French Minister, and has informed him through an aid-de-camp that he had no further communication to make to him.

A Prussian dispatch dated Berlin, Thursday afternoon says Napoleon is dissatisfied with the mere withdrawal of Hohenzollern, and persists in his demand that Prussia must formally disavow the candidature. The King of Prussia firmly refuses.

The Borsen Zeitung says that war is sure because France wants it.

The Borsen Courier says that the French pretensions are a direct insult to Prussia and King William, and that war is inevitable.

THE NEW REVENUE TAX LAW abolishes all taxes on gross receipts, legacies, successions, watches, gold and silver plate, billiard tables, passports, salaries, banks and bankers; the whole system of special or license taxes, except those on brewers and distillers, and all taxes on sales except those now paid by stamps and those on sales of leaf and manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars, wines and liquors. It also abolishes the stamp tax on all receipts, transfers of mortgage, notes for less than $100, and on canned or preserved fish. The taxes that remain are those excepted as herein noted, as well as the present taxes on spirits, tobacco, gas, fermented liquors, bank deposits, capital and circulation, income tax and stamp taxes, except as abolished. Special taxes do not cease until next May, taxes on sales not until October, and the others that are abolished expire on the first of August. The income tax is to be collected but two years more, and at the rate of 2 1-2 per cent., with $2000 exemption. The tax on the salaries of government officials ceases on the 1st of August, and the difference to that date between 5 and 2 1-2 per cent. is to be deducted next spring.

In social or religious communities five persons are to be counted as a family. The publication of income returns is positively prohibited. 2 1-2 per cent. tax is laid on dividends of incorporated banks, trust companies, savings institutions, and all insurance, railroad, canal, steamboat, turnpike, slackwater, gas, coal, mining, bridge and manufacturing companies, whether payable to citizens or non-residents. The interest allowed depositors in savings banks is not to be called a dividend. The consolidation of collection and supervisorship districts, and the discharge of needless officers, is allowed to the President.

ACCIDENT.—An old and estimable maiden lady of Wells met with a serious accident a few weeks since. The old lady, who is something more than seventy years of age, resided—(alas she does not now)—alone in an unfrequented place, where for years she had lived unmolested. But of late ominous insinuations and threats have indicated that something dreadful was about to happen to E—n. These insinuations and threats had somewhat prepared the public for the astounding news. The final shock came a few days since, when she and a male friend who was somewhat mixed up in the affair, went to the minister's, and then the dreadful deed was done and the cord of matrimony tied fast.—Biddeford Democrat.

Royal Eastman has been appointed postmaster at Great Falls.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

COURTESY TO STRANGERS is a marked feature in the management of the AMERICAN HOUSE, BOSTON. In the excellence of its appointments it is equalled by few hotels in the country.

SUFFERERS from coughs, colds, bronchitis croup, influenza or whooping cough, will find relief in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which has now been in use for nearly half a century, and still maintains its long established reputation as the great remedy for all diseases of the throat, lungs, and chest.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

RICHARDSON'S

LITTLE WASHER, unlike all others, light and portable, weighing only ten pounds, is sold for the small price of five dollars. Adjusts itself to any article from a Pocket handkerchief to a without alteration. Can be fitted to any tub, and removed at pleasure.

LARGE BED SPREAD,

If you will use this little common sense washing machine, you will do the work of half a day in 2 hours.

RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER does not tear or wear the clothes, no matter how fine the fabric. Clothes are straightened out, and passed back and forth, between the rollers till clean.

Remember and always have a good strong and hot suds.

Put your Pocket handkerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Napkins and Fringes into a sheet or Pillow slip and wash perfectly clean, in two to three minutes. We wash at one time, two or three sheets gathered at the hem, six Pillow slips, six Towels, two or three Cotton Shirts, one pair heavy Pants or two pairs light ones, one heavy Spread or Blanket, always putting the smaller things inside something larger or longer.

Wherever this Little Washer has been introduced the sale has been unprecedented, having sold upwards of three hundred in Dover, N. H., in less than two months; two thirds of the purchasers had been using large awkward machines costing from five to eighteen dollars; all a failure, one great complaint being that they are heavy and no women can work them.

Richardson's has taken a Silver Medal in Springfield, Mass., at Mechanic's Fair in 1868, and other places where exhibited.

A lady who has not washed for three years, told her neighbors she did her washing, with that Little Washer, with ease, consequently they ordered one, and the question all over town is, have you got a RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER?

AT 90 AND INTEREST,

Interest payable May and November.

J. EDGAR THOMPSON, CHARLES L. FROST, } Trustees.

These bonds have 50 years to run, are convertible at the option of the holder into the stock of the company at par, and the payment of the principal is provided for by a sinking fund.

The greater part of the road is already completed, and shows large earnings, and the balance of the work is rapidly progressing.

We unhesitatingly recommend these bonds as the safest and best investment in the market.

U. S. Five-twenties, at present prices, only return five per cent. interest, while these pay eight and one-quarter per cent. in Gold; and we regard the security equally good.

The Company reserve the right without notice to advance the price.

HAIR DRESSING SALOON.

NO DELAY. Four Chairs. Customers served promptly. Cups for all who wish—free. Thorough work guaranteed at No. 58 Congress Street. DAVID RODRICK.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Broadside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious knownothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

So much by way of Text. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters," is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the venders have the hardihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS long recognized by every class as the purest and best medicinal stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concoctions referred to being composed of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (!) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering have a direct interest in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Koscinko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, without they say about

Can be taken as a nut. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy. It is the most skilful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

MERITED PROMOTION.—Lieut. Geo. E. Wingate, U. S. N., of this city, has been promoted to Lieut. Comd'r.

THE LITTLE WASHER.—Mr. J. J. Hatlinger is meeting with great success in the sale of these indispensables, as will be seen by his advertisement. He has already sold 125 machines and on Thursday found six more purchasers inside of 30 minutes.

GOOD.—Mr. Henry M. Clark is circulating a subscription paper for concerts by the Cornet Band, these summer evenings. We hope our citizens will respond liberally and encourage home talent.

SUNDAY EVENING EXCURSION.—As will be seen by the advertisement in another column, the second Sacred Concert by Harlow's Band will take place down river in Steamer Appledore on Sunday evening next. The first, which came off last Sunday, was an experiment and a great success.

EXCURSION, THIS EVENING.—Steamer Appledore will leave Pier Wharf at 8 o'clock this evening, if fair weather, for a trip down the harbor. The Portsmouth Cornet Band is to furnish the music, and good music it will be, too. As the moon is on the wane, this will be the last moonlight excursion this month.

THE STREET MUSIC PEDLERS have been in full force this summer, and some poor wretch, tired and disconsolate, has evolved the following couplet:

Eternal Rome! who sat on seven hills,
Big with vast conquest, and ambition's lust,
Send forth legions, thick as Egypt's ills,
To grind opposing nations to the dust.

And Rome still stands, immortal and sublime;
Nor is there a city where ye may not find
Her legions now, as in the ancient time;
They still go forth, their mission still to grind!

ELWOOD'S FEMALE MINSTRELS had a large audience at the Temple Wednesday evening, and gave about the best show of the kind that has been given here this season. The "blondes and brunettes" seemed to have clothes enough to go all round, so that none of them appeared in the style that Eve did when she set out on her famous pomological experiment, as has been the custom with other female troupes. The trapeze performance was good, and hazardous enough to justify the audience in entertaining pleasing anticipation of seeing somebody's neck broken; and much of the dialogue and acting was amusingly ridiculous. The crowd in attendance seemed to enjoy the whole entertainment.

SPOILING FOR A HACK.—On the 30th June, a challenge appeared in the Dover Gazette to any base ball club in New Hampshire to play a game for the championship of the State within six weeks from that date. In the same issue, the Gazette editor said—"The Sawyer boys are spoiling for another hack at the Portsmouth club." The Granite States of this city, who had got away with the Sawyers on Memorial Day by a score of 40 to 11, and have not lost a game this year, did not claim the State championship, especially as there were senior clubs composed of older and more practiced players,—not to mention the Dartmouth College club, probably the best in the State.

The challenge of the Sawyers was considered a ludicrous affair, but as the Sawyers were represented as very desirous of meeting the Granite States, the latter accepted by telegraph, and named July 12th as the day. Repeated telegrams and letter writing failed of a response, and the day passed without a game. Then Thursday was selected, but with Thursday came a letter from the catcher of the Minie Club of South Berwick, who is to play in the Sawyer "champion" nine, stating that the Sawyers have four games on hand and cannot commence either before July 25th.

Their challenge was dated June 30, and was for six weeks (42 days). Twenty-four days, will have elapsed and but 18 will remain, including Sundays, ere the time of the challenge will expire. The Sawyers, fearful of being beaten in their first game, suggest that in that contingency the Granite States should play the victors; this doesn't evince any particular desire on the part of the Sawyers to have "another hack at the Portsmouth club;" and base ball players here think it will be necessary to send a hack or two to Dover to bring them down. The Granite States have finally requested the Sawyers to fix definitely on a day on which they will come and see them.

A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT occurred at Pillsbury's switch, Canaan, on the Northern Railroad, Wednesday afternoon, by the collision of the express down train and the up accommodation train. Both engines were completely wrecked. The baggage car on the down train was completely demolished. The casualities are as follows:

Charles Clark of Concord, engineer on down train, killed; Henry Badger, brakeman, fatally injured; A. M. Grant, engineer on up train, badly injured; Thomas Gilmore of West Lebanon, fireman for Clark, badly bruised about the head; Edwin York of West Lebanon, fireman for Grant, thigh broken; Abiel Hurlburt, an extra engineer on the engine with Clark, leg broken; Tilsley Summers of Concord, badly injured about the head; several passengers slightly injured.

Conductor Barnes had charge of the down train and Conductor Shattuck was in charge of the up train; the down train was going at the rate of 40 miles an hour, while the up train was going slowly.

West Canaan is the regular meeting place of the trains, and no train ever passes it up or down without meeting the other, unless telegraphic understanding to the contrary is had.

Conductor Shattuck telegraphed to Conductor Barnes but the latter did not get the telegram.

Both conductors are off duty since the accident. The officials will give the affair a complete investigation.

EASTERN AND WESTERN SECURITIES. Since the Hartford and Erie troubles it is beginning to be a question whether Western railways are not as good, if not better securities than Eastern railways.

Probably ew roads pay better earnings than those of Iowa. Poor, in his recent manual, shows that the average for Iowa is about $12,000 per mile. It is estimated that the earnings of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway will be in 1871, the first year of its completion, $3,500,000. This road is being pushed to a completion by Henry Clews & Co., one of our best banking houses. Mr. Clews holds a controlling interest in the road, and as it pays about 9 per cent. in a bond convertible into stock and either coupon or registered at will of buyer, is a good investment. The points of the road are these: It connects St. Paul with St. Louis, and Chicago with Mankato, the agricultural capital of Minnesota, and runs through the best stock, cereal and coal producing region in the West, and is also a market for coal and lumber.—Portland Argus.

☞ A correspondent of the Boston Advertiser writes that a concert in Brunswick, Me., at Bowdoin commencement, by the Germania Band, with Miss Ryan, Mr. Barnabee, and Mr. Arbuckle, for soloists, was well attended. Mr. Barnabee carried off most of the honors of the occasion.

☞ A man named John Varrell, at Rye, was badly injured on Wednesday, having his leg broken and being somewhat cut, by a mowing machine. He was brought to this city and attended by Dr. Coleman.

☞ Mr. Amos Pearson informs his patrons and friends that any and all orders left for him at the Chronicle counting room, Exchange Buildings, will receive prompt attention.

☞ A. M. Payson, Esq., Principal of the Girls' High School, is a member of the Examining Committee at Dartmouth College.

—We are happy to learn that our honored fellow citizen, Hon. John P. Hale, is steadily recovering from his late attacks of illness.—Dover Bee.

VAST QUANTITIES OF IVORY DESTROYED. Thousands of teeth that might last a lifetime are lost every year, simply because the parties concerned either forget or do not appreciate the fact that SOZODONT, duly applied, renders the dental substance proof against decay.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Restoring the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is even restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Morning Chronicle.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.—The discussion in our Legislature is premature, for women cannot vote for Representatives without an amendment of the State Constitution. Although some learned men advocate the right of women to vote, it may be rather to please the ladies, than from any expectation to confer the right. That our free institutions would be safe in the hands of refined, well educated women, we are willing to concede. But the right cannot be conferred upon that class without including the whole female population, and the black women of the South, who are adults. The truth is that God did not create females as the equals of the males, physically or in some other respects. Their sphere is very different from that of the men, as all know. There cannot be two heads of the same family.

Woman's rights are more safely protected by law in this country than in any other in the world. This is right; they ought, therefore, to be satisfied, without attempting to usurp the rights of men. The natural mental faculties of females may be equal to those of the males, and it is highly gratifying to hear of the high literary attainments of many of them. But we must believe that what the sacred Scriptures record is true. The Apostle Paul says,—Cor. 11, 3: "I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man." Again he says—I Trin. 12: He would not suffer a woman "to usurp authority over a man." Collos. 3, 15: "Wives submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord." Titus 2, 5: 'To be discreet, chaste, reapers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed." I Peter, 3, 1: "Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that if any obey not the word, they also without the word be won by the conversation of the wives." Other declarations of the sacred Scriptures might be cited of similar import, which certain female orators attempt to explain away to suit their own purposes. They may wish that they had been born of the masculine gender. Woman was a side issue, and was created to be "an help meet" for her husband. Should her husband vote to suit her political sentiments, that ought to satisfy her; but should she be allowed the elective franchise, and vote against his will and order, how could she be "obedient to her own husband?" Domestic quarrels might be engendered.

Women should not be subjected to the hardships, out-door labor, and military duties, which man must perform; but we would surely confer upon them all the rights to property and all other things, which are requisite for their domestic felicity.

The right to go to the polls, and take part in exciting debates in legislative halls and public meetings, would be far from promoting their happiness. At a recent meeting in Concord, before a committee of the Legislature respecting woman suffrage, there were a number of female orators. Mrs. Livermore said—"It was a singular fact that the woman suffrage movement was advocated by more men than women."

Not very singular that delicate, refined woman should have a distaste for becoming politicians, engaging in angry party discussions, travelling often from a distance to the polls, and moving out of the sphere for which nature designed them, and putting themselves upon a level with the lower class of white and black women. Females being a majority in the Union, exercising the elective franchise, could elect Representatives, judicial officers, and a female President of the United States. No profit can be derived from a frivolous discussion of this question.

A FRIEND TO WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

[Remarks. — Our correspondent quotes St. Paul to prove that women should not vote. Not long ago a well known publication quoted St. Paul to prove that rum-drinking was according to the gospel—but we didn't feel convinced then, nor do we now. St. Paul was an old bachelor, and didn't think much of women, anyway; or at least he never took one to wife. Nor were women in his day regarded as they are now. Nor was St. Paul infallible; for he made the serious mistake, once in his life, of killing Christ's disciples to please God. It is not impossible that his prejudice against women warped his judgment as to what was right and just regarding them.

As to woman's "obeying" her lord and master in politics if she would not disobey the divine commands—if the rule applies to politics, it must to religion in a much greater degree; so the Christian woman whose husband turns out to be a scoundrel must commit any rascality he tells her to, or else be a wicked and disobedient wife. The fact is, that many husbands and wives differ on matters of religion without fighting over it, and the idea that they would do any more over politics is but a bug-bear.

The notion that the good and virtuous of the softer sex will "put themselves on a level with the lowest classes" of women by voting, is really comical. We presume the "Advocate of Woman's Rights" has at some time in his life thrown a vote. Did he "put himself on a level" with the debased ruffians who crowd the polls in some of our large cities, by so doing? If the right of suffrage is going to debase women so much, what a wonder it is that the men have enjoyed it so long and still remained so pure.

The Advocate's last remark, that "no good can come from a fruitless discussion of this subject," we agree with; we never knew much good to come of a "fruitless discussion" of any subject. But time is required to decide whether or no the discussion of the Woman Suffrage question is fruitless. P.]

—The Chinese in Mr. Sampson's shoe factory at North Adams are rapidly taking hold of the work and he views his experiment with increasing satisfaction. They have been visited of late by manufacturers from various quarters, and all express their conviction that it is a great success. Certainly it has weakened the Crispin order in that town; its American members have nearly all abandoned it, and the various companies can now man their factories with good help who heretofore have not dared to accept their offers for fear of the Crispins.—Berkshire Courier.

A GOOD PLAN.—Lowell makes its dogs aid the cause of literature. After the value of sheep or any other animal killed by dogs has been deducted from the proceeds of a dog, the residue is used for the city library. Last year the net result thus devoted was $1350. As between a free library and free dogs, it is said that the former meets with a general preference, especially among those who do not keep dogs.—Advertiser.

We presume the books added to the library must be amply dog-leaved.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MEDICAL MADNESS.
LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous compounds in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jy4w

LOST WOMEN. — My friends, has it ever occurred to you what a commentary upon our civilization are these lost women and attitude of society to them? A little child strays from the home inclosure and the whole community is on the alert to find the wanderer and return it to its mother's arms. What rejoicings when it is found, what tearful sympathy, what heartiness of congratulation? There are no harsh comments upon the poor, tired feet, be they never so miry, no reprimand for the soiled and torn garments, no lack of kisses for the tear stained face. But let the child be grown to womanhood, let her be led from the enclosure of morality by the voice of affection, or driven from it by the scourge of want—what happens then? Do Christian men and women go in quest of her? Do they provide all possible help for her return, or, if she returns of her own motion, do they receive her with such kindness as to secure her against wandering again? Far from it. At the first false step she is denounced as lost—lost, echo friends and relatives — we disown you; don't ever come near us to disgrace us. Lost, says society, indifferently. How bad these girls are! And lost — irretrievably lost — is the prompt verdict of conventional morality, while one and all unite in bolting every door between her and respectability. Ah, will not these lost ones be required at our hands in the great hereafter?—Mrs. Burleigh, in the N. Y. Woman Suffrage Convention.

TO DRIVE OUT THE FLIES.—Cut old newspapers in strips, an inch or an inch and a half wide, nearly the whole length of the sheet, leaving only about two inches uncut at the top. Take a smooth, round stick, about two feet long, and laying three or four of these cut papers together, wind the uncut part about the stick. Tie the paper on with a strong twine, very tightly so that it will not slip, leaving the long ribbons of paper hanging loose, and you have a most effectual fly brush. Keep one always on hand for the kitchen, and two for the parlor and dining-room.

If the flies have secured an entrance during the dishing of dinner, when it is served, spread a large piece of netting over the table to protect the food from dust—or the flies you may brush down. Open the door, let two persons take each a fly brush, and standing opposite the door, swing the brush in concert through the room swiftly toward the door, and it will be amusing and gratifying to observe how hastily the intruders will vacate the premises. One or two well directed charges will leave you free to shut the net doors and partake of your dinner unmolested.—Mrs. H. W. Beecher, in Christian Union.

—Never has the spirit of improvement been so lively in Dover as at present. With the unusual number of new houses in process of construction, many of them first class, and the long list of those making alterations, enlargements and improvements, carpenter work is a luxury quite in-come-atable to those who have little odd jobs of work to do about the house. Morrill's new buildings are daily assuming form and comeliness, the foundation of the new B. & M. R. R. freight depot is already laid, and long trains of gravel cars go "whisking" over the road many times a day, filling up as rapidly as possible the space around about it. Surely Dover seems to be rapidly improving.—Enquirer.

— The effeminate man is a weak poultice. He is a cross between root beer and ginger pop, with the cork left out of the bottle over night. He is a fresh water mermaid, found in a cow pasture, with hands full of dandelions. He is a tea cup full of syllabub—a kitten in pantalettes—a sick monkey with a blonde moustache. He is a vine without any tendrils—a fly drowned in sweet oil—a paper kite in a dead calm. He lives like a butterfly—nobody can tell why. He is as harmless as a cent's worth of spruce gum, as useless as a shirt button without any button hole. He is as lazy as a bread pill, and has no more type than a last year's grasshopper. He goes through life on tiptoes, and dies like cologne water spilt on the ground.

—The Buffalo Express pays this compliment to Chicago:—

I've been to the North, I've been to the South,
But man may travel and far go
To the jumping-off place ere ever he will find
A town to compare with Chicago.

Chorus:
Oh, Sodom was some, and Gomorrah was great,
And in Venice each man's an Iago,
But the beautiful town that rakes 'em all down
Is the elegant village, Chicago.

HOPE IS TRUE.—It is reported that John H. Selwyn will be stage manager of the Boston Theatre, the coming season, and that Stuart Robson is engaged as comedian.

NOT POLITICAL.—A Pennsylvanian stooped to pick a strawberry and received a bite from a copperhead.

A GOOD AGE.—The Worcester Spy celebrates its one hundredth anniversary Saturday.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and obstruction or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,

DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have suffered by spells very much for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the agency of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

But yesterday relief came through the agency of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised Remedies, in the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, I finally reluctantly suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicine cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable Discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a valuable suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. M. LAREN.

DR. KEYSER

is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not hesitate to say any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases where such a medicine agent would be indicated. They are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,
140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Penn.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Heimbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Incosed please find our rates o advertising. Yours, T. B. H. STENHOUSE,
Ed't and Prop't of Telograph.

TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. Have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about, I could not rest night or day.

It would soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle but, mind you, had not much faith in it. Why should I, when I had been trying so many things that cost me much? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt bad; but I finished it and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently.) When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I felt so, before I had finished the second, that I had madeup my mind it was of no use trying, my case was so, and at the time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after this I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and stopping it off again. It was so for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passages and struck against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which colmented together. It looks the color of a mud turtle, and is as hard as flint. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, although I was feeling so bad. I had procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind; but since that has passed, which is eight weeks ago last Sunday, I may boast as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone securely wrapped, and those who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are welcome to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire; also in Connecticut. The advertisement says, "Why not publish more?" If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time, so I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Extract Buchu have been given to those for whom it was used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chamber maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from Weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment, that is (not knowing it as a weakness instead of a fault) too often unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG, General Sup't and Director.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicines recommended for relief and the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies heretofore unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your Remedy.

As you advertised that it was composed of Buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and concurring in the opinion of the Druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my bed.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much like writing to you in my gratitude of my case at the time, but thought my improvement might delay be temporary, and therefore concluded to delay, and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing that it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months. I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

WAR DECLARED.—The intervention of the great powers for peace has been ineffectual. In the French Corps Legislatif, Friday morning, Napoleon declared war against Prussia.

The declaration made by France is in words to the following effect:

France rejects the insult offered her by Prussia, and declares war against that power.

Prussia's answer is as follows:

That Prussia accepts the declaration of war against her by France, and is ready for the contest.

The movement of troops toward the Rhine frontier is incessant, and Eastern France is alive with soldiers. The troops which have been garrisoned in Paris have gone, and the raw levies are slowly replacing them.

Ambulances and caissons throng the streets of the city on their route to the East.

Austria continues to profess neutrality in the quarrel between Prussia and France, but will abandon it if a third power should intervene.

There is a strong feeling on the part of the Russian government against France.

CONGRESS.—In the Senate, Thursday, Mr. Chandler's bill for the encouragement of American shipbuilding, by a system of drawbacks, and the passage of which he considered of vital importance was laid on the table by a vote of 21 to 19.

The conference committee's report on the naval appropriation bill was agreed to.

The conference committee's report on the army bill was adopted. The pay of the general of the army is fixed at $13,500, with $800 per month, or $3,600 per annum, commutation for fuel and quarters, and $600 additional for forage, making the whole compensation $17,700; the pay of the lieutenant-general is fixed at $11,000, with fuel, quarters and forage, being a reduction of $1300 on his present pay. Officers in active service are not allowed to hold a civil office; retired officers may hold office, which allows General Sickles to continue in his position as minister to Spain.

At the evening session the Senate adhered to its amendments to the Indian appropriation bill, and referred the House bill, placing $5,000,000 at the disposal of the President for the Indian service, to the committee on appropriations.

The reports of the conference committees on the sundry civil expense and deficiency appropriation bills, were adopted.

In the House, a bill exempting canned and preserved fish, and shell fish, from taxation was passed.

The House refused to concur with the Senate on the Indian appropriation bill.

The reports of the conference committees on the army, naval, civil and deficiency bills were adopted. Adjourned at midnight.

On Friday, the House confirmed Mr. Julian's right to a seat as a representative from Indiana, by a vote of 125 to 50. His contestant was Mr. J. S. Reid.

The Boston Journal's dispatch says a dispatch was read from the Clerk's desk in the House, giving an extract from the Paris Constitutionel, announcing that France accepted war with Prussia.

The reading was followed by applause among members and remarks of approval at the European difficulties.

Both Houses passed the amended Indian bill.

The Georgia bill was also passed and has been signed by the President.

New Hampshire Items.

Mr. Wm. C. Wiley of Dover, whose name appeared in connection with an account of the stabbing affair in Seabrook, says that he has not tasted a drop of intoxicating liquor for weeks previous to that affair, and was entirely sober, and that without provocation he was assailed, knocked down and stabbed.

Professor Tourjee of Boston spent last Sabbath in Dover, and spoke in the forenoon at the Methodist church, in the afternoon at the Washington Street Baptist church at a meeting of all churches. He read a splendid lecture on Sacred music in its connection with church service and the manner of its performance. He also held a praise meeting, in the First Paris church in the evening.

Much talk has been made, on the reports of the Census Marshals that there has been a decrease in the number of inhabitants of many of the country towns in this State, since the last census. The difference, we believe, lies mainly in the fact that children are not so much employed at home, but are sent to the factories and shops in our large cities and towns at an earlier age than formerly.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

PROPOSALS FOR MATERIALS

TO BE SUPPLIED TO THE NAVY YARDS, UNDER THE COGNIZANCE OF THE BUREAU OF CONSTRUCTION AND REPAIR.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, }
BUREAU OF CONSTRUCTION AND REPAIR, }
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14, 1870. }

Sealed proposals to furnish Timber and other materials for the Navy for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1871, will be received at this Bureau until 12 o'clock, M., of the 15th of August next, at which time the proposals will be opened.

The proposals must be addressed to the Chief of the Bureau of Construction and Repair, Navy Department, Washington, and must be endorsed, "Proposals for Timber, &c., for the Navy," that they may be distinguished from other business letters.

Printed schedules for such classes as parties deal in and intend to bid for, together with instructions to bidders, giving the forms of proposals of guarantee, and of certificate of guarantors, with printed forms of offer, will be furnished to such persons as desire to bid, on application to the Commandant of the respective Navy Yards, and those of all the yards on application to the Bureau.

The Commandant of each Navy Yard and the purchasing paymaster for each station, will have a copy of the schedules of the other yards, for examination only, in order that persons who intend to bid may judge whether it is desirable to make application for any of the classes of those yards.

The proposals must be for the whole of a class, and all applications for information, or for examination of samples, must be made to the commandants of the respective yards.

The proposals must be accompanied by a certificate from the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the bidder resides, that he has a license to deal in the articles for which he bids respectively; and, if the Department, bids or offers will be received only from parties who are bona fide dealers in, or manufacturers of, the articles bid for, respectively. The guarantors must be certified by the Assessor of Internal Revenue for the district in which they reside.

The contract will be awarded to the person who makes the lowest bids and gives the guarantee required by law, the Navy Department, however, reserving the right to reject the lowest bid, or any which it may deem exorbitant.

Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility must be certified to the satisfaction of the Navy Department.

An additional security twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contracts shall have been completed, and eighty per centum of the amount of each bill, approved in triplicate by the Commandant of the respective yards, will be paid by the Paymaster of the station designated in the contract within ten days after the warrant for the same shall have been passed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Broadside for Humbugs.

Incompetence and assurance generally go hand in hand, and of all the tribe of pretentious knownothings with which society is afflicted, the unscientific "medicine men" who attempt to tamper with the health of the community are the most dangerous and the most impudent.

Quackery by way of Puff. Now for a special and particular application.

It appears that a mushroom growth of so called "Bitters," is springing up under different names in various localities, particularly in the Southern and Western States, which the vendors have the handihood to recommend to easy-going people upon whom they think they can impose, as a substitute for HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS long recognized by every class, as the purest and best medicinal stimulant and invigorant the world affords.

The concoctions referred to being composed of worthless material, offer a larger margin for profit than that Celebrated Tonic, and hence the anxiety of dollar worshipping dealers to foist them upon the public in its place.

But "forewarned is forearmed," and all parties whom these distinguished (!) beings are endeavoring to coax and inveigle into substituting trash for a standard remedy, are hereby informed of the selfish and sordid motives which underlie the representations in question.

The great popularity and vast sales of Hostetter's Bitters cannot, of course, be seriously impaired by these "tricks of trade," but as the debilitated and suffering public are a direct party in the matter, it is only an act of common humanity to put them on their guard.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other method had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

Perry Davis & Son, Proprietors, 1840. PROVIDENCE, R. I. 1870.

Time tests the Merits of all Things.

☞ FOR THIRTY YEARS! ☜

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel difficulty with children or adults, it is a most certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

☞ Directions accompany each bottle.

☞ Eighteen years ago last Tuesday, Civil Engineer B. F. Chandler commenced his duties at this Naval Station.

☞ Minute guns were fired at the Navy Yard, Friday noon, it being the occasion of the funeral of the late Admiral Dahlgren.

THE HIGH SCHOOL EXHIBITIONS are to take place next week; the young ladies', Tuesday afternoon, the boys', Wednesday afternoon.

☞ Rev. Wm. Dinsmore, Pastor of the M. E. Church, will commence a series of discourses on Scripture Characters, to-morrow afternoon.

☞ Steamer Appledore will leave Pier Wharf on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock for a trip down river. Sacred Music will be furnished by Harlow's Band.

THE GOODWIN ZOUAVES.—A meeting of the young men engaged in organizing this new military company, will be held in the Common Council Room, on Tuesday evening next, at 8 o'clock.

THE LARGEST EXCURSION PARTY of the season went to the Shoals, Friday evening, in Steamer Appledore. The Portsmouth Cornet Band played some nice music during the trip. The party numbered over 300.

THE ALLEGHANIANS, under the supervision of their veteran Agent, Mr. Daniel G. Waldron, are making preparation for a trip East, and will appear in Portsmouth about the first week in August, on their way to Canada.

☞ We are requested to state that the Philharmonic Society are to have an excursion to the Shoals on Tuesday next, and will give a musical soiree at the Appledore House. The members are requested to meet at G. A. R. Hall on Monday evening, and to bring the Chorus Wreath, for the purpose of rehearsing some of the choruses.

☞ Arrangements are progressing finely for the Editors' Convention at Rye Beach (Ocean House) July 27th and 28th. All the Railroads connecting, the Eastern, Boston & Maine, P. S. & Portland, Concord, and Roads above, have made the most liberal arrangements for the convenience of the profession. Tickets will be good for a week.

THE ICE QUESTION is becoming a serious one. Ice is bringing $15 per ton in New York, while in this city it is being retailed at $5 per ton. We hear that our Portsmouth dealers have been offered $10 per ton for all they have on hand, to be delivered at the wharves, but have refused to break faith with their customers. It is reported, however, that the rates to transient customers will be raised.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday Evening, Samuel Sides was discharged from further service as a Supernumerary Watchman, on account of being a minor, which was not known at the time of his appointment.

Mr. Rodrick and others asked for repairs of Cabot St. near Eastern R. R.; which, with repairs of Deer St.,—Water near Pickering, and Howard St., were referred to Com. on Sts. The same Com. were also authorized to pay Mr. Hough $30 for land taken in building Freeman's Pt. Road.

The Mayor stated that the Finance Com. had arranged for the City funds to continue on deposit at Rockingham Bank.

Horace F. Adwers was granted Com. Council Room July 19th, to organize a Zouave Company.

Ald. Marvin introduced a resolution, which passed, requesting the Joint Com. on City Lands and Buildings to report whether it be advisable to sell any portion of the City Farm; and if so, what part, and how to sell?

Ald. Miller introduced a resolution, asking the same Com. to report whether it is advisable to improve the exterior of Jefferson Market — and supported the motion by a few remarks, advocating the sale of some of the City Farm lands, and improving the city in this and similar ways. Ald. Nowell opposed the resolution, on economical and other grounds—but it was passed.

The Board voted to indefinitely postponed the hearing on Officer Entwistle's case of suspicion, several weeks since.

Adjourned for two weeks.

Loren Badger, the brakeman so badly injured by the collision on the Northern road, died Thursday. He was insensible from the time the of accident.

EXTENSION OF TELEGRAPH LINES IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The International Telegraph Co. has extended its lines from Portsmouth to Rye Beach, (Sea View House) Exeter, Haverhill, Lawrence and Lowell, establishing offices in all those places. The International connects with the Franklin, the Northern, and all lines running opposition to or in competition with the Western Union. Wherever the opposition lines are opened, the tariff of dispatches comes down. Opposition lines connect now direct with San Francisco.

Mr. A. D. Brown, the President of the International line, running from Bangor to Boston, deserves well of the people, because of his successful exertions in their behalf, in the matter of cheap telegraphing, which must now be put second only to the railroad interest. Hon. Frederick Smyth has done more in this direction, we think, than any other man in New Hampshire, with Col. J. W. Robinson and Mr. Brown to co-operate, and other live business men.

☞ The Report of the second annual Convention of the Publishers, Editors and Printers' Association of New Hampshire, is just issued in a handsome octavo pamphlet, from the press of Mr. C. F. Livingston of Manchester. It contains, besides full details of the business and pleasure usual to these occasions, the Address of the late Rev. T. H. Miller, on the early Printers of Portsmouth. The brilliant and sparkling Poem of Lt. Geo. A. Marden, of Lowell, the author preferred should not be included, as doubtless he will use it again—as well he may. The book is a credit to Mr. Livingston, as well as to the craft generally in the State.

THE PURE PARTY.—Our democratic brethren are never tired of ringing the changes about republican "corruption" and "fraud." We sympathize with the disinterested beings, muchly. The republicans certainly have much to answer for; for owing to their evil doings the clean-handed democracy have had to work very hard to save the nation from ruin. Not satisfied with declaring that all men are men, the radicals aimed a deadly blow at the time-honored democratic custom of allowing every gentleman from the "ould dart" to throw votes for each and all of his acquaintances who may have been unavoidably left behind in Ireland. The immaculate howlers about fraud and corruption could not stand this last threatened outrage, and rose as one man to defend the purity of the ballot-box—with such good effect that certain election districts in New York which have less than 40,000 inhabitants, actually threw over 70,000 votes in the interests of honor and honesty! Let the evil republicans reform, and become as pure and lovely as their political antagonists, or the virtuous democracy will make other "great democratic gains" in the same way as they did in New York, until at last they will get control of the public purse — and then there won't be any stealing — oh, no! no more than there is now in New York city, under their rule.

On the 8th, in Nashua, Mr. Sylvester Bradford was taken suddenly ill, and died on the 11th, of softening of the brain. On the 11th, Mrs. Minerva Lovejoy, a sister of Mr. Bradford, went to Nashua, board of her brother's death, and was so prostrated by palsy that she cannot recover.

George Cook, of Keene, has established a thousand dollar scholarship at Amherst College.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Proposals for Naval Material.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
BUREAU OF EQUIPMENT & RECRUITING*
July 11, 1870.

SEALED PROPOSALS to furnish material for the Navy for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1871, will be received at this Bureau until 10 o'clock A. M. of the 5th of August next, at which time the proposals will be opened.

The proposals must be addressed to the "Chief of the Bureau of Equipment and Recruiting, Navy Department, Washington," and must be indorsed "Proposals for Materials for the Navy," that they may be distinguished from other business letters.

Printed schedules for any class, together with instructions to bidders, giving the forms of proposal, of guarantee, and of certificate of guarantors, will be furnished to such persons as desire to bid, on application to the commandants of the respective navy-yards, and those of all the yards on application to the Bureau.

The Commandant of each navy-yard and the purchasing Paymaster of each station will have a copy of the schedules of the other yards, for examination only, in order that persons who intend to bid may judge whether it is desirable to make application for any of the classes of these yards.

The proposals must be for the whole of a class, and all applications for information or for the examination of samples must be made to the Commandants of the respective yards.

The proposal must be accompanied by a certificate from the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the bidder resides that he has a license to deal in the articles for which he proposes, and he must further show that he is a manufacturer of, or a regular dealer in the articles which he offers to supply. The guarantors must be certified by the Assessor of Internal Revenue for the district in which they reside.

The contract will be awarded to the person who makes the lowest bid and gives the guarantee required by law, the Navy Department, however, reserving the right to reject the lowest bid or any which it may deem exorbitant.

Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility must be certified to the satisfaction of the Navy Department. As additional security, twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contract shall have been completed, and eighty per centum of the amount of each bill, approved in triplicate by the Commandant of the respective yards, will be paid by the Paymaster of the station designated in the contract in funds or certificates, at the option of the Government, within ten days after the warrant for the same shall have been passed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

RICHARDSON'S
LITTLE WASHER, unlike all others, light and portable, weighing only ten pounds, is sold for the small price of five dollars. Adjusts itself to any article from a Pocket-handkerchief to a
LARGE BED SPREAD,
without alteration. Can be fitted to any tub, and removed at pleasure.
If you will use this little common sense washing machine, you will do the work of half a day in 2 hours.
RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER does not tear or wear the clothes, no matter how fine the fabric. Clothes are straightened out, and passed back and forth, between the rollers till clean.
Remember and always have a good strong and hot suds.
Put your Pocket handkerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Napkins and Fringes into a clean Pillow slip and wash perfectly clean, in two to three minutes. We wash at one time, two or three sheets gathered at the hem, six Pillow slips, six Towels, two or three Cotton Shirts, one pair heavy Pants or two pairs light ones, one heavy Spread or Blanket, always putting the smaller things inside something larger or longer.
Wherever this Little Washer has been introduced the sale has been unprecedented, having sold upwards of three hundred in Dover, N. H., in less than two months; two thirds of the purchasers had been using large awkward machines costing from five to eighteen dollars; not a failure, one great complaint being that they are heavy and no woman can work them.
Richardson's has taken a Silver Medal in Springfield, Mass., at Mechanics' Fair in 1868, and other places where exhibited.
A Lady who has not washed for three years, told her neighbors she did her washing, with that Little Wonder, with ease, consequently they ordered one, and the question all over town is, have you got a RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER?

Morning Chronicle.

THE LATE BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.

Never put off till to-morrow what you can do day after to-morrow just as well.—B. F.

This party was one of those persons whom they call Philosophers. He was twins, being born simultaneously in two different houses in the city of Boston. These houses remain unto this day, and have signs upon them worded in accordance with the facts. The signs are considered well enough to have, though not necessary, because the inhabitants point out the two birth-places to the stranger anyhow, and sometimes as often as several times in the same day.

The subject of this memoir was of a vicious disposition, and early prostituted his talents to the invention of maxims and aphorisms calculated to inflict suffering upon the rising generations of all subsequent ages. His simplest acts, also, were contrived with a view to their being held up for the emulation of boys forever—boys who might otherwise have been happy. It was in this spirit that he became the son of a soap-boiler; and probably for no other reason than that the efforts of all future boys who tried to be anything might be looked upon with suspicion unless they were the sons of soap-boilers. With a malevolence which is without a parallel in history, he would work all day and then sit up nights and let on to be studying algebra by the light of a smouldering fire, so that all other boys might have to do that also or else have Benjamin Franklin thrown up to them. Not satisfied with these proceedings, he had a fashion of living wholly on bread and water, and studying astronomy at meal time—a thing which has brought affliction to millions of boys since, whose fathers had read Franklin's pernicious biography.

His maxims were full of animosity towards boys. Nowadays a boy cannot follow out a single natural instinct without tumbling over some of those everlasting aphorisms and hearing from Franklin on the spot. If he buys two cents' worth of peanuts, his father says, "Remember what Franklin has said, my son,—'A groat a penny a penny year;'" and the comfort is all gone out of those peanuts. If he wants to spin his top when he is done work, his father quotes, "procrastination is the thief of time." If he does a virtuous action he never gets anything for it, because "virtue is its own reward." And that boy is hounded to death and robbed of his natural rest, because Franklin said once in one of his inspired flights of malignity—

Early to bed and early to rise,
Make a man healthy and wealthy and wise.

As if it were any object to a boy to be healthy and wealthy and wise on such terms. The sorrow that that maxim has caused me through my parents' experiments on me with it, tongue cannot tell. The legitimate result is my present state of general debility, indigence, and mental aberration. My parents used to have me up before nine o'clock in the morning, sometimes, when I was a boy. If they had let me take my natural rest, where would I have been now? Keeping store, no doubt, and respected by all.

And what an adroit old adventurer the subject of this memoir was! In order to get a chance to fly his kite on Sunday, he used to hang a key on the string and let on to be fishing for lightning. And a guileless public would go home chirping about the "wisdom" and the "genius" of the hoary Sabbath-breaker. If anybody caught him playing "mumble-peg" by himself, after the age of sixty, he would immediately appear to be ciphering out how the grass grew—as if it was any of his business. My grandfather knew Franklin well, and says he was always fixed—always ready. If a body, during his old age, happened on him unexpectedly when he was catching flies, or making mud pies, or sliding on a cellar door, he would immediately look wise, rip out a maxim, and walk off with his nose in the air and his cap turned wrong side before, trying to appear absent-minded and eccentric. He was a hard lot.

He invented a stove that would smoke your head off in four hours by the clock. One can see the almost devilish satisfaction he took in it, by his giving it his name.

He was always proud of telling how he entered Philadelphia for the first time, with nothing in the world but two shillings in his pocket and four rolls of bread under his arm. But really, when you come to examine it critically, it was nothing. Anybody could have done it.

To the subject of this memoir belongs the honor of recommending the army to go back to bows and arrows in place of bayonets and muskets. He observed, with his customary force, that the bayonet was very well, under some circumstances, but that he doubted whether it could be used with accuracy at long range.

Benjamin Franklin did a great many notable things for his country, and made her young name to be honored in many lands as the mother of such a son. It is not the idea of this memoir to ignore that or cover it up. No; the simple idea of it is to snub those pretentious maxims of his, which he worked up with a great show of originality out of truisms that had become wearisome platitudes as early as the dispersion from Babel; and also to snub his stove, and his military inspirations, his unseemly endeavor to make himself conspicuous when he entered Philadelphia, and his flying his kite and fooling away his time in all sorts of such ways, when he ought to have been foraging for soap-fat, or constructing candles. I merely desired to do away with somewhat of the prevalent calamitous idea among heads of families that Franklin acquired his great genius by working for nothing, studying by moonlight, and getting up in the night instead of waiting till morning like a Christian, and that this programme, rigidly inflicted, will make a Franklin of every father's fool.

It is time these gentlemen were finding out that these execrable eccentricities of instinct and conduct are only the evidence of genius, not the creators of it. I wish I had been the father of my parents long enough to make them comprehend this truth, and thus prepare them to let their son have an easier time. When I was a child I had to boil soap, notwithstanding my father was wealthy, and I had to get up early and study geometry at breakfast, and peddle my own poetry, and do everything just as Franklin did, in the solemn hope that I would be a Franklin some day. And here I am.—Mark Twain.

A GRADUATE'S EDITORIAL.—An editor gives his experience with a Harvard graduate who "had made up his mind to be an editor."

Editor—"We are in want of help just now; there are pens and paper; let us see what you can do."

Creamcheese—"Upon what subject, sir, would you prefer me to write? Theology, chemistry, metaphysics, the philosophy of history, or anything of that sort?"

Editor—"Never mind the theology, chemistry, or the metaphysics. Give us an item on the weather."

He sat down, and after cudgeling his poor brain for a mortal hour, and referring to his dictionaries half a dozen times or more, produced the following paragraph on weather:

"On yesternight, toward the midnight hour, it being as dark as Erebus, the Pluvius was pleased to visit this mundane sphere in a spasm of ungovernable wrath. The aqueous elements thereupon experienced a fierce perturbation, and for a protracted space the rains fell and the floods descended in a mode that was absolutely appalling to gods and men. Anon, the fury of Jupiter was spent, good Aquarius put up his watering-pot, the dark clouds dispersed, and instead of Old Boreas domineering the heavens, Aurora, the daughter of the dawn, came tripping forth hand in hand with Old Sol, making the heart of mortals glad, and lighting up the face of Nature with an avalanche of smiles."

The editor took the item, read it, then advised the Harvard graduate that, if he intended to earn his bread by making newspapers, he had better go to work and get rid of his collegiate education, and in its place obtain a little common sense. An emetic, to get rid of the big words and the classical nonsense, would be a good beginning, if accompanied by an honest effort to obtain the faculty of expressing plain ideas in plain English.

A MORNING SUBJECT. — Punch ever so long ago said that—

Early to bed and early to rise
Is the way to be stupid and have red eyes.

A letter writer observes that "He who would thrive must rise at five." So says the proverb, though there is more rhyme than reason in it; for if—

He who would thrive must rise at five,
it must follow naturally that,
He who'd thrive more must rise at four;
and it will insure a consequence that,
He who'd still more thriving be
Must leave his bed at turn of three;
And who this latter would outdo,
Will rouse him at the stroke of two.

And by way of climax to it all, it should be held good that—

He who'd never be outdone,
Must never rise as soon as one.

But the best illustration would be—

He who'd flourish best of all,
Should never go to bed at all.

From the Boston Post.

HORSE TALK FROM PORTSMOUTH.—A correspondent at Portsmouth, writes that the Piscataqua Agricultural Society had, as usual, a series of trots at their park in that City on the Fourth of July. * * * Messrs. F. Jones, M. Eldredge, H. R. Stoddard, W. Locke, and other public-spirited members of the Society, are prominent horsemen in that vicinity.

Mr. Locke's well-known grey trotter, Nellie, was severely sick of lung fever the past winter, and is now lame, and has not been put to work this season. He has a fine stepping bay colt. Mr. Jones has several good ones, as usual, including his beautiful sorrel mare, Lady Emma, that was on the Boston tracks last year. Mr. M. Eldredge, besides one or two pretty good steppers at home, has his handsome and game black mare, Belle of Portsmouth, in the hands of Harry Bradley, of Boston; and, hitched up on a pole or tandem with Black Walnut, they make a team hard to beat for style or on the road.

Your correspondent paid a visit to the Fearnaught breeding farm at Stratham Hill, a few days since. Here old Fearnaught, sire of Young Morrill, was bred by Mr. Wm. G. Brown; and here several promising colts of his blood are found, and the old dam of the horse. This is a fine, game, speedy, bay mare, now twenty-three years old, but still sound and a nice driving animal. Mr. Brown's noble black stallion Fearnaught Prince, a son of the old horse, now six years old, is doing full service in the stud. Mr. B. also has a full brother to Fearnaught, two years old, the exact pattern of Fearnaught, but the color of Young Morrill. There is also another brother to Fearnaught, a colt now about six weeks old, by Young Morrill—a beautiful bay, like his mother, and the handsomest colt we ever saw, very stylish, and a natural trotter, showing a good gait and speed even now. The old mare has now been served by Fearnaught Prince.

There are more nice horses now owned in and about Portsmouth than ever before. Old citizens tell about the Livery Stable Company, and the Cow Stable Company, formerly incorporated here; but which were not a success, and soon run out.

Communication.

THE DISCOVERY OF LOCKE'S NECK. The world has always been grateful to the discoverer of a continent, a planet, or a new science. We of the present generation should be grateful to the discoverer of the spot on the coast of Rye called Locke's Neck, which was the name given to a point of rocks in Rye originally settled upon by one Jeremiah Locke, who was massacred on the spot by the Indians.

A few years ago, the ablest Engineer that ever visited New Hampshire, Hon. E. A. Straw of Manchester, purchasing a lot of land west of the Ocean House grounds at Rye Beach, erected a substantial cottage, which for several years he occupied as a summer residence. While sojourning at Rye Beach, the natural advantage of Locke's Neck was soon apparent to, Mr. Straw. The well-trained mind of the Engineer saw beneath the high uncouth pile of rocks, a spot of beauty, and as the hardest ledge must yield to the demand of civilization, or the lowest quagmire be elevated to the standard of man's requirements, so he concluded that with well directed efforts, Locke's Neck in all its desolate barrenness, could be made to blossom like the rose.

The result of Mr. Straw's foresight and wisdom is seen on a visit to that locality to-day. Here are about twenty acres, certainly the most attractive spot on the coast between Boston and Portland. In a semi circle are the fine cottages of Mr. Straw, P. C. Cheney and Phineas Adams, Capt. Wm. A. Walker and other gentlemen of Manchester and Concord free from all annoyance of unpleasant surroundings, with sea views all around, while cool breezes are ever restoring to comfort, their rural guests. The spot commands a good view of the coast from Boar's Head to Portsmouth harbor, while the Isles of Shoals placed in the distance to give relief to the picture. To the energetic projector of this great improvement too much praise cannot be awarded.

The Exeter News Letter speaking of the Rockingham (Exeter) Fair, says, "It is hoped that liberal inducements will be offered in Exeter, so liberal, indeed, that nothing will constrain the officers to remove it elsewhere." We shouldn't wonder if it turned out even so.

Blueberries, throughout the State, were never more plenty than they are the present season.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be used. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named J. B. Zendt, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have since had no spells very much for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with so hardly. I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Comrade: I desire, as an humbled tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised Remedies, in the vain hope of finding relief from enlarged kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unmistakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a humble suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. M. LAREN.

DR. KEYSER

is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases for which such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,
140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Penn.
August 11, 1865.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting our terms for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Incensed please send our rates of advertising. Yours, T. B. H. STENHOUSE,
Ed'r and Prop'r of Telegraph.

TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but now sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been troubled sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. Have consulted the best of Doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about, I could not rest night or day.

It would soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had not much faith in it. Why should I, when I had been trying so many things that cost me much? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt bad; but I finished it and got another. By the time I took half of the second, I still got worse (apparently.) When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I felt so, before I had finished the second, that I had made up my mind it was of no use trying any more—and all this time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after this I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and stopping it off; it was so free for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks the color of a most turtle, and is as hard as flint. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, although I was feeling so badly. I procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind; but from that time forward, which is four weeks ago last Sunday, I have been as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone securely wrapped, and those who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are welcome to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire and also in Connecticut. The advertisement saved me. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time, so I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

N. Y. S. VOL. INSTITUTE,
Corner of 5th Av. and 76th st., Central Park.
(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

Two bottles worth of the package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the one s of our Institution, Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may save many a sheet from pollution, and dates of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from the weakness than from its habit, may be spared punishment, that is (not knowing it is a weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. In thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping other may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG, General Sup't and Director.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your celebrated Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious. In this I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your Remedy. As you advertised that it was a compound of Buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination; and, with his advice and the approbation of the article, and consulting again with the Druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much like writing to you a full statement of my case at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, but now I feel authorized to conclude to defer, and see if it would effect a perfect cure, feeling that it would be of greater value to you and your numerous patrons.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months. I have been able to walk now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

FOR ALL PURPOSES of a LAXATIVE MEDICINE.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any other deleterious drug, they may be given with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restore their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it generally relieves immediately.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous when no serious disorder exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their purifying and removing effect on the digestive apparatus. dawfe16odem

MONDAY, JULY 18, 1870.

THE FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR. — It has been evident since the first announcement of Prince Leopold's candidature for the throne of Spain, that Napoleon and the entire French people were bent on war with Prussia. Napoleon affects to believe that Gen. Prim of Spain and King William of Prussia, were in league, and that the selection of Lepold of Hohenzollern for king of Spain was the result of their joint negotiations.

Acting upon this supposition, Napoleon demanded the withdrawal of Leopold on behalf of Prussia and that Prussia should agree that no German should aspire to the throne of Spain.

Looking at matters from an American stand-point, it at once seems strange that Spain should not be allowed to choose a king from any nationality without dictation from any other power. European politics, however, are as different from ours as are the practices of European governments and diplomats.

Napoleon saw danger to France in the accession of a German to the Spanish throne. He was willing to fight and anxious for a war with Prussia, and has been since the battle of Sadowa, which made Bismark a power and detracted from Napoleon's fame and influence. Thirsting for years for a favorable opportunity to measure swords with the German powers, Napoleon seized on the present time as more favorable than the future, especially with Leopold as the King of Spain.

His demand for Prussia's disavowal was pressed with impudence and the withdrawal of Leopold's acceptance was not satisfactory. Bismark inwardly chafed at Leopold's action, while Prussia would not assume the responsibility of it. King William was accosted in the open street, while taking a walk, by Gen. Benedetti, who demanded his answer, and refused to have an interview on the subject.

Straightway, France considers itself insulted and declares war on a mere pretext. Had Napoleon really preferred peace, the withdrawal of Leopold would have been sufficient. The discussions had aroused the bitter enmities which lay dormant in the hearts of Frenchmen and Germans, and the rapid concentration of armies on the border of both countries would not naturally tend to allay these feelings.

Napoleon, in his position as Emperor of France, has not hesitated to plunge two nations into a war which may be terrible, though short. The French Chassepot rifle and the Prussian needle gun are to be tested and a fearful loss of life must result.

The results cannot be predicted. A million of lives may be sacrificed and the combatants still remain as now. Napoleon's policy would naturally be a vigorous one. France is fully prepared and must precipitate war to achieve success. Delay strengthens Prussia, which though a nation of soldiers is not in as good condition to fight as she would be four weeks from now. The railroad system of France will allow Napoleon to mass an immense army and cross the frontier before Prussia can concentrate her forces. In this lies Napoleon's hope of success. A sudden move, a forced battle and the impetuousness of the French nature will be relied upon for a brilliant campaign, brief and decisive.

Should it fail and the war be a long one, the Emperor Napoleon may regret his bullying and conclude that going to war for vengeance is no better than fighting a duel and getting the worst of it.

The German people are as phlegmatic as the French people are enthusiastic. Fighting in defence of their own soil, they can prolong the war until the ardor of France has cooled. They are brave, quiet men, the most dangerous when roused. They have the sympathies of most of the European nations and the conviction of being in the right.

The United States will doubtless remain passive, unless Spain becomes involved. In that contingency, a portion of the large and powerful French fleet might be detailed to take possession of Cuba. Our government must maintain the Monroe doctrine. No European power must meddle with affairs on this continent, and to strengthen our navy in order that no violation of that principle shall result, is alike a duty and a necessity.

☞ On Saturday, gold sold at 116 1-2. Breadstuffs are on the rise in the English markets. Wheat rose 6 cts. per bushel in Chicago and flour 15 to 25 cts. U. S. Bonds declined 1-2 of one per cent.

THE FRENCH DECLARATION OF WAR is based on the following causes: First, the insult offered at Ems to Count Benedetti, the French Minister, and his approval by the Prussian government; second, the refusal of the King of Prussia to compel the withdrawal of Prince Leopold's name as a candidate for the Spanish throne; third, the fact that the King persisted in giving the prince liberty to accept the crown. The declaration continues as follows:—

The extra-constitutional changes in Prussia awaken the slumbering recollections of 1814. Let us cross the Rhine and avenge the insults of Prussia! The victors of Jena survive.

Holland will remain neutral.

The belligerents have engaged to respect the neutrality of Belgium, yet troops are rapidly concentrating at Antwerp and other strategic points. Specie and bullion in the National Bank at Antwerp have been removed to the citadel. The issue of paper money is announced.

There is a strong feeling on the part of the Russian government against France. The Czar's government believes Napoleon bent on making aggressive war in Europe to gain an overmastering position and force the restoration of the Bourbons to Spain.

The Bavarian government has replied to an indirect inquiry from France that Bavaria, for the present, would maintain an attitude of reserve, but she has declared that the King and people would not separate themselves from the rest of Germany.

A French war fleet has sailed from Brest with sealed orders.

La Liberte reports that great bodies of troops were put in motion Friday night for the frontier, and the Emperor will soon take the field in person.

It is said a proclamation signed by Napoleon has been prepared for distribution throughout the German States as soon as the French troops have crossed the frontier. It assures the German people that France wars against Prussia, not Germany, and has no idea of conquest.

The governments of Austria, England, Italy, and Russia are known to have presented at Paris urgent remonstrances against war.

The agents of the Bremen line of steamers have telegraphed to Washington to know if the United States government will protect them in consequence of their carrying the United States mails.

The German mail steamer from New York to Bremen has been stopped for fear of capture.

England peremptorily forbids the occupation of Belgium by France.

The neutrality of England will be difficult and perhaps impossible and dishonorable, should Holland and Belgium become involved in the war.

The London Times says English intervention is probable in the case of Prussia's losing strength.

In the French Corps Legislatif, M. Thiers pronounced against the declaration of the Government. He said that France had received satisfaction from Prussia, and war should not be made for a mere formality.

M. Olivier responded that the Government could not do otherwise than it had done.

M. Thiers again took the floor and recalled Mexico and Sadowa, and said that the Government had made another blunder.

When silence was restored, M. Gambetta demanded that all the correspondence had with Prussia be laid before the Corps Legislatif.

Jules Favre seconded the motion, asserting that France could not make war on the authority of telegraph dispatches.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs replied that it was necessary to make war immediately, that Prussia might have no time to arm. If any other course was pursued, he could no longer remain in the ministry.

The demand for the correspondence was rejected 164, to 84.

On reassembling in the evening, the following projects of law were brought forward: First, to call the Garde Mobile into active service; second, to authorize the enlistment of volunteers for the war; third, to issue a demand loan of fifty millions of francs in aid of the army, and sixteen millions in aid of the navy. They were all carried—246 to 10.

The French are concentrating in large forces at Strasbourg, on the Baden frontier, at Mezieres, on the Belgian border, and at Mentz, on the direct road to the Rhine Provinces.

Prussia is gathering forces at Treves, Cour and Mayence.

The war enthusiasm is tremendous both in Germany and France.

Gen. Prim has retired from the ministry and taken active command of the Spanish army.

Switzerland has declared her neutrality.

The King of Prussia arrived at Berlin Friday night. During the entire night hundreds of thousands of persons were parading the streets, cheering and singing the national anthem.

The French Garde Nationale have been called into service.

The Emperor is expected to head the army in person, and by a series of rapid movements arrive at the Rhine before Prussia has completed her defence.

The headquarters of the French army are at Langres. The Emperor assumes chief command, with Marshals Bazaine and MeMahon as his subordinates.

The French squadron in the Mediterranean has been doubled.

The Prince Imperial will accompany the Emperor.

There is a Liberal uprising in Rome, and an attack on the city is feared.

A Sunday evening dispatch states that the French army had not crossed the frontier but was expected to do so, and a battle was hourly expected.

CONGRESS finally adjourned at 5 o'clock, P. M., Friday. The President previously sent in a message asking for the passage of acts in aid of commerce and ship building interests, now that war in Europe is likely to throw a great portion of the carrying trade into American hands. Nothing was done, however.

The Senate confirmed the nomination of Frederick T. Frelinghuysen of New Jersey as Minister to England vice John Lothrop Motley, removed, by a vote of 40 to 3. The President had asked Mr. Motley to resign and Mr. M. had refused. Mr. Frelinghuysen is an Ex-Senator and is about 53 years of age.

Advices from China report that representations have been made to the Imperial government which will result in the prohibition of females emigrating from China to California.

Secretary Boutwell has made every preparation for printing and issuing the new bonds. They will range from $50 to $10,000, and will be ready in September.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Build up the System.

Strength evaporates fast at this season. This is especially the case with those who live by the sweat of their brow. From every pore of the sleeve-like skin a moisture exudes which contains the element of vitality. Thereby the blood is impoverished, the nerves relaxed, the muscles weakened, the digestion impaired, the bowels disturbed, and the animal spirits depressed. The constant drain that produces these effects cannot be arrested, because it is due to the heat of the atmosphere; but the loss of the life-sustained elements can be supposed by extra invigoration. Now, therefore, is the time to resort to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most powerful and healthful of all vegetable tonics. Long experience has proved that nothing else will efficiently sustain and regulate the system, when wilting down under the double pressure of excessive heat, and constant physical or mental labor.

All persons who have been tempted to try the local "tonics" (so-called) which have been started by sordid speculators in almost every town and village, with a view of "turning a penny" by the credulity of the unwary, know this to their cost. It is a wise maxim that says "hold fast that which is good." Of the thirty millions of people in the United States, probably one-half have tested the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters and know it to be a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, general debility, constipation, fever and ague, and want of appetite; that any of these should be persuaded to experiment with the worthless nostrums, recommended, by unscrupulous and ignorant empirics seems almost incredible.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says; "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a tact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is even restored to its original color, gives the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands around them decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the United States Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,

No. 78 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms. Research. Researches made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of patents or inventions, and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made in twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided IN HIS FAVOR by the Commissioner of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of greatness and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGHART."

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

☞ The child of Mr. James Amee, of Kittery Point, who was bitten by a black spider recently, nearly causing its death, is fast recovering.

☞ B. P. Shillaber, Esq., last week delivered the Poem before the Mechetican Society, at Tufts College Commencement, this being the third time that he has been thus honored and they thus favored.

☞ In consequence of the Annual Examination of the Young Ladies' High School taking place on Tdesday, the excursion of the Philharmonic Society is postponed to Thursday. The meeting of the Society at G. A. R. Hall will take place this evening, as before announced.

THE LITTLE WASHER, of which Mr. J. J. Hatlinger is the Agent in Portsmouth, is selling like hot cakes. The little machine works wonders, and is a great aid to the ladies. It washes everything clean, doing thorough work. Every family should have one. It is sold for $5.

☞ The Knuckle Washer, advertised by Mr. Henry Works, is said by the ladies to be very promotive of cleanliness and good works, and a great saving of time, money, clothes and knuckles. By mistake, the name of one lady recommending it, was attached to another advertisement on Saturday.

NEW ORGAN.—The Committee of the Universalist Society in this city, have contracted with Mr. W. A. Johnson of Westfield, Mass., for a new and excellent Organ for their church. It will be a rich and powerful instrument, doubtless fully equal to any in the city, with all the latest adornments and improvements; is to cost about $3200, and to be ready for use about Sept. 1st.

The Society, in view of this heavy outlay, and the $750 contribution to be raised for the Centennary fund, have decided to postpone the repairs on their vestry to a more convenient season.

I. O. O. F.—At a meeting of Piscataqua Lodge No. 6, I. O. O. F., the following officers were installed by D. D. G. M. Alonzo F. Craig, for the ensuing term:

N. G., Andrew J. Sides; V. G., Daniel Perry; R. S., William W. Cotton; Treas., Isaac Dow; Per. Sec., Oliver H. Locke; R. S. of N. G., James F. Hartshorn; L. S. of N. G., Benj. F. Marden; R. S. of V. G., Chas. N. Holmes; W., John Ward; C., John F. Larrabee; C. G., Elias Ayers; I. G., James R. Morrison; R. S. S., Thos. R. Martin; L. S. S., Thos. F. Burtt; Chaplain, Thos. Tarlton; Marshal, W. W. Cotton; Trustees, James F. Shores, Jr., James M. Carr, Chas. Robinson.

NEW HAMPSHIRE FIRE INS. CO.—It is gratifying to notice that our new State Insurance Company is meeting with good success. They came out of the late scorching fire at Manchester unimpaired and their reputation unscathed. They are very cautious in the selection of risks, for several were declined which were burned; and with over 200 risks and $300,000 destroyed in their own neighborhood, and their own office scorched and flooded, they escape with trifling loss of only $2500 on the First Baptist Church, which was promptly paid, while the ruins were still smoking, without deduction or hesitation. Mr. John M. Davis, the Portsmouth Agent, is meeting with good success in this County, and feels confident that no other company offers greater inducements or better security than the New Hampshire Fire Ins. Co.

RAPID TRAVELLING. — One of our city laws makes it a penal offence for any horse, in harness, or otherwise, to be travelled through the public streets in the compact part of the city at a more rapid rate than five miles an hour. While this ordinance is in force, it ought to be carried into execution—otherwise repealed, if unwise. At present, the law, which we think is very necessary, seems to be wholly disregarded; perhaps it is unknown to many who travel at the rate of 8 or 10 miles an hour, thus endangering the limbs, or lives of people crossing the streets. Should several examples be made of such offenders, it would be an effectual check to others in like cases to offend.

We learn that in the city of Boston, it has recently been decided by the Court that a person in the street is not required to turn out for a horse, or horse-team—but the horse must be turned out; otherwise if a person suffers damage, the owner of the horse or team is liable. This decision is based upon the doctrine, that a man's personal safety ought not to be put in comparison to the value a horse. LEX.

Messrs. Editors;—In our city (and especially the business streets,) always to be disgraced by such sights as occurred on Thursday evening? About half-past 5, a well-dressed and respectable lady was seen to go up into a saloon on Market Street, and taking her husband by the arm, lead him down stairs and up Market Street, with a little boy by her side 7 or 8 years old. The scene was witnessed by many persons, and among them strangers; and the question was asked, is this often so? and answered, yes. "Well," said the gentleman, "I have heard Portsmouth was a hard place, but expected not to see such sights in broad day." Our City Marshal often has to go to that same "saloon." Only last week two men tumbled down stairs there, and were carried away by their associates.

Why has such a reputation of our city gone abroad? Ask the keepers and patrons of 152 rum-holes. Exertion has been made to close up the place—such a disgrace to Market Street—but as yet without success. Can it not be done? Are men afraid of being hurt, for standing by what is just?

On Sunday week seven clerks of Portsmouth were seen driving in Middle Street, in an intoxicated condition. Cannot some measures be taken to stop such proceedings? or must all our young men be led to ruin, as they bid fair to be? A CITIZEN.

KITTERY NAVY YARD. — According to a Washington dispatch, the Portsmouth Navy Yard is no more! "Maine influence," we are told, has succeeded in substituting Kittery for Portsmouth, wherever the name of the Navy Yard occurs in the Naval Appropriation bill, and that "this of course, will carry the patronage into Maine." We hope not entirely, unless our half of Piscataqua river has also been taken from us—in which case we suppose Portsmouth must dry up.

EDWARD A. HAM, one of the early pioneers of California, a native of Portsmouth, N. H., died in Sacramento on Saturday, June 25th Mr. Ham was a cousin of T. L. Ham, of this town, and was one of the earliest printers on this coast. He was well known throughout California and by members of the printing fraternity in Nevada as a genial and accomplished gentleman, and his death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. For the past nine years he had been employed as a compositor in the office of the Sacramento Union; from which paper we take the following:

"The funeral of the late Edward A. Ham took place at 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon, from his residence on P street, between Seventh and Eighth. In testimony of the esteem in which he was held, there was present a large concourse of people, including Sacramento Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., Sacramento Typographical Union, No. 46, and numerous other friends occupying a long line of carriages. At the house the service of the Episcopal Church was read by the Rev. Mr. Bonte. At the grave Rev Mr. Wythe officiated on behalf of the Odd Fellows; the closing Episcopal service for the burial of the dead being rendered by Rev. Mr. Bonte. The interment was made in the Odd Fellows' plat, City Cemetery."—Elko (Nevada) Independent.

RICHARDSON'S

LITTLE WASHER, unlike all others, light and portable, weighing only ten pounds, is sold for the small price of five dollars. Adjusts itself to any article from a Pocket-handkerchief to a

LARGE BED SPREAD,

without alteration. Can be fitted to any tub, and removed at pleasure.

If you will use this little common sense washing machine, you will do the work of half a day in 2 hours.

RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER does not tear or wear the clothes, no matter how fine the fabric. Clothes are straightened out, and passed back and forth, between the rollers till clean.

Remember and always have a good strong and hot suds.

Put your Pocket-handkerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Napkins and Fringes into a sheet or Pillow slip and wash perfectly clean, in two to three minutes. We wash at one time, two or three sheets gathered at the hem, six Pillow slips, six Towels, two or three Cotton Shirts, one pair heavy Pants or two pairs light ones, one heavy Spread or Blanket, always putting the smaller things inside something larger or longer.

Wherever this Little Washer has been introduced the sale has been unprecedented, having sold upwards of three hundred in Dover, N. H., in less than two months; two thirds of the purchasers had been using large awkward machines costing from five to eighteen dollars; all a failure, one great complaint being that they are heavy and no woman can work them.

Richardson's has taken a Silver Medal in Springfield, Mass., at Mechanic's Fair in 1868, and other places where exhibited.

A Lady who has not washed for three years, told her neighbors she did her washing, with that Little Washer, with ease, consequently they ordered one, and the question all over town is, have you got a RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER?

Morning Chronicle.

OLD TIMES CHRONICLES, No 9.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

THE FIRST MINISTER IN GREENLAND. Greenland was a part of Portsmouth. It was made a chartered township in 1703. After the settlement of Rev. Joshua Moody in Portsmouth in 1671 to the time of the incorporation, people from Greenland travelled to Portsmouth 6 or 8 miles to meeting. In 1705 at a parish meeting in Portsmouth it was voted that the people of Greenland be permitted to enjoy stated means of grace and that 100 pounds be paid yearly out of the town stock for the support of an able minister there. In 1706 a church was organized of 29 members. This was Rev. Wm. Allen a native of Boston. He graduated at Harvard College in 1703. On the 15th, of July, 1707, he was ordained pastor of the church in Greenland. He was not young, having then attained the age of 31 years.

A census of the town was taken two years previous to Mr. Allen's settlement and the number of inhabitants was 520. Mr. Allen's ministry was long, 53 years, and terminated with his death Sept. 8, 1760. The population then was about about 800. This appears a little strange as at every census since it has been found less. At the last it was 762.

Mr. Allen was a Congregationalist and the society embraced the whole town. This ministry was regarded as prosperous. During his pastorate 293 persons united with the church.

Age and infirmities coming on, four years before Mr. Allen's death, Rev. J. M. Clintock was settled as a colleague.

Mr. Allen died Sept. 7, 1870, aged 84. A town meeting was held the next day and it was voted to give a decent burial to their reverend deceased pastor and that a mourning ring be presented to Mr. Clintock, the junior pastor. The funeral services were at the expense of the town.

THE NEW ATTORNEY-GENERAL.—Hon. Amos T. Akerman, the recently appointed Attorney-General of the United States, has entered upon the duties of his office. We do not see, and we never have seen, any good reason to doubt, that he will ably and faithfully perform his responsible duties. Much clamor has been raised against his appointment; he has been called a rebel and many other hard names. But, if we mistake not, he will live down all this detraction, and the wisdom of President Grant in appointing him will be fully verified by events.—Concord Statesman.

Hon. William C. Clarke, Attorney-General of the State, has determined to make a thorough investigation in regard to the circumstances of the collision on the Northern Railroad on Wednesday. The investigation will take place at Concord, and Lewis W. Clarke, Esq., will assist the Attorney-General.

Hon. John Wentworth, of Chicago, a native of Sandwich this State, has presented the social Fraternity of New Hampton Academy, with over two hundred valuable books.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET
FOR THE WEEK ENDING THURSDAY, JULY 13.
[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

At market for the current week—Cattle 2490; Sheep and Lambs 6907; Swine 4360; number of Western Cattle 1933; Eastern Cattle 142; Northern Cattle and Working Oxen 300. Cattle left over 100.

Prices Beef Cattle—Extra $13 @ $14 00; first quality $12 75 @ $13 25; second quality $11 25 @ $12 50; third quality $9 50 @$11 00; poorest grade of coarse Oxen, Bulls, &c., $7 00 @ $9 00 ℔ cwt, (the total weight of hides, tallow and dressed beef.)

Brighton Hides 7c ℔ lb; Country Hides 6¼ @ 7c ℔ lb.

Brighton Tallow 6¼ @ 7c per lb; Country Tallow 6 @ 6½c ℔ lb.

Sheep and Lamb Skins 25 @ 50c each; Calf Skins 16 @ 17c ℔ lb.

The quality of the Western Cattle was not much different from that of last week, the larger portion of them being of a common grade. The best Cattle sold full as high as they did last week, but upon the poorer qualities price fell off from ¼ @ ½c ℔ lb. There were several hundred head of Texas Cattle in market, some of them in very fair condition. The trade was very fair yesterday and a large number of Cattle were sold. Most of the Maine Cattle were sold for Beef; there were but a few good Beef Cattle among them. Many of the Northern Cattle were small, grass-fed Steers, for which there was a good demand.

Store Cattle—With the exception of Working Oxen and Milch Cows there are but a few Cattle in market. Most of the small Cattle that are in a fair condition are bought up to slaughter.

Working Oxen—The trade for Workers has been quiet for a few weeks past, and a few pairs each week is all that the market requires. We quote sales at $125, $172, $185, $205, $220 @ $245 ℔ pair.

Milch Cows—Extra $85 @ $115; ordinary $50 @ $80; Store Cows $35 @ $55 ℔ head. Most of the Cows in market are of a common grade. Prices depend much upon the fancy of the purchaser.

Sheep and Lambs—Nearly all the Western and also the Eastern Sheep and Lambs were taken at a commission or to slaughter and market for drover. We did not hear of but one lot of Lambs being sold, 65 at $4 75 ℔ head. We quote prices of extra and select lots at $5 50 @ $6; ordinary $3 @ $6 ℔ head, or from 4 @ 8c ℔ lb.

Swine—Fat Hogs, 6000 at market; prices 10 @ 10½ ℔ lb. There were but few Store Pigs in market, all of which were sold to one man at 12c ℔ lb. There has not been much call for Store Pigs for the last few weeks.

MEDICAL MADNESS.
LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world, is reproduced by science, in the form of Turrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed misdemanor madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is every where succeeding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jy4w

The Chronicle.

A REMINISCENCE.—Among the first settlers in the eastern portion of New Hampshire was an Irishman, who first made his home in what is now the town of Durham. He was a very frugal and industrious man, and possessed of that sterling element incident to success, called common sense. He cultivated some acres of land, and during the winter used to busy himself in splitting and shaving shingles. His market was Portsmouth, whither he carried his shingles in a flat-boat.

After a time he bought a large tract of land in what is now South Berwick, Maine. This he cleared to a considerable extent, and cultivated. At the same time he managed his smaller farm in Durham, and still continued his trade in shingles. During these years he was not married, and was obliged to shift for himself mostly in all matters of a culinary nature, unless he "changed works" with farmers, and boarded with them.

At this time, which was in the early history of our country, ship-masters were accustomed to take men and women from Ireland, and perhaps from England, "on tick," or, in other words, they gave them credit for passage, and when they arrived in America, they, the emigrants, allowed themselves to be "set up" at auction for their passage; the person who bid them off paying the passage money and allowing the men and women to work themselves clear of debt upon the farm or elsewhere.

A ship load of these poor men and women came into Portsmouth. They, like others, sold their labor at auction, or allowed it to be sold by the Captain. The Captain well knew our Irish hero, having traded with him before. Upon the day of the auction, he had sold out all his passengers except one woman. For her there had been no bidders. The Irishman's boat was alongside the Captain's ship, and the latter bantered the former to buy the woman he had on board. The Irishman came on board and took a glance at this piece of personal property, dressed in bonnet and gown, and told the Captain that he would "swop" his load of shingles for the woman. "Done," said the Captain, and the transfer was shortly made.

The sequel is,—the Irishman rowed his lassie home, and domiciled her in his log house, and after a brief courtship, married her, after the manner of Christian custom. Ten or twelve children were the fruit of the marriage. One of the sons became a General in the Revolutionary army, whose patriotism and exploits are a part of history. So says tradition.—Exeter News Letter.

THE AMENDED LIQUOR LAW.—The N. H. Legislature has made important amendments to the law in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The first new section points out the method of disposal of seized liquors. It provides for the appointment of a commission by the courts to examine such liquors, which, if found genuine, become the property of the county, and is to be sold to any authorized liquor agent. After paying all costs, one half of the proceeds of the sale goes to the prosecuting party. If the liquor proves to be bad in quality, it may be destroyed. It is almost needless to add that if such a law is enforced, liquors of all kinds will be very scarce in a few months.

Section 2 provides for the release of a person convicted of drunkeness in case he shall disclose the name of the person who furnished him the liquor, and testify in regard to the same.

Section 3 makes the liquor seller responsible for all injury committed by an intoxicated person upon the person or property of another, and in case of death or disability of any person, either in consequence of intoxication or at the hands of an intoxicated person, any person who shall be in any manner dependent on such injured person for means of support may recover from the liquor seller all damage or loss sustained in consequence of such injury. Any married woman may bring action in her own name and recover damages to her own use.

Section 4 imposes a penalty of at least fifty dollars upon selectmen, mayors and aldermen who neglect to prosecute as required by law.

Under Section 5 the lessors of buildings used as brothels, gaming and liquor selling, are liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars.

Section 6 makes it a duty of county solicitors to prosecute with vigor all offenses under the amended law.

Section 7 gives to a town or city, by its officers, or an individual, who is the complainant, half the fine imposed.

—A little five-year old at Ithaca had a house built, while at play, for his cat, which was placed on the porch when a shower came up. The young man was discovered soon after with the cat by the nape of the neck, looking up in the clouds and giving vent to his outraged feelings. Says he: "Look a here, Dod! Don't you known what you're a doin', rainin' all over my tat! You'll dit her all rusty." He was fanned with an open hand on his country seat.

—When a man goes around declaring his "brain is on fire," wouldn't it be well to blow it out?"

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, JULY 19, 1870.

WAR NEWS FROM EUROPE. — The Prussians entered France Saturday by the way of Fonbach, on the Nancy and Manheim Railway, but as the force is only a detached corps little importance is attached to the movement. The French force near the frontier is estimated at 130,000 men. The Prussians will attack the fortified city of Metz, capital of the department of Moselle.

The Saxon troops are moving, and the Dutch reserves are ordered out to protect the frontier. The Prussians destroyed the railway and telegraphic communication between Prussia and France, Saturday night.

Gen. Changarnier has been made a marshal of France, and commands the reserves.

The French official declaration of war has been sent to Prussia.

The Bavarian army, including the reserves, are in the field.

On Sunday, there was a rumor in Paris to the effect that an engagement had taken place near Fonbach, resulting in a loss of 3000 killed to the Prussians, and 2000 to the French.

Napoleon has issued a manifesto to the States of South Germany, assuring them of the good will of France, but the Prussian government has given stringent orders to prevent its being attributes on Regent Serrano.

Two men, an Irishman, and an Italian, were murdered in Boston, Sunday.

San Francisco has had an anti-coolie mass meeting.

Pittsburgh has enjoyed an unusual sensation in a female rowing match, at Glenwood Grove, on Monongahela River. The contestants, Misses Lottie McAlice, aged 19 years, Kate Sheridan and Mary Whalen, started in shell boats, the race being one mile. Miss McAlice took the lead at the first stroke and by steady pulling distanced her competitors by 15 yards.

A carriage, containing a family from Iowa named Gregory, was run into near Woodbury station, Philadelphia, by the train from Camden, Sunday afternoon. The husband, wife, and niece were killed, and another lady had both her legs cut off.

The Red Stockings' share of the gate money in their six games played in New York city and vicinity amounted to $4,474.

For sale by Foster Shores & Co.

Also from the same, A treatise "As Regards Protoplasm, in relation to Prof. Huxley's Essay on the Physical Basis of Life. By Dr. J. H. Stirling.

Die Modenwelt; a favorite magazine for the ladies, issued bi-monthly. $3 per annum, S. T. Taylor, 391 Canal St., New York.

The Am. Jour. of the Medical Sciences; edited by Dr. Isaac Hays; published quarterly, by Henry C. Lea, Philadelphia. A very valuable publication.

Peterson's Ladies' Magazine, for July. Always fresh and acceptable.

The Lady's Friend for August, is received at E. G. Adams' News Depot. A very pleasant monthly of fashion and li erature. $2.50 per year.

Godey's Lady's Book for August, is on hand, like Day & Martin's; and like that famous blacking, is difficult to equal, and impossible to excel.

Communication.

CUBA. — The war against Prussia may be favorable to the Independence of Cuba. Spain, under the present, and what future occurrancy may arise, will probably desire to keep all her military and naval forces at home. For should Napoleon meet with success, he would probably turn a part of his army against Spain, because, as he pretends, she has elected a Ruler, who does not receive his approval. But the United States, under the Monroe doctrine, would not permit Cuba to be subjected to French dominion.

HARD.—A Chicago paper is responsible for the story that a few days since some boys dropped an anvil weighing 200 pounds out of a fourth story window on the head of an African who was passing, and that he had them arrested. He said he was willing to let the boys have fun, but when they jammed a "gemman's" hat down over his eyes and spoiled it in that way, the law must take its course. A hard head or a hard story.

☞ Helmbold, the great druggist, complains in the newspapers, that the New York Herald has slandered and abused him without cause; and the parties appear to be in for a sharp newspaper fight. Helmbold announces, in an almanac, a life of the Bennetts, both senior and junior, which would be rich if not dirty reading.

ELEGANCE AND COMFORT exist throughout the AMERICAN HOUSE, BOSTON. The hotel is still kept by the veteran host, Lewis Rice, whose supervision for a quarter of a century has rendered this house so popular.

"There was a frog who lived in a spring,
He caught such a cold that he could not sing."

Poor, unfortunate, Batrachian! In what a sad plight he must have been. And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a once tuneful voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head," or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised; but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and their throats in tune by a timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists. jy19eod

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Build up the System.

Strength evaporates fast at this season. This is especially the case with those who live by the sweat of their brow. From every pore of the sleeve-like skin a moisture exudes which contain the elements of vitality. Thereby the blood is impoverished, the nerves relaxed, the muscles weakened, the digestion impaired, the bowels disturbed, and the animal spirits depressed. The constant drain that produces these effects cannot be arrested, because it is due to the heat of the atmosphere; but the loss of the life-sustained element can be supposed by extra invigoration. Now, therefore, is the time to resort to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most powerful and healthful of all vegetable tonics. Long experience has proved that nothing else will efficiently sustain and regulate the system, when wilting down under the double pressure of excessive heat, and constant physical or mental labor.

All persons who have been tempted to try the local "tonics" (so-called) which have been started by sordid speculators in almost every town and village, with a view of "turning a penny" by the credulity of the unwary, know this to their cost. It is a wise maxim that says "hold fast that which is good." Of the the forty millions of people in the United States, probably one-fifth have tested the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters and know it to be a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, general debility, constipation, fever and ague, and want of appetite: that any of these should be persuaded to experiment with the worthless nostrums, recommended by unscrupulous and ignorant empirics seems almost incredible.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 4, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and have he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and one bottle will cure; yet a per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. PAIN KILLER.

Perry Davis & Son, Proprietors, 1840. PROVIDENCE, R. I. 1870.

Time tests the Merits of all Things.
☞ FOR THIRTY YEARS! ☜
PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an active and certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, during the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the native, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

☞ Directions accompany each bottle.

A Y E R ' S
HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co.,

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the United States Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837,

NO. 78 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or drawings for Patents, executed on reasonable terms. Models and Drawings made into American and Foreign works, to determine the validity and utility of patents or inventions, and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

During eight months the subscriber, in the course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided IN HIS FAVOR by the Commissioner of Patents.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners of this class I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.'

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGHART."

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?

IF SO, SELECT THE BEST, which is the

AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.

It has proved itself, West, North and South, to be the best paint known. It will not peel, crack, nor chalk off, and will last twice as long as the best Lead Paints.

It is cheaper, handsomer and more elastic, than the best of other Paints. It is the most convenient Paint made, being mixed, ready for application, and will dry in two hours, and retains its gloss perfectly, with a beautiful surface and glossy finish, and for years retains its gloss and beauty. It is excellent for out buildings, in the place of paper, making a smooth glossy finish, which can be cleaned with hot suds without injury.

One Gallon of Mixed Lead Paint weighs 20 lbs. and costs $2.75, and will only cover 16 square yds. 2 coats: while one gallon of the Chemical Paint only weighs 10 lbs., and coats but $2.50, and will cover 20 square yds., 2 coats.—thus making a saving of 22 cts., per gallon, besides covering 4 yards more than Lead Paint, and will last twice as long and look far better.

The Chemical Paint is sold by the gallon in quantities to suit purchasers, in 40 different shades and pure white, and will be supplied by experienced workmen and satisfaction given in every case; or in case of dissatisfaction in one year after put on, the whole cost of Paint will be refunded.

The sale of these unequalled Paints are daily increasing. Call and examine these ready mixed Paints, both in keg, and ready applied on Buildings one year ago, before buying elsewhere, and save your money and money, and beautify your dwelling by using the

THE ANNUAL EXHIBITION of the Girls' High School will take place this afternoon, at 2 1-2 o'clock.

☞ A preliminary meeting of the Goodwin Zouaves will be held this evening at the Common Council room, at 8 o'clock.

☞ We learn that Captain Sheafe Coffin, while returning home from this city a few days since, was thrown from his wagon near Sagamore Bridge and quite severely bruised. Dr. Hall was called to attend him, and at last accounts he was doing well.

☞ A fine large oil painting of the Kearsarge sinking the rebel pirate Alabama, from the studio of Mr. T. P. Moses of this city, exhibited at Mr. E. A. Joy's Music Store, is much admired. Mr. Moses was in youth, a sailor boy, and his marine pictures are among his best.

MUSICAL.—Mr. H. T. Wight, who undertakes the direction of the Children's Concert, is a well known composer and pianist of Boston. He will be ably assisted by ladies and though needing no recommendation to our citizens is warmly endorsed by Rev. Edward A. Rand, a native of Portsmouth.

☞ A large number of distinguished editors, literary men, statesmen, and ladies, will attend as guests the Editors' Convention at Rye Beach July 27, and 28. The whole party will probably number 300, or 400 people. A good Levee and Ball will be given in their honor, on the evening of the 27th, at the Ocean House.

PERSONAL.—Among our former citizens, who are on a visit home, we notice Hon. Thos. L. Tullock, Messrs. Howard D. Lowd of New York, R. K. Oxford and Benj. D. Laighton of Washington and W. Quincy Lowd of Jackson, Mississippi. Mr. J. Horace Jenness and his accomplished bride have returned from Paris.

ANOTHER GOOD APPOINTMENT.—Mr. John H. Locke of this city has been appointed Inspector of Timber at the "Kittery, N. H." Navy Yard. Mr. Locke is the present Commander of Storer Encampment, G. A. R., and was severely wounded and lost a thumb, while a member of the "fighting Fifth" Regiment. He is to receive a salary of $1400 per annum.

☞We were recently indebted to Mr. John E. Amazeen, for a bunch of the most superb Roses we ever saw. They were crimson, very large, (containing by actual count, we were told, about 370 leaves,) and delightfully fragrant. We could not learn the name, but a lady friend since thinks, from our description, that they were the Baltimore Belle variety.

ODD SORTS.—The rumor that Hon. Frank Jones and others contemplate building a horse-railroad through the principal streets of Portsmouth, and connecting with Rye Beach, lacks confirmation.

Sacred concert excursions down river Sunday evenings receive neither the support nor approval expected.

The naval bill appropriating money for expenditures at this Station, terms the locality "Kittery, N. H." Two cheers and a half for Lynch!

About 50 additional workmen were employed at the Navy Yard on Monday in the Construction Department. More are to follow.

The Philharmonics are preparing for a high old time at the Shoals, Thursday.

Messrs. O. & C. Laighton had a hungry crowd of 326 to dine at Appledore on Sunday. They dined them.

"Horatius" of Lewiston promises to invade this city on the 28th.

The Actives of Great Falls were challenged by the Granite States of this city to play base ball there to-day. Result no play.

Mr. Wm. Sladen of the Custom House complains of the Creek nuisance. He built his house over it and now finds he has a nose. Everybody else b' him, living within half a mile, nosed it long ago.

Postmaster Peirce's new yacht Swan is a beauty.

Excursions and pic-nics are the order of the day.

Nice chance for children to have a musical feast at Congress Hall, next week. See advertisement.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

A WORD FOR AN OLD FRIEND.—Messrs. Editors:—I do not find fault that you pitch into the Concord Railroad ring, as it is called, if you don't like it; but it does seem rather hard that our eminent and highly respected townsman, who as Mayor of his own city, (chosen unanimously once,) and Governor of the State, has a record second to none,—should be included in a body termed swindlers, corrupt, &c. Now, Hon. Frederick Smyth has always shown himself a friend to the people,—see his Northern line of Telegraph, for instance, which has reduced prices one-half wherever it runs; and in working and talking for the soldiers, the farmers, and at home and abroad for every good enterprise, he has never shown himself anything but a friend to the people, the popular mass.

We do not agree with you on the Railroad question itself—we think a Railroad is legally the property of those who buy it, and we can't see how it is any more reprehensible or blameworthy at all, for the new corporation who have bought the Concord Road, than it was for the two previous set of men who came into possession and power in the same manner, and are unwilling to go out of office and control although fairly beaten at their own game. But, at any rate, we don't see how the Chronicle, which has always spoken well, and spoken truly of Mr. Smyth, for his public and private worth as a man and a public official, can now join the rabble who cry out crucify him. We think up this way, that he will yet win his case, and prove to the people that he is right in this matter, as heretofore. Yours truly, MANCHESTER.

[Reply.—Personally, and on his own account, we have no quarrel with our old friend Ex-Gov. Smyth. There is no man in the State, or out of it, that we value more or have held in higher esteem than he. But we were very sorry to see him join any speculative ring to control any Railroad; and however we might be willing to trust him with the control of the people's interest in so important a matter, there are some members of the Ring, so called, that we would not trust. We are naturally and by education opposed to all such speculative rings; and we think we also represent the wishes and the interests of the public in doing what we can to oppose such movements. — Eds. Chronicle.]

RICHARDSON'S
LITTLE WASHER, unlike all others, light and portable, weighing only two pounds, is sold for the small price of five dollars. Adjusts itself to any article from a Pocket-handkerchief to a
LARGE BED SPREAD,
without alteration. Can be fitted to any tub, and removed at pleasure.
If you will use this little common sense washing machine, you will do the work of half a day in 2 hours.
RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER does not tear or wear the clothes, no matter how fine the fabric. Clothes are straightened out, and passed back and forth, between the rollers till clean.
Remember and always have a good strong and hot suds.
Put your Pocket-handkerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Napkins and Fringes into a sheet or Pillow slip and wash and rinse them in two or three minutes. We wash at one time, two or three sheets gathered at the hem, six Pillow slips, six Towels, two or three Cotton Shirts, one pair heavy Pants or two pairs light ones, one heavy Spread or Blanket, always putting the smaller things inside something larger or longer.
Wherever this Little Washer has been introduced the sale has been unprecedented, having sold upwards of three hundred in Dover, N. H., in less than two months; two thirds of the purchasers had been using large awkward machines costing from five to eighteen dollars; all a failure, one great complaint being that they are heavy and no woman can work them.
Richardson's has taken a Silver Medal in Springfield, Mass., at Mechanic's Fair in 1868, and other places where exhibited.
A Lady who has not washed for three years, told her neighbors she did her washing, with a little Little Washer, with ease, consequently they ordered one, and the question all over town is, have you got a Richardson's Little Washer?

Morning Chronicle.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

WAR.—It is marvelous that the human family are more ferocious against each other than are tigers against their own genus. But so it is, and so it has been so long back as we have any historic records. That man should be the enemy of man, or that one nation should wish to take the life of another, is contrary to every Christian doctrine of the new Dispensation. The poet says—"One murder makes a villain, a thousand makes a hero!" We need not discuss the question, whether any war can be justified, but do aver that no war can be justified dictated by a tyrant. We ought more highly to appreciate our institutions, when we reflect that no war can here be declared against the voice of the people, fairly expressed by their agents.

The news of the war in Europe burst upon us like a clap of thunder in a Summer day. What will be its result, is beyond human calculation. But its declaration is based upon no valid justification. The artful, unprincipled tyrant Napoleon pretends that he is opposed to the Spanish nation electing a sovereign of the own choice. That is none of his business, any more than if he should declare war against us for electing a President of the U. S., against whom he had some antipathy. Again he pretends that the king of Prussia offered some insult to his minister. This is exactly frivolous.

Napoleon understands the excitable French character, and had reason to fear a revolution by which he might lose his head, (which would be a fortunate event to nations) and his son lose the succession to the throne. This policy is, therefore, to involve the nation in war, and lead his army, under his rule, against Prussia, not prepared for war: but he may find his mistake, for Prussia can speedily raise as valiant an army as can be raised in any part of Europe. Nor will the other European powers look on with indifference and see Prussia crushed unjustly in order to aggrandize France. It may turn out that he has made as great a mistake as Bonaparte did, when he invaded Prussia. But it is dreadful to think that, should the war be continued, the blood of half a million, perhaps a million, would be poured out, in order to gratify the ambition of an unprincipled despot!

This is an enlightened age. The Press is a lever, which can move the world. And now is the time when it should put forth, in every civilized country, its whole force against this unjustifiable attempt. All the nations of Europe from motives of interest as well as justice, should espouse the cause of Prussia. That would put a speedy end to the war. And while our motto is, and ever should be—"peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations—entangling alliances with none"—we can indirectly through the Press, and by other means, be of some benefit to any oppressed nation. This nation is as powerful, to say the least, as any other nation on the earth. While united at home, it would be safe against all the forces that could be combined in Europe, and landed upon our shores. X.

WATER FOR FIRE.—We approve some of the remarks of "A Looker On" in the Chronicle of the 12th inst., in respect to bringing water to a fire before the engines can be filled and brought into action. One bucket of water may be of more avail when fire is first discovered, than an engine full half an hour afterwards. Of this we have had some evidence in times past. When there were but one or two engines in the town, each householder was required to keep two fire buckets, and expected to fill them and run to the fire as soon as practicable. By such a quick move, a fire has often been extinguished, and might again before the engines could be got ready for action, were buckets again required. But since we have a number of good engines, it is erroneously supposed that buckets would be of little or no use. It is also true that there ought to be a few hand engines, filled with a substance which puts out a fire before it spreads. And the Chief Engineer, without regard to party, ought to have long experience, as well as sufficient science, and also to be well acquainted with every part of the city, in order to know where water can be the most speedily obtained. The writer has had, long since, some experience in preventing several threatened extensive conflagrations, but in so doing violated the orders of unskillful engineers. With all needful preparations as a safeguard against fires, there would be less need of expending money for insurance against fires O.

FAST HORSES.—A New York correspondent of the Boston Journal says Bonner has found his match for Dexter in the Boston mare Pocahontas. Bonner loves Dexter so well, and is so jealous of his fame, that horsemen say that his owner is unwilling that the real speed of the Bates mare should be known. At any rate the former owner of Dexter has offered $50,000 for Pocahontas, and the offer has been declined. This mare is said to have beaten 2.18.

Great dissatisfaction was expressed that Goldsmith Maid was withheld from the great trot on Monday at the Fashion Course, as she was really the only horse that could compete with Lady Thorn. Eight years ago this celebrated horse was sold for $1100. She was sent to Vanderbilt, who tried her and did not like her. She was sent the second time to him and he returned her. He could not buy her to-day at any price. Her owner, Mr. Jackman, has offered to put $1000 against $500 any number of times.

At the Fashion stables are Lady Thorn, the Queen of the Turf—fifteen years old; George Wilkes, a horse of great speed for a short distance; Geo. Palmer, owned by Corning, and purchased for $5500; Lucy, from Hartford, who has trotted down near the twenties; Pocahontas, whose door is kept locked, and which but one man can open; Olive Logan, scrawny in appearance; Modoc, a milk white animal with a peculiar stain under the saddle; Kirkwood, the handsomest horse in New York, and said to be the fastest in double team; N. B. Palmer, a new horse, who is confidently expected to carry everything before him at Buffalo; License, Confidence, Gwinn, Lydia Thompson, Tempest and Tattler, and horses of less note. Fifteen horses under one roof, valued at prices varying from $20,000 to 50,000, is a sight not often seen.

Of Lady Thorn's speed the same correspondent says, Though Lady Thorn won the race in three straight heats on Monday, she went far below her ability.

She was driven with consummate skill. As usual, she was led on the track and harnessed in sight of her admiring friends. She was apparently free from excitement, trotted with great ease, and as her rivals approached her she let out just enough speed to keep in advance. The eye of her cool, shrewd driver was kept on the horse and on her adversary, and the motion of his body seemed to indicate to Lady Thorn what she was to do.

At the close of the third heat the horse was brought before the judges' stand. It needed the police to keep the crowd back. The mare was in a quiver of excitement and had to be handled with the greatest delicacy. It took five men to remove the sulky from her, lest the slightest touch should agitate her. One man wanted to express his regard for Lady Thorn by patting her. Before his hand reached the animal he picked himself up some distance from the sulky. The owner of this horse, for some reason, is kept a profound secret. But Mr. Smith, of Smith, Gould & Martin, is the reputed owner, and the interest he took in the trot seemed to justify the general belief.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Standard speaks of our New Hampshire Senators as follows:—

Patterson, you would rightly think had been a professor, or led a life equally as retired and scholastic. Cragin looks as if carved from his native granite, by forty-nine — a solid age, beautifying a solid man.

MEDICAL MADNESS.

LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious compound of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jy4w

THE INDEPENDENT FARMER.

Let sailors sing of the windy deep,
Let soldiers praise their armor,
But in my heart this toast I'll keep—
The Independent Farmer.
When first the rose in robe of green
Unfolds its crimson lining;
And round his cottage porch is seen
The honeysuckle shining,
When banks of bloom their sweetness yield
To bees that gather honey,
He drives his team across the field
When skies are soft and sunny.

The blackbird clucks behind the plow,
The quail pipes loud and clearly,
Yon orchard hides behind its bow
The home he loves so dearly;
The gray and old barn doors unfold,
His ample store in measure,
More rich than heaps of hoarded gold
A precious blessed treasure;
While yonder in the porch there stands
His wife, the lovely charmer,
The sweetest rose on all his lands—
The Independent Farmer.

To him the spring comes dancingly,
To him the summer blushes;
He cares not how the world may move,
No doubts or fears confound him;
His little flock is linked in love,
And household angels round him;
He trusts to God and loves his wife,
Nor grieves or ill may harm her,
He's nature's nobleman in life—
The Independent Farmer.

GOING HOME WITH THE GIRLS.—The entrance into society may be said to take place immediately after boyhood has passed away, yet a multitude take their initiative before their beards are presentable. It is a great trial either for a tender or a riper age, for an overgrown boy to go to a door, knowing well that there a dozen girls inside, and knock or ring, with an absolute certainty that in a few moments all eyes will be upon him; it is a severe test of courage. To go before these girls and make the tour of the room without stepping on their toes, and sit down and dispose of his hands without putting them in his pockets is an achievement of which few boys can boast. If a boy can go so far as to measure off ten yards of tape with one of the girls, and cut it off at each end, he may stand a chance to pass a pleasant evening. Let him not flatter himself that the trials of the evening are over. Then comes the breaking up. The girls don their hoods and put on their shawls, and look so saucy and independent, as if they did not wish anybody to go home with them. Then comes the pinch, and the boy who has the most pluck goes up to the prettiest girl in the room, with his tongue clinging to the roof of his mouth, and crooking out his elbow, stammers out the words, "Shall I see you home?" She touches her fingers on his arm and they walk home feeling as awkward as two goslings.

New Hampshire Items.

Rev. Mr. Durgin of Hampton, who recently received a call from the Congregational Society at South Seabrook, has been called by the Casco Street Church of Portland.

Census takers in the towns of Danville, Sandown, Hampstead, Atkinson and Plaistow, inform us that there is less population in those towns, by some hundreds, than in 1860. Even in Sandown, where both political parties have imported largely, there is a falling off in numbers. These towns are all within easy reach of the manufacturing city of Haverhill, Mass., whither hundreds of young men and women have removed. Probably the census of that city will show such an increase of numbers as to account, in a manner, for the decrease in most of the rural districts in Rockingham county.

The News Letter states that George Bancroft, the accredited Minister of the United States at the Court of Prussia, has addressed a letter to Dr. D. W. Gorham of Phillips Exeter Academy, bestowing upon the Academy an endowment of $2000, for the founding of a scholarship. In honor of the liberal donor, this new scholarship will be known as the "Bancroft Scholarship." The News Letter says Phillips Academy has extended its charity to a host of students who in after life have reaped rich rewards in this world's goods; but Mr. Bancroft and one other, at present connected with Harvard University, are the sole instances of a pecuniary recognition of indebtedness to the benefactions of the illustrious Phillips. Mr. Bancroft is a native of Worcester, Mass., and entered Phillips Academy in 1811, at the age of 11. In October of that year the eminent Dr. Nathan Parker of Portsmouth wrote to the father of the young Academy student a letter full of the promise which has been fulfilled in the life of the distinguished historian.

—A little girl, watching a balloon, said, "Mamma, I shouldn't think God would like to have that man go up to Heaven alive."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
FOR ALL PURPOSES of a LAXATIVE MEDICINE,
Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PILL. The obvious reason is that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.
Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these PILLS rapidly cure:—
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. 4wjy6eodsm

WEDNESDAY, JULY 20, 1870.

WAR TALK.—The French army has a start of five days on that of Prussia.

The Prussian troops are pressing westward, and some have received counter orders, which are perhaps on account of the apprehensions respecting Austria.

Neither France nor Prussia has yet issued a formal proclamation or committed a technical act of war. Each power hesitates to appear the aggressor. Benedetti and Werther withdrew from their respective posts of their own accord.

Patriotic subscriptions for the army continue to be taken up throughout France and large sums of money have already been received.

The Prussian government announces the removal of all light buoys and other guides of navigation from the German coast.

The advance guard of the Prussian army is in France, occupying a village near Longuy, the iron gate of France, a fortified town in the department of Moselle, on the Belgian frontier, 33 miles northwest of Metz. Its citadel stands on a steep rock. Longuy was taken by the Prussians in 1792, and again by the allies in 1815. An encounter is momentarily expected. The Prussian army on Saturday crossed the frontier at Sierck, a walled town of France, department of the Moselle, on the right bank of the Moselle. After destroying the railway between Thionville and Luxembourg they retired. The French army of invasion is reported to be 280,000.

The Prussian guns at Kehl are levelled at the French custom house, while the French guns are similarly threatening the Prussian customs. All the troops from Chalons Camp are between Metz and Thionville. Marshals Bazaine and Canrobert have left Paris for the front.

England is anxious for Holland.

Sweden is ready to join Denmark and France if the fleet operates in the North and Baltic seas.

The French men-of-war watched the departure of the Prussian squadron from England. The iron-clad fleet is chasing the Prussian squadron toward the Baltic. The gunboats will co-operate with the army in the action on the Rhine.

A New York repeater has been sentenced to the State Prison for one year.

In Virginia, the whole amount of revenue collected from tobacco during all of Mr. Johnson's administration was $1,440,120 51. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1870, the whole amount collected from that source was $1,146,077 25, while the amount collected since General Grant's inauguration is $5,114,521 17, or $3,674,401 27 in excess of the amount collected in this one State during Johnson's entire administration.

The President has accepted the resignation of General Kilpatrick as minister to Chili, to take effect the first of next September, and has nominated Joseph P. Root of Kansas to the vacancy thus created.

Prussians now in France will not be expelled from the country if they observe strict neutrality. No diplomat or other foreigner will be allowed in the French camp.

French iron-clads are cruising on Dogger Bank, in the North Sea, to pick up German vessels.

Private letters from Paris represent the prospect of serious trouble between France and England. The French government is furious at the tone of the English papers, and threatens to refuse all applications from Englishmen for army passes.

The feeling in London against France is intense and universal. It is believed that the troops called home from the English colonies have been concentrated in anticipation of the present war. Great Britian has now at the home depots 95,000 troops, and can muster about 300,000. There is great activity in the Navy.

The Prussian Ambassador is on his way to Berlin with an official declaration of war.

The French gunboat flotilla has sailed for the Baltic sea.

There are more rumors of an alliance between Austria and France.

Bismarck telegraphs that private property on the high seas will be exempt from seizure, without regard to reciprocity.

It is thought an extra session of Congress may be called.

SENATORIAL "MANLINESS."—The Claremont Eagle, remarking upon the action of the Senate on the bill to approve the Railroad contract, says:

"The manliness of Senators, in disregarding their feelings and judging of the question upon principle, merits and receives our regard and admiration."

This is rich, truly! "Manliness" is a good word, "disregarding their feelings and judging upon principle," are admirable phrases; and they are especially pertinent to this case. A few hours before the vote was taken, three of the Radical Senators who voted to postpone, were open in the expression of their purpose to vote for the House bill. But in the dark hours of that evening, they received new light; their "manliness" got a little stiffening; they made a desperate effort to "disregard their feelings," and, probably aided by green (back) spectacles, they succeeded, and were thus enabled to see the "principle" involved and to merit the "regard and admiration" of the Eagle!

We hope this kind of Senatorial "manliness" and regard for principle is not to be prevalent hereafter; if it is, we advise our Radical friends to go to State Prison for candidates for Senatorial honors.—Patriot.

It is well known that the Railroad contract was deliberately considered, and thoroughly discussed, and largely approved, in the House; and that, to the astonishment of all, and the disgust of most honest people, the Senate refused to concur.

Noting these facts, Mr. Benjamin Ela, Representative of Merrimack, an old and highly respectable gentleman, and Deacon of a church, introduced the following resolution, at the last hour of the Session, all unannounced and unexpected, and when the House was very thin. But even then there were scores who approved it, but deemed it impolitic to vote for it.

Whereas, the subject of increasing the Senate and reducing the House of Representatives of the State of New Hampshire, has been repeatedly submitted to the people, without results; therefore

Resolved, That, in the future, this subject should receive more serious consideration, and that it is the sense of this House that though the rural districts may not be so fully represented, yet the Representatives should be lessened; and that the promotion of the public good greatly demands the increase of the Senate, that the influence of favoritism and bribery may be more hopeless, and that there may be a greater variety and more ability in its numerous standing committees, and that the measures of the House of Representatives, often sustained by large majorities, may be less liable to be lost by a numerically insignificant and aristocratic body.

Mr. Marston of Sandown moved to lay it upon the table, and said if it was in order he would move to lay it under the table, but withdrew for remarks by Mr. Wadleigh and others.

Mr. Ela spoke in favor of the resolution, as also did Mr. Miller of Portsmouth, the latter basing his position on remarks understood to have been made in the Senate, indirectly reflecting on the action of the House.

Messrs. Wadleigh of Milford, Bedel of Bath, Dunlap of Nashua, Putnam of Warren, and Ramsdell of Nashua, deprecated the passage of any such resolution.

Mr. Marston of Sandown renewed his motion to lay upon the table. Upon a division 130 voted yea, and 9 nay.

The objectionable remarks in the Senate, were made by Messrs. Small and Peavey, who each said, in effect, lawyer-like, that if they, with their views of the law and the facts, should vote for the contract, they should deserve to be inmates of the Penitentiary, instead of the honorable Senate—which qualifying and very suggestive if it is just as disrespectful to the House, after their action, as the resolution, or the Patriot's alternative, is to the Senate, after theirs.

HARVARDS VS. RED STOCKINGS.—The Harvard base ball club have met with almost uninterrupted success in their Western tour. On Saturday at Cleveland, Ohio, they won a game with Forest City club by a score of 15 to 7. On Monday they engaged the famous Red Stockings at Cincinnati and would have won the game but for an accident. They made 17 runs in nine innings and the Red Stockings had but 12 in eight. As the Red Stockings went to the bat on their last inning, they hardly hoped for victory. Goodwin, the pitcher of the Harvards was struck with a ball and knocked down. He was not seriously injured but could not pitch with his wonted vim and the Red Stockings got in 8 runs before the game closed, winning by a score of 20 to 17. Goodwin pitched until the close and then fainted. The Red Stockings admit that they were outplayed by the Harvards.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Build up the System.

Strength evaporates fast at this season. This is especially the case with those who live by the sweat of their brow. From every pore of the sieve-like skin a moisture exudes which contains the element of vitality. Thereby the blood is impoverished, the nerves relaxed, the muscles weakened, the digestion impaired, the bowels disturbed, and the animal spirits depressed. The constant drain that produces these effects cannot be arrested, because it is due to the heat of the atmosphere; but the loss of the life-sustained elements can be supposed by extra invigoration. Now, therefore, is the time to resort to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most powerful and healthful of all vegetable tonics. Long experience has proved that nothing else will efficiently sustain and regulate the system, when wilting down under the double pressure of excessive heat, and constant physical or mental labor.

All persons who have been tempted to try the cheap "tonics" (so-called) which have been started by sordid speculators in almost every town and village, with a view of "turning a penny" by the credulity of the unwary, know this to their cost. It is a wise maxim that says "hold fast that which is good." Of the the forty millions of people in the United States, probably one-fifth have tested the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters and know it to be a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, general debility, constipation, fever and ague, and want of appetite; that any of these should be persuaded to experiment with the worthless nostrums, recommended by unscrupulous and ignorant empirics seems almost incredible.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a nact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, but many others who died. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various forms of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.
A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for restoring the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.
Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But as much as remains can be saved, for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling out, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.
If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair; giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

The graduating (4th) class numbered 15, as follows:—Annie F. Baker, Mary E. Bell, Ellen W. Bufford, Charlotte E. Brown, Jennie D. Goodrich, Catherine Mahoney, Georgette B. Mason, Ida F. Neal, Agnes E. Plumer, Annie G. Sides, Frank Maria Stover, Emily E. Tomlinson, Stella C. Webster, Margaret J. Woods, Ellen May Varrell.

Short addresses were made by Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody, (who remarked that he was one of the High School Committee when the mothers of some of the present pupils were school-girls there,) Judge Bufford and Rev. Geo. M. Adams. The speakers all paid high tribute to the value of the school and the ability and zeal of the teachers. Mr. Adams stated that the school has this year received the first books purchased from the donation of Hon. Frank Jones some time ago. The compositions and also of the declamations were very creditable, and the whole affair went of satisfactorily. The room was tastefully decorated with flowers, and there were as many visitors as could be accommodated. The exercises were interspersed with some good singing by the school, under direction of Mr. E. A. Tilton; and the exhibition was closed with prayer by Rev. Mr. Bickpell, at half-past five o'clock.

Correspondence of Chronicle and Gazette.

NAVY YARD, July 18.

Chief Engineer John W. Moore, (in the absence of Chief Engineer David B. Macomb, who is with his sick family in Charlestown, Mass.,) has charge of all shops, machinery afloat, and the store house, at the station. In him is found one of the most gentlemanly officers—giving courteous notice to those in the humblest as well as the highest positions—and a mechanic of the highest order. On Saturday he presented the foreman and clerks in his department to Commodore Pennock, who received them as became as a gentleman and an officer, and remarked that he had heard good report of them from Capt. Fairfax. They came away much pleased with the courteous bearing of the Commandant, and hoping that his relations with the Yard may long continue.

Capt. Fairfax, also, is one everyway worthy his position. A gentleman, one of our nation's bravest sons, cool and collected at all times, and rendering justice to all, he is loved and respected by all who are brought in contact with him, in any capacity. K.

☞ The officers of the Rockingham Agricultural Society, very courteously visited this city, from Exeter, &c., on Tuesday, to confer with the Piscataqua Society, relative to joining forces at the Fair this Fall. The great distance for either to travel with stock, &c., seems to be the chief obstacle to uniting the two.

THE ANNUAL EXHIBITION of the Boys' High School takes place this afternoon at 2 1-2 o'clock. Everybody is invited. No tickets are issued.

☞ Rev. Dr. Peabody has leased house No. 2 Summer Street, near Middle Street, for a Summer residence for his family; and will supply the desk at the Unitarian Church during the vacation of the pastor. Everybody is glad to greet him as a citizen again.

☞ A correspondent of the Manchester Mirror walked from Boar's Head to Frost's Point, along shore, 16 miles, last Monday; and starting from the Boar's Head Hotel, and stopping at the Sagamore House, enjoyed himself well, despite the mercury as high as 90. We have ridden on horseback almost that entire distance, on the sands, and driven in a wagon for all that is feasible of it. The sea-near-y is beautiful.

Thompson of this city, for a copy of a new composition of his own, for the piano, entitled "Soffri e Paci, uve Renerie du Soir," and inscribed "to the friend of my friends, Ed. F. Wilson." It is a very pleasing and enjoyable composition, and is published by Ditson & Co. of Boston.

☞ A Washington correspondent of the New York Herald writes that the defeat of Hon. John Lynch's bill to encourage and revive American shipping "was solely owing to bad management. In other hands, and more shrewdly conducted, it might have passed."

—"Quite correct, my dear; the natives of South Africa do not require clothes to keep them warm, because they are Hottentots, don't you see? Coolies are a different sort of people altogether. So are the people of Chili."

—One of Disrael's admirers, in speaking about him to John Bright, said: "You ought to give him credit for what he has accomplished, as he is a self-made man." "I know he is," retorted Mr. Bright, "and he adores his maker."

RICHARDSON'S
LITTLE WASHER, unlike all others, light and portable, weighing only ten pounds, is sold for the small price of five dollars. Adjusts itself to any article from a Pocket-handkerchief to a
LARGE BED SPREAD,
without alteration. Can be fitted to any tub, and removed at pleasure.
If you will use this little common sense washing machine, you will do the work of half a day in 2 hours.
RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER does not tear or wear the clothes, no matter how fine the fabric. Blankets are straightened out, and passed back and forth, between the rollers till clean.
Remember and always have a good strong and hot suds.
Put your Pocket-handkerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Napkins and Fringes into a shaving Pillow slip and wash perfectly clean, in two to three minutes. We wash at one time, two or three sheets gathered at the seam, six Pillow slips, six Towels, two or three Cotton Shirts, one pair heavy Pants or two pairs light ones, one heavy Spread or Blanket, always putting the smaller things inside something larger or longer.
Wherever this Little Washer has been introduced the sale has been unprecedented, having sold upwards of three hundred in Dover, N. H., in less than two months; two thirds of the purchasers had been using large awkward machines costing from five to eighteen dollars; all a failure, one great complaint being that they are heavy and no woman can work them.
Richardson's has taken a Silver Medal in Springfield, Mass., at Mechanic's Fair in 1869, and other places where exhibited.
A Lady who has not washed for three years, told her neighbors she did her washing, with that Little Washer, with one, consequently they ordered one, and the question all over town is, have you got a RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER?

Morning Chronicle.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

HOW TO READ A NOVEL.—By Prof. Holton, of Everett, Mass.—We have just tried our hand at novel reading, and find no harm in it, as we do it. We give a few rules for others who would "indulge."

First, we owned the book. The case is a rare one in which we read a book that we do not own. A book, when read through, becomes a part of ourself. We never know when we shall want that part of ourself, or for what. We use hundreds of books that we cannot own; but we do not read them. As a rule, we never read a serial.

Second, it is a bound book. We will neither read nor keep any book in paper. What is worth keeping a lifetime, is worth binding. It can best be bound by the publisher.

Third, it has a respectable publisher —Appleton.

Fourth, we know something of the author, Charlotte M. George. It is a recommendation that it is in one volume, and not a large one.

Lastly, we make sure that it teaches something. It's name is "The Caged Lion,"—James I, of Scotland. From Hale and Wheeler we learn that he was born 1374, began to reign 1406, died in 1437. Of this period we have read little except Shakespeare; so we "go for it." Our first want is Lippincott's Gazetteer, which, being ourself poor, we cannot own. So we go to Chambers' Encyclopedia for "Badenoch," "Albany," "Coldingham," etc. Next, we find that our caged lion is the second English Poet. We are so poor that we cannot do without Chambers' Cyclopedia of English Literature. So one more book is added to the pile, and we read long extracts from the poem there alluded to. Thus the seventeenth page of the novel costs us more time than it would to "bolt" thirty-four pages as a shark does a red rag.

And so book after book was brought out; the little octavo atlas published by Lippincott must have been consulted fifty times, and a tangled portion of Scottish, English and French history was brightened up as never it was to us before.

This success led to a second attempt on the same plan; "L. Muhlbach's" Queen Hortense, also from the Appletons. This was our first introduction to Mrs. Klara Mundt in English; though, before the translation of any of her stories, we had handled some of them in German. The word "Novel" on the title-page is almost a misnomer. It is probably hardly impartial enough to be called history; it is as truly biography as Peter Horry's "Life of Marion." Indeed the whole looks as if written under the eye of Louis Napoleon, to glorify his mother and add to her lustre of his own origin. How much of the onus of wickedness has been shifted from one guilty party to another it would take no little criticism to decide. We would be glad to know that she was all that the novelist's 'fancy painted her.' But, of course, it took the books of reference again to make the reading a game that was worth the candle. Deep plowing will pay, when shallow work is a waste of what little strength it requires.

BY THE LAST CENSUS the population of France is put down at 38,192,094. The population of Prussia—meaning by that the new Kingdom of North Germany — is 24,043,296. By treaties, however, and by unanimous feeling, also, as would appear from our current intelligence, South Germany becomes a unit with Prussia in any war affecting the interests of Fatherland, and its population being added gives a total of 38,521,900. It will be seen, therefore, that the resources of the two combatants for furnishing armies are substantially equal. Nor is there much diversity in the abilities of each to spare the forces not requisite to keep the internal industry of each nation going on. In both, every able-bodied man has long been regarded as a soldier, and has been trained accordingly.

The army of France has been considered the largest and most perfect belligerent machine in the world. It consists of an active army of 404,192 men; an army of reserve of 400,000 in round numbers, and a National Guard with a maximum of 588,723; making a total force of 1,342,915 soldiers. Prussia, on the other hand, has an army of 319,358 men on peace footing, and of 977,262 on the war footing. The total of the South German armies is about 160,000, making the whole German force about 1,137,000 men. It will be seen, therefore, that the French army is numerically superior, though not to a sufficient extent of itself to be decisive. There is a much greater disparity in the navies of the two Powers. That of France comprises 62 iron-clads, 264 unarmed screw steamers, 62 paddle steamers, and 113 sailing vessels, with 39,346, sailors, afloat and ashore, which is about one-half of the total naval force, when dock yard laborers, engineers, officers, &c., are included. Indeed, it is stated that the French naval force on a war footing can be raised to 170,000 men. The Prussian navy is of wholly modern origin, and is composed of 43 steamers, which, with other craft, make a total of 87 war vessels, mounting 549 guns, manned by 2471 seamen and boys.—Boston Journal.

Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

RYE, July 18th.

Sunday the 17th, was as hot, if not the hottest day ever experienced by the oldest inhabitant. At the beach, the thermometer went up to 93 in the shade, and visitors who have been here for years, said it was the hottest day they ever saw here. A heavy shower fell early in the morning, which instead of cooling the air seemed to have the opposite effect. A large number of visitors arrived at the beach on Saturday, so that the hotels were very well filled, and many of them improved the opportunity of attending the second hop at the Farragut and Atlantic Houses, which was given on that evening. These hops bid fair to be among the most enjoyable things at the beach during the season, the music being excellent, and the hall well adapted for dancing purposes. Hops will soon be given at the Ocean House, which is rapidly filling up, and will soon have their band of 12 or 15 pieces to furnish music for the guests every day and evening. The Sea View House had quite a company yesterday, and most of their rooms are already engaged.

A gentleman engaged in the livery business thought he had an unlucky day, last Wednesday. First, his mowing machine got out of order, so that he had to go to the blacksmith's to have repairs made, leaving his horses standing in the field hitched to the machine, which he neglected to put "out of gear." While absent, they ran away, doing more damage to it. The matter was regulated after a while, when in getting in a load of hay, the cart broke down; and as that was not quite enough, the horses attached to a load of hay in the barn started suddenly, throwing the gentleman's father-in-law from the load to the barn floor—bruising him considerably, but not seriously; and as misfortunes never come singly, a horse which he sent to Portsmouth with a party on Sunday, was used so roughly as to seriously injure if not spoil him. The item about the Runner for the Ocean House in last week's correspondence, was based upon what was supposed to be reliable information, as it was common report, and was communicated to me by several different persons. It is not the intention in this correspondence to misrepresent any person or parties, but simply to state facts, and any misstatement that may inadvertantly be made, is with pleasure corrected. R.

—By the census Kennebunkport loses three hundred inhabitants within the last ten years. Congress has appropriated $5000 for the improvement and repairs of the piers at the mouth of Kennebunk river; this is very much needed to save the harbor from being almost useless. A new draw bridge has been built between this village and lower Kennebunk, which reflects credit upon the towns as well as the builders.

—A young daughter of Mr. Isaac Martin of Kittery, was fatally burned, a few days since, while playing with a fire which she in company with other girls had made in the woods.

—A musical burglar — One who breaks into a tune.

A NEW WAY OF TAKING WATER ON RAILROADS.—A novel method of supplying locomotives with water while in motion, which has been for some time in use in England, is about to be introduced in this country. It has already been experimented on by the Hudson River Railroad Company, and with the greatest success.

Recently, at Montrose Station, near Peekskill, there was constructed in the centre of the track a trough, 1200 feet in length, fifteen inches in depth and eighteen inches wide. This was lined with sheet-iron, heavily painted. The trough is perfectly straight, will hold 16,000 gallons of water, and is fed by a couple of springs to the north and east of it.

About the same time that the construction of the trough was commenced, locomotive No. 43 was taken to the repair-shop. Here, in a quiet manner, skilful workmen in a short time fitted her out with ingeniously constructed machinery, connected with her tender, to draw the water from the trough. From the man-hole in the tender, down through the latter to a position inside of the hind trucks, runs an ingeniously-formed pipe. The pipe curls as it leaves the man-hole, and after forming a half circle, is fitted with a nozzle at its end, which always points the way the engine is going. An iron bar is fastened to the nozzle, which connects with another bar from a point near the fireman's box. When the locomotive approaches the trough, the nozzle can be dropped instantaneously into the water, while the train is running thirty miles an hour. The nozzle sinks only to the depth of two inches into the trough, yet when the 1200 feet are passed over, 1634 gallons of water will have been drawn into the tender.

The first experiments in taking water by this new method were made a few days ago. The locomotive dashed over the rails at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour. As the nozzle struck the water, the fluid rushed into the tender with the roar of a young Niagara, and when the trough was left behind the tender was full. The experiment was a great success, and gave complete satisfaction to the officers of the Hudson River Railroad Company.

It is next proposed to locate a trough between Hudson and Catskill, and at points on the Central road and Western connection, so that in time trains may run through from New York to Chicago in twenty-four or twenty-six hours.—New York Times.

From the Ohio State Journal.

A LITTLE WHOLESOME ADVICE.—Administered to Philip Sheridan, Esq. One of the objections made to Sheridan as a warrior is, that he kills people. Another is, that he kills the Indian father at a time when the family needs him as a provider of food, and the innocent squaws and children suffer from this cruelty. We always did think Sheridan killed the enemy too much. Why can't you just shoot them a little Phil, so as not to hurt them? Why do you want to go around making a graveyard of everybody that murders American citizens? Don't you know any way to carry on a war without killing people this way? Suppose the poor Piegans have taken a scalp or two, and dug the bowels out of a few live babies, and subjected a few women to the embraces of half a tribe of the most hellish ruffians that ever wore the human form, what has that to do with it? You ought not to blame the poor fellows. Indians always do that way. You should send missionaries to them. Send them a Peace Commissioner—send them the Cincinnati Gazette—send them a bald-headed Quaker that can't be scalped—send them—confound it—send them Mangon and his fiddle. We can spare him.

It would do him good to go. The Indians would be glad to see him. Let him take Mrs. Cobb along. Let him take the whole female lobby from Washington. If they can't bring the Piegan to repentance and to thinking of his latter end, nobody can. And don't be so rash with your shooting any more. Don't you remember how you used Rosser, in the Valley? He only wanted to come along down in the rear. He wasn't hurting you any. Yet what did you do to that young man? You went out with Custar and shot at him and charged into him with your infernal cavalry, and made him git up and git till his artillery wagons went so fast only one wheel touched the ground, and the horses were nearly tired to death. That's no way to treat a man. You should have been polite and friendly to him. You should be polite and friendly to these Indians. Give them blankets and Spencer rifles and scalping knives; give them tobacco and meerschaum pipes, Pataga cigars; give them the Agricultural Report, and the Congressional Globe, and Greeley's Recollections of a Busy Life, and other civilizing documents.

—Josh Billings makes an apt illustration when he says: "Sitting down and folding our arms, and waiting for something to turn up, iz just about as rich a speculation az going out into a 400-acre lot, sitting down on a sharp stone, with a pail between our knees, and waiting for a cow to back up and be milked."

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1870.

WAR NEWS.—France has notified Prussia that she will not use explosive bullets if Prussia will not. After the first battle has been fought, all the powers of Europe will make an effort to stop the conflict. One hundred thousand volunteers have enrolled their names in Paris and the departments.

A movement of the French army has begun, and hostilities have been opened near Forbach. A great naval battle was in progress.

It is rumored that an alliance, offensive and defensive, has been concluded between France and Denmark. A French army corps is preparing to occupy the peninsula of Jutland, and so attack Prussia through Holstein.

A French squadron is blockading the Elbe, watching the German ships at Hamburg.

Hesse has allied herself with Prussia.

France has placed an army of 350,000 men upon the Rhine.

Turkey has called out her reserves and stopped the telegraphs in all directions.

A great popular demonstration in favor of France was made in Dublin, Ireland. More than 100,000 people with twenty bands of music were out on a parade. The French and Irish flags were carried entwined. The police charged the procession and captured three flags, but the mob rallied and retook them. Intense excitement prevailed.

Telegraphic communication between France and Germany has been destroyed by the authorities.

The French passed the frontier near Scarbuken, Thursday evening, and seized the Custom House.

Gleaned and Ground.

It is said that the fact that the World newspaper and the democratic party sympathize with France, will drive many German democrats into the republican party.

The President has decided to send General Sheridan to Europe to observe and report upon the operations of the contending forces on the continent, besides two or three members of his staff.

A small party of Indians recently killed and scalped a man belonging to an ox train, a mile from Fort Sill, and two other men were killed further south. Cheyenne and Kiowa arrows were found in their bodies. Colonel Grierson, the commander at Fort Sill, pursued the Indians into the mountains, and was there attacked by a band of white robbers. Movements against the Indians were delayed by the continued rains.

Over ten thousand emigrants arrived in New York last week.

Gold, Wednesday, 122.

Government sold one million of gold on Wednesday, for which the bids aver aged from 120.50 to 122.40.

☞ A critical (not to say hypercritical) correspondent thinks the expression Asylum for the Insane is better and more correct than Insane Asylum. Doubtless,—but people are apt to take the shortest cut to express their meaning; and it don't pay to be too particular.

The same gentleman thinks Lord Chesterfield and any other man of good manners, requires of a lady hostess to take care of the hats of gentleman visitors on entering her house. So do we.

☞ Strangely enough, the dwellers a little out of the compact part of the city, are more appreciative of street sprinkling, than citizens on our most public and prominent thoroughfares. It is as pleasant to pass along Middle or Elm Street, as it is disagreeable to travel State, below Pleasant, where, ever since the street was dug up for the Custom House Sewer, the dust is intolerable. Our streets are thoroughly sprinkled, and very cheaply, when ordered.

☞ M. Prevost Paradol, French Minister to the United States, who arrived in this country last week, shot himself through the head on Wednesday. He had been suffering intensely from the heat, and probably became insane. He was 41 years of age and leaves a wife and child.

☞ We yesterday wrote that a certain Senatorial if was disrespectful to the House, in the Railroad debate; but the proof-corrector destroyed the meaning by leaving in a superfluous "it" after the if.

☞ We understand that a large number of workmen are to be taken on the Navy Yard to-day—say 500, should so many offer.

NOT A GODLESS RACE.—China has 30,000 gods.

Communication.

POLICE.—Messrs. Editors:—A writer in a local paper having recently published an article against our present police system, will you allow me space in your columns to signify my dissent from the views expressed in that article, as I do not consider the writer's conclusions borne out by his arguments.

The writer agues that we should return to the old style of things (town constables), or give one man a small salary as chief of police, with power to employ temporary assistants,—because it would be cheaper, because the profession of detective or spy is disreputable and demoralizing, and if permitted to exist, should be left to private enterprise, because there is no need of an organized police force in this city, and because the system of thirty years ago was amply sufficient to preserve good order.

If by the "profession of detective" is meant the bringing of offenders to justice, (and I cannot make any other meaning of it, in the connection in which he uses the expression,) then doubtless the keepers of groggeries and brothels will agree that it is "disreputable"—but I do not see it in that light. If it is disgraceful to hunt out criminals and bring them to justice the laws should be abolished. As to private enterprise being entrusted to do the work, "private enterprise" once undertook to enforce the anti-rum law in Portsmouth, and got assaulted and beaten by a gang led by a democratic official, who didn't approve of "private enterprise" doing anything of the kind.

"There is no need of an organized police in this small town." This "small town" has more than 150 rum-holes in it; and if it is so very quiet and orderly, that is a powerful argument in favor of the police system which keeps it so in spite of the groggeries—not in favor of a change.

The system of thirty years ago was "amply sufficient for the maintenance of good order." Was it? Less than thirty years ago, the writer of this saw the whole force of town authorities, aided by a large number of "special constables," endeavoring to prevent fires being kindled in the streets, as they had been directed to do by a town meeting, if I mistake not. But they not only failed to prevent bonfires being made on Church Hill, on Market Square, at the South End and on Mason's Hill, but they were unable to save property—fences, widow blinds, signs, and everything movable which the crowds could lay their hands on—from being thrown into the flames, under their very noses. And I have more than once seen a drunken man reeling and howling through the streets for hours, making them almost impassable for decent people, while a constable was being hunted up to arrest him! The "North-enders" and "South-enders" used to fight pitched battles on Market Square and in other places, using rotten eggs, stones and other missiles, and the efficient town constables were wholly unable to preserve the peace; yet these officials were democratic, and of course energetic and virtuous.

The anti-police man proposes appointing one or more officers, without pay except the fines they earn,—which would be merely offering a premium on roguery. His statements of facts are incorrect, and as a specimen of special pleading his article is a failure. The real trouble is that the police are appointed by a republican city government; and the only important object of the article is to insinuate that the City Marshal is not fit for his position. The implicit charge of "dishonesty and imprudence" on his part is worded with a caution more natural to a police-court pettifogger than to a journalist. If the writer knows anything against the Marshal, he should say it boldly—"private enterprise" shou ld enforce the law; if he knows nothing against him, the insinuation of dishonesty is cowardly and unmanly. That our city has been so free from disorder and crime for years, is largely due to his energy and ability; and something more tangible than a newspaper sneer will be necessary to convince the great mass of our citizens that he is not the "right man in the right place." PENCIL.

PUTTING ON AIRS.—A Minnesota pig was sunstruck lately, but will root out his brief existence in the enjoyment of health and happiness. The owner split open the pig's head and filled up the gash with salt, working a complete cure. But the plan might not always be so successful.

ON THE RISE.—The Second Adventists of New York are making preparations for the second coming of the Saviour. They say this event will take place this week, simultaneously with the proclamation of infallibility of the Pope.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS OR WOMEN'S WRONGS, AT THE SHOALS.—A correspondent says the quiet little town of Gosport was alarmed Tuesday afternoon, by an Irish woman, Mrs. John Buckley of Portsmouth, who came to force her niece to leave the Island. After coaxing and entreating the girl to follow her, and finding her efforts useless, she resorted to a pinching process. The screams of the poor girl brought to her rescue a lady who ventured to interfere in her behalf. Mrs. Buckley infuriated by temper, left the house, wringing her hands, and vowing vengeance. After striking her head with her fists and telling a pitiful story of being whipped, &c., she left for home, to bring Marshal Johnson to arrest the lady who dared to conflict with her assumed rights. The lady has been advised to take refuge in Betty Moody's Cave for safety. E. J. H.

THE NEW PENSION LAW passed near the close of the session of Congress makes several changes which are important to pensioners. Hereafter payments are to be made quarterly, the agents forwarding blank vouchers to each person on the rolls by mail, and on the receipt of these vouchers in proper form returning a check by mail payable to the order of the claimant. Pension agents are allowed thirty cents for making out each voucher, which the government is to pay, and no agent can collect any fee whatever of any pensioner for his services. No attorney or agent is allowed to collect a fee of over twenty-five dollars for prosecuting any claim for pensions or bounty land.

☞ The number of Chinese in the country at the end of 1869 is estimated at 90,000, among whom were but 5000 women and 2000 children. Since immigration began in 1848, 138,000 have come to the United States, of whom 38,000 have returned to China, and about 10,000 have died. Of the number now in the country, about one-half are in California, 25,000 in other Pacific States and Territories, while fully 15,000 have crossed the Rocky Mountains.

☞ On opening a box car of a train for Boston, a few days since, at Windsor, Vermont, it was found that of one hundred and twenty-five lambs confined therein, and on the way to market, only four were alive! One hundred and twenty-one lambs crowded into a tight car, in a hot day, had been cruelly smothered to death. The loss of the property to parties concerned, $500 or more, is but a small part of the punishment such inhumanity deserves.

THE ADOPTION of all the late improvements evinces a determination to keep the AMERICAN HOUSE, BOSTON, where it ever has been—in the front rank of New England hotels.

"There was a frog who lived in a spring,
He caught such a cold that he could not sing."

Poor, unfortunate, Batrachian! In what a sad plight he must have been. And yet his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a once tuneful voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head," or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever devised; but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and their throats in tune by a timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists. jy19eod

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Build up the System.

Strength evaporates fast at this season. This is especially the case with those who live by the sweat of their brow. From every pore of the sleeve-like skin a moisture exudes which contains the element of vitality. Thereby the blood is impoverished, the nerves relaxed, the muscles weakened, the digestion impaired, the bowels disturbed, and the animal spirits depressed. The constant drain that produces these effects cannot be arrested, because it is due to the heat of the atmosphere; but the loss of the life-sustained elements can be supposed by extra invigoration. Now, therefore, is the time to resort to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most powerful and healthful of all vegetable tonics. Long experience has proved that nothing else will efficiently sustain and regulate the system when wilting down under the double pressure of excessive heat, and constant physical or mental labor.

All persons who have been tempted to try the local "tonics" (so-called) which have been started by sordid speculators in almost every town and village, with a view of "turning a penny" by the credulity of the unwary, know this to their cost. It is a wise maxim that says "hold fast that which is good." Of the the forty millions of people in the United States, probably one-fifth have tested the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters and know it to be a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, general debility, constipation, fever and ague, and want of appetite; that any of these should be persuaded to experiment with the worthless nostrums, recommended by unscrupulous and ignorant empirics seems almost incredible.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung diseases in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from scrofula and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cts."

THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN DIE ANNUNUALLY OF CROUP. Now, Mothers, if you would spend 50 cents, and always have a bottle of DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT in the house, you never need fear losing your little one when attacked, with this complaint. It is now 22 years since I have put up my Liniment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when my Liniment was used; but hundreds of cures have been reported to me, and many state if it was $10 per bottle they would not be without it. Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. No one who once tries it is ever without it. It is warranted perfectly safe to take internally. Full directions with every bottle. Sold by the Druggists and Storekeepers in the United States. ☞ FOR THIRTY YEARS! ☜

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaints and Bowel Troubles of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is even restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of soiling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil the most delicate lace, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

BENEDICTION.

The graduating class numbered six, as follows:—Wm. R. Foster, Wm. F. Ham, David E. Junkins, Edward F. Swasey, Edward E. Vaughan, Charles J. Woods.

The declaiming was good,—some of it excellent; and the selections were well chosen. The recitations in chemistry and natural philosophy were creditable to the pupils, and to the instructors—Mr. Lewis C. Smith, Principal, and Mr. Stephen W. Clark, Assistant,—as well. The "Newcastle Town Meeting," a dialogue written by Mr. Clark, was very amusing, and well sustained by a "picked nine" of the scholars. The singing was hardly equal to that at the girls' school exhibition, the boys showing less promptness in commencing; but after getting fairly under weigh, the boys did perhaps as well as the girls,—and "Gratulandum est," to the tune of Yankee Doodle, was given with vim enough to make up for any faults in the other pieces. As at the girls' school, Mr. E. A. Tilton was musical director.

The Haven Medals were awarded as follows: to pupils in their second year of study at this school, for diligent application, &c., Matthew Hehir, Albert E. Woods. [Names mentioned as worthy of medals for same, Cornelius Lewis, Marshall E. Gammon, George A. Holbrook, Richard I. Walden.] In third year, Clarence A. E. Clough, for composition; William H. Gardiner, for book keeping and mathematics; Edward C. Stimson, for diligent application, &c. In fourth year, William R. Foster, for Latin; David E. Junkins, for mathematics. [Honorable mention, William F. Ham.]

We should like to particularize some of the declamations, as of special merit; but where all did so well the task would appear invidious. The whole exhibition was successful—one of the best given by the school for years. Mr. Smith stands high as a teacher; and Mr. Clark, in addition to his other eminent qualifications for his position, is a superior instructor in elocution. How well the scholars profit by their advantages was made evident on this occasion.

The room was decorated with flowers, and filled with scholars and visitors. We arrived a little late, and as a consequence had to stand on a chair in the entry, where we had fine back views of a blue dress, a white dress, a blue-and-white striped dress, a dark green dress, and a boy's head. However, we heard well enough—or should have, if some of the young ladies (and horrid boys) hadn't made so much noise—and felt quite consoled when we saw his Honor the Mayor in a similar position to our own, only he didn't have any chair to stand in. Next time we'll go a little earlier.

☞ Mr. S. B. Plummer of this city has received a telegram from Omaha, announcing the death of his father from drowning. Mr. Plummer was superintendent of the stone work on the Burlington & Missouri River Railroad.

☞ Fair at the Shoals next week. It is no more than fair that it should be ponized.

☞ Another Sunday Evening Excursion down river is announced.

☞ Candidates for admission to the High Schools will be examined at 8 o'clock this morning, at the High School Building on Daniel Street. Candidates must carry certificates of vaccination, paper or slate and pencil, and recommendations from their last teachers.

☞ Mr. John S. Treat has constructed very neat accommodations for his marble works, at the corner of Deer and Vaughan Streets, thereby improving that public corner, (for Mr. Treat is a live man, and goes in for street sprinkling and all other public improvements.) A good stock of headstones and monuments may be found there to select from. Mr. Treat still retains his granite works at the old stand in Green Street.

☞ A little six year old feminine who was desirous of attending the Philharmonic Picnic at the Shoals, last week was considerably anxious about the threatening weather. When the sun's rays appeared through the clouds she was greatly elated and holding out both hands said, "How do you do, sun, glad to see you!" but changed her mind shortly afterwards (when the sun went out of sight,) and said, "Oh! sun, I don't like you; I won't shake hands with you any more."

☞ Mr. J. J. Hatlinger, the Agent of the Little Washer, does not and did not advertise that he had furnished one of his machines to Mrs. James Moses. The name of Mrs. Moses was added to Mr. Hatlinger's list by an error of an employee in this office, and the matter thoroughly explained at the time to the Agent of another machine, who now procures the insertion of a card in another paper from Mrs. Moses denying that she had been furnished with a Hatlinger machine. We say this much in justice to Mr. Hatlinger, who is a gentleman. G.

Communication.

ASTRONOMICAL.—Those who like to survey the planets and view "the spacious firmament on high, with all the blue ethereal sky," have now a fine opportunity, in the morning, of gazing upon the planets Venus, Jupiter and Mars, in the East and North East, they being in close proximity, presenting a beautiful and interesting panorama, the three forming a figure something in shape like an elliptic curve. The best time for visiting the same is about 3 o'clock. Their situation will not be materially altered for a week or more. TYRO.

☞ The Editors' Convention will spend the day and night of Wednesday the 27th of July, at the Ocean House, Rye Beach, holding a grand Levee in the evening. On Thursday morning, the party will probably proceed to the Shoals, returning to Portsmouth, and take cars home.

Gen. Wm. Sutton of Salem has been at the Sagamore House, making arrangements for the Winslow Lewis Encampment of Knights Templars, who will make their third annual excursion to the Sagamore Grounds this Fall.

Maj. Ben. Perley Poore is expected at the Sagamore House on Saturday; and the Newburyport Veterans, of which he is commander, propose to visit this favorite military camping ground in October.

THE PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY go to Shoals to-day on a picnic, to have a good time,—and not as a Musical Society, to give a concert at the Appledore House, as the Boston Herald announced. Some such proceeding was spoken of, but the members seemed to think the weather too hot for singing; besides, they can do that at home—when at the Shoals, they want to tumble over the rocks, or catch fish or seaweed, after dinner. The party will go out in the Appledore, at her usual hour, returning in the evening; and if it don't rain too heavily, will certainly enjoy themselves. Tickets at 75 cts. for the round trip, can be had of members of the Society or at the boat; and all friends of the organization will be welcomed. The steamer Cambridge, with a large party from Boston, will arrive at the Shoals to-day, on an excursion. Between the visitors from Boston and Portsmouth and the boarders at the Appledore, the islands will be well populated.

RICHARDSON'S
LITTLE WASHER, unlike all others, light and portable, weighing only ten pounds, is sold for the small price of five dollars. Adjusts itself to any article from a Pockethandkerchief to a
LARGE BED SPREAD,
without alteration. Can be fitted to any tub, and removed at pleasure.
If you will use this little common sense washing machine, you will do the work of half a day in 2 hours.
RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER does not tear or wear the clothes, no matter how fine the fabric. Clothes are straightened out, and passed back and forth, between the rollers till clean.
Remember and always have a good strong and hot suds.
Put your Pockethandkerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Napkins and Fringes into a sheet or Pillow slip and wash perfectly clean, in two to three minutes. We wash at one time, two or three sheets gathered at the hem, six Pillow slips, six Towels, two or three Cotton Shirts, one pair heavy Pants or two pairs light ones, one heavy Spread or Blanket, always putting the smaller things inside something larger or longer.
Wherever this Little Washer has been introduced it has been unprecedented, having sold upwards of three hundred in Dover, N. H., in less than two months; two thirds of the purchasers had been using awkward, machines costing from five to eighteen dollars; all a failure, one great complaint being that they are heavy and no woman can work them.
Richardson's has taken a Silver Medal in Springfield, Mass., at Mechanic's Fair in 1868, and other places where exhibited.
A Lady who has not washed for three years, told her neighbors she did her washing, with that Little Washer, with ease, consequently they ordered one, and the question all over town is, have you got a little Richardson Washer?

General Gilman Marston of Exeter will leave in a few days to assume the office of Governor of Idaho.

Fourteen States have been represented at Tilden's Seminary, West Lebanon.

John Lanagan, a man about 50 years of age, while attempting to cross the track at the Concord depot, in Nashua, was run over by the engine, tender, baggage and part of the passenger cars, before the train could be stopped. He was not injured at all.

P. B. Cogswell, Esq., an editor of the Concord Monitor, was taken to his house, Tuesday, in an exhausted condition, from the extreme heat.

Dover will have about nine thousand inhabitants by the census.

The present season at the White Mountains has been warmer than for the past twelve years.

Black Inks are the best. The late fire at Manchester proves that heat will obliterate the purple color.

The Labor Journal, the Labor League organ, has suspended publication; as has the N. H. Workman, the Labor Reform organ. There is no need of more papers or more parties in this State.

CURE FOR OBESITY.—Mr. Schindler is the latest addition to the list of persons who have undertaken the treatment and cure of excessive fatness in the human race—this condition being considered by him as a disturbance of the animal economy, in consequence of which the carbon taken in is accumulated in the form of fat. Diet and exercise, as might be expected, constitute the basis of his treatment. As in the method of Mr. Banting, which some years ago was so much in vogue, the diet advised for fat persons consists of food containing a large percentage of nitrogen, to which some vegetables without starch, and cooked fruit, are to be added, for the purpose of moderating the excitation due to animal nourishment. This diet is to be varied, according as individuals are of a sanguine or lymphatic temperament.

The use of certain wines is permitted; beer is, however, entirely forbidden. Coffee and tea are allowed, with as little sugar as possible. Cheese, potatoes, rice, beans, peas, maize, maccaroni, tapioca, arrowroot, and soups are not allowed. The use of sulphate of soda is recommended, as moderating the transformation of nitrogenous materials and stimulating the oxidation of fat; and the use of mineral waters containing the sulphate of soda in solution is considered of the greatest importance in this respect. The waters of Marienbad, which are especially rich in this salt, are stated to have, usually, the most happy effect. Their use, together with that of some alkaline pills, and a strict adherence to the conditions above mentioned, caused a decrease in weight of from twenty-five to sixty pounds in different individuals in the course of a few week.—Harper's Mag. for July.

DRAINING WHICH COSTS NOTHING. When there is no regular farm work pressing I commence a drain. I begin at the lower end and work up hill, keeping the bottom nearly level till I get a depth of four feet; then keep it not less than that depth, letting the water run off behind me. This ditch-digging I keep as knitting work, as it can be taken up at any time when there is nothing else to do, and can be left as readily. If I have any haying to do, and do not wish to start a machine till the dew is off, I say to my man, "You may go to your knitting work till I call you." If a shower stops work on the hay, or if it is too wet to hoe, or I have just finished some job and do not want to begin another to-day, I say, "We will dig in that drain till chore time."

If I am going away with my team, I let my man dig in the ditch. Indeed, I should have found a great many days when I should have had nothing for a man to do, had I not had a piece of draining on hand. Then again, had I not had a steady hired man, my regular farm would have suffered severely at times. So the plan seems to work well all around. The man is sure of constant employment, and gets as much in a month as if he worked by the day, and I get more work for the same pay and the man is just as well satisfied. He makes more time, but runs no risk of being unemployed.

—Clean off the pea vines as soon as they are turned yellow, and replace them with turnips, radishes, &c. See that the cabbages are in a flourishing condition, and if the melon and squash vines show wilted leaves, borers and cut worms are at work at the roots; they must be dug down to (they are generally from one to three inches below the surface of the soil) and killed, or the vines will prove a total failure.

—A writer in the Hearth and Home recommends newly slacked lime for driving off rose bugs and plant lice. Two or three sprinklings will have the desired effect, without any harm to the vines or plants. The editor of the Ploughman has recently tried it on currant worms with complete success.

—None but those who have applied liquid manure to vegetables and plants of various kinds, are aware of its extraordinary effects upon vegetation, especially in dry, hot weather.

—A good deal of the false hair worn by the ladies is cut from the head of convicts.

—The prettier the foot and ankle, the easier it gets up stairs.—N. O. Times.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

FOR ALL PURPOSES of a LAXATIVE MEDICINE,

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The reason is that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its compounding. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can come from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these PILLS rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. dawjeltecdism

MEDICAL MADNESS.

LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of debility, indigestion, dyspepsia, and kindred female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed midsummer madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. "The Men Who Advertise; an account of successful advertisers; together with hints on the method of advertising, the American Newspaper Ratebook, and American Newspaper Directory." This is a large, expensive and handsome volume of 872 pages, from the great Advertising Agency of Geo. P. Rowell & Co. of New York—which is itself the best advertised institution in this country, and Mr. Rowell a very brisk and enterprising master of his profession; and we regard him, like all good Advertising agents, as among the best friends of the press. This book is full of matter of great value to large advertisers, not attainable elsewhere; and contains much reading matter interesting to the general reader.

The N. E. Hist. & Geneological Register and Antiquarian Journal, for July, has among its contents, Rev. Mr. Slafter's Discourse at the 25th Anniversary of the Society; Thomas Sherwin and the Preble Family, both with portraits; The Squamscott Patent, (since pronounced not genuine); First Church in Charlestown, Mass.; Canada Prisoners 1695; Josiah Barker and Shipbuilding; The Coffin Family, including Joshua, the Historian of Newbury; Stephen Bryant and his Descendants,—including Wm. C. of the New York Post; Histories of Mass. and Conn. The Book Notices contain a review of the Rambles About Portsmouth. We have marked several selections from this No. for our columns. It is the only publication of the sort in New England, and there ought to be a good list of subscribers in the old historic town of Portsmouth. It is ably edited by Col. A. H. Hoyt, formerly of this city; and published quarterly at $3 per year, at 17 Bromfield Street, Boston.

The July Monthly Part of Oliver Optic's Magazine contains the opening chapters of "Plane and Plank, or The Mishaps of a Mechanic," the second of Oliver Optic's new "Onward and Upward Series;" excellent stories, including "Pierre and Pierrette," a beautiful translation from the French, letters from Oliver Optic, puzzles, four full-page pictures, and other illustrations, poetry, sketches, and a great variety of useful and entertaining matter. Published in weekly and monthly editions by Lee & Shepard, 149 Washington Street, Boston, at $2.50 a year.

The Atlantic Monthly for August is received at the bookstores. As usual, it has a readable budget of literature, science, art and politics—for politics have come to be discussed in nearly all the Magazines, as well as pulpits.

The Galaxy for August opens with the beginning of a novel entitled "Overland" by a writer who conceals his name. Special interest attaches to Mr. Thurlow Weed's bundle of "Diplomatic Incidents," to Mr. Justin McCarty's essay on Lord Lytton, and to Mr. Richard Grant White's paper on "The Styles of Disraeli and Dickens;" and the number is otherwise as strong as usual, except that Mark Twain's contribution is made brief by his illness. A portrait of the humorist is given to make up the deficiency as far as possible.

Our Young Folks for August. "We Girls, a Home Story," is continued, and all the usual attractions. Next month a new sketch from Mrs. Stowe. From Fields, Osgood & Co., publishers: 20 cts. per No., $2 a year.

The Cost of Labor and Subsistence in the U. S., in 1869, compared with previous years, is the title of a pamphlet by Edward Young, Chief of the Bureau of Statistics — issued from the Govt. Printing Office at Washington. May be seen at the Mech's Reading Room.

From O. Ditson & Co. of Boston, we have several pieces of New Sheet Music, from the inexhaustible stock of this house.

Harper's Monthly, (promptly on hand as usual,) contains the usual amount and variety of amusing and instructive matter which has made it deservedly popular.

—A carious confessor who had listened with as much surprise as attention to a young woman who had disclosed the state of her mind to him, at last inquired her name. With the presence of mind peculiar to herself, she replied, "My good father, my name is no sin."

FRIDAY, JULY 22, 1870.

WAR NEWS.—A gentleman who has just returned from a trip up the Rhine tells his experience to the London Times. He says that the German army is quiet, grave, anxious and resolute. On the other hand, the French are yelling, drinking, swaggering, and literally spoiling for a fight. He says that for every one German soldier he saw a hundred French.

Up to Wednesday noon, no reliable news of any engagement, either by land or sea, has been received in London. The rumors of alliances are still rumors only. No authentic information of any power having taken sides with either of the combatants has been made public.

In Paris, Wednesday, it was stated that no fighting on sea or land has yet been reported. The deputies from the departments of the Rhine, are kept well informed by telegraph of the movements of the army, and they state that no important conflict has yet taken place between the hostile forces, that no blood has been spilt and not a gun has been fired.

It is said in Berlin that the failure of the intrigue by the Empress Eugenie to marry her niece, the Duchess of Alba, to Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern, is the real source of the present trouble between France and Prussia. The father of the Duchess is in Madrid, drowned in debt and generally despised.

The London Gazette publishes the proclamation of the neutrality of the government of Great Britain during the war between Prussia and France; and it is reported that England, Russia and America, propose the neutralization of the Baltic and North Seas.

In answer to a dispatch sent by Chicago Germans to King William of Prussia, he returned the answer, "I thank you, and feel convinced that Germany will answer the hopes of her countrymen beyond the sea."

The Spanish papers unanimously condemn Napoleon for declaring war.

Wutemburg and Bavaria have notified France that they join Prussia. The Grand Duchy of Hesse Darmstadt has voted a large war loan. According to accounts from Rome, the Pope openly favors Prussia.

The French fleet has passed through the Sound and entered the Baltic.

The British Government is considering the question of dispatching troops across the channel to presere the neutrality of Belgium.

The mouth of the river Weser has been closed with sunken hulks, to prevent the entrance of the French Navy.

It is said France gives the sovereignty of Rome to Italy.

Three hundred Americans in Paris have volunteered for the French army —so the cable says.

The New York Fenians express sympathy for France, and denounce England. [If they do as well in this war as they did in the baru-yard campaign in Canada, England and Prussia may count themselves "gone up."]

A Paris journal says the war is "God's intervention to check Protestantism."

Gleaned and Ground.

It has been judicially decided that a violation of the election law in one ward vitiated the late municipal election, in Richmond, Va., and another municipal election must be held.

The number of deaths by sunstroke reported in New York, Tuesday, was 35; 30 other cases reported were not fatal. There were 15 fatal cases Wednesday.

B. F. Lindsay, who was shot Tuesday, for ruining his wife's sister, by Captain W. F. Hayward, her father, at Chester, Va., died Wednesday morning.

Great efforts are being made to establish an America line of ocean mail steamers.

Ship Bengal, of Boston, ran down and sunk British barque Royal Berkshire, at sea, May 28. Seven persons were lost, one of them a woman. Eight were saved. The barque had no one on the lookout—all were at work catching rain water.

Senator Ames and Blanche Butler were married Thursday evening.

Gold, Thursday, 121 3-4.

Harvards 15, Mutuals 22.

Hayward, who killed his son-in-law, Lindsey, for the seduction of his daughter, was discharged from custody Wednesday.

—The man in possession is always the man to respect. A Paris deputy replied to another, who was extolling M. Ollivier, "He is marvellous in duty, and only one man that I know is his superior." "Which one?" "The one that will succeed M. Ollivier," was the neat reply.

RAMBLES ABOUT PORTSMOUTH, Second Series.—The following remarks of the editor, more on our city than on this book, we think are worthy consideration. The very complimentary and very just commendation of the Rambles, we need not repeat in these columns, having long since given the work our full meed of praise.

It is probable that no where else among the early provincial settlements of New England can there be found so many elements of romantic history as in this comparatively old town and region. For about two hundred years the evidences of its prosperity slowly but steadily increased. It came at an early period to be the abode of a class of people who were not surpassed in intelligence, refinement and enterprise by any other New England community. Here the royal governors resided, and maintained no inconsiderable degree of that courtly ceremony and etiquette which characterized the social life of the Province, and which is still seen in a few families.

Up to the eve of the revolutionary war her people were eminently loyal; a pleasant and close intercourse prevailed between her leading men and the ruling class of England; while disturbances of a civil or of an ecclesiastical nature were few in number and temporary in duration. Being the chief maritime town in the Province, it became the centre of commercial interests which eventually reached to all parts of the globe and yielded ample returns of wealth, a liberal portion of which was expended by its owners in building handsome and spacious family mansions, in erecting churches, in the maintenance of excellent schools, and in a generous dispensing of social hospitalities.

During the last fifty years, however, Portsmouth has not keep pace with some other New England towns less favored by nature. Her once considerable commerce has dwindled into insignificance; many of her oldest and leading families have disappeared; thousands of her sons and daughters have emigrated to more inviting fields, and her chief interests are, for the most part, in the hands of men who are not native to the soil. Her large aggregate wealth has been diverted, in the main, to the development of other sections of the country, and her great natural resources—her excellent harbor, her noble river, navigable at all seasons of the year, and the frequent opportunities she had to connect herself by railways with a vast and productive interior country, have not been and do not seem likely to be fully utilized. Portland, much less favored by nature, and much younger in years, under better auspices is making rapid strides in a career of prosperity.

But, whatever of a like character may occur hereafter, the picturesque scenery of old "Strawberry Bank" will continue to attract the visitor, and her traditions and romantic history will never cease to interest the antiquarian and historian. Happily much of this history has been gathered into the printed page, and that much of "the past is secure." The "Annals of Portsmouth," compiled by Col. Nathaniel Adams, and published in 1822, has long been a rare book. In 1859, Mr. Charles W. Brewster republished from his paper, the Portsmouth Journal, a series of "Rambles about Portsmouth," the materials for which he had been collecting during many years. This unique and exceedingly valuable book was noticed in the Register, and the frequent references in these pages to its treasures of local and family history, attest alike their interest and importance. * * * * * * * *

RACING AT DOVER.—Two horse races came off at the Fair Grounds, Dover, on Tuesday, the first being for a purse of $75. It was won by Lilla in 2:53 3-4. The second race ($100 purse) was won by Richmond Boy in 2:45 1-2. Both horses are owned in Boston.

There were two races at Cocheco Park, Dover, on Wednesday. For the first purse, ($100,) there were five entries, including W. Locke's Rosa Bonheur. Lilla won in 2:51, 2:44 3-4, 2:46. The second race (also for $100,) for horses that never beat 2:35, was won by Fanny, owned by D. Higley of Boston, in three straight heats, time 2:42 3-4, 2:43, 2:42 1-2. There were five entries, but only two horses started.

RELIGIOUS.—The Methodist Society at South Newmarket intends to put a Vestry, with other rooms, under the church. The ladies have had a fair and cleared $300 for the purpose.

The Seabrook Methodist Society is having good interest.

—Never hold anybody by the button or hand, in order to be heard out; for if people are not willing to hear you, you had much better hold you tongue than them.

For the Chronicle and Gazette.

HAYING.—People are liable to extremes. Once grass was suffered to stand so long that it became dead and was not good for fodder. Now it seems to us some cut it too early; it is not fully grown, so that the hay is less in quantity than it would be, and the quality is not good. It should approach ripeness or be ripe, to be good. Green fruit is not healthy for man. Cucumbers are about all that we prefer very green. But they are not very healthy. Put horses or sheep into very green feed, and they do not thrive. And why is it that so many animals, fed in barns, come out quite poor in Spring? Is not the early cutting of hay some cause of it? J.

[We think not. Doubtless hay might be cut too early, but very little is in this region, we are sure.—Eds. Chronicle.]

MULCHING BEARING FRUIT TREES.—There is no doubt now by our most intelligent horticulturists about the practical advantages to be gained by mulching the surface of the orchard and fruit garden. This should be more generally practiced in fruit-producing districts, for it is the least expensive and more effective method of protecting the fruit trees against the bad results often following the frequent and sudden changes of temperature during the summer and fall months, when the surface of ground is left exposed to the direct rays of the sun. Again, when the mulch is put two or three inches in thickness, the surface soil is constantly moist and loose, even when no rain falls for a term of several weeks, and the trees or fruit receive no check for want of moisture and food under such circumstances.

My method is to cultivate the spaces between the rows of trees in the orchard, using a small one-horse plough and cultivator, running not more than two inches deep, during the early part of the season. From the 1st of July I have put on a heavy coating of salt hay, covering the surface as far as the branches extend. After this there is no more trouble with weeds and grass. There may a few scattered ones start up, but they are easily destroyed.

Every fruit-grower knows that two or three weeks before the time of gathering the main crop of fruit, fine specimens are constantly falling off or blown off by strong winds. When the ground is mulched the majority of species are not bruised or injured for sale. This saving alone consider, pays me for the trouble of mulching the orchard.

There is only one serious drawback to the application of mulch, that is the danger of the hay or straw getting on fire when rendered dry by continual warm weather.—P. T. Quinn in N. Y. Tribune.

—In a neighboring city lives Mr. Malaprope, husband of the late Mrs. Malaprope, a man slightly pretentious, fond of display, and somewhat ignorant. Recently entertaining a party of gentlemen at his house, which he had gorgeously refurnished, he called their attention to a showy carpet on one of the apartments, with the remark: "There, gentlemen, that is one of the best carpets Mr. Brussels ever made."

—Cook. "Please 'm, I wishes to give warning." Mistress (surprised). "Why, what's the matter?" Cook. "The fact is, mum, I'm going to get married!" Mistress. "Why, Cook, I did not know you were engaged!" Cook. "Which I am not exactly engaged as yet mum; but I feels myself to be of that 'appy disposition as I could love any man, mum!"

—An epitaph on a husband and wife, in a country church, we are informed, concludes with a holy quotation meant to be polite, but which may certainly be construed in two ways. It is as follows: "Their warfare is accomplished."

—An Iowa paper tells of a smart wife that helped her husband to raise seventy acres of wheat. The way she helped him was to stand in the door and shake a broom at him when he sat down to rest.

THAT IRON IS VALUABLE AS A MEDICINE, has long been known, but it is only since its preparation in the particular form of Peruvian Syrup that its full power over disease has been brought to light. Its effect in cases of debility and dyspepsia is most salutary.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Build up the System.

Strength evaporates fast at this season. This is especially the case with those who live by the sweat of their brow. From every pore of the sleeve-like skin a moisture exudes which contain the element of vitality. Thereby the blood is impoverished, the nerves relaxed, the muscles weakened, the digestion impaired, the bowels disturbed, and the animal spirits depressed. The constant drain that produces these effects cannot be arrested, because it is due to the heat of the atmosphere; but the loss of the life-sustained elements can be supposed by extra invigoration. Now, therefore, is the time to resort to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most powerful and healthful of all vegetable tonics. Long experience has proved that nothing else will efficiently sustain and regulate the system, when wilting down under the double pressure of excessive heat, and constant physical or mental labor.

All persons who have been tempted to try the local "tonics" (so-called) which have been started by sordid speculators in almost every town and village, with a view of "turning a penny" by the credulity of the unwary, know this to their cost. It is a wise maxim that says "hold fast that which is good." Of the the forty millions of people in the United States, probably one-fifth have tested the restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters and know it to be a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, general debility, constipation, fever and ague, and want of appetite; that any of these should be persuaded to experiment with the worthless nostrums, recommended by unscrupulous and ignorant empirics seems almost incredible.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise count. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

Besides which, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Bruises, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Mumps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Spasms, Old Sores and Pains in the Limbs, Back, Chest. PAIN KILLER.

Perry Davis & Son, Proprietors, 1840. PROVIDENCE, R. I. 1870.

Time tests the Merits of all Things.

FOR THIRTY YEARS!

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER

This valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries, upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, or the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the PAIN KILLER is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

Directions accompany each bottle. Price 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1.00 per Bottle.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is now restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Salt—C. E. Walker & Co.
General Ins. Agent Wanted—John M. Falk.

OUR LITTLE NELLIE has gone home. Not to her loving mother's and kind father's earthly residence—alas! naught but the aching void of her absence will e'er again be know there. But to her Heavenly Father, who loaned her here to bless, for a short season; and has called her to his arms again. Oh! all too soon.

Nellie was the only soft-sexed little one of her fond parents, and helped to fill the loss of a brother dear. She was spending a few days with friends who half loved her as their own, when that tremendous necessity, death, came to blight the earthly bud and crush the dearest hopes. For a few short days her bright spirit struggled to retain its earthly tabernacle; and, hoping against hope, loving friends unwearyingly sought to stay the fell disease. But it was not to be. The little heart grew weak, faint and fainter the quivering pulse,—and all was still. The darling one was no more.

Nellie said she wished to get well; but without being told so at all, seemed to be aware she could not recover. And what seems very strange to us, for one of such tender years, she asked to see all her friends who were near, gave her playthings to her brother, two years older; said to her mother, "Don't cry for me, mamma, I aint worth much;" repeated the Lord's prayer of her own accord, and several little nursery rhymes, including "Now I lay me down to sleep," asked her mother to take her up, and laying rocking in her fond arms, sweetly, imperceptibly fell asleep — the slumber that knows no waking.

She had told even respecting the flowers she wished to decorate her last toilet — this tasteful little one; and when her sorrowing friends gathered for her the last wreath and bouquet, her earthly senses might not enjoy, some of the bloom was cut from the very spot she called her garden. But Nellie has gone home—and grieve we must; but not as those who may not be comforted, now that our lost pet has entered upon

Those everlasting gardens,
Where angels walk and seraphs are the wardens.

Sorrowingly, F.

EAST AND WEST.—The prospectus of the Omaha Tribune, to be conducted by Hon. Joseph B. Hall, recently of Portland, Me., announces its appearance on the 20th of July. It will be a Republican paper, and promises to "strive to reform society by judicious and practical methods, rather than by the fanciful theories of impracticable visionaries."

December 1, 1857, this same Mr. Hall commenced the publication of the Pioneer in Presque Isle, Maine, the most north-easterly point in this Union in which a newspaper was ever published. The site on which now stands Omaha was then an unvisited wilderness. Success to Brother Hall.

We are also in receipt of The Antioch Ledger, a neat little weekly published in Contra Costa County, California, by Townsend & Waite—the senior being Mr. James W. Townsend, formerly of this city, and employed in this office. He was one of our first carriers, and the first apprentice ever accepted on the Chronicle; and of our first half dozen carriers, one is now our partner, one a lawyer and another a clergyman in Boston; and another is publisher of a paper in Alabama. Verily, we must be growing old, as well as the Chronicle. F.

☞ The Appledore House at the Shoals is so full that guests are accommodated with beds set up in the boathouse.

The spacious Ocean House at Rye Beach is fast filling up. Their fine Band will arrive on the 25th inst., in season to keep the Editors in tune.

Boar's Head Hotel is chock full.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—In my article published in yesterday's Chronicle, on the police question, I was made to say "implicit" statement, when I wrote implied. As the difference of meaning is marked, will you please correct the same, and oblige Yours, PENCIL.

☞ The Plumbing work in the new house of Mr. John H. Folsom, on Vaughan Street, is much admired by numerous visitors. It was executed by Mr. P. A. McCarthy, of this city, whose shop is on Church Hill, Bow Street, and who will be found a reliable man and good workman.

☞ The meeting for the formation of a Zouave company at the City Rooms, on Tuesday evening, was adjourned without definite action. Due notice will be given of the next meeting.

BAD SPECULATION.—A young fellow named Neal hired a horse of a stablekeeper named Clark, in Portland, on Wednesday, got a companion and went to Biddeford, where the pair were joined by another—the trio then coming to this city. City Marshal Johnson saw them on Thursday, shortly after their arrival, and took them to the lockup on suspicion. There he pumped out of them what they had been at, and then telegraphed to Portland of their arrest, receiving in answer instructions to hold the men and the team. The owner of the latter arrived in Portsmouth and identified his property and the youth who hired it, on Thursday evening. We are informed that they had offered the team for sale here, and that one of their number has confessed their whole plan, which was, to sell out and then go to Boston. This city is a wretchedly poor place for rogues to come to, for a large proportion of their number come to grief here, notwithstanding the "uselessness" of our police force. The City Marshal deserves much credit for this capture, which was made wholly on suspicion, he not having received any notice of the appropriation of the team.

☞ E. N. Fuller, Esq., of the Newark (N. J.) Journal, formerly of this city, writes that he shall endeavor to put in an appearance at the Editors' Convention, at Rye Beach next week. Brother Fuller is a very able and pleasant member of the profession; and to him is it in no small degree due, that New Hampshire has the best local papers of almost any State in the Union. Hosts of old friends here will gladly greet him.

G. A. R.—At a regular meeting of Storer Encampment, Post No. I, G. A. R., Dept. of New Hampshire, the following comrades were duly installed as officers for the current term: John H. Locke, Com.; William H. Lovel, S. V. C.; J. Frank Adams, J. V. C.; John H. Mawbey, Adjt.; William Nellins, Q. M.; E. H. Leslie, Segt. Maj.; George Tripp, Q. M. Segt.

☞ The beautiful yacht North Star, Capt. Tower, from Cohasset Mass., was drifting about in our lower harbor Thursday. She is known to many of our citizens, as one of the handsomest little vessels that visits our waters.—It is said Thursday was the most uncomfortable day of the season, at Newcastle, the heat being oppressive, and not a breath of air stirring.

☞ A large and good hay-crop is pretty nearly housed in this vicinity. The weather has been uncommonly favorable. The fruit crop promises well.

☞ A rare opportunity is offered in our advertising columns, to obtain a really good situation as Agent of a first-class Life Insurance Co.

☞ C. E. Walker & Co. advertise Salt at the lowest prices.

SHIPBUILDING AT KENNEBUNKPORT. Capt. Nathaniel L. Thompson is building a superior three-deck ship, about 2000 tons, which is well advanced, and David Clark is rebuilding the brig P. M. Tinker, of Boston, at his yard.

RICHARDSON'S
LITTLE WASHER, unlike all others, is light and portable, weighing only ten pounds, is sold for the small price of five dollars. Adjusts itself to any article from a Pocket handkerchief to a
LARGE BED SPREAD,
without alteration. Can be fitted to any tub, and removed at pleasure.
If you will use this little common sense washing machine, you will do the work of half a day in 2 hours.
RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER does not tear or wear the clothes, no matter how fine the fabric. Clothes are straightened out, and passed back and forth, between the rollers till clean.
Remember and always have a good strong and hot side.
Put your Pocket handkerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Napkins and Fringes into a sheet or Pillow slip and wash perfectly clean, in two to three minutes. We wash at one time, two or three sheets gathered at the hem, six Pillow slips, six Towels, two or three Cotton Shirts, one pair heavy Pants or two pairs light ones, one heavy Spread or Blanket, always putting the smaller things inside something larger or longer.
Wherever this Little Washer has been introduced the sale has been unprecedented, having sold upwards of three hundred in Dover, N. H., in less than two months; two thirds of the purchasers had been using large awkward machines costing from five to eighteen dollars; in failure, one great complaint being that they are heavy and no woman can work them.
Richardson has taken a Silver Medal in Springfield, Mass., at Mechanic's Fair in 1868, and other places where exhibited.
A Lady who has not washed for three years, told her neighbors she did her washing, with that Little Washer, with ease, consequently they ordered one, and the question all over town is, have you got a RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER?

TERRAPIN WANTED,
my23 At the Rockingham House.

Morning Chronicle.

(Correspondence of the Chronicle and Gazette.

BOSTON, July 20.

The can't-get-aways have been enjoying a heated term for a few days preceding yesterday, but the cool breeze of Tuesday has mollified them somewhat. The Eastern Railroad has been doing an immense passenger business, conveying large numbers of people eager to inhale the cool breezes at the popular seaside resorts, so numerous in your vicinity. The elegant cars, courteous conductors, and efficient management of the Eastern have won for it high encomiums from the throngs who have passed over the road on their way to the beaches and islands. So much is being constantly done to increase the comforts of this route that it is hard to particularize every improvement.

At the Shoals many important changes have been made since last year, and the great crowd of guests at the Appledore House warns the Messrs. Laighton that their projected addition to the house will be fully warranted. We understand that the coming winter will witness the erection of a large extension of the main building at its eastern extremity. The removal of the group of buildings in the rear of the hotel, the better supply of water by means of horse power and cisterns, the improved closets, and the excellent working of the new propellor in their staunch little steamer, are all subjects of congratulation to the Norse kings of Appledore—Oscar and Cedric.

At the Farragut many changes have been wrought, with much outlay and labor, which are bringing a good harvest in the multitude of seekers for health and pleasure, that visit the combined Farragut and Atlantic House, but none more striking than the cosy hall for dancing which has been constructed in the latter.

The Sagamore, rich in all its appointments and beautiful in its surroundings, is so pleasing to all who are so fortunate as to be domiciled therein, that I hardly need say more than that the Messrs. Peirce will keep it up to the high standard with which they opened it a year or two since. Combined with their excellent hotel—(the Rockingham)—in your city, they will have two of the finest public houses in the State when the new wing to the latter house shall have been finished.

Notwithstanding so many consider beer a too tonic drink, I am satisfied that our cousins German nor any of the rest of our foreign relations are not so much to be credited with its introduction here as the aborigines. Those old Indians were powerful for drinking slops, and so we have glaring signs of Ottawa Beer, Chippewa Beer, Mohawk Beer, &c.—the only difference between them being that each kind is a nastier slop than any of the rest.

A current item in late papers states that a farmer in Greenfield, Mich., attempted to rid his barn of numerous swallows' nests under the eaves, for which purpose he mounted a long ladder, but he had scarce commenced the work of demolition before he was attacked by the fierce little creatures, who made vigorous efforts to dig out his eyes, and as the farmer raised his hand to fight off his tormentors, his support slipped and fell, carrying him to the ground, the fall breaking a rib and giving him some severe bruises. A lady residing in the outskirts of your city informs me of a curious freak of the swallows that cluster around the numerous outbuildings upon the farm. A flock of large hens has been selected by these fleet-winged little pirates as a fair quarry from whence to draw the soft inner lining for their mud nests. When the great Shanghais and Dorkings emerge into an open yard, a bevy of feathered brigands dash like an avalanche from the nearest barn upon the ungainly prey, each swallow grasps a feather in its bill, gives it a sudden twitch which ensures its plucking, and bears it in triumph to feather its own nest. The noise and disgust with which the larger fowl receive these visitations are something ludicrous to the beholder.

A man in Troy, 103 years old, hauls a wagon about the streets in the capacity of scavenger. He is a French Canadian by birth and his name is Pickard.

A cockney friend suggests that "Pickard has 'ard picking."

A recent alarm of fire in Philadelphia was caused by an appearance of smoke around a church spire. The firemen hurrying to the spot, found it a cloud of minute gnats.

I remember a curious cause of an alarm of fire which occurred in New Orleans some years since. The massive square tower of St. Patrick's Cathedral was used as a point of observation by the fire department, and when early one morning the telegraph announced an alarm from that box, the building was speedily surrounded by steam fire engines. In the dim light of morning a dense cloud of smoke seemed pouring from the windows on each side of the lofty pile of masonry. The watchman looked with surprise on the concourse of firemen below, and well he might, for the alarm had been sounded from the street box below, and was caused by a mass of heavy fog which had clung to the tower while all around the rest of the atmosphere was clear.

M.

☞ The Nashua Telegraph, and all others interested, are informed that we have never changed our opinion as to the Concord Railroad dispute; and that we do not endorse all items we copy, more than other newspaper publishers do. We did not at first see how the matter was to come before the Legislature; but were glad to see it there, and to help approve the action of so able and fair an examining committee as had it in charge.

As to this man or that being bribed, or retained; or this newspaper, or Court, or official—this must be mere matter of opinion, and we don't see that any moral point is necessarily involved. The Telegraph, we presume, is printed to make money, like any other business; and while no honorable, high-minded editor could be hired to advocate what he regards as wrong, we don't see that he is called upon to devote his time and money for the benefit of others, without proper remuneration, even if he be of the same way of thinking.

Nor do we think that the Concord Patriot acting with the majority of their fellow citizens on this point, and against the Ring, is any stronger proof that that paper is paid for its services—than the Telegraph's siding with the Ring, (under the plea of technical legality, or what not,) and against the evident majority of Nashua's best men. For our part, we have never accused anybody of bribery in this connection; but we do think it is at least as reasonable to suspect the petty Senate, as for them to accuse the great House, or for the ring organs to charge everybody with fraud, illegality and corruption.

New Hampshire Items.

Mr. John M. Peavy, of Nashua, was drowned on Sunday last while bathing. His age was about 25 years.

A boy in Concord fell down through a hatchway from the third story, in Downing & Abbott's Carriage Factory; but was caught by the leg, by a man named Lor on the lower floor, before he struck, and his life thus saved.

Mrs. James Gilman of Springfield, went to carry her husband his dinner, while felling trees in the woods; and a tree fell upon and killed her.

—A witty lawyer once jocosely asked a boarding house keeper the following questions: "Mr. Smith, if a man gives you $100 to keep for him, and dies, what do you do? Do you pray for him?" "No, sir," replied Mr. Smith, "I pray for another like him."

MEDICAL MADNESS.
LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous nostrums in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed inhumanner madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the great Chemist of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jy1w

GROWING OLD.

BY MARTHA REMICK.

He has won a place of honor,
All lovely though it be,
In the deeply furrowed temples,
Marks of conflict you can see.
Every day the skillful graver
Has been busy at his art,
Here and there a touch disclosing,
Hidden secrets of the heart.

He has won a place of honor
By a true and loyal life,—
Such as those they come up nobly,
Through the conflict and the strife.
He has labored with the talents,
Which were given to his care,
And the good name that is due him,
He may well be proud to wear.

He has won his place of honor;
Now his locks are silver gray;
He has borne the heat and burden,
Of the weary winding way.
This is better than the spring-time;
It is Autumn with its store,
Rich in good deeds and the memories
That will last forevermore!

He is growing old! the spirit
Is passing to her goal,
There is not such a sentence
For the immortal soul!
The lives that have been noble,
And gen'rous, just, and true,
By all are deeply honored.
Alas, that they are few!

MULCHING FRUIT TREES.—Rev. A. G. Comings, of Lee, writes to the New England Farmer as follows:

"Last year, in a pasture where some colts were, a sweet apple tree was in full fruiting. The fruit being of higher value because of scarcity, I desired to save the wind-falls. It was upon quite dry ground, and much of the fruit usually fell off early; although it was a fine-flavored apple which would keep until mid-winter. I had heard reports of their keeping until nearly summer.

There were grey birch trees in part of the same pasture, and to save the apples from the colts, birches were cut in August, and hauled whole and put under the apple tree, enough to bar the colts. Drought did not seem to affect the apples; but they kept on growing, and stuck to the tree. Very few indeed fell off, even when there was severe wind. About the first of October it was difficult to pick them off, they adhered so firmly. They had also grown much larger than ever before since the tree came into my possession. They kept finely during the winter, and during the month of June I have eaten some of them, still in excellent flavor. This is to me very suggestive, and I pass it to you for the Farmer.

The grass grew under the birches and rotted there, keeping the surface of the ground moist. Will not others try it?"

WOOD ASHES.—Many farmers are in the habit of selling the wood ashes that they make to soap makers, for fifteen to twenty cents a bushel. Our advice is, the next time an ash cart comes along, the driver exclaiming "any ashes to sell?" to reply "no," emphatically, "you needn't call here again. We are not such fools as to sell ashes at fifteen cents a bushel, when they are worth fifty cents a bushel to us."

Well, they are worth fifty cents a bushel to any farmer, if they are pure wood ashes. Coal ashes are not worth carting to the field. The chemical constituents of wood ashes are silicia, alumina, oxide of iron, oxide manganese, potash, soda, sulphuric acid, phosphoric acid, chlorine, and carbonic acid.

These constituents are all essential to the growth of vegetation; but potash, the principal constituent, is the most important. It decomposes organic substances, and renders many inorganic substances soluble.

Sandy soils are benefitted by the application of wood ashes; and the following crops are particularly increased by applying ashes; potatoes, carrots, corn, beans, peas, clover and grass generally.

A compost made of hen manure, soil and ashes is a powerful fertilizer for corn. Put about three parts of any finely pulverized soil to one part of hen manure and two parts of unleached wood ashes. Mix well in March or April, wetting the compost thoroughly; and at corn planting time it will be in good condition to use. Apply a handful to a hill, and the result will be satisfactory.—Rural American.

—A correspondent of the Country Gentleman says that tomatoes want water almost as much as ducks, but as the vine is hardy and will stand almost any amount of heat and drought, few supply the water it demands. In order to make tomatoes ripen quickly, they should be watered at least once a day. The evening is the best time to water them.

—The poet Longfellow was on one occasion at a dinner party at which Nicholas Longworth was also present. Some one remarked to Mr. Longfellow that his name and that of Mr. Longworth's started out alike, but made a very dissimilar ending. Yes, replied the poet, and it affords only another proof, I am afraid—that worth makes the man, the want of it the fellow.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in the evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named J. B. Ustell, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
ECCLES & HINKLE, Druggists.

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTFORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.,

DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have suffered by spells very much for a few days past, but yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians for nearly all my life and trying all the best advertised Remedies, in the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable Medicine, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a valuable suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. S. LAREN.

DR. KEYSER

is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold.

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—infusions, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,
149 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Penn.
August 11, 1865.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting me to write for advertising was duly received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Incosed please find our rates o advertising. Yours, T. B. H. STENHOUSE,
Ed'r and Prop'r of Telegraph.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.

TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. Have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about, I could not rest night or day.

It would soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had not much faith in it. Why should I, when I had been trying so many things that cost me much? Well, I began taking it, but before I had taken the first bottle I felt bad; but I finished it and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (relatively). When I had taken it I seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I felt so, before I had finished the second bottle, that I had madeup my mind it was of no use trying any more—but all this time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after this I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was all right as regards the flow and stopping it off again. It was so for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces where it seemed to grow. It looks the color of a mud turtle, and is as hard as flint. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, although I was forcing so hard. I procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind; but since that has passed, which is eight weeks ago this Sunday, I have been as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone nicely wrapped, and those who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are at liberty to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire; also in Connecticut. The advertisement caught my eye. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write all day, but I think I have said enough this time. I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu presented to the Institute have been used by the children, with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowledge of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Boarding Schools and Asylums a great amount of anxiety, and many a poor child suffering more from Weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment, that is not knowing it as a weakness instead of a bad habit; most unjustly inflicted upon them, and bringing you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG, General Sup't and Director.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 26, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations, and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your Fluid Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients it was made up from, or unless I saw your Remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of Buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me that the combination was an excellent combination; and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the Druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I did not dare like writing to you a full statement of my case at the time, for I thought my improvement might only be temporary, and I determined to wait longer, and see if it would effects a perfect cure, knowing that it would be of greater value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months. I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

M. MCCORMICK.

Should any doubt Mr. McCormick's statement, he refers to the following gentlemen:

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

FOR ALL PURPOSES of a LAXATIVE MEDICINE,

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PILL. The obvious reason is that it is a more reliable and far more efficacious remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends and are thus informed that what it does it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of the most remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing no mercury, mineral or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these PILLS rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor, Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a cathartic.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is their advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. dawjel8eod1m

An attempt was made by the House at the last session of the Legislature to increase the Judges to eight, as the present force is now overworked; but the measure met its death in the Senate. War News.—The French government refuses to exempt the North German steamers from capture, except those at sea, ignorant of the war, which may enter French ports.

Italy promises to maintain a friendly attitude toward France. The latter declines other aid unless Austria interferes. Russia seems inclined to favor the Germans.

The French army is concentrating within a quadrilateral formed by the towns of Nancy, Thionville, Strasburg and Mayence. South of Strasburg is an intrenched camp at Belfont, where a corps d'armee is taking up its position to form the right of the French army. Another corps will be in reserve at Chalons sur Maine. The entire army will be composed of eight corps, each consisting of three or four divisions of infantry and six or eight regiments of cavalry. Each division will have three batteries of artillery, one company of engineers and will comprise from ten to twelve thousand men.

The commanders of corps are as follows; First Corps, Marshal McMahon, Duke de Magenta; Second Corps, Barbon Frossard, General of Division; Third Corps, Marshal Bazaine; Fourth Corps, Count L'Admirault, General of Division; Fifth Corps, De Failly, General of Division; Sixth Corps, Marshal Canrobert; Seventh Corps, Felix Douay, General of Division; Major-General of the Army, General Edmund Labœuf; Assistant Major-Generals, LeBrun and Jarras; Commander-in-Chief of the Artillery, General Soleille; Commander-in-Chief of Engineers, General Coffineres de Noneck.

The Eastern Budget (semi-official Austrian journal) denies that the sympathy of Austria is with Germany. According to accounts from Rome the Pope openly favors Prussia.

BRIGHTON CATTLE MARKET.
FOR THE WEEK ENDING WEDNESDAY, JULY 20.
[Reported for the Boston Journal.]

At market for the current week—Cattle 2248; Sheep and Lambs 10,290; Swine 2275; number of Western Cattle 1631; Eastern Cattle 182; Northern Cattle and Working Oxen 330. Cattle left over 162.

Prices Beef Cattle—Extra $12 50 @ $14 25; first quality $12 50 @ $13 25; second quality $11 25 @ $12 50; third quality $10 00 @$11 25; poorest grade of coarse Oxen, Bulls, &c., $7 00 @ $9 50 ℔ cwt, (the total weight of hides, tallow and dressed beef.)

Brighton Hides 7@7½ ℔ lb; Country Hides 6¼ @ 7c ℔ lb.

Brighton Tallow 6¼ @ 7c per lb; Country Tallow 6 @ 6½c ℔ lb.

Sheep and Lamb Skins 25 @ 50c each; Calf Skins 16 @ 17c ℔ lb.

The Cattle from the West were better this week than those of last, but there were but few lots of very nice Cattle in market. The trade has not been so quick, and prices upon the common grades not quite so high. A few of the best Cattle were sold at 14 @ 14½ ℔ lb, but better grades of common Beeves did not sell for much more than poorer ones last week. Several of the best lots were taken at commission. The Maine Cattle were mostly sold for Beef and Stores; there were but few Working Oxen among them.

Store Cattle—With the exception of Working Oxen and Milch Cows there are but a few Cattle in market. Most of the small Cattle that are in a fair condition are bought up to slaughter.

Working Oxen—The trade for Workers has been quite slow a few weeks past, and a few pairs each week is all that the market requires. We quote sales at $125, $172, $185, $205, $220 @ $245 ℔ pair.

Milch Cows—Extra $85 @ $115; ordinary $50 @ $80; Store Cows $35 @ $55 ℔ head. Most of the Cows in market are of a common grade. Prices depend much upon the fancy of the purchaser.

Sheep and Lambs—Nearly all the Western and also the Eastern Sheep and Lambs were taken at a commission or to slaughter and market for droves. We did not hear of but one lot of Lambs being sold, at ⅝ ¢ ℔ lb head. We quote prices of extra and select lots at $6 50 @ $8; ordinary $3 @ $6 ℔ head, or from 4 @ 6c ℔ lb.

Swine—Fat Hogs, 2700 at market; prices 10 @ 10½c ℔ lb. There were but few Store Pigs in market, all of which were sold to one man at 12c ℔ lb. There has not been much call for Store Pigs for the last few weeks.

Poor, unfortunate, Batrachian! he little pitied the tuneless fate that was his misfortune was one that often befalls singers. Many a once tuneful voice among those who belong to the "genus homo" is utterly spoiled by "cold in the head," or on the lungs, or both combined. For the above mentioned "croaker" we are not aware that any remedy was ever offered, but we rejoice to know that all human singers may keep their heads clear and their throats in tune by a timely use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery, both of which are sold by druggists. jy19eod

These bonds have 50 years to run, are convertible at the option of the holder into the stock of the company at par, and the payment of the principal is provided for by a sinking fund. The convertibility privilege attached to these bonds cannot fail to cause them at no distant day to command a market price considerably above par, besides paying about 9 per cent., currency, interest in the meanwhile. U. S. Five-twenties, at present prices only return five per cent.; and we regard the security equally good.

The greater part of the road is already completed, and the balance of the work is rapidly progressing.

The established character of this road, running as it does through the heart of the most thickly settled and richest portion of the great State of Iowa, together with its present advanced condition to its earnings warrant us in unhesitatingly recommending these bonds to investors, as, in every respect, an undoubted security.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Blood in Summer.

The blood deteriorates in hot weather. Profuse perspiration deprives it of a portion of its nourishing and reproductive properties. Consequently, in Summer, the flesh loses in some degree its firmness, the muscles lack their usual elasticity and vigor, and the weight of the body diminishes. There are clear indications that the ordinary supply of the life-sustaining principle afforded by the food we eat, is not sufficient to meet the requirements of the system under a high temperature. There is another reason for this, besides the direct influence of the heat, viz: the loss of appetite and the weakening of the digestive powers which it occasions.

Under these circumstances a wholesome invigorant is evidently needed, and the best and safest is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This admirable vegetable tonic and alterative, acts favorably upon the system in several ways. It increases the appetite and facilitates digestion, thereby inclining the stomach to receive and enabling it to assimilate a due amount of nourishment. It also tones the relaxed secretive organs and the bowels. Under its operation the process of emaciation, occasioned by the drain through the pores is arrested, the whole frame refreshed and invigorated, and the spirits exhilarated. The dyspeptic, the bilious, the nervous, the debilitated, scarcely need to be told that it is precisely the stimulant and corrective they ought to take at this season. Thousands of them know the fact by experience. Nothing in the pharmacopœia (or out of it) will supply its place—least of all the rough local nostrums which some unscrupulous dealers would be glad, for the benefit of their own pockets, to peddle out in its stead.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says: I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merit, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a fact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from parental experience of their qualities. mh12

For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is almost a certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of CHOLERA than any other known remedy, and the most skillful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the native, as well as European residents in those climates, a sure remedy; and while it is a most efficient remedy for pain, it is a perfectly safe medicine, even in unskillful hands.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the glossy and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

7 Per Cent. Gold First Mortgage Bonds.

THE EXCURSION of the Philharmonic Society and their friends to the Shoals, on Thursday, was a very enjoyable affair. Besides the regular travel, about 230 availed themselves of the opportunity of sailing the sea over with the popular commander of Steamer Appledore, Capt. Baker, and Admiral Butler, the projector of so many good times—a veteran in the business.

A southeast breeze had prepared a little chop, and some superfluous food was furnished the fishes by ladies and gentlemen who couldn't keep their mouths shut. The Post Band were on board, en route for Appledore, where they had an engagement to play for the evening hop. The large party landed shortly after 12 o'clock, and found a still larger party to greet them. Enquirers for rooms soon learned that every apartment was engaged, and Star Island got an overflow of guests.

Everybody likes to go to Appledore just when it's fullest. Oscar and Cedric beam upon them as if they hadn't already as many people as they can accommodate readily; and everybody knows that they manage to satisfy the visitors so completely that no one can reasonably complain. They stow away their surplus and re-stow until everyone is comfortable. So it was on Thursday. They dined over 400 persons and a couple of hundred more had little picnics on the rocks. The busy scene was one long to be remembered. People thronged the parlor, promenade and whole island. The Band discoursed enlivening music at dinner time. The cool grots about the huge rocks furnished secluded places for picnic parties, who escaped the hot sun's rays and sniffed the welcome sea breeze which dashed the incoming tide against the immense boulders that have so long resisted the encroachments of old Ocean.

After dinner, billiard parties, base ball practice, croquet, dancing, strolling, fishing, hunting, (after shells,) and sailing were indulged in until the hour for the return home was near. Then most of the party would have preferred to stay and gaze out upon the broad ocean and the numerous crafts in sight and to witness the glorious sunset.

Put the question to nine tenths of Appledore's visitors and they invariably say they wish to return. The fascinating sea charms them to forgetfulness and the hours pass almost unnoticed. The ample accommodations for boating, the pleasures of escape from the heat and dust of the city and town, the courteous words and attentions of the ruddy faced, genial proprietors tempt a return again and again to the most popular resort of the season in this vicinity.

If there was one person in the excursion party who did not enjoy the day we do not know of it. The passage home was a merry one, subject only to a trifling accident to the machinery, which delayed the boat about ten minutes. To-day, many young ladies are promenading the streets with complexions which tell of their sea trip but do not convey to the passer-by any inkling of the enjoyment they experienced, and the remembrance of that one day's sojourn at Appledore.

BASE BALL. — The Granite States played a picked nine at the Plains, a day or two since, and won by a score of 37 to 9.

The Dover Sawyers have come to time at last. They decline the "championship" game here; so South Berwick is to be the place and next Wednesday the time.

☞ Dr. Strong's increase of custom at his Sulphur Bath establishment on Ladd Street is evidence of his success in curing patients. Those who have tried the Baths most effectively are the most enthusiastic in praise of the merits of the system.

☞ Messrs. Peirce, the well known landlords of the Sagamore House, have purchased a fine sloop of 12 tons, to be put at the disposal of those guests who may wish to try her sailing qualities.

☞ There will be no preaching at the North Church to-morrow; the Bible service will be held in the afternoon as usual.

☞ The Alpha cricket club of Salem, Mass., will visit this city to play a game with the Rockingham club on Tuesday next.

☞ The Stockholders of the Piscataqua Association will meet at the National Hotel next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

☞ Newburyporters are coming round to see Portsmouth to-day in a steamer.

Communication.

MORALS—THE POLICE.—"Pencil" has made a very proper reply to a writer who is opposed to our police system. If he thinks it ought to be abolished he only exposes his ignorance. It is true that in former times, (on special occasions—the 4th of July in particular,) rowdies and boys were guilty of great disorders, and destroyed property, and were suffered to go unpunished! Since the war, crimes of all kinds have multiplied in all parts of the Union, and unless moral and energetic people united and used efficient measures for their protection, God only can tell what would be the result. Had such things occurred only ten years ago, the public mind would have been filled with horror. There may be as much disorder and immorality in many other cities as in this; but that is no excuse for us. So far as we have good and wholesome laws, it is the duty of every good man to see that they are executed.

We are unwilling to believe there are half so many "rum-holes," where there is tumult and disorder, as stated. But the large number of houses of ill fame is a disgrace to the city, and more injurious to morals than even the rum-holes. Under our existing statutes, they are all liable to be broken up by law. But were the law not sufficient, we would recommend a resort to the axe, an instrument used very effectually in some of our country towns. Should the owners of such buildings suffer, it would be their own fault.

While we advocate a strict economy in all our municipal expenditures, we insist that we should have a sufficient police force to preserve good order in every part of the city, and that they should receive liberal salaries for the faithful performance of their arduous duties by night and day. Reasons enough may be advanced for having one or two detectives, who do not wear the official badge. We now have, to our certain knowledge, a very efficient, shrewd and energetic Marshal, so long in the office that he well knows how to perform its duties. All disorderly persons, young and old, stand in fear of him, and he is fearless of them. His deputies appear to be well qualified, and efficient in the discharge of their duties. "Those who feel the halter draw have poor opinions of the law," and of those who execute it. The latter often have unpleasant duties to perform, and should be supported by all good citizens.

KITTERY, ME., July 22.

Messrs. Editors:—The Republicans of Kittery met per call, Thursday evening, in Hayes' Hall, and chose Warrington Paul, C. H. Sanborn, P. M. Langton, L. P. Call, C. H. Bartlett, C. W. Carter, Stephen Grant, John Wentworth and Francis Bacon, as delegates to the County Convention at Alfred, July 26, by 6 majority. The caucus was thrown into a high state of excitement by the introduction of the following resolutions by Dr. Otis, who with many others earnestly defended them.

Resolved, That we regret that there have been any signs of disaffection in the Republican party in the 1st Congressional District.

Resolved, That the course of Hon. John Lynch in Congress has been eminently satisfactory, and that he is entitled to our united support at the coming election.

After fair debate the caucus pledged its support to Mr. Lynch; but the resolutions were withdrawn by Dr. Otis, as some thought they would reflect upon the delegates. Gen. Wentworth declared that he would support Mr. Lynch, as did many of the delegates to the late Congressional Convention. R.

Printed schedules for such classes as parties deal in and intend to bid for, together with instructions to bidders, giving the forms of proposals of guarantee, and of certificate of guarantors, with printed forms of offer, will be furnished to such persons as desire to bid, on application to the Commandants of the respective Navy Yards, and those of all the yards on application to the Bureau.

The Commandant of each Navy Yard and the purchasing paymaster for each station, will have a copy of the schedules of the other yards, for examination only, in order that persons who intend to bid may judge whether it is desirable to make application for any of the classes of those yards.

The proposals must be for the whole of a class, and all applications for information or for the examination of samples, must be made to the commandants of the respective yards.

The proposals must be accompanied by a certificate from the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the bidder resides, that he has a license to deal in the articles for which he proposes; and, by direction of the Department, bids or offers will be received only from parties who are bona fide dealers in, or manufacturers of, the articles they offer to furnish. The guarantors must be certified by the Assessor of Internal Revenue for the district in which they reside.

The contract will be awarded to the person who makes the lowest bids and gives the guarantee required by law, the Navy Department, however, reserving the right to reject the lowest bid, or any which it may deem exorbitant.

Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility must be certified to the satisfaction of the Navy Department.

For additional security twenty per centum will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contracts shall have been completed, and eighty per centum of the amount of each bill, approved in triplicate by the Commandant of the respective yards, will be paid by the Paymaster of the station designated in the contract within ten days after the warrant for the same shall have been passed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

RICHARDSON'S

LITTLE WASHER, unlike all others, light and portable, weighing only ten pounds, is sold for the small price of five dollars. Adjusts itself to any article from a Pocket handkerchief to a

LARGE BED SPREAD,

without alteration. Can be fitted to any tub, and removed at pleasure.

If you will use this little common sense washing machine, you will do the work of half a day in 2 hours.

RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER does not tear or wear the clothes, no matter how fine the fabric. Clothes are straightened out, and passed back and forth, between the rollers till clean.

Remember and always have a good strong and hot suds.

Put your Pocket handkerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Napkins and Fringes into a sheet or Pillow slip and wash perfectly clean in three minutes. We wash at one time, two or three sheets gathered at the hem, six Pillow slips, six Towels, two or three pairs of Stockings, one pair Pants or two pairs light ones, one heavy Spread or Blanket, always putting the smaller things inside something larger or longer.

Wherever this Little Washer has been introduced the sale has been unprecedented, having sold upwards of three hundred in Dover, N. H., in less than two months; two thirds of the purchasers had been using large awkward machines costing from five to eighteen dollars; all a failure, now great complaints being made that they are heavy and no woman can work them.

Richardson's has taken a Silver Medal in Springfield, Mass., at Mechanic's Fair in 1868, and other places where exhibited.

A Lady who has not washed for three years, told her neighbors she did her washing, with that little Washer, with ease, consequently they ordered one, and in three

Morning Chronicle.

From the N. E. Hist. and Genealogical Reg.

NAVAL CONSTRUCTOR JOSIAH BARKER.—" " In 1834 the frigate Constitution was rebuilt by Mr. Barker on the old lines, in the Dry Dock at the Charlestown Navy Yard. She was the first ship taken into the Dock which had been recently finished, and the occasion was celebrated by all the officers stationed at this port appearing in full dress to witness the event. At this time and during the remainder of his official career, he was assisted by his two sons, Ebenezer and Seth, in the drawing of models and lines.

It was during the administration of Gen. Jackson, when politics ran high and the Charlestown Navy Yard was under the command of Commodore Jesse D. Elliot, that the Constitution was rebuilt. The Jackson party on coming into power had sounded the cry "to the victors belong the spoil," a doctrine which, considering it was carried into politics, and constantly kept in view in the bestowal of Executive patronage, and in the exercise of Executive prerogatives, very naturally created deep feeling and disgust in the minds of a majority of all good citizens who had been taught to esteem fitness the only standard of qualification worthy of consideration in such matters. Acting upon these principles the Navy Department ordered a figure head of Gen. Jackson to be carved, and in due time it was placed on the frigate; though only after a storm of opposition from the people of Massachusetts, whose political tenets were not those of the Jackson party.

It was, however, determined by a few resolute individuals that the Constitution should never leave the port of Boston carrying the figure head of Andrew Jackson. The frigate had gone into commission and was lying in the stream, when the plan for removing the obnoxious face was carried into effect. A Captain Dewey, who is still living, I believe, dropped down the river in a small row boat from one of the piers near by, and owing to the night's being very dark, and a most violent thunder storm, which prevailed, he reached the frigate unobserved by the sentry on duty on deck. With as little noise as possible, after making fast his boat to the ship, he ascended to a position from which he could reach the figure-head, and with a saw cut off the head immediately under the nose. In the operation he had to cut through a copper bolt.

The head was lowered into the boat and Capt. Dewey followed. Floating down the river as noiselessly as he came, till out of hearing, he then pulled to the shore with the figure-head enveloped in a canvass bag. At midnight he joined his confreres at a public house where they were anxiously awaiting his arrival to sit down to a supper in honor of his success.

The consternation, chargrin and rage of Commodore Elliot and his brother officers on the following morning, can be better imagined than described. An eye witness of his ire once told me the commodore stood on the dock nearly all day pouring forth an almost incredible amount of vituperation, and promising summary punishment to the perpetrator of the deed should he be apprehended. The exploit was a daring one, especially when it is remembered that a sentry was pacing the deck directly above the scene of Capt. Dewey's operations.

The administration immediately ordered another figure-head to be carved delineating the same features; and the frigate to-day carries the result of that order; and also a copper bolt of extraordinary size which was placed perpendicularly in the head, to prevent a repetition of Capt. Dewey's exploit.

In 1842 or '43 orders were issued for each constructor to prepare models and drawings for a first-class Sloop of War. Mr. S. H. Pook, now assistant Naval Constructor at the Charlestown Yard, being then in the constructor's office as draughtsman, copied the lines of the sloop of war Union for Mr. Barker, who sent them to the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

From these lines an enlarged drawing was made by a brother of Commodore Selfridge, under Mr. Barker's personal direction, and the model of the new Sloop made on these lines was the one adopted, and on which the "Portsmouth" was built. The sloop was launched in the autumn of 1843, and carried 22 guns; her tonnage was 1022; length 151-10 ft; beam 38-1; hold 17-2; and her cost $170,586. She was as handsome a ship of her time as ever floated, and was considered by my grandfather his chef d'œuvre. As the honor of having modelled the Portsmouth has been unrightfully claimed by other naval constructors, I extract the following passages from a letter I have just had the pleasure of receiving from Rear Admiral Goldsborough, in proof of the claim of my revered ancestor.

"I was attached to the Portsmouth Navy Yard at the time the 'Portsmouth' was built there, and launched; and, for my own part, have never entertained a shadow of doubt that she was modelled by Mr. Josiah Barker. She was built under his immediate superintendence, and his principal assistant was Mr. B. F. Delano, now the Naval Constructor of the New York Navy Yard. " " " I am under the impression that Mr. Barker told me that her lines were essentially those of a celebrated French privateer, which was captured and brought into Salem during our quasi war with France; and furthermore, that he had modelled the Union on the same lines. The Union, however, was not, as you call her, a 'Sloop of War,' but simply a very large merchant ship for her day, built for old Billy Gray. Her tonnage, I think, amounted to between six and seven hundred."

It was about this time that Mr. Barker was ordered to Portsmouth, whither he removed and resided with his son Seth, in Court street. The ordering of so old an officer—and especially at his time of life—to Portsmouth, after having been for thirty-four years stationed at Charlestown, was always looked upon by Mr. Barker's friends as an attempt on the part of the would-be historian of the United States, who was then Secretary of the Navy, to force him to resign in order to make a vacancy for a certain individual who desired the berth. But the attempt failed, for Mr. Barker went to Portsmouth, and did not retire till July 9, 1846.

The infirmities of age were upon him, and he returned to his homestead in Charlestown, where he sank to his rest on the 23d of September, 1847, at the age of nearly 84 years, respected and esteemed by the many friends who had enjoyed his friendship and acquaintance. He was a man of large stature, nearly or quite six feet in height. His commanding presence was the remark of all who saw him, and such as to inspire deference and respect; while his native dignity, urbanity, and hospitality, constituted him one of that class of men, known in our day as "gentlemen of the old school." His wife died previous to his removal to Portsmouth—May 6, 1841. Her portrait, and one of her husband, in which one of the shipbuilders at the Charlestown Navy Yard is to be seen, are now in possession of their daughter, Mrs. Burnham.

COAL ASHES AS A FERTILIZER.—A "Subscriber" inquires why "coal ashes are poisonous to vegetation?" The interrogation is not a fair one. Coal ashes are not injurious to vegetation. Indeed, on some kinds of soils, a topdressing will sometimes produce three tons of grass per acre, where the crop was very light the year previous. We have seen coal ashes applied as a topdressing to both heavy and light soils, with excellent results. Where clay predominates in the soil a heavy dressing of coal ashes will be one of the best kinds of fertilizers for strawberries. Coal ashes will not injure any kind of crops. The best manner of disposing of them is to sift them over lawns and gardens, as soon as they are removed from heaters or stoves. When deposited in large heaps in a back yard, they frequently become a nuisance. It will pay to cart them a mile to scatter around fruit trees of any kind. The growing roots of trees and plants will extract such materials as may be required for their development, even when chemists by careful analysis fail to find any valuable ingredients in such fertilizers.—Working Farmer.

TO STOP POTATOES ROTTING.—An experienced agriculturist informs us that about four years ago he applied lime to potatoes that had commenced to rot, and that it immediately arrested the decay. Since then he has made it a common practice to apply slaked lime to his potatoes as he takes them up. He puts a thin layer of lime upon the floor where the potatoes are to be laid, and sprinkles some of it over them about every ten inches, as they are put down. He considers this as perfectly protecting them from rotting, as he has never had a rotten potato since he has practiced it, and he believes also that potatoes thus used are rendered better by the action of lime.

MEDICAL MADNESS.

LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is almost out of date. When the Tonic-Cathartic product by Nature herself is the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed misdemeanor madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. jyw

GROWING OLD.

BY MARTHA REMICK.

She leaves her smiles and blushes,
Her brown locks tinged with gold,
Where the red sunshine flecks them,
For she is growing old!
What rich gifts has the winter
For spring and summer's store?
Tell me, O! then whose summer
Of bud and bloom is o'er.

I see her brown eyes shining
With simple love and truth,
The lessons she has gathered
Make recompense for youth.
She has drank the cup of sorrow,
She has trod hills bathed in light,
And now when comes the eventime
With her it is not night.

She has trod her journey bravely,
In honor, love, and pride;
Faith and hope, her two good angels,
Have journeyed by her side.
Never once her courage faltered
In the solemn march of life,
Here, are lips that breathe of kindness,
Feet that turn away from strife.

She can part with smiles and blushes,
Which fairer women know,
For the beauty of her spirit
Can gild her locks of snow;
They are happy who grow fairer
With the changes of the years,
And have as precious memories
Embalmed in many tears.

THE SUPREME COURT—HISTORICAL FACTS.—In 1816, the anti-Federal party, (then called the Republican party,) under the leadership of Gov. Plumer, came into power, and abolished the courts which had been established by the Federal party. "The removed judges were Federalists, and the Republican Councillors, flushed with their recent party victory, felt called upon to retaliate on the intolerance of their opponents, by appointing none but Republicans to office. But the Governor told them, at their first meeting, that the minority had rights, which it became him to respect, however little others had done so; and that he could not consent to have all the judges selected from one political party."—Life of Gov. Plumer, p. 442. There were three judges of the Supreme Court and fourteen other judges to be appointed. George B. Upham, a Federalist, was appointed to the Supreme Bench, and six other Federal judges were appointed in the other courts. Upham declined the office, and the Governor endeavored to persuade Jeremiah Mason, a Federalist, to accept the office of Chief Justice; but he declined. Id. pp. 443, 445, 446.

In June, 1819, Gov. Plumer retired from office, and sent to the Legislature a Message, giving a brief account of his official conduct, and of the principles on which he had administered the government. In that Message he said:

"During the time I was in office, an unusual number of appointments were to be made, including all the judges of the courts of law, those of probate excepted. * * In appointing judges, it was my sole object to select men of talents, of legal information, of strict integrity, and such as I deemed best qualified for those important trusts. And with a view to exclude, as far as practicable, the spirit of party from the temple of justice, and to inspire a general confidence in the courts of law, in which every citizen has a deep interest, I appointed men of different political principles."—Id. p. 487.

In 1833, Gov. Dinsmoor, a Democrat, appointed Joel Parker, a Whig, to the Supreme Court; and in 1838, Gov. Hill promoted Parker to the office of Chief Justice, over a senior judge who was a Democrat. In 1850, Gov. Dinsmoor (the younger) appointed Ira Perley, a Whig, to the Supreme Court, and in 1851, he appointed George Y. Sawyer to the Common Pleas bench. In 1855, the American party formed a Supreme Court of five judges, and took two of them from the Democratic party.

In the Whig State of Vermont, Redfield, a Democrat, was Judge and Chief Justice for many years.

Of the many amendments of the constitution of New York, recently submitted to the people, the only one adopted was one which secures to both parties a representation in the highest court; and under that amendment Republican Judges have just been placed in that court, although the Democratic party control the State.—Dover Enq.

Gov. Goodwin promoted Judge Bell, a Democrat, to the Chief Justiceship, over the Republican members of the Bench; and it is said to be very probable that Gov. Stearns will appoint one of the ablest lawyers of the Rockingham Bar to the vacant Associate Justiceship—a gentleman who is not a very objectionable Democrat and who is strongly endorsed by the Rockingham Bar and a very large number of the strongest Republicans of this section.

A SKITTLE.—A Norwegian family, consisting of father, mother, and twenty-one children, passed West the other day. The old man wants to take a contract to settle some new State, and bring it into the Union.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S
CONCENTRATED
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.
THE GREAT DIURETIC.

The proprietor trusts that his Remedies, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as Patent Medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a cure by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood-purifying, and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:—

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections, and dropsy.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

SAVANNAH, TENN., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold:

DEAR SIR: We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this county about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named J. B. Estell, had been suffering about five years with gravel.

About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
ECCLES & HINKLE, Druggists.

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of long Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

WESTPORT, CONN., Sept. 9, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.

DEAR SIR: I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have suffered by spells very much for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and will recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers.

Yours truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight years of Age. Thanks to Mr. Helmbold.

GIRARD, PA., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those simil rly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many emi nent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised Remedies, in the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder diseases, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using with little faith, and no apparent beneficial results for about a month.

At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use, and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly 78 years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they other wise would, I have found another unexpectable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact, as an acknowledgment to him, and a humble suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. M. LAREN.

DR. KEYSER

is a physician of over thirty years' experience, and a graduate of the Jefferson Medical College, and of the University of Medicine and Surgery of Philadelphia. Hear him:

Mr. H. T. Helmbold:

DEAR SIR: In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about Buchu, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used, or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated. You are aware, as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired, in my judgment, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used, as before stated, every form of Buchu—the powdered leaves—tincture, fluid extracts—and I am not cognizant of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Twelve years' experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits; and, without prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I value your Buchu for its effect on patients. I have cured with it, and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys, in less time and never seen cures with any other Buchu or any other proprietary compound of whatever name.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
GEO. H. KEYSER, M. D.,
140 Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Penn.
August 11, 1865.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, Jan. 28, 1868.

Mr. H. T. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: Your communication requesting my testimony to the efficacy of your Buchu, I received, but from a prejudice I had formed against advertising "cures for secret diseases," it was left unanswered. During an accidental conversation in a drug store the other evening, my mind was changed on the character of your Buchu. It was then highly commended for other diseases by two physicians present. Inclosed please find our regular advertising. Yours, &c. J. B. STENHOUSE,
Ed'r and Prop'r of Telegraph.

TESTIMONIALS.

A Permanent Cure of Gravel of twelve Years' Standing. Stone Passed and to be Seen.

BURNSIDE, CONN., Dec. 15, 1869.

Dr. Helmbold,

DEAR SIR: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the last ten or twelve years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. My complaint was in the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. Have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so that I could scarcely get about. I could not rest night or day.

It would soon have been "all up" with me if I had not seen your advertisement headed "Kidneys." I read it through and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had not much faith in it. Why should I? when I had been trying so many things that cost me so much? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt bad; but I finished it and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently.) When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. But I took and had finished the second, that I had madeup my mind it was of no use trying any more—and all this time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted.

On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of the medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after this I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and stopping it off at will. It was for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks the color of a mud turtle, and is as hard as flint. So you see the "Buchu" was doing its work, although I was feeling so badly. I procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind; but since that time I have feed, while eight weeks ago last Sunday, I have been as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone securely wrapped, and any one who have seen it in this place are surprised.

I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are welcome to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Burnside, also in Connecticut. The advertisement saved me. Why not publish more? If any one wishes to see this wonder, they can do so. I could write much more, but I think I have said enough this time, so I remain your ever well-wisher, EDWARD L. HOWARD,
Paper Maker, Burnside, Hartford County, Conn.

N. Y. S. VOL. INSTITUTE,
Corner of 5th av. and 26th st., Central Park.
(A Home and School for the Sons of Deceased Soldiers.)

Dr. H. T. Helmbold,

Two bottles only of the package of your valuable Buchu procured at the Institute have been used by the children, and with perfect success. In the case of our little Lieutenant A. J., his pride is no longer mortified, and he is free from the daily morning anathemas of the chamber-maid who has charge of his bedding.

I feel that a knowing of the result of our use of your Buchu with the children under our charge may save many a Superintendent and Matron of Benevolent Schools and Asylums a great amount of annoyance; and many a poor child suffering more from Weakness than from habit, may be spared punishment, the latter having its origin in weakness instead of a bad habit) most unjustly inflicted upon them. Thanking you on behalf of the children, and hoping others may be alike benefitted, I am respectfully yours,

COL. YOUNG, General, Sup't and Director.

A Case of Twenty Years Standing.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN., June 25, 1867.

H. T. Helmbold, Druggist.

DEAR SIR: I have been a sufferer for upwards of twenty years with gravel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medical preparations prescribed by under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised Remedies and my system was filled with them, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no Remedies because I thought they were all alike, but I was this that prompted me to use your Remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of Buchu, cubeb, juniper, and Extract of Malt, I took it to me and my physician as an excellent combination; and, with his advice, after an examination of the ingredients, I ventured to procure of my Druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced to use it about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.

From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks was able to walk out. I felt much like writing to you a full statement of my case at the time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to delay, and see if it would effects perfect cure, knowing that it would be of great value to you and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months. I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use to such affections.

THE EUROPEAN AGITATION. — The French Minister of Foreign Affairs has issued a circular to the diplomatic agents of the Empire, in which he recounts the alleged uniriness and arrogance of Prussia, and claims that France could not do otherwise in the premises.

Correspondents and all civilians are rigidly excluded from the French lines, and no one is allowed to go up to the cathedral tower at Strasbourg, because army movements can be seen from there.

The French press appears perfectly satisfied with the attitude of Austria, Denmark and Spain. A French despatch says that Russia favors France, and that South Germany will come over as soon as it can.

Vessels have been sent to Newfoundland to notify French fishermen of the declaration of war.

The details of the affair at Forbach, variously reported as a battle and a skirmish between the customs patrol, state that two regiments of French hussars and a body of Urlaner German troops, commonly armed with lances, met on the frontier. The French troops immediately made preparations to receive an attack. At length one of the Urlaners came forward, and the French allowed him to approach, regarding him as a deserter or expecting a parley. On coming near the Urlaner fired at the commander of the French, missed his mark, then turned and fled amid a shower of bullets.

Advices from the scene of war indicate that the Prussians will adopt a defence line from Coblentz along the Rhine. Bismark and General Moltke are equally confident and unreserved in their predictions of success.

The Rothschilds at Paris have lost twenty millions by the war. Erlanger and other brokers have also lost heavily.

Smalley's London special says that Prussia was taken by surprise; that the army expected to march Friday; that the feeling throughout Germany resembles that of the North when the rebels attacked Sumter; that the financial and commercial pressure is terrible and that there are innumerable failures of old and strong houses.

It is understood in Berlin that the German army if victorious, will march on Paris.

Martial law has been proclaimed in the Rhenish provinces of Prussia, as well as in Hesse, Hanover, Schleswig, Pomerania, and Eastern Prussia.

A great many shipwrecks have recently occurred on the German coast by reason of the removal of the beacons.

It is generally admitted that the situation of the French army has every advantage over that of the Prussian. The French have two points of attack.

The reported death of Gen. Douay is contradicted.

A battle is hourly expected at Coblentz.

Napoleon has the gout.

Some 800 Germans are preparing to return home from New York. Two hundred and fifty applied for free passages. The German merchants have subscribed $50,000 to a war fund.

Henry Martin, the celebrated French historian, publishes a long article, taking the ground that France ought to break with Rome, seeing that the extravagant pretensions of the Pope are fatal to the liberties of the Gallican church.

The municipal elections in France will be held August 6th.

VENEZUELA TO BE COMPELLED TO SETTLE AMERICAN CLAIMS.—The government of Venezuela having persistently refused to comply with the terms of the convention between that country and the United States, for a settlement of the claims of American citizens, the President has directed the United States steamer Narragansett, now being fitted out at this Naval Station, to be sent to Venezuela to enforce the collection of the claims stipulated by the terms of the convention, that custom duties at certain ports of Venezuela should be set apart for the payment of the claims of American citizens. The government has information that the duties at those ports are devoted to the payment of claims of French and German citizens, the French and Prussian governments having men-of-war there for the purpose of enforcing the collection of their claims. Our government having waited a reasonable time now proposes to imitate the example of France and Prussia.

—A Richmond wag sent an extract from the Song of Solomon to a city paper as original. The editor published it as a "fair specimen of the trash daily consigned to the waste basket."

M. De Loosey, the Austrian Consul-General at New York, died suddenly from the rupture of a blood vessel, Thursday evening.

Lady Thorn defeated Goldsmith Maid at Prospect Park on Friday, in 2.19 1-2, 2.20 1-2, 2.18 3-8.

Details of the massacre of foreigners at Pekin are received. The first accounts did not exaggerate the horrors of the affair. Neither age nor sex was spared and some persons were burned to death in the buildings destroyed.

The Mayor of Covington, Ky., in a criminal case, last week, admitted the testimony of a negro woman for the prosecution. This is supposed to be the first instance of the admission of negro testimony in Kentucky.

The annual boat racing between Harvard, Yale, Amherst and Brown University oarsmen came off on Lake Quinsigamond, Worcester, on Friday. Brown won the Freshman race and Harvard the University race. The Harvards led two lengths at the turning stake and the Yales ran into them while turning, smashing their rudder and disabling the Harvard boat. The Yales kept on, and the Harvards leisurely rowed home, claimed a foul and were awarded the race.

Lady Franklin, of England, the widow of Sir John Franklin, arrived in Chicago, Thursday afternoon, from Omaha. She recently returned to San Francisco from Alaska and is on her way to England.

In the English House of Lords, Earl Carnarvon moved a resolution of thanks to the Canadians for repelling the Fenian invasion. A lively opposition was manifested, and the resolution was withdrawn.

OLD TIMES CHRONICLES, No. 10.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

SECOND MINISTER OF GREENLAND.—The first Congregational minister of Greenland, Rev. Wm. Allen, was noticed in our last. The next was Rev. Samuel McClintock. A sketch of him was published in the New Hampshire Historical Allertions, Vol. II, p. p. 273, 278. It was written by Rev. Dr. Buckminster, pastor of the North Church in Portsmouth from 1779 to 1812. The late C. W. Brewster also wrote an account of him. It is published in the "Rambles about Portsmouth," Second Series, p. p. 160, 166. Ours then may be brief.

His father was Wm. McClintock from the north of Ireland. He came to this country and was a farmer in Medford, Mass. Samuel was born in that town, May 1, 1732. He graduated at Princeton College, New Jersey, in 1751. The President of that College then was Mr. Burr, father of the noted Aaron Burr.

He studied Theology with Rev. J. McGregone of Londonderry, N. H. In 1756 while on a visit to Rev. Dr. Langdon's in Portsmouth he was invited to preach in Greenland. He supplied five Sabbaths, then received a call to settle as pastor. Mr. Brewster relates that it is said a young lady of Portsmouth of many charms influenced him in deciding to accept the call. Her name was Mary Montgomery. He afterwards mrrried her.

He was ordained Nov. 3, 1756. Rev. Dr. Langdon preached the sermon.

He had 15 children. Several of them went into the army of the Revolution. Three were killed, or died. Nathaniel of Brigade Major.

At the battle of Bunker Hill, Dr. McClintock was present as Chaplain. It is related that during the fight he knelt on the field and raised his hands while he prayed for the success of his country's cause. Trumbull gives a view of him in that attitude in a picture of the battle, and the late Mrs. Sigourney has thrown it into song.

He received the degree of D. D. from Princeton College. His talents were eminent; he stood high as a preacher, and was much beloved by the people of his charge. He died April 27, 1804, aged about 72. His ministry was 47 years.

Greenland was his parish, no other society being in town till four years after his death. The population when he was settled was 720. Twenty years later 759. At his death it had declined about 200, being 548.

A NICE LITTLE BOY in Pittsburg went to the circus the other day, and amused himself throwing stones at the elephant while he was drinking. When he got through, the boy tried to propitiate him by offering him a piece of gingerbread. Before accepting the cake the elephant emptied about sixty-four gallons of water, beer measure, over the boy, and then slung him into the third tier to dry off. This boy is very indifferent about circuses now. He doesn't care for them as much as he used to.

FEARFULLY LOW.—The St. Louis Tribune's river report gives the following diagnosis of the Father of Waters: "The river is still sinking, and little hope is now felt for its recovery. A consultation of eminent water surgeons was held Friday, and after mature deliberation the old and long honored Father of Waters was pronounced beyond surgical aid."

A SOCKDOLOGER.—A London dispatch says:—

Military men affirm that the Prussian Kugelhitzer is equivalent to the French Mitrailleuts.

Shouldn't be surprised if it's so! Badershin nabockelish ahoolahan aroo.

☞ The Cincinnati Commercial says of the late Red Stocking-Harvard base ball match, "the ,Harvards, a very strong club, 'tis true, gave them a very close rub—the Reds getting on to victory by one of the grandest scratches ever made on a ball field."

SORROWFUL FACT.—It is telegraphed all the way from Washington that the Secretary of War is so busy that he will not be able to go West for recreation until the middle of August. How sad!

SO WISE.—The London Telegraph thinks that it discovers in the recall of Minister Motley an intention on the part of the American government to meddle in the European imbroglio.

ALL FOR FRANCE.—Twenty-eight Atlantic steamers carry the German flag. Of these, twenty-one are now in the port of New York, and will not put to sea again for some time.

A STITCH IN TIME.—It cost the government $60,000 to feast Red Cloud, but it probably averted an Indian war.

IMPORTANT.—Beaux are scarce in Saratoga.

—It is said that A. T. Stewart has made a round million by the rise in gold, which he bought when down to the lowest figures.

—A Nevada Enoch Arden played seven-up with the local Philip Ray for the object of both their affections, and won her by two points.

NEVERMORE can the coarse, gritty tooth powders and tooth-destroying chemical fluids find a place on the toilets of sensible people! The fragrant and preservative SOZODONT has superseded them all.

FREEMAN'S IRON MANDRAKE SYRUP,

It excels all other Iron preparations in the combination with Mandrake and Vegetable Tonics, so that the Liver is acted on to remove bile and impurities from the system, while the vegetable tonics strengthen the stomach and promote the digestion of Iron with the food and its absorption into the blood. It renovates the system and is the best medicine.

MANDRAKE is the Great Vegetable substitute for calomel to act on livers. In FREEMAN'S IRON MANDRAKE SYRUP it is combined with Iron and Vegetable Tonics, and forms the most perfect medicine. It purifies the blood and imparts IRON to it. It acts on the Liver and removes foul humors from the body. It is a most excellent remedy for debility, especially for mothers who are worn down by nursing infants, and for all persons whose blood is poor, and who need Iron and a strengthening medicine. 2mcodawjy25

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Blood in Summer.

The blood deteriorates in hot weather. Profuse perspiration deprives it of a portion of its nourishing and reproductive properties. Consequently, in Summer, the flesh loses in some degree its firmness, the muscles lack their usual elasticity and vigor, and the weight of the body diminishes. These are clear indications that the ordinary supply of the life-sustaining principle afforded by the food we eat, is not sufficient to meet the requirements of the system under a high temperature. There is another reason for thinking the direct influence of the heat, viz: the loss of appetite and the weakening of the digestive powers, which it occasions.

Under these circumstances a wholesome invigorant is evidently needed, and the best and safest is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This admirable vegetable tonic and alterative, acts favorably upon the system in several ways. It increases the appetite and facilitates digestion, thereby inclining the stomach to receive and enabling it to assimilate a due amount of nourishment. It also tones the relaxed secretive organs and the bowels. Under its operation the process of emaciation, occasioned by the drain through the pores is arrested, the whole frame refreshed and invigorated, and the spirits exhilarated. The dyspeptic, the bilious, the nervous, the debilitated, scarcely need to be told that it is precisely the stimulant and corrective they ought to take at this season. Thousands of them know the fact by experience. Nothing in the pharmacopœia (or out of it) will supply its place—least of all the freshly local nostrums which some unscrupulous dealers would be glad, for the benefit of their own pockets, to peddle out in its stead.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung diseases in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a chemical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is even restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and dried up; but such a remedy can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable, containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

THE QUILL.—Arrangements for the Convention of Editors, &c., at Rye Beach, &c., Wednesday and Thursday next, are completed. Passengers over the Concord Railroad will stop at Greenland Station of that Road; on the Eastern and P. S. & P. Roads, at North Hampton; and proceed thence in carriages to the Ocean House. Dinner there from 12 1-2 to 2; business meeting 3 to 5; tea 5 1-2 to 7. Literary exercises at 8—Address by Hon. J. G. Blaine of Maine, Poem by B. P. Shillaber of Boston, and a History of the Press of Rockingham County, by Rev. J. Fulsonton of Raymond. Grand complimentary Ball to the Press, by Messrs. Jenness, at 10 o'clock, in the spacious halls of the Ocean House.

Thursday, early breakfast at the Ocean House; Carriages to the Sagamore House; steamer Favorite, Capt. Davidson to Shoals; return to dine at the Sagamore at 12 o'clock.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, per steamer Favorite, to the Navy Yard, where Com. Pennock, and the other officers in command at this Station, will extend the usual courtesies to the distinguished Senators and Representatives in Congress, and other visitors. Thence to Portsmouth, about 4 o'clock.

Elliot's Ocean House Band of 10 pieces will furnish the music at that establishment; and for the dinner and steamer excursion from the Sagamore, Lieut. Comd'r Yates of the Vandalia, will, in the absence of Admr. Thacher, kindly allow the attendance of Harlow's fine Marine Band.

Never, probably, since the discovery of Piscataqua river, has a more influential body of men visited our old city; and as they will nearly all bring ladies, doubtless the attendance at Rye Beach on that day, will be larger than ever heretofore. Of course there can be no postponement on account of the weather—and, as Mrs. Partington hath it, the Convention will be held, weather or no.

Communication.

☞ I would like to say a few words through the columns of your paper, in regard to converting the street crossings into regular mud puddles by the watering carts. It would be no trouble to leave the crossings dry, thereby making the walking much more pleasant for those who have occasion to cross the streets a great many times a day, besides looking better as viewed thro' the eyes of strangers visiting the city.

[The Street Sprinkler informs us that it would be difficult to calculate so nicely as to leave only the crossings bare; and if a square foot on either side of the crossing should be left unwatered there would be more fault found than there is now. The better plan would be to have the crossings swept clean and kept from dust.—Eds. Chronicle.]

NAVAL.—The New York Herald's Washington special despatch says that the navy department will in a few days send three additional monitors to the West Indies.

Captain John Guest has been detached from the command of the rendezvous at Philadelphia, and ordered to the command of the Brooklyn.

Lieutenant Commander G. V. Menzies has been detached from the receiving ship Vandalia, and ordered to this Navy Yard.

We regret to learn that Surgeon Albert C. Gorgas has been detached from the Navy Yard.

Lieut. Fred P. Ela, of the U. S. Marine Corps, has arrived at this Navy Yard for duty.

☞ We regret to learn that our old friend, and former associate, Mr. Jacob H. Thompson, now of the New York Times, has recently been very seriously ill of typhoid fever; but are glad to hear he is convalescent.

Messrs. Oliver Ayers and A. M. Hoyt, while surveying a land purchase of the Portsmouth Aqueduct Company, at the Scott farm, so called, in Newington, a few days since, were severely poisoned with the white sumac tree, or shrub, and Mr. Hoyt especially has suffered much therefrom. Both are recovering.

☞ Among the guests invited to the Editorial Convention, are Messrs. Nathaniel Greene, Thomas Spinney, and George W. Bazin, now all of Boston—who were all employed as apprentices in the Portsmouth Oracle (now Journal) office in this city, early in this century. Though all of them have seen about four score years of active life, they are yet comparatively well, and will doubtless enjoy the meeting, as much as the juniors will to have them there.

A BRUTAL SAVAGE.—On Friday evening, a fellow named Mike McGraw, a saloon keeper, politician and rough, of Dover, assaulted David Welch of this city on Water Street, and bit off a piece of his nose. Assistant Marshal Mortimer quickly made his appearance, when the ruffian drew a pistol. The officer, who only intended to arrest the scoundrel, not to be shot or bullied by him, very properly gave him a swinging blow with his billy, and "knocked him kicking;" after which he went meekly to the station house. He was brought before the court on Saturday, and in consideration of what he had already received, was let off on payment of $11.90, fine and costs. Pity the officer's club hadn't been about twice as heavy.

This same wretch is now out on $500 bail, charged with stabbing a man in Dover some time ago; and is a bully and scoundrel of the first water. How such fellows find "respectable" men to give bail for them is singular; but they do it.

SERIOUS AFFRAY.—About 6 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, a sailor went into the saloon of Daniel Hartnett, on Water Street, and called for a glass of beer, which Mrs. Hartnett drew for him. He said he was from Hong Kong and was going to kill a woman on Water Street to whom he had pawned a coat.

As Mr. Hartnett came into the saloon, Mrs. Hartnett turned and went into the kitchen, where she was followed by the sailor, who took the glass of beer with him. Mrs. H., who is six months with child, tried to light a fire in the stove and he pulled her away from it, striking her heavily in the left side with his fist. She tried to push him away, but he drew a knife and endeavored to stab her. She received the force of the blow on a finger of the left hand, which was severely cut. Seizing the tumbler, Mrs. Hartnett then threw it at him and the glass made several cuts over his left eye and temple. Mr. Hartnett and another man heard the noise and rushed in and prevented further trouble. Both parties were arrested shortly afterwards by Officer Mortimer and conveyed to the station house, suffering severely. The sailor gave his name as Patsy Doyle. His wound was stitched and dressed by Dr. Whittier; he will probably recover. Mrs. Hartnett was sent to her home in a hack, after being a short time at the station.

BROTHELS.—We call the attention of owners of houses let for unlawful purposes, to the law enacted July 2, 1870:

Sec. 5. If any person shall willfully let, or suffer any other person to occupy, any premises which he owns or has control of, for the purpose of being used as a brothel, a gaming house or place, or for the illegal sale of spirituous liquors therein, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars.

Sec. 4 Makes it the duty of any selectman, mayor, or alderman to prosecute the offender, under a penalty of not less than $50, nor more than $200.

COMMODORE FISK in the selection of his employees shows good judgment and sound sense, and rarely does it occur that he makes a mistake. Mr. R. W. E. Robinson of Portsmouth, N. H., Cashier of the Narragansett Steam Ship Co., is a living proof of the correctness of this statement. From close attention to business, polite and attentive to all, he has gained the good wishes of companions and possesses the confidence of his superiors.—Exchange.

☞ The spacious steamer Favorite, Capt. Davidson, arrived here on Sunday and will immediately commence her trips to Gloucester and Boston. Capt. Davidson is a courteous gentleman and his boat will be quite an acquisition to the craft sailing from this port. The vessel will accommodate 600 passengers and has already been engaged to take the Editorial party to the Shoals on Thursday.

EXCITED.—A young man procured a marriage certificate at the City Clerk's office, on Saturday, and returned in a few minutes for another, as he had lost the first. A duplicate was issued and hadn't been lost at last accounts.

☞ We are informed that the report of the caucus at Kittery sent us by "R," was incorrect and that the caucus did not pledge its support to Mr. Lynch.

These bonds have 50 years to run, are convertible at the option of the holder into the stock of the company at par, and the payment of the principal is provided for by a sinking fund. The convertibility privilege attached to these bonds cannot fail to cause them at no distant day to command a market price considerably above par, besides paying about 9 per cent., currency, interest in the meanwhile. U. S. Five-twenties, at present prices only return five per cent.; and we regard the security equally good.
The greater part of the road is already completed, and the balance of the work is rapidly progressing.
The established character of this road, running as it does through the heart of the most thickly settled and richest portion of the great State of Iowa, together with its present advanced condition and large earnings warrant us in unhesitatingly recommending these bonds to investors, as, in every respect, an undoubted security.

RICHARDSON'S
LITTLE WASHER, unlike all others, light and portable, weighing only ten pounds, is sold for the small price of five dollars. Adjusts itself to any article from a Pocketh and-kerchief to a
LARGE BED SPREAD,
without alteration. Can be fitted to any tub, and removed at pleasure.
If you will use this little common sense washing machine, you will do the work of half a day in 2 hours.
RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER does not tear or wear the clothes, no matter how fine the fabric. Clothes are straightened out, and passed back and forth, between the rollers till clean.
Remember and always have a good strong and hot suds.
Put your Pocketh and kerchiefs, Cuffs, Collars, Napkins and Fringes into a sheet or Pillow slip and wash perfectly clean, in pair to three minutes. We wash at one time, two or three sheets gathered at the hem, six Pillow slips, six Towels, two or three Cotton Shirts, one pair heavy Pants or two pairs light ones, one heavy Spread or Blanket, always putting the smaller things inside something larger or longer.
Wherever this Little Washer has been introduced the sale has been unprecedented, having sold upwards of three hundred in Dover, N. H., in less than two months; two thirds of the purchasers had been using large awkward machines costing from five to eighteen dollars; all a failure, one great complaint being that they are heavy and no woman can work them.
Richardson's has taken a Silver Medal in Springfield, Mass., at Mechanic's Fair in 1868, and other places where exhibited.
A Lady who has not washed for three years, told her neighbors she did her washing with that Little Washer, with ease, consequently they ordered one, and the question all over town is, have you got a RICHARDSON'S LITTLE WASHER?

Morning Chronicle

CITY POLICE AND TOWN CONSTABLES.—Some writing has been done lately, in the Chronicle and elsewhere, on the question of abolishing our present police organization, and returning to the former system of town constables, who acted only when called upon. One writer strongly urges doing this, and says that when a crime is committed, a town constable can execute a warrant as well as a regular police officer. This may be all true; yet it looks to me as though it were better to prevent the commission of crime by summary arrest, than to allow a scamp to work out his own sweet will in the first place, and then have a day's work to bring him to punishment—if he did not run away while the aggrieved party was finding out his name and location, procuring his warrant and hunting up a constable to execute it. A large proportion of the arrests made by any city police, are of offenders taken in the act, and are made without warrants.

But the end and aim of the law is not the mere punishment of crime—it is to protect society by preventing crime—not by taking revenge on the criminal after the harm is done. Granting that a town constable might bring to justice a gang of rowdies who should maltreat and disfigure a peaceable citizen; still it would be far more agreeable to the citizen to be protected from their violence, at the time of its occurrence—and the ends of the law be much better secured. It would be but a poor satisfaction to a robbed or wounded man, to tell him that he had but to put a warrant into the hands of a constable, to have the robber or rowdy arrested. For my part, if I was being smashed by anybody, I would much rather see a policeman hit him just one good crack over the head with his bludgeon, than to feel assured that he would be hung next day, after I was maimed or murdered.

The writer whom I oppose says, "the enforcement of criminal laws should be moved in the first instance by the parties aggrieved, or by the spontaneous action of good citizens, which, in the case of all laws that do not violate public opinion and the principles of justice, is speedy, certain and sufficient." This is simply saying that crime and criminals should have the great advantage of the "first blow," over the law and its observers—that crime should be punished only, not prevented. As to "the spontaneous action of good citizens" being sufficient to enforce all laws that do not violate public opinion and the principles of justice, I would remark that if this assertion is correct, it proves that what the Chronicle said awhile ago, and about which a terrible rumpus was raised, was correct also,—that public opinion here favored the grog-shops and houses of ill-fame; for the rum-holes and brothels were never broken up in Portsmouth—not even in the good old days of "spontaneous action" and town constables. And this theory, also, gives crime every advantage over honesty and virtue. The criminal has seldom more to lose than his worthless liberty or life; and if annoyed by any honest man's endeavors to bring him to justice, the torch or the slung-shot will avenge him, and warn peace-loving men and men of property to mind their own affairs. The experiment of private parties enforcing criminal laws has often been tried—never with continued success. The South Berwickers tried it once, and their Academy went up in smoke; somewhere in Maine, not much over a year ago, a Baptist Society undertook the job, and their church followed the Academy; a Coos man had a hog-thief punished, and found his three horses ham-strung the day after his release; I knew a man in Massachusetts, a church warden, who complained of some rowdies who disturbed the service on Sunday, and whose barn was burned down as payment; and I know a farmer, living within five miles of this city, who had $50 worth of poultry destroyed, just after incurring the displeasure of one of the "dangerous class." Such instances might be multiplied indefinitely.

The writer asserts that twenty or more years ago, "no large town in New England was more orderly than Portsmouth." Perhaps so—but that is no compliment to the other towns. I lived in Portsmouth twenty years ago, myself; and I know that the advent of a circus or caravan, the day for "general muster," or any other occurrence or occasion that collected a crowd, was a source of anxiety and positive terror to peaceable citizens. I have seen men fight on Market Square in broad day till they were completely exhausted, and streets made impassible for hours by brawling crowds. I have seen a day of violence and drunkenness at the Plains, on a "training day," end in the wholesale robbery and destruction by the mob of all the carts and booths on the ground; and the inefficient town constables were not only wholly incompetent to stay the riot, but were unable to protect peaceable citizens or to arrest a single one of the offenders. And I have no doubt that I have seen fifty fights in a single election day, and men knocked down, kicked and jumped upon, without a single arrest being made, so far as I know.

Such scenes did not take place every day; but they did occur, almost invariably, on every holiday. I have not yet quite forgotten the supreme contempt with which I regarded the town constables when I was a boy,—all of them except "Capt. Bob" Shillabor—I was afraid of him, having seen him arrest a man once, for fighting. Others may wish to go back to them again, but I am too fond of quiet to be their disciple.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.—A gentleman residing in the lower part of Illinois, is frequently assisted to his home by friends who meet him abroad in a state of bewilderment arising from that singular optical delusion known as "seeing double," usually accompanied by weakness and irresolution of the knee joints. It is his misfortune to have a neighbor so much resembling him in the peculiarities alluded to, as well as in personal appearance, that his friends took the wrong man to his house the other night. When the doorbell rang, he chanced to be in the entry, trying vainly, with a lamp in his hand, to ascertain what made his front stairs so very spiral that he couldn't follow their windings without getting dizzy! He was very tired, and couldn't get to bed, his stairs acted so. So he gave it up, and answered the bell in person. His double was immediately helped in by his kind friends, who turned away as this neighborly office was performed, without looking up to see who had answered the bell. But they had not gone far before they heard their friend calling to them, and looking back they saw him on his doorstep, frantically gesticulating with his lamp, and shouting:

"Here, you, (hic) you have made a (hic) a most darned (hic) mistake! This isn't me!"

WILD DOGS, we are told, never bark; they only howl. There are numerous troops of wild dogs in South America. Two of these that were carried to England could never bark, but continued to utter their habitual howl. But a younger one of the same species learned to bark. Many years ago, dogs were left by the Spaniards in the Island of Juan Fernandez, for the purpose of exterminating the goats. In a few years all barking had ceased among them. It has been suggested that barking originated in an attempt to imitate the human voice.—Oliver Optic's Magazine.

—What is the chief end of man? and what of woman—that which wears the chignon, the panier, or the gold-beaded, buckle slips? as the boy said when his mother spanked him, "Let all the ends thou aim'st at, be thy country's, thy God's, and truth's."

—Mr. Agassiz says that every great scientific truth goes through three stages. First, people say it conflicts with the bible; next, they say it had been discovered before; lastly, they say they always believed it.

MEDICAL MADNESS.
LET US HOPE THAT the insane practice of administering poisonous evacuants in cases of indigestion, biliousness, constipation, and female debility, is always out of date. Wm. Ball's Tonic-Cathartic produced by Nature herself in the most valuable Sanitary Spring in the world is reproduced by science, in the form of Tarrant's Seltzer Aperient, it is indeed a blessing to madness to rack, relax and irritate the diseased or enfeebled system with drastic purgatives. This refreshing and delicious counterpart of a remedy prepared by the creative hand of the Omnipotent Physician Himself, is everywhere superseding the nauseous and sickening compounds heretofore used as laxatives. 1yew

MY FRIEND.

BY MARTHA REMICK.

She is not fair, I pause to think
What charm around her lies;
Hers are not locks of golden brown,
Or lustrous blue her eyes;
I have seen fairer features cast
In beauty's graceful mold,
What is her charm? How shall I find
The spell so strong to hold?

Upon her lips the spotless truth
Dwells ever—this I say,
She never deigns to tread the paths
Where many go astray;
From her clear eyes her soul looks out,
Faithful, and strong, and true,
One may be proud to be her friend
Whose chosen friends are few.

She never stoops to hear the tale
Which envy's lips will frame,
For others' fortunes she has smiles,
For failing's little blame,—
Ah! now I find the hidden spell
Which makes her face so fair,
Her heart is noble, brave, and true,
Such gifts the angels wear.

She is not fair, as poets tell,
Blue eyes and golden hair,
She walks the journey of her life
With courage, and grief, and care;
But beauty from the soul within,
Shines on her noble brow,
In age how lovely she will be!
Whose youth is passing now.

Communication.

LEARNING LANGUAGES.—Your old correspondent vails himself under a pseudonym this once, because it suits his purpose to speak a little boastingly. In 1825 he commenced teaching Latin, rather prematurely, in an Academy about a dozen miles from Portsmouth. A little later he commenced teaching himself French by the aid of Dufeil's "Nature Displayed." The study was then so uncommon that for a year or two he could find no incidental help from any who knew more of it. In 1835 he commenced Spanish because it was easy; in 1837, Hebrew because he must; in 1838, German and Italian because he could have instruction. Ancient Greek he began earlier; Modern Greek he picked up, anyhow he found no need of studying Portuguese; and in Arabic he has found his way as he found time.

He found Theodore Dwight teaching Greek and Scixas, Hebrew on principles exactly similar to those of Dufief: that of repetition of a few sentences till you have the mastery over them. He knows the principle is correct and understands how the child turned loose in the street picks up a language in a quarter of the time it takes the professor in his study with a big grammar.

Now what he wishes to say is, that Prendergast has reduced this scheme to a system, and named his books The Mastery Series. They are Hand book, French, German and Spanish. They are from 92 to 116 pp., 12 mo., with plexible covers. A master is required and a good share of his time, but he need not be an educated man. My confidence in the Series is such that I would venture myself in any city in Europe except in the Turkish and Austrian empires, after a week's study on this plan with no fear that I should be seriously incommoded for want of knowledge of the language. The Appletons publish the books, and I count them invaluable. EVERETT.

CULTIVATE CONVERSATION.—A good talker is rarely found, simply because children are not trained to know when to talk and when to be silent. There are many who chatter from morning until night; such persons are to be avoided. Think before you speak, and let the law of kindness influence all your words. Never hurt the feelings of your companions for the sake of being witty. If you disregard the feelings of your playmates, you may be called entertaining, but you will never have any true friends.—Oliver Optic's Mag.

—According to history, the athlete did not originally eat meat. Fresh cheese, wheat, and dried figs were their principal diet; but, after a time, a famous trainer used meat with such success as to cause it to be generally adopted.

—A newly-discovered Chinese poem, Li Sao, written 300 years before Christ, is said to prove that the existence of America was known to the Chinese at that time.

—There are 100,000 beer-drinkers in Cincinnati, according to good German authority.

—Punchinello says the West Pointers must be ill-bred puppies, to make a set at a blackbird.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,
FOR ALL PURPOSES of a LAXATIVE MEDICINE,
Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PILL. The obvious reason is that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.
Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these PILLS rapidly cure:—
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore to it healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhea, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. dawje16codsm

WAR TALK.—A dispatch received in London, Saturday, from Paris, says that "the Prussians were repulsed at Corling, and a reconnoisance on Prussian soil made by the French troops."

Reports from Coblentz say that a Prussian force from Sarolais crossed the French border on Saturday to make a reconnoisance in the direction of St. Avold and Metz. After proceeding some distance, they had a brisk skirmish with a force of French chasseurs. The Prussians retired, leaving two men on the field. It is believed that the French lost ten or twelve killed.

It is confidently stated that the Prussians are strengthening Coblentz only with the intention of making it a base of operations, and they intend to throw a force down the line of the Saar and carry an offensive war into France.

Friday afternoon a Prussian force on the basin side of the river blew up the eastern end of the bridge connecting Kehl and Strasburg.

The correspondent of the Independence Belge, writing from Metz, says that the whole country swarms with Prussian spies. Prussia seems to be eager to pay for all information touching the movements of the French. France, however, not through pride, but from a wish to maintain the frank character of the war, in harmony with its object, declines to avail herself of any such instrumentality.

A ministerial decree published in Paris forbids the publication in any way of any account of the movements of the French army or navy.

Popular demonstrations have been made in Bavaria against the war.

The Czar addressed a note to the French government. He regrets the precipitate measures taken on both sides, but while regretting the calamity of war, will remain neutral so long as the interests of Russia do not suffer.

Colonel Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte sailed for France from New York, Saturday. He is enthusiastic in regard to the war, and immediately upon his arrival in Paris will join his regiment at the front.

The office of the Prussian consul at New York is beseiged by Americans who want to serve the Prussian cause as commissioned officers of high rank.

The French and Prussian Ministers at Washington both look for a battle before another week rolls around.

In consequence of the attitude of Austria towards Bavaria and the renewed rumors of the warlike attitude of Russia, England has resolved to make preparations for putting her army on a war footing. The channel squadron has received orders to get ready to proceed to sea. Its destination is to unite with the Mediterranean squadron at Gibralter to form a flying squadron under command of Admiral Hornly, who has been telegraphed at Valparaiso to return to England immediately.

Baron Von Beust, the Austrian Prime Minister, has issued a circular to the Austrian ministers abroad. He says Austria will preserve the attitude of entire neutrality, resisting every overture to participate.

A proclamation announcing the strict neutrality of Italy, in the pending war, was issued Saturday at Florence. Large demonstrations have been made in Milan, Padua and Genoa, in favor of Prussia.

The French government insists on adhering to the policy previously announced of treating neutral shipping the same as in 1864, no regard being paid to the Paris convention.

There is a report that Prussia was surprised by the declaration of war, and another report that she surprised France by being all ready for it.

The London Times says that the marvellous rapidity of the Prussian concentration upon the Rhine has defeated Napoleon's plan, which contemplated hurling the corps from Chalons into Central Germany, thus dividing South Prussia through the centre. Prussia has now a powerful army between Mayence and Cologne on the Rhine.

The Emperor of the French has issued a proclamation to his people, the chief characteristic of which is the lack of decent excuse for waging war. The Queen of Prussia has issued an address to the people of South Germany.

The Rhine is still open to public travel. The Prussian headquarters are now at Kreugenach, eight miles south of Bingen, on the river Nahe.

Denmark has decided on war. She will wait until the French fleet enters the Baltic. Hungary is also for France.

La Liberte says that the government is in receipt of important news from Copenhagen relative to the neutrality of Denmark. This is contrary to recent reports on the subject. Couriers have been sent to Denmark to advise the Cabinet to take no steps until the arrival in those waters of a French fleet.

An intrigue between Hesse and France is suspected.

Great demonstrations were made in Dublin, Saturday night, in favor of the French. A meeting of five thousand persons was addressed by prominent Fenians.

Prussia is threatening Denmark.

Guns are being placed upon the fortifications of Paris.

Some Prussian troops passing through the Black forest towards Basle had several detachments stopped by the Swiss, who have a corps of observation, numbering 25,000.

At McMahon's headquarters, in Strasbourg, a strong French force is massing to prevent surprises through the defiles of Vosges. Troops are pouring into Strasbourg from Besancon. Everything indicates that the first great blow will be struck in that vicinity.

A fleet of French gunboats is at Strasbourg. A great force has been set there by the railways. A French frigate has been despatched to the Scotch coast to collect seamen from the fisheries.

The Toulon fleet sailed Monday to reinforce that of Cherbourg.

The gradual evacuation of Rome has been decided upon.

Wednesday next will be observed as a day of fasting and prayer in Germany.

Gleaned and Ground.

The Mutuals defeated the White Stockings, Saturday, 9 to 0.

The Harvard Base Ball Club met the Unions of East St. Louis, Saturday afternoon, and at the close of the second inning the score stood—Harvards, 14; Unions, 0.

The English House of Commons has passed the education bill, 179 to 50.

Archbishop Kenrick of St. Louis has published in Rome a caustic pamphlet, entitled "What has passed in the Council."

Two men were killed in Boston, Monday, by the falling of a grain elevator.

The American Bank Note Company's office in New York was burned Sunday. Loss $25,000.

The last of the prelates who have been at the Ecumenical Council are leaving Rome. It is said of them: "They came as shepherds and leave as sheep well shorn."

The republican executive committee of North Carolina deny the recent reports of the operations of the State militia, and says that Governor Holden is developing the whole Ku-Klux organization. He has already obtained information concerning the murderers of J. W. Stevens. Wyatt and other assassins, who are flying the counties under martial law, are implicated in the recent wholesale murders.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Blood in Summer.

The blood deteriorates in hot weather. Profuse perspiration deprives it of a portion of its nourishing and reproductive properties. Consequently, in Summer, the flesh loses in some degree its firmness, the muscles lack their usual elasticity and vigor, and the weight of the body diminishes. These are clear indications that the ordinary supply of the life-sustaining principle afforded by the food we eat, is not sufficient to meet the requirements of the system under a high temperature. There is another reason for this, besides the direct influence of the heat, viz: the loss of appetite and the weakening of the digestive powers which it occasions.

Under these circumstances a wholesome invigorant is evidently needed, and the best and safest is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This admirable vegetable tonic and alterative, acts favorably upon the system in several ways. It increases the appetite and facilitates digestion, thereby enabling the stomach to receive and assimilate a due amount of nourishment. It also tones the relaxed secretive organs and the bowels. Under its operation the process of emaciation, occasioned by the drain through the pores is arrested, the whole frame refreshed and invigorated, and the spirits exhilarated. The dyspeptic, the bilious, the nervous, the debilitated, scarcely need to be told that it is precisely the stimulant and corrective they ought to take at this season. Thousands of them know the fact by experience. Nothing in the pharmacopeia (or out of it) will supply its place—least of all the trashy local nostrums which some unscrupulous dealers would be glad, for the benefit of their own pockets, to peddle out in its stead.

CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

What the Doctors Say:

AMOS WOOLLEY, M. D., of Kosciusko County, Indiana, says: "For three years past I have used ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM extensively, in my practice, and I am satisfied there is no better medicine for lung disease in use."

ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D., of Logan County, Ohio, says: "ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM not only sells rapidly but gives perfect satisfaction in every case within my knowledge. Having confidence in it and knowing that it possesses valuable medicinal properties, I freely use it in my daily practice and with unbounded success. As an expectorant it is most certainly far ahead of any preparation I have ever yet known."

NATHANIEL HARRIS, M. D., of Middlebury, Vermont, says; I have no doubt it will soon become a classical remedial agent for the cure of all diseases of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and the Lungs.

Physicians do not recommend a medicine which has no merits, what they say about

ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM,

Can be taken as a tact. Let all afflicted test it at once. Sold by all Medicine Dealers.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Their great value consists in this: They may be used so long as any disease affects any of the body; and by thus persevering in their use the disease will be cured, and the body restored to health, free from every taint and impurity. Their reputation proves their merit.

Thomas Smith, Coroner and Justice of the Peace, Hastings-on-the-Hudson, says BRANDRETH'S PILLS cured him of Dyspepsia and Heartburn, when every other medicine had failed to relieve him. Certificate dated April 2, 1868.

Dr. Turner, of Savannah, Ga., says he has, for nearly forty years, recommended BRANDRETH'S PILLS as a specific in Yellow Fever; that he never knew a patient to die who took them for this malady, being otherwise sound. Their prompt use takes out of the body those matters which feed the fatality of the disease. As a general family medicine he considers them far in advance of all others, and here he speaks from personal experience of their qualities. mh12
